

Widow 241

Chapter 241

Harold walked out of the main entrance of the villa. Luke was already waiting outside. Master White was ten minutes later than the appointed time. Luke knew who delayed him.

He smiled, opened the car door for Harold, and then got into the driver's seat.

Harold leaned against the window and looked out of the window at the night sky. He asked lightly, "Did Mark run to the old lady's place and cry?"

"Otherwise, the old lady wouldn't have asked you to go back to the old house in such a hurry." Luke said, "I thought you wouldn't agree, so I was ready to refuse.

Harold propped up his chin with one hand and said, "I happen to have something to tell her. Why wouldn't I agree?"

He suddenly remembered something. "That letter you mentioned last time..."

Luke continued, "I only found that it was sent out from Sunshine Village. I haven't found any other clues. The person who can hide so well in Fairby must have a powerful background."
