

Chapter 3 Meet Christen

#WITCHES_LUST

Episode_2

#Christen

Some people believe that witches are myths or fairy tales, that we don't exist some think we exist and live to terrorize and cause harm to people.... Well they're all right....

My name is Christen... And I'm a witch.. Spooky right.. Well don't be.. I live with my family and the other witches in a place far way from the humans, in fact no human can get there... Impossible.. We use our magic to hide our existence from the human but we sometimes enter into the human world and blend in.. We may engage or communicate with the human but we're not allowed to mate or show them our true self.. If any human knows of our existence, he's killed or drained of his life force...

The human life force serves as a nourishment to us.. Of course we do eat normal food like the human but the life force sustains us for a long time that we don't bother to eat.... In addition to that, we live ten times longer than humans... A human can live up to a hundred years but we witches and others like us live for centuries or millennium.....

While the other witches love terrorizing humans and draining their life force, I do not... In fact I hate it... That's murder if you ask me.. Though the human might be deceitful and cruel... I still don't believe in taking someone's life even the life of a tiniest ant... Its wrong.. Everyone has the right to live..

In our world, we have different categories of witches like the way human have tribes or different races of people ... In the witch world there are different clans of witches such as , The wind witches, the sea or water witches, earth witches and the fire witches.. Every one of these clans magic is based on their insignia.. But due to inter marriage relations between them, new form of witches are born, you might say Hybrids.. Like me for example, I'm a wind - earth based witches, I can create wind storms and natural disasters like earth quakes and other stuff.. As a result the hybrid witches are more powerful than the pure blooded witches..

Also time works differently in our world.. Like for example.. 10years in the human world is like a year to us witches.. And 10 years in the witch world is like a hundred years in the human world... Crazy right.. That's why I said we live for centuries...

And today being my birthday, I'm 20 years old.. Which means I'm 200 years old in the human world.. And today is the day I get to be free to roam about in the world..

But I don't like moving around much, I love to stay at a particular Iroko tree, it is a place where I come to sit and enjoy a quiet time, I've been coming there since I was 10years old (100years) , The place is lovely and it has such a nice view.

Since I was now an adult.. My family thought the best way to get to know the humans was to enroll in a university.. So they made preparations casting a spell on the school Authorities to allow me in..without any hesitation and also There are witches in the school Authorities and board so.. They took care of everything..

So one evening , I decided to visit my usual place and hang around for a while..

I sat on the tree branch staring into the beautiful black sky, flipping my necklace with my late mom, gave me as a gift..

But unfortunately for me, a hum an came to where I was startling me, I quickly stood up and wanted to strike him dead to cover everything up but I couldn't... I couldn't take his life and besides scaring him was the best thing to do.. So I disappeared, teleporting from the place but in my haste.. I dropped the necklace...

As I arrived home, I touched my neck and discovered it was gone... But how.. I wanted to go back but fearing I might collide with the human again made me stop..

I went into the house only to discover my brother, Oliver draining a girl's life force from her body...

Oliver "Ohh, yes... Yes... Keep feeding me.. Yes...

Christen "Bloody hell... What's gotten into you? Can't you do this outside..

Oliver "Watch your mouth sister, Lucifer has provided me with a delicious treat..

Christen "That's all you know.. Draining life force it another.. Useless ape..

Oliver "you no dey hear word abi? Remember I'm fifty years older than you..

Christen "Heh, heh heh, Senior man... I salute you (laughs)

As my brother and I were having our little biffs.. My sister, Rose walked in laughing cynically, Whenever she laughs like that, she must have done something evil or terrible to some poor human.

Rose is the oldest of us three, she's 50 years old (500 yrs) , she's what you called a plague or an evil incarnate... She derives pleasure by harming and causing trouble to humans, whom she regard as worms.. She's very powerful and a force to reckon with, most of the high class wizards and witches are afraid of her... But despite her cruel nature, she's very understanding and she's very fond of me.

Rose "Evening everyone.... What a day! Mephistoph you're to be praised.

Christen "Welcome back sister... What mischief have you caused today? Car accidents, separating marriages, burning houses or causing deaths..

Rose "Oh my little sister, you know me too well, Well, its something else.. I caused the wipe out of an entire family in a fire out break.... Isn't it wonderful... (laughs) Christen "Isn't that too much.. I mean it's cruel if you ask me...

Rose "Cruel? Don't be silly... Causing havoc is a witches main aim of living... You know that right?

Oliver "Don't mind her Rose... She's always been different..

Rose "And who asked you? When you're done sucking that human dry throw her out.. Or maybe in the Bermuda triangle where her corpse won't be found... As for you Christen, I heard you've started going to the university...

Christen "Yes... I have..

Rose "Have you caused any mayhem lately,? You can cast a spell and make all the students fail their exams, you know... You can ruin their chances of getting into the next level..

Christen "Yeah.. I'll think about it..

Oliver "and also don't hang around those human males, cause I heard all they think about is sex.. Don't go spreading your legs..

Before oliver could finish, Rose struck a lightning blast at him which sent him flying out of the house.. I heard as he yelled in pain... Poor guy...

Rose "Don't mind Oliver... You can have sex with anyone you want only don't get too attached... You know falling in love with a human or marrying one is forbidden..

Christen "don't worry, I'm not even talking to anyone... I like staying the way I am... Al
