Chapter 1081: Dharma Body Advancement! Six Heavenly Gods! (6)

Sorrett smiled crazily, and then his face darkened.

“I, Sorrett, have cultivated for 500 years and am already a fifth-circle senior. I’ve only walked halfway down my life path! Isn’t it just weapon-making? I, Sorrett, can just self-learn!”

He immediately began reading Augustine’s Hammer book, preparing to become a weapon craftsman.

After a while, Sorrett quietly closed the book, and the corners of his eyes twitched!

“I’m Thunder Spear. Why must I use a Wizard Tool to fight? I only need to cultivate the third Fifth-Circle Talent. Isn’t it much stronger than a Wizard Tool? In history, many famous wizards didn’t need to use a Wizard Tool to fight!”

Sorrett realized that he wasn’t cut out to make weapons.

With his realm and knowledge, he could learn this thing. The problem was that it was not worth it.

Instead of wasting so much time cultivating the path of weapon craftsman, it was better to focus on studying the Third Talent.

There was no need for this Wizard Tool!

As for this Wind Thunder Meteorite Iron, he could keep it. There was no need to sell it for money.

This thing was too rare.

If he could use it in the future, he could continue to refine Wizard Tools.

“This Hundred-Eyed Demon Territory once had a demonic disaster. There are few people around, and there are no wizard organizations nearby. It’s perfect for me to live in seclusion. I’ll wait for the ancient tower to open.”

...

Star Sea.

The Witch’s Family.

At Triss’ cottage, she sat on the sofa. On the other seat, the Flower Knight wore a pure white wizard’s robe. From the looks of it, she had just taken a bath, and her sitting posture was casual.

“Niglio! Old shameless thing!” Triss couldn’t help but curse.

“Alright, it’s alright. It’s been so long, Sister Triss.” Elena didn’t mind.

“The problem is that the ancient tower key is very likely to be the last one... I didn’t expect you to return. Lady Witch has already distributed all the keys to the Dark Ancient Tower. I’ve just asked around, and everyone has dripped their blood on it to recognize it as their master,” Triss said in frustration.

“It doesn’t matter if I don’t go. To be honest, even without the Dark Ancient Tower, I’m confident that I can advance to a Grand Wizard. It’s just that I’m a little late.” Elena smiled, revealing an incomparably strong confidence.

“I like your confidence. Furthermore, you are confident, unlike some overconfident people. On the surface, you are always humble, low-key, and honest...” Triss suddenly said with a smile.

“Are you talking about Levi?” Elena asked.

“Yes, this little fellow. I know him too well. The two of you have somewhat similar personalities, but it’s also the opposite. It’s very strange,” Triss said with a meaningful smile.

“What do you mean?” Elena was confused.

“Nothing much. Speaking of which, is the wizard tower ready for your plane trip?” Triss changed the topic.

Elena said, "I've prepared a portion. I wanted to take a look at the rest of the Dark Ancient Tower. Since I can't go to the Dark Ancient Tower, I'll take my time to prepare. I'm not even 400 years old. I have plenty of time. After I advance to the seventh-circle, I can travel to planes further away. It'll be more efficient."

Elena's mindset was positive. As an elder, Triss couldn't help but admire her.

Towards the end, Triss asked with a serious expression,

"Do you plan to enter the Nightmare World? I think Levi said that there's a way. There's a high chance that he can bring you in, but that should be dangerous... Our Wizard World knows very little about the Nightmare World. To a certain extent, the Nightmare World might be even more terrifying than the astral world or the Abyss."

Elena nodded and said, "I've been studying the Nightmare World for a long time, and I've always wanted to explore it. I'm only going in to deal with a Nightmare Lord, so there shouldn't be a problem. As for Levi, don't worry. I'll protect him well."

Triss smiled and didn't say anything.

...

Time flew by, and a year passed.

In the blink of an eye, the Holy Brilliance Calendar's 1159 Month of Beginning had arrived.

This year, the Blood Knight temporarily returned to the Dusk Holy Temple from the Forsaken Land of the God.

There was a huge commotion in the Forsaken Land of the God.

He was worried that he would be sucked into the whirlpool. The old knight, who had mastered Levi's essence, immediately retreated.

The Blood Knight had gained a lot from this trip to the magical land.

The level 4 elemental metal, Wind Spirit Moon Shadow Iron, and a large amount of information about the Forsaken Land of the God.

According to the Blood Knight, there might be thousands of caves of various sizes in the Forsaken Land of the God.

Most of them were caves below level 3.

However, there were a total of 12 primordial soul-level underground cave factions.

The strongest was the Black Dragon Mountain Crypt.

The Cave Lord, Black Dragon Wizard Needle, was a powerful eighth-circle dragon descendant wizard who dual cultivated in body tempering and spells.

The combination of dragon descendants, body tempering, and spells made him an absolute powerhouse even in the current Wizard World!

Before the Mortal Barrier shattered, this dragon-descendant wizard had tried to unify the entire Forsaken Land of the God.

However, it failed due to the obstruction of two other eighth-circle wizards.

And now, one of these two eighth-circle wizards had died of old age ten years ago in the Forsaken Land of the God.

The Black Dragon Wizard found an opportunity to plot and kill another eighth-circle wizard.

With everything prepared, the Black Dragon Mountain Crypt began to conquer the other caves and started a war that swept through the entire God Forsaken Continent.

The Black Dragon Wizard wanted to unite all the forces in the Forsaken Land of the God and establish a unified Black Dragon Empire!

Then, they would welcome the challenge from the wizards of the New World and launch an invasion of the seven kingdoms.

Sensing the impending storm, the Blood Knight quickly left.

The knights of the Twilight Knights knew that when the Black Dragon Empire was established, it would be the time of the true upheaval in the human world.

At that time, unless the Wizard World sent a top wizard organization to suppress the Black Dragon Empire.

Otherwise, the other forces in the human world would collapse and cease to exist in front of the Black Dragon Empire.

There was internal strife in the Forsaken Land of the God, and the Seven Kingdoms Continent was not much better.

From the intelligence department arranged by the holy temple in the Seven Kingdoms Continent,

All these years, the Blue Frost Empire and Benevolent Father Empire had never stopped invading the Peacock Kingdom and the Molten Kingdom.

Levi had already told Schinn, who was in charge of Flower City, to keep Flower City if he could. If he couldn't, he would give up and sell the territory.

The human world was too chaotic now. This territory was no longer useful to Levi. If he continued to keep it, it would only cause trouble.

Levi only needed to guard the Ancient Saint plane well.

After the meeting, everyone dispersed and went about their own business.

The Midland Squad was developing very smoothly, and there were new gains every year.

The Talent Brand research team, on the other hand, was trying to overcome the difficulty of the Level 1 branding. It would be a major breakthrough from Level 0 to Level 1. After the Blood Knight returned, he joined in and began to study the endurance-type Talent Branding.

The Combat Techniques Research Committee studied Levi's Destruction Sword Qi throughout the night, hoping to obtain inspiration from it and create more powerful combat techniques!

