Chapter 1341: The Trio Arrives

Behind Simon.

A Fire God's phantom appeared. Red flames rose to the sky, and his red hair danced wildly!

After the Fire God appeared, he slapped at the Frost Giant.

Ice and fire collided.

It was like a battle between the ancient gods, destroying the world.

"My Fire God is a Sky-Grade Oddity, [Fire God's Gaze]. It is similar to a low-level primordial soul wizard form. How can an ordinary illusion spell like yours compare to it?" Simon sneered.

As expected, not long after the clash, the Frost Giant's chest was pierced through by the Fire God. It then melted into snow and disappeared.

The Fire God's ferocity overflowed into the sky. He took a big step forward, holding a flaming greatsword in his hand, and charged towards Arctic Wizard.

Arctic Wizard's expression changed as he frantically fled.

The greatsword easily cracked his force field and completely tore apart his Wizard Tool.

Arctic Wizard escaped into the array and barely heaved a sigh of relief.

The two brothers, Hunter and Hart, had just used their combined skills to temporarily repel Simon's helpers.

"Simon, die! Double-Headed Ghost Shark!"

They panted heavily as a double-headed shark charged at Simon.

The ocean countered fire.

Simon looked at this attack and finally became a little more serious.

With a wave of his hand, dragon head chess pieces flew out.

The light of the array easily blocked the double-headed shark.

“Let’s see how capable you two are. I’ll give you two choices. Join the alliance army or die,” said Simon coldly as he looked at the two brothers.

“Bah! Who do you think you are?”

The two brothers refused to admit defeat and once again used their joint skills to attack Simon.

“I gave you a chance but you didn’t grasp it. Sigh...” Simon sighed.

Then, Simon stretched his muscles and pulled out the streamer from his body.

“Go, take these two people and... strangle them to death.”

The streamer flew out and wrapped around Hunter’s body at lightning speed.

Like a giant python strangling him, Hunter’s defenses were shattered layer by layer.

Hart was shocked and attacked Simon with a spell, but it was easily blocked by the Fire God’s phantom.

Simon remained unmoved. He smiled and said, "Ask the Red Dragon Queen and the Blue Dragon Lady to come out, or let the Rust Dragon Wizard come out personally. Don't waste time."

Hunter's face turned purple when he was strangled. Seeing this, the anxious Hart shouted, "Simon, do you really want to kill them all?"

Simon ignored him and continued to study the method to break the array.

Hart looked at his brother who was about to be strangled to death. His face was ashen as he said, "We will join the alliance army. Please stop."

Simon put his hand on his ear and smiled as he asked, "What did you say? I didn't hear you."

In the face of such humiliation, Hart was furious. In the end, he could only say helplessly, "I beg you, please don't kill him... We know we were wrong."

Simon laughed.

He waved his hand gently.

Kacha.

Accompanied by the sound of bones shattering, Hunter was strangled into pieces and fell to the ground, dying a miserable death.

Beske's voice entered his mind.

"Simon! What are you doing? Didn't I say that we should persuade them to surrender?"

"I gave them a chance," Simon said lightly.

Beske frowned and said, "Remember, we just had a big battle with the mages of the empire, so we need to replenish our manpower. This is Lord Roman's order!"

"I know."

Simon ignored Beske.

Hart seemed to have gone mad as he charged at Simon, but he was stopped by a figure.

The newcomer was wearing a gorgeous red robe. Her legs were long and slender.

She was the Red Dragon Queen.

“Hart, don’t make meaningless sacrifices.”

Hart’s eyes were bloodshot. After regaining his senses, he silently retreated.

“He’s a lunatic... Queen, please be careful,” said Hart in a hoarse voice.

At the same time, a ray of blue light also arrived. It was the Blue Dragon Lady.

“Elsie, you and Master Fire Dragon should go support the other regions. Leave Simon to me.”

“Be careful, then,” the Blue Dragon Lady said after some thought.

After Holy Infant arrived, he finally saw the legendary Simon.

This person was handsome. His lips were thin, and he had a gloomy appearance with a crazy aura.

“Master, leave this to Alexandra.”

“Alright.”

Holy Infant went to the battlefield.

He found a fifth-circle wizard from the Nine Cities Alliance attacking the grand array.

The Extreme Fire Wheel on his feet spun and turned into a stream of light.

A fire dragon charged over.

The fifth-circle wizard’s expression changed.

The terrifying fire dragon shattered his force field and almost killed him in an instant.

“A fifth-circle senior?”

That Nine Cities Alliance wizard ran away without hesitation.

Under the lake, a red ring appeared and fixed him on the spot.

In the sky, the ancient umbrella descended, and three fire dragons flew out.

Boom!

Three dragons exploded!

This ordinary fifth-circle wizard died on the spot without any suspense.

Holy Infant waved his hand and put away the storage ring. He sneered in his heart, "I can't say for sure that I'll win against Simon, but it's not a problem for me to beat these noobs."

When the Rust Dragon Wizard who was commanding saw this scene, he heaved a sigh of relief.

"Thank you, Master Fire Dragon. Has the Amethyst Race member been killed?" asked Rust Dragon Wizard.

"He has been killed. Sorry, we came a little late," said Holy Infant.

‘That’s great. With this, the hidden danger in the rear will be reduced.’

Rust Dragon Wizard continued to preside over the battle.

Beske frowned and said to the four perfected fifth-circle wizards beside him, ‘I’ll have to trouble you to make a move.’

Farrah was expressionless as he went to the front of the array.

