

Widow 428

Chapter 428

Flora realized something and said, "What do you mean?"

Christy said coldly, "Didn't everyone say back then that Anaya was materialistic and she deserved what she got!? She's actually a loyal lover that she's willing to bear all the scoldings in order to protect Young Master Shamus!"

"...What?!"

Jared was so shocked that he stood up from the wheelchair and shouted angrily, "Christy! You promised me that you wouldn't say it!"

"The premise is that Anaya has to be obedient!" Christy said angrily, "But today, she turned against me and ruined my future. What else can't I say?"

Jared looked more flustered than Anaya. He said, "Calm down first! Let's discuss this nicely. Don't be impulsive..."

not afraid. What are you afraid to help Crystal, she had already prepared herself for Christy to

was not so

his dry lips, pulled Anaya, and said, "Let's go shook off his hand and asked, "What are you trying

"Anaya, I..."

up! Let Christy say it!" Christy sneered. "Back then, there was a sad story that Anaya dumped Master Shamus, claiming that didn't want to let Anaya go as well. She said loudly, "There was a fire in the laboratory. After that, Jared admitted that the fire was caused due to improper operation, and his leg was burned. Later, her lips. Jared wished he could go over

shocked. "What do

made a mistake in the lab, which caused a fire. At that time, he almost died in the fire, and it was Jared who carried him out. Because