The Giant Beast Paradise was thriving, and more and more transcendent creatures broke out of their shells.

Even the relationship between Raja and Night Fang had improved. At the very least, Night Fang no longer rejected Raja.

Another level 4 Ancient Saint was born in the Ancient Dragon Empire.

The number of members of the Senior State Assembly had increased to 24! Including the three kings, there were 27 level 4 existences in the entire Ancient Dragon Empire!

The more nervous and uneasy the outside world was, the more it seemed that life on the Ancient Saint plane was peaceful and good.

Levi was very glad that he had chosen the first place.

When no one was optimistic about the human world, he was the first to return to the human world. In the early stages of the Dark Wave Revival, he took down this Ancient Saint plane. Then, he used the array knowledge he had to arm and protect it step by step.

Now, the tide of the Dark Wave Revival was unstoppable. More and more monsters and Gods appeared on the stage. The flames of war continued and disputes continued!

Levi was the only one who had a plane to himself. He sat on the side and watched the clouds roll by. From the perspective of watching the fire from the other side of the river, he could see the general situation of the world.

This was the stable life he sought.

In the blink of an eye, the year 1159 of the Holy Brilliance Calendar was coming to an end, the end of the Month of Winter.

On this day, the Nightmare Dragon seed in Levi's body suddenly began to expand. The black fog rolled, and when the fog disappeared,

A black dream dragon roared into the sky. Its broken wings spread out, and its aura was extraordinary.

The Nightmare Dragon was level 14.

Chapter 1082: Advancement! Nightmare Lord! (1)

Levi-

Nightmare Dragon Breathing Technique: Level 14 (1/600,000). Special Effects: Nightmare Perception (Level 6), Danger Perception, Nightmare Lord, Heavenly Wind Heart. Bloodline Dharma Idol: None. Exclusive Weapon: None.]

...

Among the six dimensions, the perception dimension could be said to be the hardest to cultivate.

Whether it was the collection of breathing techniques or the search for secret medicines.

Levi had spent even more effort.

After a long time.

From the time he first obtained the Man-Faced Spider Breathing Technique to the Nightmare Dragon Breathing Technique and attaining level 14 for it, a hundred years passed.

After advancing to the Second Transformation of the Blood Source, the Nightmare Dragon Breathing Technique underwent some changes.

One was the improvement of Nightmare Perception, which increased the range and accuracy.

On the other hand, the special effect [Nightmare Traveler] had become [Nightmare Lord].

The Nightmare Lord had three main functions, which Levi called:

[Nightmare Descent], [Nightmare Traveler], [Nightmare Lord].

[Nightmare Descent] was a skill that required no further explanation. After casting it, the night would fall, and Levi could activate his Nightmare Form and create illusions.

[Nightmare Traveler] could enter the Nightmare World in two ways, and it could also use the power of the Nightmare Realm to bring things out.

As for the third type, Nightmare Lord, it was even more powerful.

[Nightmare Lord: The blood of the Nightmare Dragon in your body allows you to choose a fixed location in the Nightmare World as your territory.

The Nightmare Realm is ruled by a large number of Nightmare Lords, and among them, the most powerful ones are comparable to the gods. If you want to become a Lord, you would need a piece of territory in the Nightmare World. This could be obtained through [Granting Allegiance] or [Killing the Lord].

After becoming a Nightmare Lord, the territory you own could be used as the 'anchor point' between the Prime Material plane and the Nightmare World. From now on, whenever you enter the Nightmare World, your Nightmare Avatar will appear in your territory.

You can also use the power of the Nightmare Dragon or the 'Nightmare Crystal' to invite friends from the Prime Material plane to your territory as guests and create a 'Nightmare Avatar' for your friend. The stronger the invited person is, the more power of the Nightmare Dragon or the Nightmare Crystal will be consumed. Otherwise, the invited person will not be able to display their strength after entering the Nightmare World. The death of the invitee's Nightmare Avatar will not affect the invitee's main body. After you leave the Nightmare World, all the invitees' Nightmare Avatar will automatically dissipate. R

Similarly, as a Nightmare Lord, you would also need to be on guard against the intrusion of other lords or rogues.

Before obtaining a territory, you could build a temporary territory in the [Chaotic Wilderness] of the Nightmare World as your shelter. However, the resources in the Chaotic Wilderness are poor, and there are many powerful and disorderly Nightmare Creatures, as well as some travelers from the Prime Material plane coming to the Nightmare World. The safety of the territory is extremely low.]

After reading the Nightmare Lord's introduction, Levi understood.

From the initial [Nightmare Walker] to the advanced [Nightmare Traveler] and now the [Nightmare Lord].

As the Nightmare Bloodline grew stronger, Levi's status also increased.

"Being a lord, this is my old profession." Levi recalled his experiences in the human world and could not help but sigh.

"Now I can confirm that it is possible for me to bring the Flower Knight into the Nightmare World. However, I will need to use the Nightmare Dragon's power. I don't know if I can pull her in with my current Nightmare Dragon's power. As for the Nightmare Crystals, I have quite a few."

Levi raised his hand, and a large pile of gray crystals appeared in his palm.

These were the remnants left behind after he killed the Death Fall in the secret realm and the Ashen World.

Death Fall was actually a Nightmare Creature. The Man-Faced Spider was also a Death Fall, just more powerful.

Levi had once given Owens quite a few of these Nightmare Crystals for him to cultivate.

“Now that the Nightmare Dragon Breathing Technique has reached level 14, the Nightmare Crown Lizard is completely useless. After all, I’m not a big villain. I’ll retire it when I need to. Those who work for me can only retire early, not late!”

Levi arrived at Giant Beast Paradise and asked Melina to find a place for the lizard to retire.

In the future, it would be able to escape from the sea of suffering and no longer need to be exploited by Levi. Its life would suddenly become sweet.

This also meant that if Levi did not find a more suitable replacement, his Nightmare Dragon Breathing Technique would come to a standstill. In theory, he could rely on the proficiency panel to strengthen himself, but that would be too inefficient and would seriously affect the cultivation of other breathing techniques. The gains would not make up for the losses.

At the same time, he had to start preparing Nightmare Metal or similar materials for forging divine weapons.

Levi suddenly thought that if the Flower Knight could really kill the Man-Faced Spider, he might be able to use the materials left behind by this primordial soul creature to refine a divine weapon.

The effect might even be better than ordinary Nightmare Metal!

After the Nightmare Dragon Breathing Technique broke through to level 14, Levi did not immediately look for the Flower Knight.

He spent a few more days to stabilize his realm and refine potions.

Year 1160 of the Holy Brilliance Calendar, the first day of the Month of Beginning.

Levi's name list for this trip to the Dark Ancient Tower had been confirmed.

The puppet group consisted of the Poison Fire Corpse Demon, Tyrant IV, and the Blood-Armored Corpse Demon. These three were necessary.

Amongst them, Levi had also thought of a way to bring the pilots of the three puppets -the Mind Flayers, Phoenix, and Blood Lady. It was by using the Book of the Undead!

