Chapter 1241: Ascension to the Fifth Circle (6)

The Holy Infant's aura, previously at the perfection of the fourth-circle, broke through in an instant!

As a part of Levi, the Holy Infant naturally ascended alongside his main body.

"205 years old, entering the fifth-circle, gaining at least a thousand years of life. This calls for a celebration. Today, I, the Holy Infant, will take a day off!"

The Holy Infant lay on his bed, falling into a deep sleep, utterly exhausted.

On the ground lay mountains of divine talisman waste and black beast bones.

In the crater, a towering figure shot up, breaking through the high heavens, laughing heartily.

"Hahaha, the fifth-circle, just one circle short of the sixth!"

Calming down, Levi mused to himself, "Is this what they mean by... swallowing a crystal, and my fate is in my hands, not the heavens'?"

He felt the stark difference in the quality of his spiritual force and spell power compared to his fourth-circle days. His perception and thoughts were clearer, and on the fifth-circle Divine Tower, the talent spell models were more intricate and lifelike.

With his ascension, everything improved.

He casually unleashed a Fire Dragon Tribulation, which exploded ten miles away.

Boom!

The fire illuminated the sky like a sunset.

“287 Cas... what a wonderful number. Just stepping into the fifth-circle, my third-circle innate spell already rivals the level of a senior fifth-circle wizard.”

As Levi’s spiritual force grew, the power of his innate spells could also increase, albeit not as dramatically as with a breakthrough.

Levi tested Water Dragon’s Song, Earth Dragon Barrier, Thunder Dragon Flash, Wind Dragon Scamper, Ice Dragon Prison... all his spells had significantly increased in power!

Not only that, Levi opened his mouth.

A round, chicken-egg-sized, iridescent crystal appeared.

“My spiritual force crystal has completely solidified, and its hardness surpasses even fifth-grade metals. Some desperate wizards might use their crystals to attack, but I’ll pass. This is a wizard’s lifeline.”
らんおん

The spiritual force crystal is akin to the elemental core of elemental spirits and the Abyssal core of demons but differs in that when a fifth-circle wizard dies, their crystal, lacking a soul anchor, disintegrates instantly. The other two cores, however, remain intact.

Generally, the color of a spiritual force crystal correlates with the wizard’s meditation art.

For example, wizards of the Burning Faction usually have red crystals, though variations exist.

Levi’s crystal, due to his Aether Meditation Art encompassing earth, fire, wind, water, metal, thunder, and ice, was iridescent. One of his crystals equaled seven of another wizard’s.

In ancient times, spiritual force crystals were often irregular in shape. With the progress of wizard civilization, they now mostly represent perfection as spheres.

Inside Levi’s spiritual force crystal, hundreds of spell models flickered.

These were all the various non-innate spells he had learned, from cantrips to fourth-circle spells. Previously in his mind, they were now naturally contained within the crystal upon his ascension to the fifth-circle.

As for his six commonly used innate spells, Levi had solidified them on the Divine Ring Tower.

After toying with the crystal, Levi inhaled, and it returned to his mind.

“Interesting.”

At the same time, Levi took out his most important Fifth-Circle Wizard Tool, the Circle of Ouroboros.

As he chanted the incantation, the Wizard Tool shrank, entering his mind and drilling into the Divine Ring Tower. It settled beside the iridescent crystal, surrounding it and slowly rotating.

“Hehehe, using the Wizard Tool will be much more convenient and quick now. With just a thought, I can wield it!”

This was a small change that came after reaching the Fifth-Circle. Wizards could store their Wizard Tools in their mindscape, enhancing their synergy with them. Of course, this was limited to Fifth-Circle Wizard Tools and above.

Besides this, Levi felt that his unique “iridescent crystal” should have other uses. Since it was unprecedented, he needed to research it gradually.

Levi held the Klein Crystal Ball.

[Mental Power: 600/1070]

[Spell Power: 60000]

“After advancing to the Fifth-Circle, my mental power has increased significantly, by a full thirty points. This saves me years of arduous cultivation. Only 470 points away from mental power perfection... assuming I don’t use any Truth Oddities. Unfortunately, after mental power solidification, even if I increase my mental power limit with treasures, it won’t enhance the success rate of forming the primordial soul. My additional success rate is fixed at 7%, but it’s not a big issue. There will be other ways to improve it later. The sooner I advance, the sooner I can enjoy the benefits. There’s no point in being stuck at the limit. I, Levi, have no regrets!”

Moreover, after the Fifth-Circle, 1 point of mental power equated to 100 points of spell power, which was a significant boost.

“After reaching the Fifth-Circle, having 700 mental power and mastering two Fifth-Circle Talents, one can be considered a senior Fifth-Circle wizard. Those with mental power exceeding 900, nearing 1000, can be considered at the perfection of the Fifth-Circle. After the screenings at the Third-Circle and Fourth-Circle, the number of innate spells will become an important standard for assessing the strength of Fifth-Circle wizards.”

For Levi, the next step was to proceed with his cultivation and research into Fifth-Circle Talents methodically.

He would also work on arrays and weapon refinement, keeping them in line with his wizardry realm.

“There’s no rush. Advancing to the Fifth-Circle calls for a proper celebration, a break to consolidate my realm, and perhaps checking out some projections.”

Chapter 1242: Ascension to the Fifth Circle (7)

Levi returned to his secluded retreat and learned through the Twilight Round Table that everything was well in the Ancient Saint plane.

He began to review the battle projections within the ancient tower that had occurred during his retreat.

After some time, his expression turned cold:

“Anya actually encountered the Fire Dragon Destroyer. Fortunately, she had Madam Triss’s trump card and managed to escape. Very well, Simon, I’ll remember you. If my good friend, the Three-Headed Dragon Abomination, meets you in the wild, you’re done for!”

Having rested, Levi dismantled the array protecting his retreat and erased all traces of his presence.

He stored away Sawkins, activated the Hermit Rune, and flew towards his offshore shelter.

Several days later, on the way, his expression changed as he held his breath.

He sensed two Fifth-Circle auras flying several miles away, oblivious to his presence.

After advancing to the Fifth-Circle and activating the Hermit Rune, only a primordial soul wizard, or someone with special perception techniques at close range, could detect Levi.

“Two witches from the Witch’s Family, one of whom is the Snow Lotus Witch... What’s going on? Could there be a treasure appearing in Thunder Basin?”

Pondering this, Levi silently followed them.

If the treasure was destined for him, he couldn’t let it slip away.

In the Million Mountains, the Holy Infant waved his small hand, collecting a pile of level 3 divine talismans.

He exited the shelter, looked towards Thunder Basin, and then transformed into a red light, disappearing.

Several days later, Levi, tracking the Snow Lotus Witch, returned to Thunder Basin.

“It seems they’re heading to the Thunder Punishment Tribunal. If I remember correctly, there’s a senior Fifth-Circle archmage there,” Levi murmured, puzzled.

His confusion turned to rage when he saw Anya in the distance, being tormented by lightning in the Thunder Pool.

“It seems Anya escaped Simon only to fall into the hands of Archmage Thunderbolt. Because Thunderbolt’s power wasn’t enough, there was no projection of their fight... But Anya doesn’t appear to be in mortal danger for now.”

With this thought, Levi quickly flew to the edge of the Thunder Pool, stopping just short of being detected.

