

Widow 500

Chapter 500

Harold glanced at her and said, "It's up to me to decide how to use the assets."

Crystal had her own logic and said, "But I am your fiancée. Your assets for wife will become my property in the future..."

While they were talking, they approached the members of the Evans family. Before Crystal realized it, a hand with clear joints reached over all of a sudden when she was still arguing with Harold, and a platinum ring was worn on his middle finger.

Crystal paused and slowly raised her head. Then, she saw Danny's expressionless face.

Crystal, "..."

Crystal, "!!"

She looked at Danny's face and then at the red envelope in his hand. She trembled a little. Help.

She should have thought of it a long time ago. There were so many people here today, and Danny must have been invited as well. Harold did not know the grievances between her and Danny.

However...

Crystal felt lucky.

when she saw Danny, her face was covered by bangs. With such a significant change, Danny should not be able be calm and showed a polite smile. Her fingers trembled as she took Danny's red envelope. "Thank, thank you, big brother." Crystal touched the red packet,

"CoCo."

was Crystal, "..."

Crystal, "!"

did he recognize to live on

was confused. "CoCo? Who's that? A

Danny snorted. "That's right."

want to know who CoCo

Crystal, "..."

thought that since there were so many people here and Harold was beside her, Danny would not kill her. She put her hands together and bowed to Danny three times.

didn't deliberately fool you in the mall before...

up her dress and