

Widow 462

Chapter 462

Crystal slipped away from the hospital. She was glad that she was not caught by Danny. Otherwise, there would definitely be a murder case.

She went to Harold's company with a lingering fear in her heart. It just so happened that Harold had just come out of the meeting. Seeing her like this, he asked, "What's wrong?"

Crystal sighed deeply. "I don't know what kind of luck I have. Every time I go to the hospital, I will meet my cheap brother, which makes me have a psychological shadow on that hospital."

"I don't think you'll meet again in the future." Harold sat down on the office chair, opened a document, and signed it. He held the pen with great strength when he signed. "He used to go to the hospital to see Sadie."

"Sadie?" Crystal had never heard of this name.

Harold said, "His fiancée. The one who fled from the wedding and eloped with someone else."

Crystal replied with an "oh" and asked, "Then why won't we meet in the future?"

up," Harold said in a relaxed voice. "It's quite rare. After so many said, "I was wondering why he brought Tulips with him today. I asked him brother..." He raised his eyebrows and laughed. "It's hard for me to imagine that chin on the back of the chair and asked, "What kind of "Her reputation is not very good. She is the only daughter in moment and said, "Then she wouldn't be able to get along with my big brother.

up at her. "Do you even know what kind Crystal was very proud. "But I think my guess is quite accurate. He put down the pen and asked, "Then guess what kind of laughing and said, "Actually, I don't know what kind of girl you like. You're

"You

When Crystal was looking at the traffic outside the window, he suddenly said, "It's not difficult to guess. You guessed it back at him.

party tonight. Would you like to go back to