

Widow 434

Chapter 434

The Marcy family members were all startled when they were suddenly called out. Mr. Marcy looked at the arrogant Madam Marcy and coughed. "Madam, didn't you hear Master White's words?" Madam Marcy could point at Alan and scold him, but she didn't dare to act rashly in front of Harold. She frowned and said, "I... I don't have anything to say."

With a loud smack, Harold smashed the cup in his hand.

He said coldly, "I told you to say it, just say it."

Madam Marcy was so frightened that her legs went limp. If it hadn't been for Mr. Marcy's support, she would've knelt down on the ground.

Luke smiled and said, "Madam Marcy, my master doesn't like to repeat himself. We're at a wedding banquet today. It won't be good if we use violence. Don't you agree?"

His words were polite and thoughtful, but even a fool could hear the threat in his words.
