

Widow 352

Chapter 352

Leroy was speechless. "Why would they run away?"

Crystal said, "They don't think they can hear it for free."

Leroy sniffed and said, "That's true... Forget it. I don't want to sing anymore. I'd rather tear down ten temples than ruin a marriage."

Crystal felt that he was quite reasonable and said, "Let's go back and wash up then. Otherwise, when the girls see you like this, they will dislike you even more."

Leroy nodded. After taking two steps, he turned back to look at Crystal. "... Where is my home?"

Crystal was speechless.

How would she know?

Crystal looked at them. "Are you sending him back?"

The group of people all shook their heads, indicating that they didn't want to see Leroy's mother. Mason said, "I've contacted his brother. He should be here soon. But Crystal, you're amazing."

said, "You dare to say such a

said, "I was forced to do

Freud waved his hand and to Leroy's, but Leroy looked more arrogant. Alan, on the other hand, looked you." Alan looked at his brother, who was drunk, and sighed. "This man is so drunk that even one after another,

He grabbed his arm and asked, "Are you going to

Alan asked, "If not?"

back. Mom will definitely scold me when I get on the street then," Alan around and waved to Crystal. "Sister, I'm leaving. By the brother's mouth to prevent him from embarrassing himself. He smiled at Crystal and said, "Sorry, he speechless. Actually... She also patted his chest and said, "If I hear him howl a few has a way." Mason said to Crystal, "This is he still knows that she can't

