

Widow 318

Chapter 318

Not to mention Alda, even Corey couldn't stand it anymore. He looked at Crystal and said, "...Why did you tell her about these things?"

Crystal said, "That's right, that's too rude. I shouldn't have said that in front of the elders. I am wrong."

Alda used her self-restraint to squeeze out a smile. "It's okay, it's good to listen to your story."

After the meal, only Crystal was the happiest, because she found that the cook of Corey's house was really good at cooking. The others had their own worries and did not have the mood to taste the delicious food of this meal.

After dinner, Crystal was about to leave. Unexpectedly, Alda said, "CoCo, can you accompany me to the garden? Now that I'm pregnant, the doctor asked me to do more exercise."

Eric was obviously very nervous about Alda. He quickly said, "I'll go with you."

"I don't want you." Alda said, "You can stay here and talk to Corey. Don't go against each other. You should have a good talk."

She looked at Crystal gently and asked, "Is that okay, CoCo?"

"You won't reject a pregnant

Crystal, "..."

and Alda had been in the upper circle for many years, so she knew at a flower tree, Alda suddenly asked, "CoCo, did Corey mention that he's planning to marry

"I care about him. It's enough for us to be together. I don't care if we married or not."

Alda was speechless.

to get married to Corey, a

a gloomy face,

Yes,

of the female lead meeting her mother-in-law in just too enviable... Alda felt that there was something wrong with her tone. She quickly turned her head, only to see Alda give a strange smile. She then grabbed Crystal's hand and shouted, "CoCo!