Chapter 10

Selena pov

I can't believe what he did!

His blood in my system is the last thing I want.

Hearing when the nurse and the other man which I guess is his beta walks out of the room and leave me alone with him.

I sigh and lay my head down on the pillow, waiting for him to start interrogating me, I know it will come!

Right now all I want is to take a hot shower, I guess the nurse cleaned me up when I was brought in here unconscious and dressed me in a shirt. But I feel dirty anyway.

Hearing him slowly walking closer to me I just lay there and wait. He stops by the bed and I feel his presence right next to me.

"Where are you from?" He says and I just sigh. This question again!"

from here! If you have forgotten" I snap at him, only for his hand to come up to my chin and hold a firm grip on me.

"Open your eyes!" He growls out to me and I open them to find his face right next to mine.

"Do you want me to get my Gamma back in here to continue what he did before?" He threatens me and I just keep looking defiant in his eyes.

Moving my face closer to his so my face is only inches from his.

"Bring him in!" I spit at him and look right into his eyes. I will rather take his Gamma in the same room as me than him here.

He keeps holding my chin and his breath is fanning my face when he suddenly lets me go and takes a step back.

I don't take my eyes away from him when he takes a step back and start to unbutton his shirt.

What is he planning to do now?

He takes his time and slowly starts to peel his shirt off him. I feel a shiver run down my body for what he is planning.

We place the shirt on a chair and looking back at him his upper body is completely bare for me to look at.

He is only muscle on muscle and I can't take my eyes off his sexy body.

Hearing him clear his throat I snap my eyes up to look at him, only to be met by his intense gaze on me and I know he caught me checking him out.

I just turn my head the other way. Hearing him walk closer to my bed when the bed dip and I snap my head to look at what he is doing.

He gets over me and fears creep up my body for what he is planning. I try to get him off me by pushing on his hovering body over me but he doesn't budge. I am small next to his body and without my wolf, I can't fight him off.

His hands take my hands before he places them over my head and I try to get him off me. Trashing underneath him!

"You know there are other ways to torture a person!" He says next to my ear and I think all blood leaves my head. A shiver runs down my spine just the thought of what he plans to do.

let me go!" I say with venom in my voice.

"After you have given me the answers I want!" He takes both my hands in one of his.

If I only could reach my wolf and this wouldn't be a problem.

My legs are locked in by his and right now I'm no match for him.

"Now answer where you come from!" He says and I look defiant up at him.

from here!" I spit at him. I see a smirk on his lips before his hand comes up to my arm and start to travel down my body slowly, tingles playing on my skin from wherever he touches me.

squirm under his touch.

Stop it! Why don't you just use your Alpha command on me instead!" I bark out to him. Earning me a chuckle from him.

"I have seen how stubborn you are! You would just refuse to answer to the point you would faint" comes his deep voice next to my ear. He is right though!

It's exactly what I would do and get an easy way out of this interrogation.

His hand keeps traveling down to my breast when he cups it through my shirt, and I feel how every part of my body answers to his touch.

try to push every feeling back down when he takes my nipple between his fingers and starts twisting it.

Keeping my mouth shut I try to hold back every feeling when my core starts to throb.

I hate how my body answers to the mate bond! I don't want it.

Holding my legs close together and my lips tight shut his eyes look right into mine.

I will not give away my secrets and what I have been fighting for years to have! My life and others depend on it.

His lips come down closer to me and his breath is fanning my face.

I've got all day, little mate!" He says before he pushes a leg between mine and I try to hold them together but he is a lot stronger than me this way.

His intoxicating scent is all around me and I have to fight the mate bond from answering to his touch when his hand travels further down my body.

Trashing under him when his hand comes down to cup my pussy. I pant out from the feeling he brings me and has to fight myself to not give in to the feeling.

Biting my lip hard until I feel blood in my mouth.

"Just tell me what I want to know and I will stop!" Comes his voice next to my ear when I feel his nose travel further down my shoulder.
