

Widow 339

Chapter 339

Crystal used a fork to cut a piece of meat. "Let's eat meat, shall we? We..." Before she could finish her words, she heard a sharp voice saying, "Anaya!!"

Hearing this voice, Crystal had goosebumps all over her body. She quickly turned her head to look at who had such a sharp voice. She saw a woman in a luxury dress and carrying a luxury bag walking over in a huff. She looked like she was here to catch someone cheating, attracting the attention of the entire restaurant.

However, the woman didn't care. She stopped in front of Anaya and looked terrible. "What do you mean by this? If you don't want to borrow me money, just say it. Do you need to humiliate me with a bank card of only a few dollars?"

She had been careless. Previously, Anaya had been very straightforward when she gave her the money. So after she got the card, she didn't transfer the money immediately. Today, when she was shopping with her friends, she wanted to check the balance. However, no matter how hard she looked at the balance on the card, it was only 75 dollars, which made her think that there was something wrong with the machine. Later, she realized that she had been fooled by Anaya! Anaya saw the bank card that Sarita had slapped on the table in front of her. She was startled and then said, "I took the wrong one."

This card was given to her by Alan many years ago. There were only 75 dollars in it. At that time, Alan said that when he worked in the future, he would slowly transfer money to this card, and then buy a car and a house for her.

Six years had passed, and Anaya had never touched this card, but she kept it in her purse. She must have been a little dizzy that day, so she took the wrong card.

took the wrong one?" Sarita sneered. "Do you know how embarrassed I was in front of said in front of her friends that the card was a gift card from her husband for her to buy clothes. However, there were only 75 dollars in the card. How could she go out in Anaya reached out to get the card. "I will give you the card with Sarita picked up the card and snapped it in half in front of Anaya. She threw the card. onto the ground and crossed her arm. "Anyway, there's not much money inside. I don't manage to react. When she realized what had happened, her eyes immediately turned red. She did not know where her strength had come from. She pushed Sarita forcefully, squatted like this by Anaya before. She instantly flew into a rage and without thinking, she slapped Anaya in the face. "You are shameless, aren't you?

card tightly, tears welling up in already... the only thing Alan had left in the end,

was shocked. He