Chapter 1083: Advancement! Nightmare Lord! (2)

According to Levi's research, the Book of the Undead could seal any transcendent creature with a spirit-type body.

Blood Lady was an undead spirit from Hell, so there was no problem.

As for the Mind Flayers, although they were demons, they did not have a physical body. They were spiritual creatures of a higher level than ordinary specters, so they needed to stay in other people's bodies all the time. In theory, they could also be sealed inside.

It was the same for Phoenix. This guy was a ball of fire element, but it was a fire element with 'liveliness' and 'spirituality'. It was also a higher-level 'specter'.

Of course, these were all Levi's guesses. Whether or not the Mind Flayers and Phoenix could enter would have to wait until he refined the Book of the Undead.

If it was possible, the Book of the Undead should be able to seal six level 4 artifact spirits.

In this way, Levi seemed to be going in alone, but he actually brought a bunch of level 4 subordinates with him, which could greatly enrich his strength.

He believed that it was not just him. There must be people in those large organizations who used this method to smuggle in support.

It was just that this kind of Wizard Tool that could be used to smuggle support in was extremely rare, and the production technique had been lost, so it could not be popularized.

As for the transcendent creatures group.

Leon, Raja, Night Fang, the Crimson Netherworld Sparrow, and the Flame-Blood Earthly Dragon Beast were the ones Levi had decided to bring in.

However, he had yet to let them recognize the key to the Dark Ancient Tower as their master. If there was a new turn of events in the next five years, the key could be used to exchange for a huge amount of grand stones.

“Unknowingly, I’m already 170 years old. Time flies. If I round it up, I’ll be an old man who’s 200 years old.”

Levi ate a bowl of longevity noodles from his memory alone. It was one of the few rituals he felt.

After doing all this, he went to the Dusk Holy Temple.

Today was the 59th Round Table Conference of the Knights.

At the same time, it was also the eleventh year since the establishment of the Midland Knights of the Dusk Holy Temple.

In the past ten years, the Midland Knights had developed steadily. From the initial four members, they now had more than a hundred knights.

The headquarters of the Dusk Holy Temple in the human world only had about 500 people.

It could only be said that the Midland Continent was indeed rich in resources.

Before this round table meeting, the Goddess Knight led the talented wizards and knights recruited by the Midland Squad in the past ten years to the Dusk Holy Temple.

Today, these rookies were going to meet the legendary leader and solemnly make a sacred oath under the sword of the leader!

In front of the Dusk Holy Temple.

Whether it was the knights or the apprentice wizards who were about to take the oath, they all stood there feeling nervous, shocked, happy, excited... All kinds of emotions intertwined. ÑÀ

In front of these people, a female knight with a calm expression was standing beside the Goddess Knight. She was the Thousand Illusion Knight, Erika, the owner of the phantom beast breathing technique.

Her figure was amazing, it was comparable to a succubus. In order to match the curves of her figure, she had to make her breastplate extremely large and round.

As a woman of the Thousand Illusion Clan... Her br*asts were already big, and after cultivating the phantom beast breathing technique, they became even bigger.

“Team Leader Elsa, is Commander here?” Erika’s words revealed her turbulent emotions.

She had been waiting for this moment for far too long!

The reason why the Thousand Illusion Clan had been able to survive for thousands of years after coming to the Midland Continent was related to their breathing technique.

The ‘Phantom Beast Bloodline’ that the ‘Phantom Beast Breathing Technique’ relied on had a characteristic. There was a high probability of passing it on to a woman and a low probability of passing it on to a man.

Generally speaking, after passing on the bloodline to a female, the talent in breathing techniques would not be too low. In these thousands of years, the family had given birth to several female legendary knights.

And female legendary knights were quite popular in the Wizard World. They were easily taken in as maids by some wizards who had such needs, and could also receive protection in return!

It was precisely because of this relationship that the Thousand Illusion Clan lasted for thousands of years. In her generation, a legendary knight was born.

But along the way, she could only be forced to rely on others, become their slave and toy, and go with the flow.

She didn't want such a life without dignity and freedom anymore.

She just wanted to live in peace. Fortunately, she met the Goddess Knight, a knight who was even stronger than her.

It allowed her to embark on a path that she had never thought of and meet an organization with great prospects.

And today, after waiting for several years, she finally made a pilgrimage here.

She was about to meet the supreme leader of the knights.

Supreme Knight!

“Don’t be nervous. Since you’re here, treat it as your own home.” Goddess Knight patted Thousand Illusion Knight’s shoulder and comforted her.

Not long after, there was a wave of cheers.

In the sky, a powerful Wind Thunder Beast with a wingspan of tens of meters was descending.

After the giant beast landed, a tall and sturdy black armored knight with a crimson longsword and a long crimson cloak walked over with a group of knights.

His gaze was like a dragon, and his pale golden eyes swept across the area!

He had an imposing aura that made the ground tremble with every step he took.

“He’s here. This is the commander, Supreme Knight,” said the Goddess Knight.

“So... so strong.” The Thousand Illusion Knight was so frightened by this powerful pressure that her mind went blank.

Chapter 1084: Advancement! Nightmare Lord! (3)

Levi's bloodline aura was too powerful. To these bloodline cultivators, it gave them an instinctive sense of pressure.

This was also an important method for Levi to rule the holy temple!

He went up to the platform and looked around. When his gaze swept past the Thousand Illusion Knight, he paused for a second.

"He actually took another glance at me..." The Thousand Illusion Knight was flattered. This meant that she had a certain aura that was enough to attract the attention of the commander.

"Could it be because of my talent? Or..." The Thousand Illusion Knight lowered her head and looked at her chest, her heart daydreaming.

It was all because of the Phantom Beast Breathing Technique. Otherwise, it would not be so big.

Levi's expression was solemn. The Excalibur appeared, and a sea blue dragon exuded a brilliant majesty as it swept its gaze across everyone.

...

The oath was completed.

Levi was in a good mood.

Among this batch of young knights, there were a few who had a dual affinity. Most importantly, there were two people who had knight talent.

The only Blood Awakening Knight was that big-breasted female knight.

Generally speaking, large breasts would affect combat. Many female knights would control their breasts and not let them be too big.

This Thousand Illusion Knight was a little exaggerated. Levi guessed that it might have something to do with the breathing technique.

It was said that legendary creatures like phantom beasts liked to disguise themselves as beautiful fox-tailed girls with large br*asts. They played around in the world and deceived men for fun, similar to succubi.

Levi returned to the Extreme Path Palace and asked the Goddess Knight to inform the Thousand Illusion Knight to go to his hall.

When the Thousand Illusion Knight heard this, she was shocked and her imagination ran wild.

“Could it be that this organization has some unspoken rules?”

She came to the main hall uneasily and looked at Levi, who was sitting on the throne. She hurriedly bowed and said, "The Thousand Illusion Knight greets Commander."

