

Widow 571

Chapter 571

But she didn't know what she was like now, and she didn't know how she could be suppressed. She just opened her watery eyes wide, took a deep breath, and pursed her swollen lips unhappily. Crystal's lower lip was already plump. Being kissed by someone, it became red and swollen. For no reason, it reminded people of the rose petals with morning dew hanging on them.

Harold's chest was pressed against Crystal's. "Crystal, you provoked me first."

Crystal was confused. She blinked and reached out to push him. "You're a little heavy. Can you go away?" Harold grabbed her hand and said in a hoarse voice, "No."

Crystal was shocked.

She finally realized that she had been targeted by a fierce beast.

This vicious beast's eyes were cold, deep, and heavy with desire. It revealed its sharp teeth, which were about to skin her and tear off her bones and devour her into its stomach.

By the time Crystal woke up, it was already dusk.

She was lying on her small bed, and the Hays family's only electric fan was placed not far away. There was a cool wind coming from it.

Crystal did not understand the deeper meaning of Harold's words. She heaved a sigh of relief and then felt that something was wrong. She stretched out her red hand and asked, "What happened to my hand then?"

Harold was speechless.

Harold was silent for a moment, then looked away. "I don't know."

Crystal did not have any doubts. While drinking tea, she tried hard to recall her memories, but she really could not remember anything, so she had to give up.

"Farley's house is very lively now. Do you want to go and have a look?" Harold asked casually.

Crystal asked, "How lively is it?"

"Cling to your family? You really have the nerve to say that!" Vanessa's mother was unwilling to be outdone and said, "Farley has only been admitted to a college. Vanessa is an undergraduate student. Who's clinging to who?"

Phoebe sneered and said, "How can you say that? She was just admitted to an unknown university. It only sounds nice. Will anyone hire her in the future?"

Vanessa was pissed off. "Nonsense!"

"I'm talking nonsense? You know whether I'm talking nonsense or not!" Phoebe said, "Let me make things clear today. My son will have a great fortune in the future, and it's impossible for him to marry Vanessa!"

Vanessa's mother was trembling with anger. "What great fortune? If he doesn't dare to admit it after sleeping with Vanessa, who else dares to marry into your house in the future?"

When the quarrel was about to turn into a fight, Farley finally opened his mouth and said, "Stop arguing!"

Phoebe had always been proud that she had raised such a good son like Farley. He could endure hardships. and always behaved well. Except for falling in love with the girl of the Hays family, he was perfect. When she first heard that he had slept with another girl, she didn't believe it. Now it seemed that something was really wrong!

"Your mother doesn't bear to hit you. As an aunt, I will teach you for her!" Phoebe was mad with anger. She rushed forward and grabbed Bella's hair. As someone who did the farm work, she was very strong. She pressed Bella's head into the mud. Bella struggled and cried, but no one helped her.

All the villagers knew that someone like Farley wouldn't do such a thing. On the contrary, it was Bella who was shrewd and had bad intentions. It was not surprising that she would come up with such an idea.

Even Vanessa's mother, who had been arguing with Phoebe just now, also pounced on Bella and started beating her. She cursed. "You b*tch! You evil widow! You have ruined my daughter's life!"

The two women pressed Bella to the ground and hit her. Bella had no power to fight back and could only cry, "Why do you believe Farley's one-sided words? It has nothing to do with me!"

She carefully glanced at Harold. She could only rejoice that he didn't understand the local dialect. Otherwise, this matter would have been too difficult to settle.

Crystal sighed softly, made way for herself in the crowd, and said, "Farley,"

Crystal stood up and moved a little further away in disgust. She said, “Then you can just take it as if I’m lying to you.”

As soon as she finished speaking, Bella’s parents rushed into the crowd. Seeing their daughter in a mess, they didn’t have time to ask the reason. Gale said eagerly, “Bella, your school called and said that they won’t accept you. What the hell is going on? Was it a scam call?”

The couple couldn’t sit still after receiving the call. Gale rode his tricycle here with his wife to find Bella.

Bella widened her eyes. “Dad, what did you say?”

“I said... I said... Bella, what’s wrong with you?”

Bella almost fainted directly. She crawled over with her hands and feet and grabbed Gale’s trouser legs. “Did you hear it wrong? How can they not accept me? What’s the reason?”

In some aspects, it had to be said that Bella and Gale were the same kinds of cruel people. They could give up without hesitation.

When Bella heard her father's words, she cried out of breath. "Dad, you can't treat me like this... I still want to study, I want to study! I don't believe that Crystal really has such a great ability to prevent the school from accepting me!"

Gale was a little hesitant. He said, "But your school's enrollment office has called. They said that there will be an official document that they're going to stamp."

Bella's whole body stiffened when she heard that.

She knew that Crystal would not let go of her, so she simply cursed, "Crystal... Crystal, you b*tch! You ruined my future, and I will not let you live a good life!"

After saying that, Bella stood up and rushed to Crystal. There was a slope on the side of the courtyard of the Lewis family, and it was as deep as ten meters. She actually wanted to push Crystal down directly!

In fact, Crystal didn't understand what Bella wanted to do at first. When she reacted, Harold had already kicked Bella to the ground.

When they arrived home, it was already dark.

Dan had finished cooking, but Kyle still did not appear at the table. Dan said, "I've brought him food. He's not going to starve."

Crystal leaned over and said, "Dad, you're still very concerned about Kyle, aren't you?"

"Humph." Dan said, "Why should I be concerned about him?"

Tonight, there was stir-fried pork meat, which was Dan's specialty. Crystal ate two bowls of rice.

After dinner, Crystal wanted to take a shower. There was no water heater in the mountain, so she could only boil water in a firewood stove. Harold bent down and tested the water temperature in the bucket. He felt that Crystal's delicate skin might not be able to take it, so he added some cold water.

Crystal carried her clothes into the little shed for bathing. Seeing that Harold was still there, she pushed him and said, "Why aren't you going out yet?"

She curled her lips. "It's just abdominal muscles, isn't it? Who doesn't have them?"

Chapter 580

The moment Danny came in, Sadie smelled a strong smell of alcohol. He should have drunk a lot. Although she couldn't tell it from his face, he walked a little unsteadily. He seemed to have forgotten that Sadie was at home. As soon as he locked the door, he began to take off his clothes.

Sadie, "..."

Sadie quickly closed her eyes.

With a "bang", Danny went into the bathroom. It seemed that he had gone to take a shower. Sadie breathed a sigh of relief and opened her eyes.

She looked at Danny's shirt and trousers that were thrown on the ground. After a moment of hesitation, she went to pick them up and put them in the laundry basket. The clothes were made of expensive materials, so Sadie did not dare to throw them into the washing machine.

After putting away his clothes, Sadie went into the kitchen and began to cook soup to help him sober up.

When she was almost done cooking, she suddenly heard Danny's hoarse voice in the bathroom. "Molly, don't play in the kitchen."
