

Widow 282

Chapter 282

About ten minutes later, Bonnie entered the villa.

She only brought Kimberly along and dressed plainly. She looked a few years older than she used to be in the White family's old manor. It was unknown if she was worried about her son or grandson. Kimberly's eyes turned red the moment she saw Crystal. It was obvious that she wanted to tear Crystal apart. However, when she saw the snow tiger lying lazily beside Crystal's feet, her entire body stiffened. She could not even speak properly. "Ti... tiger!?"

Crystal explained, "CoCo has just had her fill. She won't eat anyone after she's full."

Kimberly was shocked.

Did she mean that if the tiger was not full, it would eat people?!

In spite of what Crystal had said, who would not panic when they saw such a big tiger? Even Bonnie was very afraid of it. She said, "Crystal, drive it away."

"Why should I drive it away?" Crystal was puzzled. "I told you, it doesn't eat people."

said, "Is

moment before saying,

asked, "Beg?! Me begging

I thought you were here to plead for Mark and Bonnie was speechless.

thought you were a docile rabbit, but I didn't expect that friendly. Kimberly was so scared that she poured tea into the cup

a seat that was the furthest away from Devil. Kimberly didn't dare to sit at all. She stood right next to Bonnie, afraid that Devil would suddenly state your condition?" Bonnie said, "As long as it's not too outrageous, I can

was at a loss. "What benefits from me? You encouraged Harold to