In the Thunder Pool, Anya looked haggard and severely injured. The Phantom Witch beside her was in no better condition, her clothes in tatters and burn marks everywhere. Leaning against Anya’s shoulder, her eyes suddenly sparkled.

“Anya, I think I saw the Snow Lotus Witch. The organization is here to save us. That’s great...” the Phantom Witch said weakly.

“Perhaps we’ll be killed by Thunderbolt before they can save us,” Anya replied, pouring cold water on her hope.

Above the Thunder Pool, Thunderbolt, who was meditating, opened his eyes. He wasn't flustered but smiled.

"You've arrived."

The Snow Lotus Witch said, "Release those four people over there, and we'll leave immediately!"

Nola's mother looked grim. Her daughter's soul token had shattered long ago, likely killed by this archmage. She clenched her fists, holding back from attacking.

"Hahaha, foreigners, do you think our Church is a place you can come and go as you please?"
Thunderbolt laughed angrily.

The Snow Lotus Witch said coldly, "Then we have no choice but to fight."

Thunderbolt confidently replied, "Come at me all at once. I, Kostadt, accept your challenge... Today, under the Supreme Archmage and in front of the Kane Empire citizens, I will shatter your pride with thunder and throw you and those four into the Thunder Pool to be baptized by lightning!"

"Delia, watch these prisoners!"

Thunderbolt spoke to the thunderbird in the sky.

The thunderbird let out a reluctant cry in response, signaling its understanding.

With a confident laugh, Thunderbolt faced his opponents, unafraid of the two-on-one battle. Terrifying lightning crackled around him, forming a domain of thunder that spanned several miles!

The Snow Lotus Witch and Nola's mother, not daring to underestimate him, unleashed their innate spells towards Thunderbolt.

In an instant, a Fifth-Circle level battle erupted.

"We must win!" Sierra hoped fervently.

Anya remained calm, seemingly without hope.

He thought that Thunderbolt broadcasting this battle nationwide might be a trap, fearing he might not only be unable to escape but also implicate the Fifth-Circle wizards in their organization.

At that moment, a figure suddenly appeared in the void around Anya.

Lightning surged towards the figure but failed to make contact.

The figure, dressed in white robes, was an elderly man with white hair and youthful features, exuding the aura of a Fifth-Circle powerhouse.

Holding a staff as tall as a person, he resembled a mage from the Kane Empire.

Without even activating a protective force field, he stepped directly into the Thunder Pool!

“So comfortable... After being in seclusion for so long, I’ve become somewhat addicted to the electric shocks,” Levi murmured to himself.

His sleeves billowed, revealing thick arms with bulging veins and menacing muscles.

He struck a massive white jade pillar hundreds of meters tall with one palm.

In the next moment, the pillar shattered.

With hands like knives, he severed the chains one by one!

Without even looking, he sent a palm strike to the side.

Red flames erupted, blasting away the Fifth-Circle thunder element, Delia, who had launched a sneak attack!

He chanted incantations, and array items swirled around him. Streams of light entered the people around him, breaking the restrictions set by Thunderbolt.

“You are free now. No need to thank me. I am Gandalf,” said the old man’s voice, kind and gentle, instilling a sense of security.

He waved his hand, scattering a heap of potions to replenish stamina, spell power, and spiritual force—showing great consideration.

“Thank you, elder!”

“Thank you, elder!”

With the restrictions broken, a group of nomadic wizards rejoiced, drank the potions, and scattered like birds and beasts.

The Phantom Witch, slightly recovered, grabbed the inexplicably unconscious Anya and quickly left, not forgetting to say, “Thank you, Elder Gandalf!”

Meanwhile, the Snow Lotus Witch, fighting Thunderbolt, was delighted. She wondered where this mysterious expert had come from, hiding nearby and intervening at this crucial moment!

Seeing that the four members of the Witch's Family had escaped, she focused on buying them more time.

Thunderbolt roared, and terrifying lightning exploded.

"How dare you!"

He conjured a giant hand of thunder, sending it towards the white-robed wizard.

"Why wouldn't I dare? I, the Archmage, have long despised the Church!"

Gandalf theatrically threw a bunch of low-level fireball talismans and lime talismans, exploding like fireworks over the Thunder Pool, filling the air with light and smoke.

When the light cleared, Gandalf was already gone.

"Arrgh!" Thunderbolt roared in frustration. He hadn't expected things to turn out this way.

Despite his strength and the support of the Fifth-Circle thunder element, Gandalf had slipped away!

The attacks from the two Fifth-Circle witches intensified, forcing him to focus entirely on defending himself.

Before long, with a loud cry from the Snow Lotus Witch, a giant snow-white lotus, nearly a hundred meters in diameter, bloomed behind her. Thirty-six petals spun out, encircling Thunderbolt and trapping him!

Innate spell: Lotus Seal!

“Let’s retreat too, before reinforcements arrive,” she said.

Nola’s mother glared at Thunderbolt with hatred but reluctantly left. She wasn’t his match and couldn’t avenge her daughter.

“Everyone, go capture them! What are you waiting for?” Thunderbolt yelled at the stunned mages.

Only then did he notice that some mages were already dead, their spiritual force and souls shattered, leaving only empty shells standing there.

“Gandalf! The Supreme Eye is watching you; you won’t escape!”

Thunderbolt roared.

Thousands of miles away, high in the sky, the white-robed elder concealed himself in the void.

Seeing Anya rescued by the Snow Lotus Witch and escaping, he smiled in satisfaction.

“Indeed, I prefer to do good deeds and then leave without a trace, keeping my achievements hidden... Next, I’ll find an opportunity to liberate that Fifth-Circle thunder element. I can’t bear to see it suffer under the Church.”

Muttering to himself, he departed, heading to rendezvous with the Holy Infant.

Chapter 1243: Anya Wakes Up

Year 1196 of the Holy Brilliance Calendar, Month of Beginning.

Year 31 of the Dark Ancient Tower Calendar.

Levi was 206 years old now.

On a small island that was isolated from the rest of the world, Holy Infant was already waiting there. Seeing this, Levi smiled and commented, "Not bad. Buy one, get one free. Each person has a fifth-circle. Two people benefit."

He counted Sawkins, Pixar, the Mind Flayers, and the Alchemy Eagle.

There were already six level 5 combatants on his side.

Holy Infant clone then handed Levi a large pile of refined divine talismans, as well as the other rare materials he had obtained during this period of time, including the Blue Moon Flame Ore.

Levi asked the Holy Infant clone to stay here for the time being. Mind Flayers was already at level 5 and had become a high-level demon. Mind Flayers did not need Holy Infant's help for the time being.

Levi opened his proficiency panel and found that his talisman creation skill was still far from reaching level 4.

"Let's take it slow. Level 3 should be enough. After I refine the divine weapon, I'll capture the three Earthquake Dragons first and refine the Truth Oddity. Then, I'll return and take away the lightning elemental spirit from the Tribunal."

After a short exchange with the thunder Archmage, Levi knew that this person was definitely a fifth-circle senior mage and was not weaker than Sorrett.

Another reason why Levi was wary of him was his identity. The Archmage was the disciple of Lightning Supreme Mage, a level 6 expert.

