

Widow 481

Chapter 481

Crystal said, "You're really a good person."

Corey said, "Thank you."

When the car stopped, Crystal saw that they were at a large warehouse, which was very far from the center of the city. At dusk, the burning clouds in the sky spread out like a painting with thick ink and colors.

The warehouse was originally quiet, but when Corey's motorcade stopped, she heard a "bang" and the door of the biggest warehouse opened. A group of sturdy men came out of the warehouse, separated into two sides, with guns in their hands. They looked extremely scary.

Crystal stuck to the window glass and asked Corey, "Aren't you a real businessman? Why are you acting like a gangster?"

Corey slowly took out a pistol from the suitcase and said, "I'm a real businessman, but Jeremy isn't." He opened the car door and said to Crystal, "Just stay in the car and watch. Don't get out of the car. Jeremy is a lunatic. I can't guarantee that he won't hurt you."

the cat

getting out of the car. The smile on the cars one after another and stood behind

gold chain and a flowery shirt stepped forward and said with a smile, "Young Master

by Harold that he

He suppressed his anger and said, "Jeremy is busy now. If you have Corey narrowed his eyes.

was obviously afraid of Corey. He hesitated for a moment before saying, "I've already said that still a step

the people behind him were arrogant. I said a few years ago that if someone wants to have a share of my business, it was impossible unless I die... Ralph, you look down on me too much. I'm