

Widow 345

Chapter 345

"It's okay." Anaya patted Crystal's hand and smiled. "I've been able to go through this for so many years."

After she finished speaking, she and Sarita helped Jared sit in the wheelchair and pushed him out.

you Sarita suddenly turned around and pointed at Crystal. "Wait and see. I'll settle accounts with later!"

Crystal gave her a grimace, and Sarita was so angry that she wanted to give her a slap. If Jared was not ill, she would definitely teach this little b*tch a lesson!

After they left, the restaurant became quiet again. Crystal sat back in her chair and asked, "Where's my ice cream?"

Harold asked the waiter to serve another set of ice cream. Crystal's face was solemn.
"I don't understand."

"I don't understand either," Harold said.
