

Widow 498

Chapter 498

Holding Crystal's hand, he placed it on his lips and kissed the back of her hand. His voice was low and calm as if he was talking about something that should have been announced more than ten years ago. "This is the Fifth Miss of the Evans family, my fiancée." D

Even if they guessed it, everyone was still surprised after the man announced it.

The legitimate and fake daughter of the Evans family was also a scandal in Fairby. A few years ago, when they found that the child was picked up wrongly, many people talked about it. However, in this matter, Crystal had always been the clown.

She was born with a golden spoon, but she had lived in a poor and remote village for 15 years. When the rich young ladies of Fairby were practicing horseback riding, playing the piano, and attending parties, she raised pigs, fed chickens, and picked up sweet potatoes. She was blessed. When she was 15 years old, the truth was obvious, but her family valued the fake daughter more. They even left her in the countryside and didn't care about her for four years in order to take care of their fake daughter.

It was not easy for her to come back, but she was asked to replace the fake daughter to marry a dead man.

Such a person was like a clown. No one expected that one day, this ugly little duckling would stand beside the most powerful man in the whole Fairby like a real princess, looking down on everyone.
