

Widow 408

Chapter 408

Marcus personally sent Crystal back to the White Group. Crystal promised him downstairs, "I won't tell Harold about my injury. Don't worry."

"..." For a moment, Marcus did not know whether she was really stupid or she just faked it. "If you complain to him, maybe he will avenge you."

Crystal touched her nose and said, "I told you I won't show up in front of you in the future."

Marcus froze.

Crystal stretched out her hand and waved it. "I'm going up. Goodbye."

After that, she went into the elevator.

The elevator door slowly closed, blocking Marcus's line of sight.

He stretched out his hand to cover his eyes, and then cursed, which was not in line with his identity. His phone suddenly rang nonstop. Marcus picked up the phone with a cold expression on his face. On the other side of the phone was Antony's frivolous voice. "Hello? Brother, where are you now? Have you had lunch yet?"

"And you

"I'm just concerned about

anything to say, that his brother was particularly cold today, and he didn't even want to pretend. He said,

Marcus, "No."

promise I'll give it back to you in a good condition. Besides, I haven't provoked you Ferrari not long ago." Marcus said lightly, "He should have taken would I still be looking for you..." Antony cried, "Please, Second Brother! I've been so

Been so obedient...

not him

in

of my business," Marcus said, "Get up and was stunned. "F*ck, Marcus actually said dirty words... What's wrong with the sofa. Harold was not there at the moment, and Larry was eating Crystal's melon seeds. He thought that Crystal would find trouble with him again after she came in. As a result, the little girl sat on melon seeds and leaned over. "What's wrong with

