

Widow 320

Chapter 320

"Forget it?" Eric immediately said, "We can't just let it go like this! If she wants my son's life, she should pay the price! No one can stop me!"

Alda frowned and said, "CoCo... Although you pushed me, nothing happened to me. I can forgive you, but he doesn't listen to my advice... Why don't we do it this way?"

She said softly, "Apologize to me and then leave Fairby. I don't think Eric will make things difficult for you."

Crystal, "?"

"You know very well how you fell." Crystal said, "You also know clearly whether I should apologize to you or not. As for leaving Fairby... why should I leave?"

"She's so stubborn!" Eric flew into a rage. "She doesn't seem to regret it at all. Alda, this kind of person isn't worthy of sympathy!"

Alda sighed and said, "She was just confused for a moment. It's not a big deal. Don't be angry... She turned to look at Corey and said, "She's someone Corey likes after all."

was fine if she didn't say it, but it was as if she had reminded Eric after saying it. He said to Corey, "You have to break up with this woman! I can't tolerate my daughter-in-law trying to harm her mother-in-law! Such a person doesn't deserve to enter the Coombs family."

Although Corey didn't see the whole thing with his own eyes, he knew what kind of person Crystal was and what kind of person Alda was.

It hadn't been a long time since Alda had taken advantage of the child in her belly to do evil things. "Do you think that everyone wants to be a part of the Coombs family?" Corey snorted and said, "Who cares if you can tolerate it or not? Does it have anything to do with me? I've already tolerated you enough. Don't push your luck."

Seeing that the father and son were about to argue again, Alda tugged Corey and said, "Corey, don't argue with your father. We... Ah!"

Before she could finish her words, she was pushed away by Corey. Considering that she was pregnant, Corey didn't use too much strength. He just avoided Alda from touching him. "As I said, I won't fall for your trick. Don't put on airs as an elder."

Alda was about to cry. "Corey, I just... just don't want your relationship with your father to get worse. What did I do wrong to make you hate me so much... Was it actually your idea that CoCo pushed me today?"

had felt that something was wrong before. Alda's attitude towards Corey was very strange. She should have been very confident since she married Eric and was pregnant with Eric's child. After all, from Eric's partial attitude, it seemed that he only treated the child in her belly as his own. According to common sense, if Alda wanted to gain a good reputation and did not allow others to accuse her of not being a