If the thunder Archmage was forced into a corner, Levi would die without a burial place since the thunder Archmage had the protection of the level 6 divine talisman given by Lightning Supreme Mage.

Of course, from what he knew, even a Supreme Mage wouldn't have too many level 6 divine talismans. After all, level 6 beast skins and various rare materials were needed, and the success rate was very low.

However, it was better to be safe than sorry. One had to think of the worst.

"You can continue making talismans. I'll be relying on you for my way of divine talisman in the future. This will be my unique trump card against other wizards."

Levi sent Holy Infant away.

He took out the Blue Moon Flame Ore and asked Phoenix to do its old job of making fire.

"Work hard. I'll find you a wife after a while... Although elemental spirits can't reproduce, it's always good to have a companion."

Phoenix laughed coldly in its heart, "You're giving me an empty promise again. You sc*mbag. You wanted to give me up to someone else back then."

Phoenix cursed and scolded Levi, but it still obediently went to light the fire.

A bird under the eaves had no choice but to lower its head.

Today was the 95th round table meeting of the Twilight Knights.

As Levi entered, the members all arrived.

It was still the 18 people from before. In Levi's opinion, unless some true knight geniuses appeared later, it would be difficult to change the current lineup of Twilight Knights.

"Hello, Commander."

"Hello, everyone."

Golden Lion Knight said, "It's been 31 years since you left. I wonder when will the Dark Ancient Tower close?"

Levi replied, "I'm not too sure. From the looks of it, it's probably only halfway through."

Dinos said with a smile, "I see. There are nearly thirty of us level 1 knights now. By the time you come back, there might be more than a hundred of us."

"Very good," Levi said, "This is just the beginning. In the future, the recruitment standards of the holy temple should be raised accordingly. We don't need too many people. We only need a group of true elites."

"There are nearly ten level 1 knights in the Midland Knights," the Black Knight said, "Moreover, we found a wizard with the second special talent a few days ago. He will be sent to the headquarters for further study."

"Not bad. How's the situation in the human world recently?" asked Levi.

Blood Knight replied, "The Black Dragon Empire's vanguard has already fought with the Church of Storm. Saint Groudou fought three level 6 Cave Wizards alone and was not at a disadvantage. Also, some time ago, it was suspected that there were primordial soul wizards from the congress fighting with foreign races in the human world. The human world will be even more turbulent from now on."

Levi said with a serious expression, "We have to be even more careful. We'll talk about it when I get back."

"Understood."

The meeting ended.

After chatting with Flower Knight about the situation on the seventh floor, Levi returned to his normal cultivation days.

According to the tracking mark he left behind, the three Earthquake Dragons had indeed returned to their nest.

“Three Earthquake Dragons, one for me and one for the Holy Infant. Phoenix will fight one of them on the Alchemy Eagle. Perfect.”

There was an advantage to being on the fifth level. Basically, as long as one did not fight with other participants, they would not be projected.

Levi estimated that one would have to at least fight with a native with a perfected fifth-circle before they were qualified to be projected. However, there were not many such existences.

...

West coast.

Deep Blue Organization.

Witch's Family residence.

Anya opened his eyes and saw Sierra's face.

"Team Leader, how long have I been asleep?"

"Not long, a month."

"Why did I suddenly faint?"

"Perhaps your willpower has reached its limit. After all, you've been tortured for a month. Even with my perfected fourth-circle spiritual force, I'm almost numb."

"No, it's not... I feel like someone knocked me out with a spiritual force attack. What happened that day? Please tell me."

Sierra told Anya about what happened that day.

"White-robed Wizard Gandaph, a fifth-circle wizard with infinite strength?" Anya muttered.

Sierra nodded and sighed, "Senior Gandaph is too strong. He shattered the white jade pillar that suppressed us with one palm, then sent the level 5 thunder element flying with one palm. He also took a direct blow from the furious thunder Archmage and escaped calmly. He saved dozens of nomadic wizards imprisoned by the Tribunal, but no one knows his background. Some people said that he should be an unknown fifth-circle nomadic wizard who had concealed his identity and name. When he passed by this place, he saw injustice on the way and pulled out his sword to help. Some people said that he was a native mage of the Kane Empire, but because he didn't agree with the Church's ideals, he deliberately targeted the Church. In short, without him, we might not have been able to escape."

Chapter 1244: Sky Fire Fortress

When Anya heard this, he said with yearning, "Sigh, becoming such a powerful person is my goal. I can come and go as I please. When my injuries recover, I want to break through to the fifth-circle as soon as possible."

Sierra agreed, "That's right. After advancing to the fifth-circle, even if we can't defeat a freak like Simon, we can still escape."

Anya said, "On the fifth level, the fifth-circle is a dividing line. In the vast Io Continent, natives with sixth-circle and above are as rare as phoenix feathers and qilin horns. They won't attack easily, but those with fifth-circle and below are as common as carp crossing the river..."

While the two were chatting, the Snow Lotus Witch walked in.

"Greetings, Lord Snow Lotus," Anya quickly stood up and said.

He had mixed feelings. In the past, he could still call her Madam Snow Lotus. Now that she was already a fifth-circle witch, it was more appropriate to call her Lord out of courtesy.

Snow Lotus Witch got Anya to continue lying down. She said, "No need to be so polite. It's more important for you to recuperate. Do you know Master Gandaph from that day?"

Anya and Sierra shook their heads.

Snow Lotus Witch said, "I understand. I've also reported the situation of the Dead Soul Date Tree to the Commander-in-chief. It was taken away by Simon. There's nothing we can do about it. You don't have to blame yourself too much. Also, Sharman and Amy will also be punished by the organization. We will not tolerate people who betray their teammates. Anya, you used some precious trump cards. The organization will compensate you."

"Thank you, Lord Snow Lotus," Anya thanked her.

Both his and Sierra's storage rings had been plundered by the enemy. There was even a fifth-circle Wizard Tool given by his mother and other than that, there were also many cultivation resources.

This was a huge loss, and the organization's compensation could only make up for part of it.

Thinking of this gave him a headache.

Fortunately, his true trump card was hidden in his body by his mother. Otherwise, he would have suffered a huge loss.

On the other side, Snow Lotus Witch arrived at the residence of the Witch's Family's Commander-in-Chief.

There were already six fifth-circle wizards waiting there.

"Sorry for making everyone wait."

The commander-in-chief was an old woman with perfected fifth-circle. Her spiritual force was already at its limit, but she did not have the courage to take the last step.

The primordial soul stage was the true life-and-death trial. Stepping through it was a smooth journey... But if they couldn't pass, only a few lucky ones could survive.

After all, apart from the success rate, if they wanted to completely attain the primordial soul, they still needed to go through some unimaginable calamities.

The commander said, "Simon of the Nine Cities Alliance snatched the Dead Soul Date Tree that should have belonged to us. We will have to take revenge sooner or later. However, now that the Nine Cities Alliance is at its peak, Deep Blue Organization's strategy is to temporarily retreat and wait for an opportunity. It's best if the Nine Cities Alliance and the foreign tribes fight each other. We'll benefit from it."

"That makes sense. The Amethyst Race Sacred Land is located in the Million Mountains, which isn't too far from the Nine Cities Alliance's Holy Fire Plateau. Sooner or later, the territories of these two organizations will be connected. At that time, conflict will definitely erupt!"

...