"Yes, no need to be so polite. From today onwards, you are the tenth official member of the Twilight Knights. You can participate in the round table meeting in the future, but don't be happy too early. If you slack off in your cultivation and can't keep up with the pace of the team, you may lose the qualifications to join the round table. You don't have the talent of a wizard, so you should practice the path of a knight to the extreme and become a powerful female knight who is comparable to a phantom beast!

"From now on, you don't have to return to Midland. You'll stay in the Dusk Holy Temple to cultivate and learn advanced theoretical knowledge here. At the same time, you have to take the initiative to participate in the creation of knowledge and contribute more to the holy temple. Do you understand?" Levi asked seriously.

The Thousand Illusion Knight stood up straight and replied, "Understood!"

"You may leave." Levi waved his hand.

The Thousand Illusion Knight heaved a sigh of relief. It seemed that she had been overthinking.

"Commander, is there really nothing else?" she asked.

"Nothing else."

The Thousand Illusion Knight hesitated, then turned around and left.

“What am I thinking? How could a knight who has reached the realm of the commander be a dishonest person?”

Levi looked at the departing Thousand Illusion Knight and felt gratified.

Following that, the 59th round table meeting was held as usual.

Including Andrew, a total of eleven official members attended the meeting.

It was the first time that the Thousand Illusion Knight attended a meeting. Facing so many powerful knights, she introduced herself uneasily.

Andrew continued to share the recent research results with everyone. Everyone brainstormed and discussed together.

After the meeting ended, everyone went to do their own things.

Levi, on the other hand, was preparing to meet the Flower Knight and explore the Nightmare World together.

...

A month later.

In the Emperor's Palace.

Levi held a black book in his right hand, which was emitting an ominous aura. It was the Book of the Undead.

Now that he had refined the Book of the Undead, he planned to test its power today.

He flipped open the book. On the first page, there was a picture:

A pitch-black graveyard, green ghost fire, and a terrifying figure wandering around.

[Level 1 Undead Prowler, Ability: Evil Spirit Possession, Mental Weakening, Specters Body...]

The Book of the Undead also had a detailed introduction to the sealed undead spirits, which were very human-like.

The strength of a level 1 undead spirit was slightly weaker than that of a wizard of the same rank. However, if this thing was placed in the human world where the Dark Wave Revival had just begun to revive, it would be the most terrifying evil spirit!

“Lonely soul wandering in the graveyard, come out!”

Levi chanted an incantation, and the painting seemed to come alive.

Then, with a burst of black smoke, the floating undead spirit suddenly appeared in front of Levi.

After it appeared, it stood still and waited for Levi’s instructions.

“Let’s see if we can remove the seal.”

With a thought, Levi chanted the ‘Release’ incantation

In the next moment, the connection and shackles between the Book of the Undead and the prowler suddenly shattered.

Immediately after, the prowler seemed to have been reborn. Its intelligence was extremely low, and it instinctively rushed towards Levi. In the end, it crashed into Levi's protective force field.

After the experiment, Levi's gaze landed on the last three sealed artifacts.

[Level 4 Undead Headless Swordsman. Abilities: Undying Slash, Specters Body.]

[Level 4 Undead Vengeful Spirit Girl. Ability: Cursed Puppet, Specters Body, Wailing Grudge...]

[Level 4 Undead Scythe Demon Spirit. Ability: Death Harvest, Specters Body, Summon the Dead...]

"The Headless Swordsman only knows one move, [Undying Slash], but he's already the strongest among the three dead souls. He must be quite powerful."

Levi summoned the Headless Swordsman.

The black smoke billowed. After it dissipated, a headless swordsman appeared. He was riding a skeletal warhorse, wearing knight armor, and holding a Knight's longsword.

Chapter 1085: Advancement! Nightmare Lord! (4)

He looked to be five meters tall. Even though he had no head, he could still give off a sense of oppression.

Levi learned that the Headless Swordsman was called Zod.

“Zod, use all your strength and slash at me,” ordered Levi.

When the taciturn Headless Swordsman heard this, he held his longsword in his hand and this was accompanied by the roar of his warhorse. It was as if he had traveled from an ancient battlefield, and his killing intent soared to the sky!

“Undying Slash!”

Swish!

With an extremely fierce attack, a domineering white sword light tore through the darkness and collided with Levi’s layers of defensive techniques.

Crack, crack...

This sword light actually broke through Levi’s Earth Dragon Barrier, Heavy Water Barrier, and two Dharma Idols. It was a total of four layers of defense!

“148 Cas. Not bad. The power of this sword has already touched the ceiling of a fourth-circle creature. I’m very satisfied with this summoned creature.”

Levi was delighted.

Even an ordinary fourth-circle veteran wizard might not be a match for him. If the wizard was careless, he would be killed in one strike.

The Undying Slash was especially good at killing souls. It also countered specter bodies, elementalization, and other undying abilities.

“Unfortunately, this seems to be the talent of the Headless Swordsman. There’s no sword skill inheritance book. Otherwise, this is definitely a level-4 combat skill... However, I can call Zed out to spar with me more often in the future. With time, with my sword skill realm and talent, I should be able to more or less replicate it.”

After sending the Headless Swordsman back, Levi tested the abilities of the Vengeful Spirit Girl and the Scythe Demon Spirit. They were both pretty good.

The [Cursed Puppet] of the Vengeful Spirit Girl could cast a vicious curse on the enemy and drop the enemy’s blood on the puppet. The curse could be cast from thousands of miles away. Those who were lower than the Vengeful Spirit Girl by two levels would die immediately. Those who were one level lower would be severely injured. If they were of the same level, the Vengeful Spirit Girl could also make the other party feel uncomfortable.

Then, Levi began to refine Blood Lady into the Book of Undead according to the method.

Immediately after, on the fourth last blank page, a dignified and mature woman in red was sitting in front of the bed. She was dressing up in front of the mirror in loneliness. It was Madam Boring.

[Level 4 Undead Spirit, Blood Lady, Ability...]

“Try again, Phoenix.”

Levi called Phoenix back.

Phoenix was suspicious and did not know what to do.

The next moment, as Levi chanted and cast spells, its body involuntarily flew toward the Book of the Undead.

Then, on the fifth last page, a large fire elemental bird that was howling towards the sky and flapping its wings appeared.

[Level 4 Specters Body, Phoenix, Ability...]

“Haha, as expected. In this way, the Mind Flayers can also be brought in.”

Levi followed suit and put the Mind Flayers in.

At the same time, Levi immediately felt that the Book of the Undead was already saturated and could no longer contain level 4 existences.

If he wanted to store more, he would have to upgrade it to a fifth-circle Wizard Tool.

Back then, Madam Ghost's storage bag contained some of the materials needed to advance to the fifth-circle.

Levi planned to wait until he had attained fifth-circle before finding a way to search for the remaining materials in Hell.

"In this way, all the puppet pilots can be brought in. Not bad, my strength has increased quite a bit... It's about time to go find the Flower Knight."

