I can't reveal the truth to him and I don't want any part in whatever he plans to do.

I feel his teeth scratch my skin and I freeze in fear. He can't mark me! I won't agree with this.

"Stop! Stop! I will answer your questions" I say in fear and have to take a deep inhale of air to try and steady my heart.

He lifts his head and takes his hand away from my pussy.

I sigh in relief.

" then tell me where you are from!" He says and I fight the urge to tell him fuck off.

'from home!' I answer instead only to feel him get between my legs and place some of his weight over me.

"not the right answer!" He says and takes a firm grip on my chin before his face comes down to my shoulder again.

"No stop it! Get off me" he lifts his head and looks me deep in my eyes.

then just answer my questions!" He growls to me when I see his eyes glance over and he sigh.

Now you just got lucky!" He says and releases my hands before he gets away from me.

I scramble further up the bed and hold my knees tight to my chest and place the quilt over me.

I don't want him back and whatever got him to release me I'm grateful for.

He gets dressed again in his shirt before he walks back to the bed and grips my chin, forcing me to look at him.

'This interrogation isn't over! I will be back" he says before he lets go of me and walk over to the door.

Opening the door I see a man and the nurse walk back into the room and Kian closes the door after him.

I sigh when the door closes and I'm free from him.

"I'm the doctor, and just want to check up on you!" The man says and walks over to the bed with the nurse behind him. I just give him a nod when the nurse takes the quilt off me and he starts to look over my injuries.

I have healed up a lot and when whatever they gave us is out of my system I know my wolf will heal me up in just a moment.

"it looks good! You will be alright in a few hours!" He says and places the quilt back over me.

There is a knock on the door and a woman comes inside with a tray and some food on it.

She walks over to me and places the tray down on my lap.

Eat! And we will be back later to check on you" the doctor says and they all walk out of the room, leaving me alone with the food and my stomach start to rumble.

I don't know when I ate last time, it have to be at breakfast before I left that morning.

Taking some food in my mouth I almost moaned at the taste of meat when the door is opened and I see a man walk back inside with a cup of coffee in his hand.

I have seen him before and I guess he is one of Kian's closest men.

He walks over and takes a seat in the chair next to me while I get back to eating.

"I'm Declan! Kian's beta" he says and I glance at him before popping some meat in my mouth again. I moan at the taste and swallow.

that hungry!" I hear him chuckle at me. I just shrug my shoulders and Wolf down the rest of the food.

"You already know my name!" I state when I place the tray down on the sideboard and start to drink the glass of water.

"Yes, I do! And just so you know. I don't agree with the way Kian has treated you." he says and I sigh.

"He just told us everything yesterday! None of us had any idea or we wouldn't have let him chase you out of the kingdom!" He says and I feel he means what he says.

'Well, he did!" I state and toss the quilt off me, I saw a shower in the bathroom before and I'm going to use it.

'I'm going to take a shower! Are you going to stop me" I say and turn to look at him. Waiting for him to force me back to the bed.

He just flash me a big smile and chuckled.

" like your spirit. Keep it up!" he says and points to the bathroom to me, giving me permission to go and take a shower.

I don't wait another second and walk over to the bathroom. Coming inside I lock the door and walk over to the mirror, seeing my face I almost tip over. I'm more blue and black than my skin color!

I have to give it to Cannon he really got me good.

During the years I have been in a lot of fights but this has to be the worse beat-up I have been.

Taking off my shirt I walk over to the shower and open the door before stepping inside and turning on the shower.

It takes a moment before the water is warm and I step under. Closing my eyes I enjoy the feeling of warm water washing away all the dirt from these last days.

Taking my time to wash and shampoo my hair it starts to feel a lot better and I have more energy now.

Turning of the water I open the door and step outside.

Drying my body on a towel before I wrap it around me, and start to walk over to the door.

Hoping to find a clean shirt in the room.

Unlocking the door I open it up and step right in to a wall and stagger back a step before I tilt my head up to look.

Only to be met by his glowing amber eyes looking right at me and his canines on display for me to see.
