Chapter 113: Chaos, Insanity! (3)

"It's getting more and more chaotic."

Levi quickly returned to his territory. He felt the impending doom of a huge storm.

He could not think of any other way to deal with it other than becoming stronger.

In the end, although he was very strong, he was just an insignificant character within the political circle of the Emerald Kingdom,

He thought, "You wouldn't know what the big shots were thinking if you weren't in that world."

Before the king's body was buried in the middle of the first month, someone claimed to have found traces of 'Snow Demon' at the border between the Emerald Kingdom and the Evernight Kingdom.

The Duke of Montenegro, the Earl of Silver Mountain, the Earl of Iron Lake, and a few other great northern nobles joined forces to pressure the Jade Royal Family. They asked the royal family to recruit all the great nobles in the country and use the strength of the entire country to form the Northern Coalition Army to resist the Snow Demon Army that was about to go south.

The royal family was also very confused. The White Horse Knight Edward, the future star of the royal family, was dead. Even the old king was dead. The church had not even had the time to perform the divine gift of the throne to the heir.

Now, the great nobles led by the Northern Seven Flying Cavalry were asking the royal family to mobilize the strength of the entire country to send troops to the north to resist Snow Demons. Was this not a joke?

Even if the royal family were willing to do this, the nobles in the south, who were still far from the Snow Demon, would not be willing.

After all, wasting resources on an expedition to eliminate Snow Demons when they had not even seen them would be too much of a joke.

Almost all the northern nobles were on the same side in this matter. Because they were closer to the Evernight Kingdom, only they could truly feel the horror of the Snow Demon disaster.

Since they could not get a response from the royal family, during the Month of Germinal, the Duke of Montenegro, the leader of the northern nobles, began large-scale recruitment of his vassal nobles. He wanted to go alone to conquer the Snow Demon army that was about to invade the Northern Territory.

The Duke of Montenegro requested that the feudal lords and vassals under him provide sufficient troops and resources.

A month later, the Montenegro Mountain Coalition Army was formed with thousands of cavalymen and foot soldiers.

While the southern nobles remained passive, forces with the banner “Chaos and Freedom” launched riots in their territory. The Wilderness Brotherhood added fuel to the fire.

Not long after, the Earl of Blood of the Lush Forest Province and the Earl of Silversilk of the Blue Sea Province, these two great southern nobles, launched a surprise attack on the noble territories next door without warning. They violated the peace treaty all the great nobles signed under the witness of the Emerald King and launched an unjust war of aggression.

A few months later, the army of the Duke of Montenegro did not appear on the kingdom’s northern border. On the contrary, this powerful army from the northern border had already moved south and suddenly appeared on the fertile plains of the Blue Sea Province and the Lush Forest Province.

The appearance of the Snow Demons in the north was just a rumor. The Duke of Montenegro’s real intention was to unite his minions in the south and devour the fertile land there.

"Heretic" Wilderness Brotherhood and turned a deaf ear to the upcoming civil war.

In just a few months, various forces had appeared, and the entire Emerald Kingdom was in chaos.

In Black Water Valley, Levi felt the chaotic aura in the shelter..