He also had to bring back Leviathan's wife, the Great Horned Whale, along the way. Last time, he was hunted down, and did not have the time to care about that matter. R

...

In the Endless Sea.

Witch's Family.

Wizard Training Ground.

“There are still five years left before we go to the Dark Ancient Tower. If we don't train hard now, our actual combat ability and teamwork ability won't pass the test. After entering, not being able to get the treasures is a small matter. The most terrible thing is that you wouldn't even be able to bring your own life back!

“I know that you are all the elites of the organization and are favored by the heavens. Talent is a strength you are proud of, but it is also an unexpected weakness.

“You only need to stay in the Ivory Tower and you can rely on your talent to cultivate without bottlenecks. You don't have to worry about resources.

“You seem to have advanced very quickly and are already over a hundred years old. However, in the cruel environment of the Dark Ancient Tower, you might discover that you're not as outstanding as you think!”

A wizard with a stern expression and a peak fifth-circle aura stood with his hands behind his back.

He was a member of the Witch's Family, and also the commander of the wizard battle group in the Endless Sea.

Although he had never entered the Dark Ancient Tower, he had a wealth of combat experience. The Witch's Family had asked him to train the geniuses of these organizations as a 'Dark Instructor'.

In front of the instructor, there were a total of 25 wizards, five fifth-circle and twenty fourth-circle.

There were so many wizards, but there was only one male wizard, and it was Anya.

He was listening attentively to the instructor's explanation.

Beside him, Phantom Witch Sierra stood calmly.

"For this expedition to the Dark Ancient Tower, four people will form a team. A fifth-circle wizard will lead the team. The fifth-circle wizard will be responsible for your safety after you enter the ancient tower.

"In order to ensure that each team has a comprehensive ability, I will assign teammates to you according to your profession and spells. I will ensure that each team has a pharmacist, an array wizard, a body-refining wizard, and a spell wizard who is the main attacker.

"This way, relying on a comprehensive lineup and a reasonable combination of spells, your strength can be maximized.

“Remember, there is a limit to human strength. Don’t believe in yourself. Even if you are a genius or a Child of the Elements, you can’t do everything!”

Chapter 1086: Advancement! Nightmare Lord! (5)

“Even Legendary wizards can not develop in all aspects! No one can do it!

“Hence, the core of the Ancient Dark Tower is teamwork!

“...”

The instructor spoke earnestly and chattered on.

On the training ground, the Witch’s Family teams began another training session. Everyone was full of energy.

After training, Anya and Sierra went to a corner to rest and recover their spiritual force.

In the center of the training ground, a witch with a perfect fourth-circle aura was chatting with the instructor. From time to time, she would laugh like silver bells.

This witch had an otherworldly temperament, and she had a feeling that she was untainted by mud. She wore a white wizard robe and was confident and calm.

She was the strongest fourth-circle wizard that the Witch's Family was going to send to the Dark Ancient Tower. She was also the leader of the younger generation of the Witch's Family.

Snow Lotus Witch Rhaenys!

A Water Element Child! At the same time, she also had the second special talent, [Water Flower]!

This allowed Rhaenys's affinity with the water element to reach an extremely exaggerated level.

Even the Children of the Elements would find it hard to catch up to her.

Rhaenys's parents were also primordial soul wizards. Her mother was from the Witch's Family, and her father was from the Ocean Abyss Alliance.

With the support of this top-tier second-generation wizard configuration, Rhaenys was only a hundred and fifty years old, but she had already attained Perfection for the fourth-circle and mastered six great innate spells.

She could be said to be the number one genius of the Witch's Family!

Sierra looked at Rhaenys, who was surrounded by the crowd and talking to the instructor. She sent a voice transmission to Anya, "This woman really likes to be in the limelight. Her parents were strongly against her going to the Dark Ancient Tower. They thought that there was no need for her to take the risk... In the end, she went to look for the Lady Witch herself and asked her to convince her parents. She insisted on going and even said that she wanted to gain experience. I think she just wanted to take advantage of the opening of the Dark Ancient Tower to show off.”

“Sir Levi once said that having attained a realm without actual combat ability, in the ever-changing Wizard World, where magic is ever-changing, is like a big bad wolf that has lost its teeth. I think this is quite good. She’s already a hundred-year-old adult, so she can take responsibility for her own actions.”

“You keep calling him Sir Levi, you...” Sierra was speechless. Ever since she got to know Anya, this young man seemed to be living in Levi’s shadow all day long, and he never left Levi’s side.

“It’s a pity that Sir Levi can’t enter the Dark Ancient Tower. Otherwise, he might be the dark horse of the Dark Ancient Tower. He’s best at defeating the strong with the weak.

“Whether it was the Snow Lotus Witch, the leaders of the other five towers, or the likes of the [Golden Light Wizard – Gilgar] or the [Sea Aristocrat – Mangang], they might not be a match for Sir Levi if they really fought.

“My mother is very accurate in judging people. Her love for Levi is almost the same as mine. This means that Levi is definitely a young man worthy of her investment!”

Anya sighed. It was his greatest regret that he could not fight alongside Levi and shine in the Dark Ancient Tower!

“Is he really as good as you brag?”

Gilgar was a rare Thunder Elemental Child, and he had a special talent, [Gate of Light]. He had created his own Golden Light Meditation Technique from the Letney family's Golden Lightning Meditation Technique. With a perfected fourth-circle cultivation base, he had killed a dark wizard who had just entered the fifth-circle. ❖

Mangang was a descendant of the Sea Clan's emperor and a primordial soul wizard. In the past thousands of years, he was the only one in the Ocean Abyss Alliance who had cultivated the most difficult Eight-Armed Demon God Body Tempering Technique to the perfected fourth-circle realm before the age of 200. This was one of the 'Four Great Body Refining Techniques of the Antiquity Era'. It was said to be the body tempering technique closest to the Grand Wizard realm. Not to mention, Mangang was also the son of a Water Element Child, and his spell cultivation was far superior to his peers.

No matter how strong Levi is, can he compare to them?"

Sierra didn't believe him at all.

As an Elemental Child, she was only 170 years old and had already reached the fourth-circle, mastering the fifth innate spell. However, in front of the Snow Lotus Witch, the Golden Light Wizard, and the Sea Aristocrat, she was convinced and ashamed of her inferiority.

There was also a gap between prodigies.

Other than the Snow Lotus Witch, the other two had records of killing or severely injuring fifth-circle wizards, although they were suspected of cheating with Wizard Tools or ambushing and injuring them.

However, they were still fifth-circle wizards. Even if Sierra was given three fifth-circle Wizard Tools, she would not dare to fight against them.

“You won’t understand even if I tell you...” Anya shook his head and stopped arguing.

At this moment, a figure appeared in the Witch’s Family. It was Levi.

Anya was pleasantly surprised. He greeted, “Levi, why are you here?”

“Anya, I’m here for Lady Elena. I have something to discuss with her.” Levi smiled.

Not long ago, Levi had rushed over from the human world to the sub-dimensional portal of the Endless Sea. This way, he could reach the Star Sea as soon as possible.

