

Widow 486

Chapter 486

Although Eva was known as Mrs. Evans, in fact, she had no right to speak in the Evans family. Daxton would not discuss anything with her. Once he decided to do something, Eva would not dare to say a word.

However, Eva was already very satisfied. She was from a poor family, and she was already lucky enough to be able to get the position of Mrs. Evans. At least in Fairby, no one dared to offend her. Eva was very clear that it was because she was obedient that Daxton kept her. Now that Dora wanted her to question Daxton's decision, how could she dare to do so?

"Rose." Eva didn't dare to offend Dora too much. She asked cautiously, "Do you... still want to marry into the White family?"

Dora paused for a moment and said with reddened eyes, "Aunt Eva, the engagement is mine. It should be me who married into the White family! Why did Crystal take away my things as soon as she came back?! My fiancé, father, and brother... were all taken away by her!"

How could Eva not know Dora's imbalance? If she had not seen these, it would not have been a big deal for her to be an ordinary village girl in Sunshine Village. However, she had been taken to a wealthy place like the Evans residence, not to mention that the prosperity had been held tightly in her hands. How could she give it up so easily?

see, on the day when Crystal came back, they didn't see time ago! Dad wants me to Eva didn't know how respects you and he asked you to pick slowly... Well, you can go with me to see a few people, and then you me, he wouldn't be in such tissue, wiped Dora's tears, and said, "If you cry again, your eyes will be swollen. How can shoulder and said in a crying voice, but there was no sadness in her eyes. She looked at the wall and said slowly, "From the moment I had memories, you

Eva

Chloe...