

Widow 353

Chapter 353

Crystal had never seen someone who was good at scolding himself as Antony.

She crawled out from under Antony's arm and said, "Someone's here to pick me up. Do you want to continue playing?"

Antony was stunned for a moment. "Who?"

Crystal said, "The driver."

Only then did he remember that her younger sister was someone else's fiancée. He said, "I'll see you off then."

"No need." Crystal said, "I can go out by myself. You can continue to play."

After that, she waved her hand and got into the crowd.

to such a place. She squeezed out of the crowd and finally reached the exit. When she was about to open the door, girl wearing heavy makeup. She bent down and picked up the

"Thank

and smiled. "You don't look like someone who would appear here to girl nodded.

"Yes."

go out. There are a lot of bad people outside the bar at this time. Maybe they'll put you in a sack girl put on the earrings and turned

It took

few seconds, she felt a strong hand grabbing her. Crystal was so scared that she jumped three feet high.

"Oh, my husband is outside.

don't want to put you in a sack for the time being." Crystal slowly opened one of her eyes, but it was so dark that close to the place where his heart was