The coordinates of the Great Horned Whale were in the inner sea region, near the Hundred-Eyed Demon Territory.

He planned to capture them after he returned from the Nightmare World. He would also go to Area 9 of the outer sea region and find Baron Deep Sea, Baghdad. He would ask him to mobilize the Sea Clan to help him collect more transcendent creatures and bring them back to the Ancient Saint plane to raise them.

“You know Lady Elena?” Sierra was shocked.

“Yeah, why?” Naturally, Li Wei did not need to hide his relationship with Elena. This way, he could deter some people with ulterior motives.

“It’s nothing.” Sierra was envious. Even as an Elemental Child, she could not go directly to the primordial soul wizard like Levi.

Chapter 1087: Advancement! Nightmare Lord! (6)

At most, they would be given special attention when a primordial soul wizard gave a lecture.

After all, the Witch’s Family had no lack of geniuses.

While Levi and Anya were reminiscing about the past, the Snow Lotus Witch in the distance glanced at Levi from the corner of her eye.

“Why do I feel like there are more and more wizards in the organization recently?” A witch mumbled. Judging from her tone, she was a little dissatisfied.

“I don’t know. Maybe he’s also a primordial soul wizard’s child like Anya?”

“No, he’s just an ordinary external wizard. He used to come from a small organization in the Outer Circle Area, but after the organization was destroyed, he became a nomadic wizard and came to Nether Capital to make a living. Because he’s good at making medicine, he was accepted by Madam Triss. His name is Levi or something.”

“I see. Looking at his spiritual force, he seems to have reached the threshold of a fourth-circle senior wizard, not bad.”

“I have a good relationship with Madam Triss... Perhaps there’s some special treatment. Otherwise, how could he cultivate so quickly?”

The Snow Lotus Witch coughed and suddenly said, “Stop talking. Continue training. Call Anya over.”

She had never heard of Levi and was not interested in him.

On this trip to the Dark Ancient Tower, she only paid attention to five people in the Endless Sea, excluding the wizards above the fifth-circle. They were the leaders of the other five towers.

According to the Lady Witch, the opening of the Dark Ancient Tower this time might be different from the past.

After the Dark Ancient Tower was opened, the battle situation inside would be projected onto the huge tower and then refracted onto the crystal walls of the nearby Multidimensional Plane.

In the past, after the Dark Ancient Tower opened, it would often stop far away from Nora.

Therefore, the people of the Nora plane had no way of seeing the situation inside.

But this time, the Dark Ancient Tower was very close to Nora.

This meant that the fights and battles in the Dark Ancient Tower would be projected onto Nora's crystal wall.

At that time, whether it was the human world or the Wizard World, whether it was an ordinary wizard or a legendary wizard, they would all be able to see the situation inside!

This was a live battle that would be witnessed by all living beings!

Therefore, the top forces of the Wizard World sent out their top talents to show their strength.

Pride was a very mysterious thing. Even wizards would still care about it.

Of course, other than pride, this would also make it easier to attract talent. After the end of the Dark Ancient Tower's talent competition, they would be able to come out on top!

It was said that in the Realm of Crimson, the Nine Cities Alliance had formulated detailed rules for rewards.

For example, a fourth-circle wizard who successfully entered the fourth level would be rewarded with one million Aether Stones after returning, regardless of whether they had any gains or not! There were a lot of similar incentive policies.

Right now, there is already a form of competition between the various sects and organizations.

Everyone had to fight for the honor of their own sect and organization!

If it weren't for the congress' prohibition, these organizations might have already started to formulate rules such as "killing a wizard from another sect or organization will reward you with 100,000 Aether Stones."

The Congress' prohibition of such regulations did not prohibit wizards from killing each other inside.

Killing each other among wizards could not be reflected in policy documents. This was a matter of principle.

Of course, the Congress did not prohibit the hunting of participants from other civilizations.

Those who are not of the same race could be killed if they wished to!

On the other side.

Levi, who was waiting for the Flower Knight in Triss's cabin, learned about the changes in the Dark Ancient Tower from Triss while chatting with her.

"What does Sauron mean by that... He wants to do a live broadcast?" Levi frowned and hesitated.

All along, he had been secretly committing murder and arson, but now that it might be projected and seen by the entire Wizard World, or even other planes, he did not really want to go.

"What's with your expression?" Madam Triss asked when she saw Levi's worried expression.

"It's nothing... Madam, I have a question. Does this projection project everything that happens in the Dark Ancient Tower?"

"Probably not. It's just a random selection of a certain time period and a certain place... I haven't been in there before, so I'm not too sure. I'll ask Lady Witch about it," said Triss.

"Is there any way to hide my projection? What if I get into a dispute with someone inside and accidentally kill someone in self-defense... It's fine if I'm a nomadic wizard, but if I kill members of those big forces, will the Congress or these organizations find me using my spells and wizard tools and take revenge on me?" Levi directly voiced out his worries, hoping that Madam Triss would have a solution. Otherwise, he would have to seriously reconsider whether he should go to the ancient tower.

"I knew you were worried about this. Did you make a lot of enemies outside?" asked Triss.

“No, I just killed some dark wizards,” replied Levi.

Other than killing the dark wizards, the other people he killed were all out of self-defense. At most, it was just excessive self-defense.

“You don’t have to worry too much. First of all, a legendary wizard from the Congress has already expressed his stance. In the Dark Ancient Tower, life and death are not to be discussed. The Congress will definitely not pursue your responsibility... However, if you kill someone important in some organization or the descendants of some big shot, you might be targeted by some people who you can’t afford to play with. So, try to avoid conflict with them. Only battle events will be projected. You’re just searching for treasures, no one will see you. I’ll think of other ways to see if you and Anya can disguise yourselves,” said Triss.

“Thank you, Madam!” Levi nodded.

“Don’t worry too much. I have high hopes for you. If anyone dares to bully the weak and find trouble with you, I won’t put up with it. I’m still brooding over the Molten Gold Wizard King bullying Elena. If it wasn’t for the fact that I couldn’t defeat him, I would have gone to settle the score with him. He dares to bully my sister Elena. I’m so angry!” Triss couldn’t help but curse. It was rare to see Levi after all.

It seemed that Triss and Elena had a good relationship. It probably wasn’t a shallow sisterhood.

As the two of them chatted, Elena walked in. Her back was facing the sun, and her golden hair was shining. She asked seriously, “Levi, are you ready?”

“Lady Elena, I think... I’m ready!”

Chapter 1088: Nightmare Dragon Form! Black Dragon Li Wei, Descends with Flower Knight! (1)

The Endless Sea.

The Witch’s Family, Triss’s Cabin.

Elena, Triss, and Levi sat together.

“Are you two really ready?” Triss asked.

The Flower Knight and Levi glanced at each other and nodded.

“Enter the Nightmare World inside my cabin, that way if there’s a problem, I can assist,” Triss said.

Outside the door, the Rose Witch, who had been immersed in a special potion for over twenty years, arrived.