At the intersection, the Holy Fire Plateau.

In Io Continent, this was the place closest to the sun.

The intense power of the holy flame illuminated this place.

They wanted to make this place a holy land for the wizards of the Nine Cities Alliance.

The plateau was vast, second only to the Million Mountains in the intersection.

The Nine Cities Alliance had found many Truth Oddities here, even though most of them were Earth-level.

In the middle of the plateau, there was a crimson wizard city with a diameter of about three kilometers floating high in the sky. It was called [Sky Fire Fortress]!

This wizard city was not built on a pile of wizard cities but was one whole entity.

This fortress-like wizard city was a unique treasure in itself.

Exotic treasures were a type of wizard's treasure that was difficult to rank like a Wizard's Tool.

For example, the [Teatime Round Table], [Excalibur], and [Truth Magic Mirror] that Levi had obtained were treasures.

This wizard city was created with the combined power of the nine cities of the Nine Cities Alliance. Each city sent out a primordial soul weapon craftsman to refine the shell of a level 7 giant turtle.

It was said that the giant turtle was called Antu. It was a thousand meters in diameter and had lived for more than fifty thousand years. It had gone from an unremarkable little turtle to a level 7 ruler of a medium-sized plane with great difficulty. In the end, it was still killed.

The fact that they had brought the Sky Fire Fortress in showed how much importance the Nine Cities Alliance placed on the opening of the Dark Ancient Tower.

The Sky Fire Fortress itself was a large-scale treasure that gathered the fire elemental power.

Those who cultivated here were naturally elites.

In order to prevent the Sky Fire Fortress from being lost in the ancient tower, there was a primordial soul wizard in the city who was in charge of controlling the treasure.

However, due to the rules of the ancient tower, this primordial soul wizard could not make a move and could only act as a strategic deterrent.

In fact, some large-scale guilds also had primordial soul wizards hidden in them. The main purpose was to prevent the members of the organization from being wiped out by level 6 native experts. That would not be worth it.

In the city.

Simon returned victorious amidst the cheers of the crowd.

The Fire God phantom behind him directly flew the Church's treasury over.

The enforcers of the Nine Cities Alliance quickly came to welcome them.

With the help of some of Simon's spies, he had defeated an army of the Witch's Family single-handedly. The news had spread throughout the city.

“So strong. As expected of the Fire Dragon Destroyer! What kind of rotten fish and prawns are the Ocean School of Thought!”

“That’s right. If we, from the Burning School of Thought, were to take action, it would be a huge blow. However, those witches are so beautiful. It’s a pity that Sir Simon directly destroyed them.”

Chapter 1245: Going to Arcanist of Blood Relic

As the captain of the law enforcement team that maintained order in the city, the Blood Demon Tower Master looked at Simon, who was respected by tens of thousands of people. He appeared to be happy, but he was disdainful in his heart. “A group of children playing house. However, this Death Soul Date is good stuff. It’s a pity that it belongs to the organization...”

The Blood Demon Tower Master’s eyes rolled, and his thoughts were active. His professional habits as a dark wizard began to act up, making him unable to resist the urge to do something.

“No, I’ve already obtained the Cry of the Cicada. I can’t cause any more trouble!” He warned himself.

However, the greed in his heart was like a demon, whispering in his ear.

“Sigh, I still can’t change my old habits.”

...

Three months passed quickly.

During this time, while Phoenix was burning iron, Levi was busy crafting an array.

This array was the [Earth Sinking Serene Prison Array] that he had obtained from Witch Mary.

He combined his own ideas and knowledge with the foundation of Witch Mary and made some modifications to the array.

This way, the control effect of the array would be even stronger.

Since he did not need to refine it again, Levi finished modifying it in three months.

He opened the proficiency panel.

Levi —

[Array: Level 8 (fifth-circle):(1/100,000)]

...

Levi was in a good mood after becoming a fifth-circle wizard. He sighed, “Out of the Three Arts of Wizardry, the one that consumes the most of my energy, resources, and wealth is the array. However, I was able to kill a fifth-circle wizard when I was still a fourth-circle wizard, and it was also because of the help of the array.”

Next, he would use the Earth Sinking Serene Prison Array he had refined to capture the three Earthquake Dragons!

Several days later.

Phoenix had also finished refining the Blue Moon Flame Ore.

Levi patted Phoenix’s head and smiled. He said, “You’re able to achieve what you have today because of my hard work. You have to learn to be grateful and repay me in the future. Do you understand?”

Phoenix was speechless.

After giving Phoenix half a day off, Levi began to reforge the Crimson Dragon Slash.

“I’ve already added several types of level 5 fire element metals and other rare materials into this divine weapon. After it’s forged, it should be enough for me to use for a long time.”

His movements were non-stop, tempering the Crimson Dragon Slash again and again, pouring the blue molten iron into it.

A month later, a brand new Crimson Dragon Slash appeared.

It was still a red sword, but it emitted a faint blue luster.

“It’s said that this Blue Moon Flame Metal contains a strange flame. How about I try its power?”

Levi held the Crimson Dragon Slash in his hand and came to the surface of the sea. He slashed out with the Heavenly Dragon Sword Codex!

At the same time, the Crimson Emperor Dragon Flames in the Fire Dragon’s true form, the Black Flame Void in the Indestructible Armor, and the faint blue flame in the Crimson Dragon Slash fused together. The three fire dragons fused and spun around the red dragon-shaped Sword Qi!

Boom!

The Sword Qi swept past and brought the three fire dragons far away before they exploded!

Red, blue, and black merged together, eventually turning into a deep blue mushroom cloud of flames that soared into the sky.

The seawater evaporated, and clouds and mist filled the air!

“291 Cas... The power is actually stronger than my Fire Dragon Tribulation. It’s not appropriate to call this move [Twin Dragons Playing with Pearls] anymore. I might as well call it [Three Dragons Flaming Kill].”

Levi discovered that the more flames he fused, the higher the level, and the stronger the explosion.

“The three Earthquake Dragon brothers are still in the relic. Let’s go and subdue them first. I don’t want to waste any more time.”

Levi let Sawkins and Pixar guard the place before leaving with Phoenix and the Alchemy Eagle.

The Holy Infant clone also put down the work of creating talismans and was swallowed by Levi.

A relic that required Artic Wizard’s team of three to explore, Levi alone could do it now!

...

Several days later, with the help of the Scarlet Dark Dimension, Levi quickly arrived at the relic of Arcanist of Blood.

He opened his mouth and spat out the Holy Infant. After the Holy Infant landed on the ground, a ball of secret fire surrounded it, ready to fight at any time.

Levi placed the Alchemy Eagle on the ground and patted Phoenix on Holy Infant's shoulder.

"Next, it's time to test your driving skills."

Phoenix silently entered the giant eagle's body. Soon, the giant eagle began to roar. Its wings, which were wrapped in hurricanes, were covered in flames.

"Not bad. If every level 5 alchemical creature I refine in the future has a level 5 elemental spirit pilot, its power will probably increase by another level. The most suitable alchemical creature for Phoenix is actually the Three Fire God model."

Levi was thinking that if he gathered the twelve divine alchemical creatures and paired them with the twelve elemental spirits, after training, they would finally combine into the ultimate form of God Nick. He wondered if he could fight against a level 6 primordial soul wizard.

