

Widow 266

Chapter 266

Crystal replied with an “oh” and said, “Then I’ll give Master White a call...”

“Harold is very busy. Why do you have to call him?” Kimberly pulled Crystal over. “Get in the car first. Old Madam can’t wait any longer!”

Crystal informed the receptionist in a hurry and was pulled away by Kimberly. A black car was waiting outside. Kimberly almost stuffed Crystal into the car. Crystal felt that something was wrong, but Kimberly had already closed the car door immediately.

Kimberly sneered and made a gesture. “Do it!”

Before Crystal could react, she felt someone covering her mouth with a cloth. In an instant, she lost consciousness.

The man in the back seat looked at Crystal who had fainted and said, “Second Madam, she has fainted.”

Kimberly glanced at Crystal and said, “Tie her up and stuff her mouth so that she won’t be annoying when she wakes up.”

“Yes!”

city and went suburbs, Mark paced back and forth anxiously. When he finally heard the sound of the car, his eyes lit up and he hurried to car stopped and Kimberly got out. Mark asked in a hurry, “How is it?”

How difficult can it be to tie her hand, someone carried the unconscious Crystal out of the car. Mark was immediately excited.

“Good... good! As long as I catch this a heartless monster since person’s reminder, he felt that his interpretation was not wrong. He said, “When have you seen a woman by Harold’s side? Although this girl was arranged to get married to him by Old Madam, he has his hand and said, “Hang her up that he was almost abnormal. His eyes were bloodshot, and he pinched his palm tightly. “I don’t only want power... I want Harold to kneel in front of me and beg for mercy... I want him frowned and asked worriedly,

“Yes!”