She looked weak at the moment and said bitterly, “Thank you, Lord Elena, Sir Levi.”

“Not a big deal, just rest,” the Flower Knight said.

The Rose Witch nodded, then lay down on a bed, took a deep breath, and closed her eyes. Before being engulfed by nightmares, she had never thought sleeping could be terrifying.

Soon, after decades of sleeplessness, the Rose Witch fell asleep, even emitting slight snores.

“Wait, she hasn’t entered the nightmare state yet,” Levi said.

The Flower Knight looked at Levi and smiled, “It’s up to you now.”

Levi smiled, feeling proud to be trusted by a primordial soul wizard.

“I also believe in Lord Elena, she will surely slay the Nightmare Lord!” Levi said.

Entering the Nightmare World this time, he wouldn’t be of much use himself, at most dealing with some minor creatures under the command of the Man-Faced Spider. If he encountered the Man-Faced Spider, he would be instantly killed.

His role was to bring in the big shot, Flower Knight, and act like a cheerleader.

Moreover, taking advantage of this opportunity to explore with the Flower Knight, Levi could also learn more about the Nightmare World, making it easier for him to explore alone in the future. R

Before the Rose Witch began to nightmare, Levi said to the Flower Knight, "Lord Elena, I need to imprint a certain strength rune on you with a secret technique, so that I can pull you in after entering the Nightmare World."

Elena thought for a moment, nodded, and said, "Okay, how should I cooperate with you?"

"Just give me your hand," Levi said nervously, touching the primordial soul witch's hand, which seemed a bit offensive... but he had to make physical contact with Elena to solidify the Nightmare Dragon's "lord tracking mark" on her, not because he had any improper intentions.

Triss watched all this with interest, not interrupting the two.

Elena had many thoughts flashing through her mind, but in the end, without hesitation, she boldly reached out her hand.

Levi earnestly grasped Elena's "small hand" with his rough large hand.

Elena's hand was a bit cold, her slender fingers resting on Levi's sweaty palm.

Levi abandoned all distractions and closed his eyes, while Elena quietly watched him.

The next moment, a fantastical black power appeared in Levi's palm and flowed into Elena's palm.

A few minutes later, on the back of Elena's hand, there appeared a vivid imprint of a black dragon.

The dragon's wings were shattered, exuding a terrifying majesty.

"What kind of dragon is this?" Elena's voice echoed in Levi's mind.

She had seen some dragons before, but nothing like this one.

"This is not a real dragon, just some symbolic imagery, not actually existing in the multidimensional plane," Levi thought for a moment, then transmitted his voice.

"Levi, the power you just used... doesn't seem like the method of a wizard," Elena said, as if she had noticed something.

Levi had long expected Elena to say this and was prepared for her to know.

He had a bold idea.

Taking advantage of this opportunity, he would try to pull Elena, this primordial soul witch, into his group.

With this, among the Seven Shining Knights, except for the Snowflake Knight whose whereabouts were unknown, Levi had gathered all six knights who were still alive!

On one hand, this would allow the Twilight Knights to rise to the level of a primordial soul force, no longer needing to be timid or cautious.

On the other hand, it satisfied Levi's collector's instinct and sense of achievement!

"Yes, this is a knight's method," Levi said.

"What? A knight's method?" Even Elena couldn't help but be surprised.

"Yes, indeed. We can discuss the specifics when we return from the Nightmare World. If you're interested, I can also tell you, but please keep it confidential," Levi said.

"Understood. I won't speak a word about the knights to anyone else. Today's journey into the Nightmare World is known only to the four of us in this cabin. They're all trustworthy. You've known Rose and Triss for so long, you know their personality!" Elena replied.

While the two were chatting via telepathy, the body of the Rose Witch began to tremble.

Levi's expression changed, and he approached the bed, taking the Rose Witch's hand in his own, and then the power of the Nightmare Dragon continuously flowed into her.

Before long, Levi's complexion turned slightly pale.

He thought to himself, "It seems that with my current abilities, I can only invite two or three people... It might also be because the Flower Knight is too powerful. If it were an ordinary wizard, perhaps I could invite more."

After branding the Nightmare Dragon on Rose, he wanted to try if he could also invite her to his domain.

In that case, he would indirectly confront the Lord of the Man-Faced Spiders.

Chapter 1089: Nightmare Dragon Form! Black Dragon Li Wei, Descends with Flower Knight! (2)

If the invitation succeeded and Rose became his ally, even if Rose died in the Nightmare World, perhaps she would return to the real world like him.

After completing all this, Levi said, "Madam Triss, Lord Elena, I'm ready to go in."

Triss and Elena looked at Levi and nodded.

Triss even gave Levi a thumbs-up.

“Levi, I believe in you, as always,” she said with a smile. It was the most sincere words an elder could say to a younger one, warming Levi’s heart.

It had been a long time since he had felt this way.

Elena also nodded. “Although we don’t quite know each other, since Triss trusts you so much, I’m sure you can do it!”

Levi flashed a sunny smile, showing his white teeth. He took a deep breath and said, “Thank you.”

Then, black energy surged from Levi’s body and entered the Rose Witch’s head, soothing her gradually.

At the same time, Levi suddenly fell and lay on the left side of the Rose Witch, apparently entering a dream state.

...

When Levi opened his eyes, he found himself standing in front of a dark underwater cave, with a faint green light shimmering within.

Looking at his body, he found no substance, as if he were a writhing mass of black mist.

These black mists were the power of the Nightmare Dragon.

“I’m back at the entrance to that secret realm, or more precisely, the nightmare of the Rose Witch has brought me here again. It seems that this exploration has caused her some lingering psychological trauma. Perhaps that’s why it has given the Man-Faced Spiders an opportunity,” Levi muttered to himself.

The Rose Witch should have entered, so he wasted no time and followed.

Soon after entering the secret realm, Levi found the Rose Witch.

She was sitting under a large tree, hugging her knees, trembling. Her face was pale, her expression pained, making her already lovely face even more pitiable.

“If Newt saw this scene, he would be heartbroken,” Levi sighed.

Newt and Rose had a really good relationship.

Rose’s personality was originally sunny, lively, and outgoing, but now she looked like this. It showed how terrifying nightmares could be.

Next to the Rose Witch were two snake-headed monsters, twisting around her.

One of the snake heads had the face of the Whitewater Witch, and the other was Lehger Leo.

“I’m sorry, sister Whitewater,” she said helplessly to the snake-headed monster.

Levi approached silently without a word.

“Rose Witch is feeling guilty about Whitewater Witch’s death, what’s she thinking? It’s not her fault that Whitewater died.”

Levi realized he had a good mindset since he had already forgotten about Whitewater and Lehger Leo’s deaths.

The black mist churned, killing the snake-headed monsters.

The snake-headed monsters burst like bubbles, leaving no Nightmare Crystals behind.

They weren’t real nightmare creatures, just Rose’s imagination.

But if she kept fantasizing like this for a long time, maybe one day, under the powerful mental obsession, such nightmare creatures would really form in the Nightmare World.