He was looking forward to this day.

After making his preparations, Levi stepped into the valley, followed by Holy Infant and Phoenix.

In the valley, the black beasts were still lingering around. Levi did not make a move. Phoenix controlled the giant eagle and used the Wind Blades to kill all of them. Levi was in charge of picking up the trash.

Suddenly, Levi's Danger Perception reacted.

"Disperse!" He shouted.

Holy Infant and Phoenix both dodged.

A black vortex appeared in the air in front of them.

Meteorites and all kinds of black beasts fell from the sky.

Rumble!

The earth shook, and huge pits formed.

Levi raised his protective force field and looked at the falling meteor shower.

Even a fifth-circle wizard would be crushed to death by rocks if they were not careful.

Not long after, the meteor shower stopped, and the black hole slowly closed.

“This is the reason why the intersection was born. Just as the wizards guessed, the resources in the ancient tower did not come out of thin air. The ancient tower is constantly absorbing resources from the outside world. Be it the Land of Darkness or other planes, they are all targets of the ancient tower. Therefore, other than when it opens, the ancient tower has always been wandering in the Land of Darkness. After all, wool cannot be plucked from one place. This is not in line with the path of sustainable development. It should be Sauron’s plan. This way, it can not only provide a wave of resources to the Wizard World but also allow the ancient tower to recover well. Sauron’s good intentions can be seen,” sighed Levi.

Chapter 1246: Fighting Level 5 Giant Boar!

He used Perception and knew that most of these black beasts were level 1 and level 2, but there was no lack of powerful black beasts among them.

For example, the giant black-furred boar that was lying on the ground with a ferocious expression.

This giant boar was as large as a small mountain. It had wings on its back and blood-red eyes. It was obvious that it was not to be trifled with.

“Level 5 black beast, I can use you to test my spell level now that I have advanced to the fifth-circle realm.”

Levi let Holy Infant and Phoenix deal with the minions while he flew toward the giant boar.

The huge boar's fur stood up, clearly sensing that Levi was not to be trifled with.

Then, these manes all burst out. Wherever they passed, rocks shattered and trees collapsed.

"Good!"

Levi flicked his finger, and a yellow Divine Dragon surrounded him.

The arrows, which were comparable to the attacks of a normal fifth-circle wizard, collided with the earthy yellow force field around Levi.

Ping, ping, ping, ping.

Most of the manes were broken, and only some of the extremely tough ones penetrated Levi's Earth Dragon Barrier and were easily blocked by his armor.

"Next, it's my turn. If you have any big moves, hurry up and use them. Otherwise, you won't have a chance."

Levi flicked his finger, and an aqua-blue divine dragon appeared under the giant boar's feet. It soared into the sky and surrounded it.

The huge boar was instantly immobilized. However, it had been in the Land of Darkness for so long, so it naturally had its own advantages.

It opened its huge abyssal mouth, and its already huge body expanded even more, like an inflated pufferfish.

The hair on its body exploded, tearing apart the water dragon that was binding it.

"Not bad, this is more interesting."

Levi wasn't surprised. Instead, he was delighted. He flashed like a Wind Dragon Scamper and instantly left his original spot, rushing into the sky.

A black shadow flashed past, turning the place he was standing on upside down.

Rumble!

The huge boar was like a cannonball, smashing a deep pit in the ground.

It looked at Levi, who was flying into the sky, and its round belly began to deflate.

At the same time, a dangerous air cannon shot out!

Boom!

The air cannon was extremely fast, and Levi used the Earth Dragon Barrier to block it. After the Earth Dragon Barrier shattered, the remaining force poured onto his body. ~~RAN~~ ~~0~~ ~~β~~ ~~Ē~~ ~~Š~~

He was blasted into the sky, and then his figure flashed and disappeared.

“Not bad. I wonder how you will deal with this Fire Dragon Tribulation?”

It was rare for him to find a decent opponent, so Levi was in a good mood.

He pointed his finger out, and the scarlet Divine Dragon descended from the sky, blasting at the place where the giant boar was.

With just one attack, the thick defense of the giant boar was shattered, revealing black flesh and bones, as well as... black worms.

These worms looked like leeches. They were bloated and ugly. At this moment, they were roasted by the flames and turned into ashes.

“This... I was just fighting a group of insects controlling the corpses of giant boars?” Levi was puzzled.

After the giant boar’s body shattered, these worms all surged out and gathered together, turning into a black line that shot into the sky and appeared in front of Levi. Levi immediately dodged.

These worms kept surging and finally transformed into a distorted human face.

“Foolish mortal, you actually dared to kill God’s apostle, you...”

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Before the human face could finish, Levi fired three consecutive Fire Dragon Tribulation and threw out a bunch of divine talismans. The sky-high flames completely turned the monster made of worms into ashes, and not a single worm was spared.

“That guy just now seems to be a powerful existence in the Land of Darkness. Although he calls himself a God, he’s definitely not a real god. However, he should be at least level 6. The Land of Darkness is indeed filled with danger and terror. Even a powerful level 5 black beast can be controlled by a bunch of worms. I have to be careful when I travel between planes in the future.”

On the other side, Phoenix and Holy Infant had finished their battle.

Originally, Levi had wanted to use the hide of the giant boar as a material for the divine talisman. However, after seeing the face formed by the worms, he decided to be cautious and cremate the corpses of the giant boar.

The methods of existences above level 6 were impossible to guard against, and they could not be taken lightly.

Just as Levi was about to leave, he discovered a ring that was completely intact among the ashes.

“This is... a storage ring.”

After some thought, Levi asked Holy Infant to pick up the ring and open it.

Seeing that nothing had happened, he asked Holy Infant to pour out the contents of the ring.

A pile of Aether Stones whose elemental power was already somewhat exhausted.

There were some wizard relics, casting materials, and medicinal herbs that had lost their spirituality.

There were some spell models that focused on the Ocean Faction, as well as a somewhat broken compass-like item.

Moreover, there were also some books. One of them was called “Fei Meng’s Travel Diary”.

Levi browsed through it and smiled.

“It’s actually a relic of a primordial soul wizard from tens of thousands of years ago. This primordial soul wizard probably died in the Land of Darkness, and the corpse left behind was swallowed by the giant boar. The giant boar was controlled by the worm monster who claimed to be a god. By chance, it was sucked into the ancient tower. In the end, the ring went through so many events and fell into my hands. From this, it can be seen how fated this item is with me.”

Fei Meng was the primordial soul wizard. Fei Meng’s greatest hobby was to travel between planes. He had been to hundreds of planes of all sizes in his life, and he recorded everything he saw and heard in his diary.

Judging from his diary, his life could be described as rich and colorful.

He had seen all kinds of foreign races, civilizations, and even some legendary creatures, such as the Dragon Clan and the powerful bloodline descendants of the Undying Bird.

Chapter 1247: Capturing Three Earthquake Dragons

He had even seen a real [Black Whale]. It was a peak level 9 existence, and it was the legendary giant beast on the family crest of the Duke of Montenegro.

According to his description, the Black Whale had a gentle personality, and there was indeed a civilized country on its back called the Montenegro Mountain Empire.

The citizens of the Empire were like nomads, relying on the Giant Whale to wander in the Multidimensional Planes. They called the Giant Whale "Whale Lord" and served it while the Giant Whale provided them with protection, forming a win-win relationship.

