

Wizard 126

Chapter 126: Adolf and Chained Prisoner (2)

For a moment, everyone was in a state of panic.

Levi was still cultivating as usual.

He had prepared twenty sets of casting materials for the Seal of Protection and Seal of Flame each. He had also secretly brought Magic Shark and Demon Mountain back to the city and rented a remote mansion, letting his two companions guard him at all times.

"Come, I'm ready."

Levi was not afraid.

The church would have run away long ago if the evil spirit were really dangerous.

Since they did not, it meant that it was still under control.

It was just that it was a little troublesome to find out.

In the blink of an eye, seven days passed.

During these seven days, besides cultivating, Levi also began to observe the people in the city using Spider Sensing.

He thought of a way to detect the evil spirit: to search thoroughly. A creature like the evil spirit should be enough to trigger his Spider Sensing. Perhaps he could take the initiative to attack and subdue the evil spirit since he was prepared.

These days, Levi had searched most of the places in Icewind City, but Spider Sensing had not been triggered so far.

There were only two places that Levi had not searched yet.

Levi looked at the two most magnificent buildings in Icewind City. One was a church, and the other was Silver Mountain Castle.

"Even evil spirits know that the most dangerous place is the safest place?"

Levi was in a dilemma.

Grand knights guarded these two places.

It was not easy for him to act.

At night, the temperature dropped.

Levi let out a breath of cold air in an abandoned house near the church. He wore the White Wolf Mask and a black robe to hide himself.

He looked at the bell tower at the top of the cathedral and remained silent.

Through his Spider Sensing, he finally sensed danger here.

This sense of danger was much weaker than when facing a powerhouse like the Fist of the Empire.

However, there was indeed a sense of danger.

"I'm unsure if the evil spirit or the head priest triggered the sense of danger."

"It's most likely the evil spirit. It seems like it's in the church." Levi could not barge into the church's territory to exorcise it.

This would be courting death!

On the bell tower, the figure of the bell ringer slowly disappeared. Under the moonlight, the shadow of a curved chain flashed.

Levi closed his eyes and rested. No matter what, he had to try and see if he could obtain the Evil Spirit Dust. He needed a good start to activate the Seal of Dragon Might.

Otherwise, the seal would never be able to be cultivated.

Inside the church, a clergyman who had just eaten his fill patted his belly in satisfaction. He looked at the ugly bell ringer who was passing by. The latter was sallow and skinny.

The clergyman joked, "Maxi, I heard you went on a date with a noble lady some time ago. Was this for real? Was the lady blind? Hahahaha!"

Every day, many church clergymen would laugh at Maxi's appearance.

It was hard to imagine such unjust and immoral behavior appearing in a place like the church.

Maxi rubbed the back of his head and smiled foolishly without saying anything.

However, when he turned his face away, a ferocious face appeared. An illusory chain began to stretch out from his mouth. It was nearly ten meters long and swayed under the moonlight in the night like a snake dancing.

Kacha.

The next moment, something pierced through the clergyman.

He turned his head around and looked at everything in disbelief and horror.

"You deserve to die..."

A hoarse and unpleasant voice came out of Maxi's mouth.

Maxi seemed to have completely changed. Behind him was a two-meter-tall slender figure with chains all over his body.

This figure was very illusory and emitted a white light.

Maxi mumbled mechanically, "D*mn it..."

The slender figure left, and Maxi's ugly face lost luster. He fell to the ground, dead.

Just as the Chained Prisoner was about to enter the clergyman's body, a roar sounded. It sounded like the roar of a ferocious beast!

An old man in a gray robe with black gas surging around him slashed at him with a Holy Light Greatsword!

The old man's body was covered in muscles, and his robe fluttered.

"Evil spirit, die!"

Adolf's Holy Light Greatsword came at him.

The Chained Prisoner was unable to dodge in time and was slashed.

The huge sword surrounded by black gas instantly faded its figure.

"Hehe, your movements have slowed down. It seems that the few days of hiding have weakened you," Adolf sneered.

The Chained Prisoner could not speak. As an evil spirit, it instinctively sensed that Adolf was dangerous.

Thus, its illusory figure began to float backward.

Adolf immediately chased after him, and the Chained Prisoner went straight out of the cathedral.

Adolf could not walk through walls, so he kicked the door away and chased after him. His gray robe was already torn to shreds.

"Where are you escaping to!"

The Chained Prisoner continued passing through the walls, and Adolf chased them relentlessly. Like a human-shaped bulldozer, he kicked down the walls one by one.

He was even more terrifying than the evil spirit on this dark night.

A pitch-black human figure with a beard that stood on end.

Levi, who had been on guard, suddenly felt movement inside the house.

Before he could figure out what was happening, he saw an illusory thin figure bound by chains rushing towards him.

Then, it stopped halfway as if it instinctively felt fear.

It forcefully stopped its body and floated forward as if it was passing by.

"D*mn, evil spirit?"

"What's going on?"

Levi's Spider Sensing had faintly sensed danger once he entered, so he did not expect the evil spirit to appear in front of him suddenly. Levi stood up and was about to chase after it.

Suddenly, there was a bang.

The wall suddenly collapsed, and dust flew everywhere. Levi dodged the flying stones and spat out a mouthful of dust.

He saw an older man with a bare upper body and black gas swirling around him. He looked like he had just come out of a coal mine, holding a huge sword the size of a door. He looked at Levi in a daze, then immediately chased after the evil spirit without stopping.

The old man cursed, "Stop, you d*mned evil spirit. You don't even dare to face an old man like myself?!"

Levi was dumbfounded, but he instantly understood something.

"This evil spirit belongs to me!"

With a loud bang, Levi shot out, his speed much faster than the older man.

The evil spirit was floating ahead when it suddenly noticed two figures.

Behind was the older man from before, chasing relentlessly.

The other person in front was the masked man it had wanted to possess but felt it could not.

The masked man did not say a word. His large hand was wrapped in black gas that covered every inch of his body.. It was like a demonic claw that attacked directly, making people suffocate!