

Wizard 118

Chapter 118: Instant Kill. Level 2 Hell! (2)

The death of such a strategic Siege Beast disadvantaged the Wilderness Brotherhood's army.

Ultimately, the commander did not wait for the vice president to come to his aid. He sounded the bell and withdrew his troops. The army began to withdraw, leaving behind a pile of corpses.

The other side had a grand knight, heavy cavalry, and a well-trained army. It would be difficult to break through the city without a grand knight on their side. They could only think of other ways.

Of course, the Earl of Silver Mountain's side also suffered many losses.

However, he had a large family and business and could still bear this loss.

The Earl of Silver Mountain had also suffered a lot of injuries. There was no winner in the war.

Within Silver Mountain Castle, the Earl of Silver Mountain was healing his wounds and listening to his subordinate's report.

"You didn't find Yatos?" Silver Mountain frowned and asked.

"Yes, but our spies have discovered that Yatos didn't appear in the Wilderness Brotherhood these days. He disappeared mysteriously, including the team he led."

"Then, we found traces of a huge battle in the direction where Yatos was running. Although the traces were erased, we could still see it was a battle between grand knights."

"We suspect that when Yatos was retreating, he encountered an enemy who was a grand knight. He is very likely dead."

As the subordinate spoke, he felt incredulous.

A grand knight died in a small forest for no reason. It was indeed shocking.

The Earl of Silver Mountain said, "Continue to investigate. We must find out where Yatos is."

He was enduring the pain of healing himself.

"If Yatos is dead, who in Icewind City has the strength to kill Yatos? Shining Tavern?"

It was unclear whether this unknown grand knight was a friend or foe, so the Earl of Silver Mountain did not dare to let his guard down.

He would not naively think the other party was his friend just because he killed Yatos.

In this world, there were no friends, only benefits.

Levi did not return to Icewind City. The Icewind City had recently been too chaotic, and he had achieved his goal, so he returned to the territory.

He used antiseptic, mercury, and other materials to treat the grand knight Yatos' body. He was prepared to turn it into a living dead after the Seal of Hell reached the second level.

Levi looked at everything satisfactorily and patted Magic Shark's shoulder, "You'll have company in the future."

Then, Levi was fully armed and prepared the Seal of Protection, ready to be activated at any moment.

Only then did he remove the snuff bottle that seemed like a wizard item.

"What the hell is this?"

"There's no instruction manual or anything."

In this aspect, he was not comparable to the witch, Gullwing.

It was a pity that Yatos died, or Levi could have asked him.

He looked at the snuff bottle carefully. The lid could be twisted open.

However, Levi would not do something that only the brainless main characters of horror movies would do.

If an evil spirit were sealed inside, he would probably die on the spot. In the end, Levi studied it for a long time but found nothing useful.

"Forget it; let's seal it first."

Levi sealed the snuff bottle in a Russian box.

Some were made of iron, others of silver and wood. Some were even made of pure gold.

He was slightly relieved but did not put the snuff bottle in the shelter for safety reasons.

It buried it under a tree in the territory.

He planned to wait until he advanced to a grand knight and mastered the Seal of Dragon Might before trying to open it by force.

After all, there might be clues about wizards inside, so Levi could not give up.

"Witch Guelwig, Witch Rollin, the Spirit Exorcism Manual, and the wizard's snuff bottle... The number of clues is increasing."

Levi was in a good mood. He looked at the situation in the territory and saw that nothing had happened recently. He quickly grasped the proficiency of the Seal of Hell.

In the Month of the Furnace of the year 1010 of the Holy Brilliance Calendar, the Emerald Kingdom was in chaos. The new King ascended the throne and summoned all the nobles to join hands to crusade against the Duke of Montenegro's betrayal of the alliance.

He also implored the church to mobilize the Radiant Knights to punish the Duke of Montenegro.

The church was busy settling the heretic Wilderness Brotherhood and ignored the King's pleas.

The Montenegro Mountain Army had already taken over many small nobles' fiefs in the south.

The southern nobles had been living in peace for too long. In the face of the aggressive Montenegro Mountain Army, they could not organize effective resistance.

However, they established a Southern Coalition Army under the new Emerald King's organization. Together with the royal family, they launched a counterattack against the Duke of Montenegro.

Meanwhile, the Tuva Empire, suffering from the same problem, still had a civil war.

Due to the Fist of the Empire's disappearance, fewer people supported him, and more and more people joined the rebel army.

It was only a matter of time before the rebel army unified the country.

Everyone seemed to have forgotten the threat of Snow Demons.

And the situation in Icewind City was not too good either.

Previously, there was a civilian riot in the city, which caused the Earl of Silver Mountain to be in a bad state for a long time. Ultimately, he found out it was indeed the Wilderness Brotherhood.

These people were beheaded as a warning to others.

However, the subsequent riots did not decrease, as the Wilderness Brotherhood attacked everywhere.

The Lord of the Wilderness, a heretic god that the church viewed as evil began appearing in everyone's sights.

The words "the Great Heavenly Father" that some commoners spoke of had unknowingly become "the Great Chaos above" or "the Great Lord of the Wilderness."

This was probably why the church did not care about the disputes between the nobles and insisted on eliminating the Wilderness Brotherhood.

Even if the noble forces were completely reshuffled and the Emerald Kingdom became the Montenegro Mountain Empire, it would not make any difference to the church.

The Heavenly Father was still the only true god of this new kingdom.

However, the rise of the Lord of the Wilderness undoubtedly took away the foundation of the church's faith. To the Church of Holy Light, cultists who spread heretical beliefs were their primary enemies.

After many twists and turns, Levi finally found out the whereabouts of the Wild Boar Knight, who had died in the process of being sent out by Yatos to carry out a mission...

"D*mn it, why can't you wait for me!" Levi sighed in regret.

Although Levi did not kill the Wild Boar knight himself, after much effort, he finally managed to bring back Old Toby, who was doing quite well in the Wilderness Brotherhood. He also learned a lot about the Wilderness Brotherhood from Old Toby.

Old Toby was older now, so Levi did not let him continue forging. Instead, he asked him to guide the newcomers.

Little Milan was already able to take charge of his affairs. He should also enjoy his later years.

Levi did not have any thoughts of revenge against the Wilderness Brotherhood. That was the church's business. He did not want the church to take advantage of his labor for free.

In this chaotic world, bandits ran amok.

Bandits and wandering knights had invaded even the previously peaceful Black Water Valley.

However, in the face of Levi's Red Blood Cavalry and his combat power close to that of a grand knight, they were all easily annihilated.

Even the Abraham Church had been burned, killed, and looted by the thugs under the Wilderness Brotherhood.

Zaroff shamelessly asked Levi for help, and Levi naturally agreed to Zaroff's request.

During an invasion, he had asked his militia to assist, which satisfied Zaroff.

Then, three days later, a group of rioters, led by a masked villain, released poison in the middle of the night, killing a group of clergymen, burning, killing, and looting, causing the church to suffer heavy losses.

The shameless Zaroff was furious. He was so angry that he had a heart attack. He was in bed for a few days before he recovered.

In response, his good neighbor, Baron Levi, strongly condemned the villains and encouraged Priest Zaroff to face all the difficulties with a smile.

In this chaotic world, absurd things were happening every day.

Levi was thriving in the cultivation realm. He progressed daily and achieved great heights.

Finally, Levi upgraded the Seal of Hell to level 2 during the Month of Wheatfield..