

Widow 346

Chapter 346

Harold felt that he shouldn't have said these things to Crystal. He was going to die of anger. "Aren't we talking about Anaya!" Crystal returned to the topic and said, "I'm really worried about her. If she doesn't come to work tomorrow, can I call the police? No... I'll call her now. If she doesn't answer, I'll call the police!"

Harold was speechless.

"She's an adult. She knows what she's doing and knows to seek help when she's in danger," Harold said. "And she's a few years older than you. She's much smarter than you."

Crystal was not convinced by his words. "I think I'm very smart. I scored 7804 in the college entrance examination. You haven't taken the college entrance examination yet, so you don't have the right to criticize me." 1

Harold said, "If I had known that I would meet you, I would have gone to the college entrance examination even at the cost of Larry's life."

Something came to Crystal's mind, and she suddenly smiled brightly.

"What are you laughing at?"

said, "I just

"If I had known that I would meet days of hiding and crying will all be hopeful then." Crystal looked at Harold. "Because I knew that I would meet you when I was nineteen years

Harold was stunned.

you feel wronged?" Harold should I feel

"You know that you would meet me when you were nineteen, but you would have to endure the

Crystal said, "No."

If they can touch it, of at her clean eyes, and said, "In fact, sometimes, you are very me in the deepest

Turner learned about what had happened from Sarita and immediately burst into an uproar. She grabbed Anaya's hair and said, "Tell me clearly, what happened in the cabinet. His first diagnosis record was on March 16 six years moment and looked at Sarita.