

Widow 509

Chapter 509

He had such a terrible face, said such terrible words, and got so close to her...

Crystal felt that her heart was about jump out of her mouth.

"You can't be a hooligan at night." Crystal said, "Although no one else heard it, I will be shy."

Harold laughed and said, "When we go to bed at night, can I say it secretly in our bed?"

Crystal was speechless.

Crystal couldn't help but hit Harold. "Say it again!"

Harold grabbed her hand and said, "Okay, I won't tease you anymore."

He looked at his watch and asked, "Are you hungry?"

Crystal rubbed her belly. "A little."

She ate a lot at noon, so she was not very hungry at the moment.

up and said, "I'll get someone to prepare something for you long time. When he saw Harold come out, glanced at it. "A rock crystal," Luke said, "We discovered it at the amusement park, but we didn't notice the small residue in the bag with a cold face. No one knew what he was thinking. Luke said, "Master, I neglected my duty tonight. I will take this opportunity to change my team and ensure that such a at the lights in the depths of the corridor, and suddenly said, "Where is stunned.

said. "I'm just concerned about today." Luke said, "As usual, he was reciting his scriptures and didn't even come out of the said, "What he today." Harold walked forward. Suddenly, he paused and said, "Check again and already checked it

you haven't investigated it thoroughly enough." Harold snorted. "If you broke out in a cold sweat and said respectfully,

and

back on sound in the room until there was a “creak”, breaking stood at the door against the light and looked