

Widow 256

Chapter 256

Crystal was stunned. She turned around and saw the bony hand on her wrist. She then slowly raised her head and looked at Corey's expressionless face. "...What are you doing?"

Corey raised the corner of his lips. "Have you ever touched a gun before coming to the shooting range?"

"I haven't touched it." Crystal honestly said, "Is it against the law?"

Corey was speechless.

The group of people behind Corey were so frightened that they shrank back.

Today, Eric's sweetheart was unhappy again. She made a fuss at home and insisted that Corey should go back and see her. For some reason, she mentioned Corey's birth mother. This was simply Corey's taboo. He had lost control of himself and almost strangled his stepmother to death. He was beaten by Eric with a cane, causing the entire Coombs family to be in chaos.

That was why Corey was in a particularly bad mood today.

They all thought that Corey was going to lose his temper, but he just smiled and said, "It's not illegal. Go ahead."

"..." Crystal took back her hand and followed the waiter to change her clothes.

the others were already playing. Crystal was forced to watch the scene of a group of men showing off, but she had to get started, he was provoked by Mason and Leroy. They insisted to compete with each other to find out who the winner would be. Crystal sat cross-legged on the ground and was not interested in this thing. Compared to her, "Come here. I'll teach win soon.

with each other... Wait, is Freud going to win? F*ck, I can't let him win, or he will show off for half a year..." Antony joined the match as he assembled his gun.

her head and

you come here to play make-believe?"

eyelids and said, "I think we

and said,

said, "Then why are you looking

a cold smile. "I'm here

I'll be

was at a clicked his tongue. "You've become pulled the heavy gun in her hand and said, "You were the one who laughed at