Chapter 115: Battle of the Grand Knights! (1)

In the year 1010 of the Holy Brilliance Calendar, the Month of Flowing Fire, summer in Icewind City seemed even cooler.

Although the weather was comfortable, Levi knew it was not a good sign.

There was a high chance that the reason for the cold weather was due to the Dark Wave.

Perhaps one day in the distant future, the entire Northern Territory would fall into a cold land like the northernmost land!

There were also those troublesome Snow Demons. Thinking of this, Levi felt even more anxious.

He had to become a wizard as soon as possible and enter the Realm of the Unbelievers to avoid these dangers.

During this period, the Earl of Silver Mountain's army had been intensely patrolling the city every day.

Regardless of whether the Wilderness Brotherhood's army would come or not, they were already prepared to face the enemy.

Meanwhile, the Earl of Silver Mountain's vassal territory constantly sent troops and resources to Icewind City.

Levi rented a house and quietly cultivated.

As the Siren, Giant Rhinoceros, and Man-Faced Spider Breathing Techniques were at their limits for the time being, and the Giant and Turbellaria did not have any secret medicines, Levi spent most of his time on the Black Snake and Blood Whale Breathing Techniques, as well as the Golden Cross Slash.

He would still go to the Shining Tavern regularly, hoping to find what he needed, and then return disappointed repeatedly.

On this day, Levi was returning from the Shining Tavern.

Suddenly, the sound of an assembly horn came from the direction of the city wall.

Levi's heart skipped a beat.

"Looks like the Wilderness Brotherhood's army is here."

He put on the White Wolf Mask and changed his body. With a top-notch movement technique, he headed toward the city wall.

On the city walls, groups of soldiers were gathered. Their expressions were solemn as they looked at the army that had arrived. They were densely packed. At a rough glance, there were probably close to ten thousand people.

The Earl of Silver Mountain personally put on his armor and took command.

His red cloak matched the Leviathan Armor, making him look extraordinary. He held a long spear in his hand and looked at the army before him with a deep gaze.

There were only 2,000 soldiers stationed in Icewind City. This was his entire army. They were elite soldiers who had received good training. In addition, on the city's main road, there was also a team of 200 Alpine Warhorses. This was the trump card of the Earl of Silver Mountain, the "Silver Charging Team." These heavy cavalry teams were all armed with spurs and accompanied by cavalry attendants. When the battle began, they would invincibly break through the enemy's formation and work with elite infantry to reap the enemy's lives.

Outside the city, the Wilderness Brotherhood's army appeared a little shabby. In front of the army was a square formation with shields responsible for covering the soldiers behind them to resist the attacks of arrows. Besides this, a group of seemingly weak militia was behind them.

However, four giant beasts in heavy armor were at the back of the army. These beasts had a horn, were more than four meters tall, and weighed more than ten tons. They were the unique "Ice Rhinoceroses" of the Northern Highlands.

These four Ice Rhinoceroses were all wearing heavy armor that was Tailor-made for them. Coupled with their rough skin and thick flesh, they were the trump cards of the Wilderness Brotherhood and the weapons used to attack the city!

The Earl of Silver Mountain did not expect that the Wilderness Brotherhood could get their hands on such rare war beasts.

Although Ice Rhinoceroses were gentle and rarely hurt humans, it did not mean that they were not dangerous. Their huge size alone was enough to crush most knights below the realm of grand knights. If it was not for the fact that their defense and attack power were not as good as Earthly Dragon Beasts, their popularity could be comparable to Earthly Dragon Beasts.

These Ice Rhinoceroses wore heavy armor, and their defensive shortcomings had been made up for. There might be some trouble next.

When these four giant beasts walked, the ground shook. It was terrifying.

The soldiers guarding the city could not help but panic.

The Earl of Silver Mountain seemed to have sensed the fear of the soldiers. He frowned and shouted, "Everyone, don't panic. I will personally kill these four beasts!"

The soldiers' morale rose as soon as the Earl of Silver Mountain spoke, and the situation improved a little.

Levi, on the other hand, had already slipped out of the city. He hid in the wilderness and felt the tremors of the earth.

"Good lord, the Wilderness operation is quite powerful."

He quietly waited for the war to break out. Once the war broke out, he could capture some people in the chaos and ask about the whereabouts of the Wild Boar Knight. Then, he would go to him to take revenge. At the same time, he would save Old Toby as part of his promise to Little Milan.

The commander of the Wilderness Brotherhood was a peak knight. He waved his meteor hammer and looked at the Earl of Silver Mountain coldly. He did not seem to be afraid of this grand knight.

Not long after, an intense battle erupted.

In the wilderness, the huge rocks shot out by the catapults rumbled.

The soldiers' arrows guarding the city fell like rain on the city wall.

The Ice Rhinoceroses were like tanks, charging toward the city gates and walls despite the rain of arrows.

The Earl of Silver Mountain leaped from the city wall like a silver God of War and charged toward the four giant beasts.

As long as he could eliminate these giant beasts, the heavily armored cavalry under his command could easily disperse and divide the enemy's formation. Then, the rest would be easy.

While the two sides were fighting, Levi also took action. The White Wolf Mask appeared on the dusty battlefield and then easily disappeared after snatching away a soldier.

"Tell me, where is the Wild Boar Knight?" Levi asked coldly as he looked at the confused soldier of the Wilderness Brotherhood..