"What was said in the legends were all true. I really want to see these legendary giant beasts with my own eyes... I want to attain a primordial soul as soon as possible and start my journey!"

Levi suddenly thought of the Duke of Montenegro, who had dreamed of establishing the Montenegro Mountain Empire. He did not know how tall the grass on his grave was now.

"This book is an extremely valuable treasure. In the future, when I advance to the primordial soul realm and the Holy Infant clone travels the planes, this will be a travel manual and an encyclopedia for other planes."

And that strange compass was called the [Fei Meng Astrolabe]. It was actually Wizard Fei Meng's Soul Artifact!

It was a Soul Artifact that focused on defense and suppression. Other than that, it could also be used to travel in the Land of Darkness. Its speed would be much faster than flying with the body, and it could greatly reduce travel time.

He only needed to input the coordinates of the plane on the astrolabe to automatically head to the destination. After filling it up with Aether Stones, the primordial soul-level protective array on the astrolabe would automatically protect the master during the journey.

This astrolabe was simply a must-have item for a wizard to travel around!

“It’s a pity that this astrolabe is somewhat damaged. I’ll see if I can repair it after I become a level 6 weapon craftsman.”

Levi checked the items and placed all the valuable items into the jars filled with Purification Elixir, just in case.

As for those that weren’t of much value, they were all destroyed by him. These things weren’t even worth as much as the Purification Elixir.

“I came here to subdue the Earthquake Dragon, but I got a Soul Artifact. Life is full of surprises. It must be because I saved those nomadic wizards. As expected, a kind person’s luck would not be too bad...

“Thank you, Senior Fei Meng, for your gift. I’ll definitely treat your astrolabe well in the future and continue to perfect your travel diary. I’ll help you experience the vast scenery of the Multidimensional Plane!”

Levi thanked him in the air and flew into the depths of the valley.

Sauron Plane.

Somewhere far away from Nola.

A dark green medium-sized plane was slowly rotating here.

After passing through the crystal wall and the Wind Disaster Stratum, they arrived at a dark world.

On the ground was endless miasma, poisonous fog, and swamps. Other than that, there was no other landscape.

In the swamp, there were primitive humans, humanoid creatures, and other creatures. They were like walking corpses, wandering aimlessly as if they were controlled by someone.

At the bottom of the swamp, there was a magnificent stone palace.

A giant worm had piled up its bloated body here, extending endlessly. If it were to fully stretch out, it would probably be more than a thousand meters long. ŘĂŃÓBĚŠ

Its malevolent mouthpart was sucking the corpse of a young sub-dragon species [Black Armored Dragon] that had just died. Its body swelled up.

Soon, the corpse turned into a dried corpse. At the same time, countless leeches crawled in.

Not long after, the corpse of the sub-dragon moved and left the place.

“One of my avatars was actually killed... Foolish human, don’t let me, a God, meet you in the Land of Darkness.”

It was the God of Leeches, Blood Vortex Venerable, Lord of the Blackmarsh Plane, and a general under the Worm Lord!

If Levi was here, he might have recalled a distant memory.

This was because its appearance was exactly the same as the [Vortex Beast] mentioned in the [Vortex Beast Breathing Technique] that he cultivated in the mortal era!

...

In the valley.

Levi saw the three Earthquake Dragon brothers again.

The three brothers had forgotten about the pain and were still sleeping happily in the nest. They did not know that Levi had already used the invisibility runes to check on them.

He had already set up the array and was just waiting for the three brothers to fall into the trap.

“The intelligence of the sub-dragon species is generally higher. I’m afraid it won’t work if I use the same trick again.”

Levi hid next to the array and asked Holy Infant to lure the monsters. The Earthquake Dragons had seen the Holy Infant before, so the aggro of the Holy Infant should be higher.

Above the nest.

Holy Infant descended from the sky with a red glow, and a Fire Dragon Tribulation flew over.

When the three Earthquake Dragon brothers saw Holy Infant, they were furious.

Levi was worried that they would not take the bait.

Now, it seemed that he was overthinking things.

These three brothers were fools. They ran all the way and chased after Holy Infant.

After that, with a rumbling sound, the ground collapsed. A huge gravitational force came over and pulled the three brothers into the huge pit.

“This is the second time, why don’t the three of you remember?” Levi ridiculed them.

The three brothers were once again trapped by the same move. They were suppressed within and roared towards the sky.

The tail of the giant hammer swept out like an armored dragon, and the shockwave swept out, causing the array to tremble continuously.

“Phoenix, Holy Infant, go!”

Phoenix rode on the giant Alchemy Eagle, and the fire grew stronger with the help of the wind. The blazing breath poured down, and the high-temperature spread, entangling an Earthquake Dragon!

Holy Infant controlled one of them with a Water Dragon’s Song.

Levi used the Water Dragon’s Song to control the strongest big brother.

He revealed Flame Dragon's true form in black armor, and the Nightmare Helmet on his head shot out a mental attack!

The strength of the Earthquake Dragon lay in its physical body, and its spiritual force was definitely not as good as that of a fifth-circle wizard.

Chapter 1248: Convincing the Three Earthquake Dragons

With just one strike, the head of the oldest Earthquake Dragon shook as if it was drunk.

“Domain Expansion, Heaven's Net Deception!”

In an instant, the entire crater was covered by Levi's spiritual domain.

The three brothers were caught in it, unable to extricate themselves.

Taking advantage of this opportunity, Phoenix and Holy Infant attacked crazily.

The flames burned and the Wind Blade cut the Earthquake Dragons.

The three brothers quickly bled.

“This mental attack is really useful.” Levi was delighted.

In the next moment, his expression changed and he rose from the ground.

An invisible earthquake wave came and completely turned his array into dust!

The three brothers activated the power of the earthquake at the same time. The combined power was so strong that even a fifth-circle senior wizard would have to retreat.

Phoenix was blasted into the sky. Alchemy Eagle was already damaged and needed to be repaired.

Holy Infant’s Earth Dragon Barrier Field shattered. At the critical moment, it transformed into a fire elemental body, reducing a large amount of damage.

“The three of you actually broke free from my Heaven’s Net Deception.”

Below, a powerful Dragon’s Might swept out in all directions from the three brothers.

Dragon’s Might was an ability that only sub-dragons could use.

Levi stood in the Dragon’s Might, his expression unchanged.

This bit of Dragon's Might was far inferior to his.

Levi closed his eyes, and the Three-Headed Dragon God's phantom that he had not seen for a long time began to appear.

"Next, I'll let you all experience what true Dragon's Might is!"

The Dragon God's three heads roared at the sky. Its six arms opened up and embraced the world!

In the sky behind the Dragon God, six giant dragons of different shapes appeared. The Crimson Emperor Dragon, the Sky Dragon, the Scarlet Dragon, the Nightmare Dragon, the Death Ember Dragon, and the Golden Snake...

These dragons were led by the Crimson Emperor Dragon. They stood in the clouds and surrounded the world.

They were like the Four Heavenly Kings in the Heavenly Palace, with the arrival of heavenly troops and generals, giving off a sense of oppression!

"Same old rules. Don't kill them. Beat them until they are willing to submit!"

Holy Infant, Phoenix, and Levi's main body were responsible for using spells to restrain the three brothers.

