

Widow 381

Chapter 381

There were workers who began to set up the performance venue. A lot of people had gathered together, ready to grab a good seat in front.

The cast and crew were preparing backstage. Some of them were rehearsing, and some were chatting. It was a lively scene.

Suddenly, someone lifted the curtain and came in. A staff member quickly said, "I'm sorry, but outsiders are not allowed here. Please..."

Before he could finish his words, he automatically froze when he saw the man's cold face.

Harold looked at the group of people dressed in strange clothes and said, "Are Kelsey, Idelle, and Joe here?"

"Sir." The staff member asked, "What can I do for you?"

"Are you the person in charge here?"

"I guess so..." said the staff member.

the three of

came to the rehearsal early. especially Kelsey, who is responsible for lighting the fireworks at the end of the show...

front of him. His voice was was stunned and said subconsciously, at it and then walked towards the hare. Before the other party could react, het took off the

his

a mouse costume sneaked to the exit, paused and then ran away, but Harold was faster than him. He kicked the man over. The man was wearing a costume, and it was very heavy. He couldn't turn over for a moment, and the backstage was in chaos. "Why did took off the man's

man. Someone screamed, "This is not Joe! Who is this?"

I haven't seen him

to do and performed by a newcomer? Besides, I even greeted charge was also confused. "Who are you? Where's

