

Widow 502

Chapter 502

Danny suddenly felt that it was ridiculous.

Dora was always worried that Crystal would take back her identity. Now it seemed that with Crystal's intelligence, Dora might as well worry about the third world war.

He looked at Crystal quietly for a while. She might be really scared. Her lips were a little pale and she stood there nervously.

Danny was the ruler of the Evans family and had countless subordinates. It was natural for subordinates to be afraid of their superiors. However, as his younger sister, Crystal was more afraid of him than his subordinates.

Danny suddenly felt a little annoyed.

At first, he wanted to stay away from her. It was better not to see her. It was best to be a stranger. But now Crystal was standing in front of him, trembling with fear, which made him very uncomfortable.

It was quiet in the room. Crystal's heart was beating like a drum. Danny did not speak, but she was imagining how the other party was going to torture her. So she was even more afraid. When her lips were about to bleed from her bite, Danny finally said, "When the first time we met, why didn't you tell me your identity?"

Crystal tugged at her finger and whispered, "Antony said that if you saw me, you would definitely strangle me. I was afraid, so, so..."

Danny frowned.

ruin his reputation

tapped his knee with his fingers, and his voice was still cold. "And you believed what brother,"

got angry all of a sudden. "I'm her eyes in

Danny? He was so

were too harsh. He pursed his lips

away

1?"

the word "play", Danny realized that the little girl in front of him was own self-wishful thinking. Crystal had been refusing, and he didn't seem to have the stood up

about to leave when

you hate