The Three-Headed Dragon God descended from the sky with supreme Dragon's Might. It was fighting three dragons alone. Its six-armed fist turned into an illusion and smashed toward the three dragons crazily. ~~ra~~NöE

Boom! Boom! Boom!

How barbaric and violent was this scene?!

After an unknown period of time, the ground was already soaked in dragon blood. Dragon scales were scattered and it was a mess.

The three brothers had broken bones all over their bodies and their tails were broken. It was a tragic sight.

"Submit to me," ordered Levi.

What greeted him was the three brothers' furious roars and the yellow breath. The Three-Headed Dragon God slapped the breath away!

“You guys are quite stubborn.”

Levi hardened his heart and continued to gang up on them!

Of course, he controlled his strength very well.

If any of them died, Levi would feel heartache for at least ten years!

“What’s so good about this valley? Why don’t you follow me to the outside world?” asked Levi.

The three brothers were on the verge of death. Levi had Phoenix and the others stop their attack while he dismissed the Three-Headed Dragon God.

With a pained expression, he pulled out the Crimson Dragon Slash and pointed his sword at the strongest of the three brothers.

“Sigh, don’t be stubborn. You don’t want to watch your younger brothers die, right?”

Levi threatened as he used his Dragon’s Might to suppress them.

He could tell that the three brothers were very close and inseparable.

This was extremely rare in the Dragon Clan.

Most dragons would leave the nest after laying eggs and would not care about their offspring.

Killing each other among dragon cubs was also a common occurrence in the Dragon Clan.

Usually, only the strongest would be able to survive.

Levi had plenty of patience. He let Holy Infant and Phoenix leave first.

Then, he began to nag non-stop, just like Tang Sanzang chanting scriptures.

While muttering, he used the blood fog to sew up the wounds of the three brothers and apply the medicine.

It could be said that he was utilizing a carrot-and-stick approach on the three dragons.

A month later, the three brothers looked at Levi, who was still mumbling, and they were completely convinced.

“Where will you take us?”

A rough voice rang out in Levi’s mind. It was the eldest brother in the middle.

“We shall go to a paradise that only belongs to the Dragon Clan. There, you three will live a carefree life. With my protection, no one will dare to provoke you. However, it is indeed for your own good,” Levi smiled and replied.

The eldest brother fell silent and began to communicate with the other two brothers.

“We’ll go with you. I hope you can keep your promise.”

“Let’s go. Come to me. Our Dragon Clan is a family. I want to build a world of harmony where all dragons live together! And our organization is called... Dragon Palace!

“If you join now, you will all be elders of the Dragon Palace. When I reach the peak of the Multidimensional Plane and rule the world in the name of the Dragon King, the three of you will be respected by all races like gods!”

“Dragon Palace?” The eldest of the three dragons muttered as he pondered over the meaning.

“That’s right,” Levi said solemnly, “The dragons are powerful but not united. They fight for themselves. They clearly have the power of gods, but they are bullied by all kinds of weak races. As the future Dragon King, I can’t stand it anymore. I want to change this situation. I want to protect us!

“I want to restore the glory of the Dragon Clan! It is my duty!”

When the three brothers heard this, they were shocked.

It was as if they could see an organization with unlimited light and a good future!

“Great Dragon King, we are willing to join the Dragon Palace! May I ask which plane Dragon Palace is in? How should we go there?”

A month later, Levi brought the three brothers to an isolated island in the sea. He coughed and said, “Our Dragon Palace is a newly established organization. We’ll be stationed here for the time being. But don’t worry. Before long, the reputation of Dragon Palace will spread throughout the world. The entire world will be the Dragon Land!”

Chapter 1249: Planning For The Future

Dark Ancient Tower, fifth floor.

On an isolated island overseas.

Bewitched by Levi's beautiful vision, the three brothers willingly joined the Dragon Palace!

Just like the Dragon Turtle Ratti, the three brothers also had their own Dragon Clan names.

The eldest was called 'Ganster Riel', the second was called 'Winston Riel', and the third was 'Trist Riel'. The names of the family were so neat.

Among the three brothers, the eldest was the strongest, while the second and third were about the same.

...

In fact, they had just advanced to level 5 not long ago, so their strength was only at the level of a fifth-circle ordinary wizard.

However, if the three brothers worked together to release the earthquake wave, even a fifth-circle senior wizard could not let his guard down.

"Who would have thought that there would be so many level 5 transcendent creatures on an unremarkable island?"

Levi looked at the projection leisurely, watching the others fight and kill in the Dark Ancient Tower, fighting for those petty benefits. He felt like he had transcended this world and was no longer part of this world.

"As expected, farming is the traditional virtue engraved in my genes," said Levi, the master of the Dragon Palace and the director of the Island Zoological Garden.

With so many transcendent creatures, managing them was also a problem.

Dragon Palace's idea was not something Levi had thought about for a long time.

He wanted to gather all the wandering Dragon Clans in the Multidimensional Plane, whether they were hybrids or sub-dragons, not only for the cultivation of his breathing technique but also to enjoy the joy of collecting dragons.

He had the unparalleled prestige of the six Dragon's Might. In theory, he could continuously subdue the new Dragon Clan. As long as he was strong enough, he could also subdue the pure-blooded Dragon Clan!

He might as well set up a separate organization outside of the Giant Beast Paradise, which was the Dragon Palace.

For this reason, he had to find and train a group of specialized experts from the Dragon School of Thought to be responsible for the daily operations and training of the Dragon Palace.

With the powerful combat strength of the Dragon Clan, they could protect the Dusk Holy Temple.

In this way, the holy temple, Dragon Palace, Paradise, and Empire could work together.

“I won’t move from now on. Before the ancient tower closes, this will be my small base. After that, I’ll think of a way to bring these Dragon Clans out.”

As the number of large creatures increased, Levi’s biggest problem was finding a portable living space.

The living space must be a space that came with the treasure, not a space that relied on the Prime Material plane like Alice’s ring.

Only in this way would the Holy Infant clone be able to capture transcendent creatures anytime and anywhere when he traveled the plane in the future.

There were too few slots in the Books of Seals, and they were only temporary solutions. In the Book of Seals, transcendent creatures couldn’t grow normally. That place was just a small space with nothing.

“From the looks of it, only the Legendary Wizard’s Demiplane meets my requirements... Forget it, there will always be a way out. Sooner or later, I’ll become the number one Master Pokémon in the Multidimensional Plane. Pa N ōßĔΣ

Levi was no longer troubled. Instead, he thought about what he needed to do next besides cultivation.

First, find an opportunity to bring Thunder Roc from the Thunder Punishment Tribunal home.

Secondly, the fourth treasure that Levi was missing, the most mysterious “Holy Grail of Immortality” was on the fifth floor. From the tone of the Immortal Banyan Dragon, it was not a secret that the Holy Grail was on the fifth floor. It should not be difficult to find it. He planned to ask around among the natives.

Thirdly, he could refine the Twelve Divine Alchemical Creatures and upgrade the Book of the Undead and other Wizard Tools to the fifth circle or repair them.

Fourthly, through the Flying Scythe Beast, he could continue to search for undiscovered intersection points and resource points.

After planning for the future, Levi continued to cultivate on the island.

Holy Infant also returned to his daily work of making talismans.

