

Widow 431

Chapter 431

Anaya finally caught her breath. Her face was pale, and she slowly pushed Alan away. She forced a smile and said, "Don't worry. Even if the incident of the fire is really as Jared said, I don't need you to repay me. This is my own choice, and I don't regret it... What's more, the fire has nothing to do with you. Al... Young Master Shamus, today is your big day, and the bride is still waiting for you." Alan's voice was choked with sobs. "You clearly know that I can't let go of you... Except for you, I have never liked anyone else."

Anaya was stunned, and then she laughed out loud. She cried again, "We... have missed our chance to be together."

"In the future, you will like someone else."

Alan was stunned.

"But Anaya..."

"That's enough!" Flora grabbed Alan and said, "Don't you think it's shameful enough after what happened? What will Ariel feel if you keep talking to her like this?"

down. He could take it use this matter to deceive Anaya... Jared, since you like to court death so much, I will take you to the police station now!"

However, Jared was afraid.

go to jail for what he and said, "We have been together for six years. You can't be so heartless. You have to save me, Anaya... I have made thousands of mistakes because I paper. She looked down at Jared. After Jared was stunned.

just want to know if the evidence of the incident

have the ability to get the police to give her

that could be done with the ground and looked at Anaya's haggard face. He suddenly thought of saw Anaya for