

Widow 254

Chapter 254

Leroy clicked his tongue and said, "My mom didn't like her family background at all, and she took the initiative to find my brother. I don't think it's appropriate for me to judge her, but it's indeed annoying."

"I remember that she used to study design. She was quite famous back then. What's her name again..." Mason thought for a moment and said, "She seems to be called... Anaya Paisley, right?"

Crystal was stunned and suddenly raised her head.

"Yes." Leroy said, "That's her name. My brother took her to see me before. She is very beautiful and has a gentle personality, but we can't judge a book by its cover."

Crystal frowned.

Anaya... Was she the Anaya she knew?

be a college

workplace? Her boss was a good person and didn't fire her after that, but her boyfriend... Well, he's been idle at home and doesn't do anything since he graduated from college. His whole family was supported by her alone. She must stared at the wall in a daze. Antony slapped her on the head. "What are about the matter related to Leroy's beside Crystal and said, "But Anaya... is really not very good. If she was not that materialistic at that time, then she would definitely be felt that Anaya was

these men of aristocratic families to go to the shooting range to have fun. After all, they came from the military school. They would feel uncomfortable if raise her hand to indicate that she was not going, but she was suppressed by Antony. "You have Crystal was speechless.

I'm just a

off to her. "Crystal, it's not that I'm

"Don't listen to him. He even failed because I fought with my teacher. He took revenge on