The transcendent creatures also settled down on their respective islands.

On this day, Levi took out the Great Rat’s Sniff from the jar.

“Begin refining.”

Levi didn’t have much hope for this item. It would be fine as long as he could increase the power of his Earth-type spells a little. The rest did not matter.

Without expectations, there would be no disappointment.

...

Time flew like an arrow.

In the blink of an eye, three months had passed.

West Coast.

The Witch's Family's Residence.

Anya and Sierra had already recovered with the help of the potions. The physical and mental torture brought by the electrotherapy had already dissipated.

Anya looked at the sea in the distance, his heart calm.

Sierra walked over and sat beside him.

Anya asked, "Do you feel that after experiencing the torture of the Lightning Pool, your spiritual power seems to have become more condensed?"

Sierra went still before she asked, "You have the same feeling? I thought I was the only one in this situation."

Anya had a pensive expression as he said, "Levi once said that if one survives a great disaster, there will be good fortune in the future. Perhaps, using the pain of lightning to temper one's body and mind is actually helpful for cultivation..."

"Do you want to experience it again?" Sierra chuckled.

Anya quickly shook his head and said with a bitter smile, "Forget it then. Let's just do it step by step. This kind of ascetic cultivation method, even if it is effective, is too torturous. One must have an extremely tough body, spirit, and willpower that far surpasses ordinary people. Perhaps only then can one persevere year after year, day after day. Only then can there be some effect... Among the people I know, perhaps Levi is the only one who can do all of this. After all, he cultivates both body tempering and spells, and he rose from the bottom step by step. He went through countless hardships to get to a good position."

Sierra was deep in thought when he mentioned Levi. She asked, "Anya, did Levi come to the Dark Ancient Tower?"

Chapter 1250: Refining Goldfur Great Rat

Anya frowned and asked, "Why are you asking this all of a sudden? He probably didn't come. It seems that other than me, who has connections, the external wizards are not qualified to get the key to the ancient tower. Otherwise, with Levi's strength, he would have killed them all if he had come here! If Levi had joined our team and met Simon again, we definitely wouldn't be in such a sorry state. It's our regret that we can't fight alongside Levi in the tower."

When Anya started talking about Levi, he couldn't stop and kept talking.

Sierra could not help but laugh.

"I dare say that other than my mother, no one knows Levi better than I do!" said Anya.

Sierra was speechless. She asked, "Are you a worm in his stomach?"

Anya thought for a moment and said, "It would be great if that was the case... I can get more inspiration from him and grow faster."

...

Sierra did not say anything else. She sat there in a daze, and the figure of Mage Gandaph appeared in her mind.

Sierra had an indescribable talent since she was young. She could perceive the emotional fluctuations of others.

She noticed that Gandaph's deep and calm eyes had some emotional fluctuations when he saw Anya. Generally speaking, this was a reaction that would only occur when one saw a familiar person and it had to be one that the person cared about more than others.

Sierra muttered in her heart, “Looks like someone is silently protecting Anya. It should be Madam Triss’s arrangement... After all, as a primordial soul wizard, how could she let her son fall into danger?”

Who Gandaph was was not important.

Most importantly, it was a blessing to have a mother who truly loved her son!

...

Year 1196 of the Holy Brilliance Calendar, the Month of the Wheatfield.

Dragon Palace Island.

This was the name that Levi had just come up with, expressing his simple wish to become the Dragon King.

In the place where he was in seclusion, Levi opened his eyes and a golden light flashed.

There was an itch in his nostrils, as if something was about to come out.

Not long after, a golden light appeared and landed on the ground.

It was a fat rat the size of a house rat. Its golden fur was glossy and its eyes were cunning. One look and one could tell that it was a little fellow who drank Buddha's lamp oil every day.

It did not have a physical body, but was like an illusory projection.

Levi was delighted.

"To think there really is one."

One had to know that the Goldfur Great Rat was similar to a hidden effect. Not everyone could trigger it.

"Lover's Rune, you didn't lie to me!" Levi muttered to himself.

The moment the Goldfur Great Rat appeared, it ran towards a certain place on the island.

Levi's heart skipped a beat as he followed.

"It can't be, right? Could it really be possible to search for treasures?"

Levi was secretly delighted.

Not long after, Levi followed the Goldfur Great Rat and arrived at a valley in the middle of an island.

Here, the three Earthquake Dragon brothers were sleeping.

The Goldfur Great Rat ran in front of the three brothers. The three brothers acted as if they didn't see it and continued to sleep.

Then, it burrowed into the belly of the second brother, Winston, and swaggered over with a gold coin in its arms.

"...I was happy for nothing. This isn't a treasure hunt, this is theft!"

Levi was speechless.

So the so-called treasure hunting function was to steal things from other people's houses.

Levi knew how to do it, but he didn't do it.

“Forget it. It’s already good enough that it created a spiritual companion. Why do I still want a free ride?”

Levi stretched out his hand, and the Goldfur Great Rat placed the gold coin in Levi’s palm. It then ran to Levi’s shoulder, looking like it was asking for praise. $\Re\mathbf{a}N\acute{O}\mathbf{b}\mathbf{E}\xi\mathfrak{s}$

“Since you are a Goldfur Great Rat and like to steal gold, I will call you... Jin.”

The Goldfur Great Rat wasn’t a living creature, but a special spiritual creature. It was similar to a Truth Oddity, but it seemed to understand. It nodded and entered Levi’s nostrils.

Levi returned the gold to the three brothers and left quietly.

He looked at his seven-colored crystal, and the phantom of a golden-furred mouse appeared in it.

“Water Dragon, Scythe, Lightning Worm, Flame Ghost, Great Rat... That’s five oddities. I suddenly realized that collecting oddities is quite interesting. It’s like eating crispy noodle snacks and collecting hero cards in my previous life.”

Apart from this spiritual companion, the Great Rat’s Sniff also slightly increased the power of Levi’s Earth element spells.

However, after advancing to the fifth-circle, the base number of spells increased, and the small increase in the power of the Earth-Grade Oddities was better than nothing.

For Levi, who had already reached perfection for his sixth talent, the most important function of a large Earth-Grade Oddity was no longer to increase his spiritual force or the power of his spells.

Instead, it was similar to the special abilities of 'Controlling Flying Scythe Beast', 'Flame Ghost Avatar', and the 'Goldfur Great Rat'.

Without these special abilities, the value of an Earth-Grade Oddity would be greatly reduced.

For a primordial soul wizard, even a Sky-Grade Oddity would not be of much use if it did not have any special functions.

What they pursued were rare items above the Morning Star-level.

So far, there have been very few cases of Morning Star-level oddities appearing on the fifth floor.

Every time it appeared, it would set off a bloody storm on the Io Continent.

On the other hand, with the addition of the Earthquake Dragon, the cultivation speed of the Golden Snake Breathing Technique increased significantly.

As for the other five breathing techniques, he at least had level 4 secret medicines for them. In the short term, the secret medicine was no longer a problem.

Next, it was time for him to cultivate and wait for a breakthrough.

“When the Holy Infant has reached level 4 in his talisman crafting skill, I’ll send him out to look for clues about the Holy Grail of Immortality. Yes, I can bring Jin with me when the time comes. I’ll continue to cultivate here. If there are enemies that Holy Infant can’t deal with, I’ll attack.”
