

Widow 84

Chapter 84

Crystal stayed in the bathroom for half an hour before coming out.

She didn't want to talk to Harold, but fortunately, Harold didn't continue to tease her. He took the clothes and went to the bathroom to take a shower. Crystal hurriedly began to blow her hair, and she immediately climbed onto the bed as soon as her hair was dry and she wrapped herself up with the blanket. She was determined not to give Harold any chance to laugh at her.

When Harold came out of the bathroom, Crystal was already asleep.

Before sleeping, she wrapped herself tightly in the blanket. At this time, she felt hot when she was asleep. She got out of the blanket, and her little face was a little red and chubby. Harold wanted to pinch it as he looked at her.

Harold did not hesitate to go up and pinch her. Crystal felt that he was very annoying, so she turned her back to him.

The nightdress she wore was loose and after she rolled back and forth on the bed, her collar was hung on her shoulder, revealing her slender neck and her white back. Under the soft light, it was glowing, but the most eye-catching thing was the birthmark on her sphenoid bone.

The birthmark was red and shaped like some kind of flower. It was decorated on the cheekless bones, revealing a kind of ambiguous color.

frowned slightly and caressed the red patch with a birthmark, not to the tattoo shop, she would cry so much pulled her collar up and covered her day, when Crystal woke up early in the morning, Harold was already gone. A warm breakfast and a white box were placed it curiously. Luke came in from outside the door it?"

"Open it

box and don't know what you like, so I bought the latest model on the market." Luke said, "If you don't like it, I years ago. In fact, it was not that Crystal, it would be fine. The other functions were not needed. Crystal had always wanted to work and save money to buy a new phone, but now she felt the joy of getting it

of

you, Assistant Britton.” Crystal said, “I like it good that Young Madam likes it.” Luke said, “Have your breakfast while it’s hot. I’ll take you to the dessert shop after the