“Rose.”

“Rose!”

Levi kept calling out to the Rose Witch.

But she seemed oblivious, as if she hadn't noticed Levi's presence at all.

He manipulated the black mist of his body and injected it into the Rose Witch's chest.

Immediately, a black Nightmare Dragon imprint appeared on the back of the Rose Witch's hand.

The next moment, the Rose Witch looked up, as if awakened from an endless nightmare.

“Sir Levi... is it you?” The Rose Witch's eyes glistened with tears as she gently wiped them away.

“It’s me. I entered your dream. You’re putting too much pressure on yourself. People can’t come back from the dead. Whitewater and Lehger Leo’s deaths were the Man-Faced Spiders’ fault. If you keep obsessing over this, you’ll always be vulnerable to the Man-Faced Spiders,” Levi said.

The Rose Witch stood up, nodding. “I’m sorry for troubling you and Lord Elena this time, for letting you enter such a dangerous place to save me... sniff...”

“It’s okay. I’m exploring this place for myself too. Don’t worry too much. Now I need to find the entrance to the Nightmare World. Come with me,” Levi said.

“Okay.” The Rose Witch showed a smile that hadn’t been seen for a long time. With Levi by her side, she felt courageous and confident.

Along the way, the Rose Witch kept walking towards the deepest, most fearful place in her memory.

There, would be the node for Levi to enter the Nightmare World.

On the plain, the mist shrouded the area, and the silhouette of the wizard tower stood silently.

In the mist, the sound of monsters could be heard. The Rose Witch followed behind Levi as he transformed into a terrifying nightmare black mist, sweeping out.

Countless nightmare monsters died, and all of their heads were Whitewater and Lehger Leo. None of them had Nightmare Crystals.

Seeing this, Levi gained a clearer understanding of the Nightmare World.

“The Nightmare World is a [primary spiritual plane] constructed by the nightmares, obsessions, fears, and other negative emotions of all living beings since the birth of the universe, similar to the astral world. And the nightmare creatures are the embodiment of these fears... No wonder the Dreamland Steeple said that the Nightmare World might be even more powerful and terrifying than the astral world because the fear of the unknown, death, and the universe is eternal for both humans and other creatures.”

Levi arrived at the intact wizard tower.

In the real world, this place had been destroyed by Levi himself.

But in the Rose Witch’s nightmare, it had never collapsed.

“Levi, on the third floor, there’s a mirror on the wall. We should be able to enter the Nightmare World through it... When I was trapped in the nightmare before, I was tempted and compelled countless times by a mysterious force to go to that mirror. But my reason and will told me that I might be completely pulled into the Nightmare World if I went there. I was on the verge of breaking down. If it weren’t for your arrival, waking me up, maybe this time, I would have come to the mirror and then... disappeared forever,” the Rose Witch recounted, shuddering.

She felt an immense relief at Levi and Elena's presence, seeing them as saviors akin to Heavenly Father and Mother of Earth in the eyes of mortals.

"You should go back first. I'm worried you might encounter attacks from the Man-Faced Spider in the Nightmare World. Your situation is different from mine and Elena's. If we die in the Nightmare World, our consciousness can return... But I can't guarantee the same for you," Levi said.

"Okay, I'll wait for you outside," the Rose Witch agreed.

She left the mist and returned to the ancient forest.

On the other side, Levi arrived at the wizard tower and stood still on one of the floors.

On the wall, there was a mirror.

In the mirror, a world of red and black was reflected.

An endless sky filled with sinister cracks.

There was no sun, no stars in the sky, only a monotonous dark red sky and black fissures.

The last time, Levi encountered the Man-Faced Spider here.

This time, the opponent seemed to be absent.

Levi took a deep breath and then transformed into black smoke, surging into the mirror. The mirror began to ripple like water.

He disappeared into the Rose Witch's dream, truly stepping into this world full of unknowns.

...

In Nightmare World, there was a weave of red and black.

Occasionally, bizarre and beyond rational creatures darted by. Like the creature in front of him. It had nine childlike heads, necks resembling octopus tentacles, and a body akin to a wild boar's. On each side of its body were wings made up of pallid hands. R

As the creature flew past, it cast shadows on the ground.

On the pitch-black, abyssal earth, countless flocks of cawing black crows flew out of the flesh-and-blood trees. Each crow had a woman's face on its head.

These faces were all identical.

The human-faced birds flew towards the distant nine-headed monster bird, incessantly tearing at it. However, the nine-headed creature was powerful. It spat red flames from its nine child heads in all directions, and the palms on its wings fell, striking the crows.

This world was surreal and bizarre.

High above the sky, from a certain crack, an inconspicuous wisp of black smoke emerged.

The black smoke fell onto the wasteland, merging into the trunk of one of the enormous flesh-and-blood trees.

Soon, the flesh began to wriggle, and vine-like tendrils, black as blood vessels, began to grow.

Gurgling black blood flowed continuously from the tendrils to various parts of the flesh-and-blood tree.

Eventually, at the top of the tree, a bizarre and vibrant black flower blossomed.

The bloom was fleeting, its beauty transient.

After withering, a black fruit began to grow.

Its appearance resembled that of a black dragon in a very weird way.

Gradually, the fruit grew larger, becoming a black beast egg with a diameter of about a meter, its jet-black shell radiating a metallic sheen.

Continuous tapping sounds emanated from within.

In the murky darkness, a mini black dragon with black scales, a slender head, and broken black wings was using its mouth to crack open the eggshell.

The cracks on the eggshell spread, suddenly shattering, and the fragments fell to the ground, absorbed by the roots of the flesh-and-blood tree.

A sticky black baby dragon emerged from it, licking the residue on its body, eventually becoming clean and tidy.

“Levi Nightmare Dragon...”

The black dragon continued chanting his name until he transformed into a brawny man, naked and muscular, with runes of the hidden serpent, the white ram, the celestial horse, and the horned bull glowing on his body.

“Crimson Dragon Slash!”

He chanted, and at the same time, black mist coalesced in his hand, forming a crimson flaming sword.

“Golden Dragon Heavenly Shield, Scarlet Shadow, Indestructible Armor...”

Accompanied by waves of black mist, divine weapons began to appear.

Finally, the familiar figure of the towering knight clad in jet-black magical armor stood once again upon the earth.

“So, my divine weapons can also manifest through the power of nightmares.”

Not only that, but Levi’s spatial ring began to materialize on his finger.

He looked at the wizard tools and materials inside, contemplating.

He then attempted to open Alice’s ring, only to find... it failed.

“Transcendent creature spaces cannot be opened, but ordinary rings can...”

Levi extended his hand, summoning a red fire dragon, which then dissipated.

“Innate spells can be used, regular spells are fine... Except for opening Alice’s ring and the Greenfield Immortal House, everything else is unaffected.”

He breathed a sigh of relief.

Before coming here, he had been worried that his abilities such as spells, divine weapons, and wizard tools would be unusable in the Nightmare World.
