

Widow 488

Chapter 488

Early in the morning, Crystal was tucked out of bed.

She was very dissatisfied and hummed, "I don't need to go to school or go to work. Why do I have to get up early?"

Harold placed her on the sink in the washroom, squeezed out the toothpaste for her, and said, "You have something to do today."

Crystal yawned. "What's it?"

"I'll take you to meet the elders," Harold said. "I've made an appointment with a stylist for you. Luke will take you there."

Crystal was in a daze. "The elders?"

Wasn't Harold's elder Bonnie? Mark was still in the middle of a lawsuit.

"You'll know when the time comes." Harold handed the little white rabbit toothbrush to her and said, "Go brush your teeth."

Crystal brushed her teeth obediently. Harold kissed her on the forehead and said, "Dana has already prepared breakfast. It's your favorite steamed bun. I have something to do, so I have to her mouth full of toothpaste bubbles, and paused and said, "No,

her hand. "Then you may in her mouth, he walked back and pinched her cheek, saying, "I'll find you as for a long time. However, Harold felt that she was so something to do," Harold said. "I'll have fell instantly. "You don't even accompany me for pushed Harold out of

looked at the tightly shut door in front of him time, Dana saw Crystal walking down the stairs with a unhappy look on her couldn't help laughing and said, "Master White really has something to do.

suspect that you are hiding something

it. She was the only can't hide anything from you. Come on, come and