Seeing that the other party’s fifth-circle powerhouses had already gone into battle, the Rust Dragon Wizard sighed, ‘Why are you forcing me?’

Rust-like scales appeared on his forehead, and his powerful aura soared to the sky.

Chapter 1342: Turn the Tide!

Behind Rust Dragon Wizard, a thousand-meter-long dragon could be vaguely seen floating in the clouds.

Its scales were like rust, simple, ancient, and heavy!

Rust Dragon Wizard Mandros.

A pure-blooded Dragon Clan dragon descendant of the Ancient Rust Dragon.

Blue Dragon Lady was shocked when she saw this.

“Is Sir Rust’s bloodline so thick? It can actually produce such a phenomenon...”

“I heard that even pure-blooded dragon descendant have a difference in the density of their bloodline. It should be rare to have such a density like Sir Rust’s, right?” Holy Infant pondered.

Rust Dragon Wizard rode on the giant dragon phantom and single-handedly took over Gomez and Breta, who were both in the perfected fifth-circle realm.

“As expected of a thousand-year-old undying old man. In that case, let me fight you!”

Beske shamelessly joined in. The three of them surrounded Rust Dragon Wizard.

As for the other two, they were fighting against Red Bone and Madam Miracle.

As a result, the Rust Dragon Wizard immediately fell to the ground.

“Master, if the two of us work together, we might be able to severely injure a perfected fifth-circle wizard and share some of the pressure with Sir Rust,” Blue Dragon Lady sent the message mentally to Holy Infant.

Holy Infant looked at the witch in front of him.

He had originally wanted to run away because he felt that the White Robe Wizard Association would have a hard time winning in the current situation.

“Forget it. Before I run, let me put on a show.”

Thinking of this, Holy Infant transmitted his voice, “Let’s attack! The target is... the perfected fifth-circle witch!”

Holy Infant’s aura burst forth, and the Ancient Burning Sky Umbrella suddenly enlarged. It descended from the sky and enveloped the battlefield.

On the other side, the Blue Dragon Lady waved her hand, and the secret sword of ice attacked the witch named Yolanda.

When Yolanda saw this, she sneered, “You overestimate yourself!”

Sixth Talent, Kiss of the Goddess of Fire!

In the sky, a pair of huge fiery red lips opened their mouths, wanting to swallow Holy Infant and Blue Dragon Lady.

Blue Dragon Lady glanced at Holy Infant.

The moment Holy Infant was swallowed by the huge mouth, the light wheel under his feet flickered with green light, and he suddenly disappeared.

When he reappeared, he was already standing in the middle of the ancient umbrella.

“A void-shifting magic tool?”

Yolanda’s expression changed drastically.

This unremarkable fifth-circle senior wizard actually had such a top-grade magic weapon. Even she, who was a perfected fifth-circle wizard, did not have one!

This person was not a top genius like Simon. Where did this item come from?

As the Blue Dragon Lady resisted her fiery red lips, she released a blue smoke that enveloped Yolanda.

Frosty Mist Moon!

Yolanda was controlled for a moment, and the protective force field around her was activated.

“Embrace of the Goddess of Fire!”

She opened her arms, and a pair of giant red arms hugged Holy Infant.

In the sky, nine divine dragons had already descended!

Rumble!

A shocking explosion sounded beside Yolanda.

An attack that could severely injure Roda of the Amethyst Race who was at the peak of level 5 was naturally not to be underestimated.

Yolanda was a perfected fifth-circle wizard, but she had only mastered six talent spells. She was the weakest.

She only had one top-grade Wizard Tool on her, and it was an offensive one.

The flames lit up the sky.

Yolanda's force field shattered, and more than half of her protective Wizard Tool shattered.

Her body was charred black, and her face was mournful. She was in endless pain.

"Die!"

She chased after Holy Infant without a care.

Holy Infant had already begun to flee after releasing this attack.

Blue Dragon Lady's expression changed. She quickly went to support Holy Infant, but she was stopped by a fifth-circle senior wizard who appeared out of nowhere.

On the other side, the Red Dragon Queen and Simon's fight had reached its climax.

The Red Dragon Queen had thought that she was close to the perfected fifth-circle realm and was a dragon descendant wizard, so she should be able to suppress Simon.

However, when they really fought, she realized that she had underestimated these top geniuses.

From the corner of her eye, she saw a fifth-circle witch chasing after Master Fire Dragon.

She wanted to stop them, but she was powerless. He could only place his hopes on Elsie.

“Master, you can’t die... You still owe me a favor.”

Veins bulged on the Red Dragon Queen’s face as her dragon scales appeared. The 12 volcanoes pressed down on Simon, trying to force him back.

“Alexandra, right? Be my dragon maid and I can keep you alive,” Simon laughed.

He had already thought of ten thousand ways to humiliate and torture the dragon descendant, and he was just waiting to put it into practice.

Conquering a powerhouse like the Red Dragon Queen gave him a sense of accomplishment.

“Get lost!” The Red Dragon Queen roared like a female tyrannosaurus.

After Yolanda left, the Rust Dragon Wizard instantly felt much easier dealing with the two perfected fifth-circle wizards.

Iron Dragon’s Shelter, Golden Dragon’s Blessing, and the endless stream of top-grade and high-quality Wizard Tools.

A total of nine powerful innate spells shocked Beske and the others.

“This old fellow actually has Perfection in nine talents? No wonder he’s so fearless. No wonder he’s so talented, but he’s been stuck in the perfected fifth-circle realm for hundreds of years!”

The shocked Beske was already thinking about his next step.

“If it really doesn’t work out, I can only use the level 6 spell scroll that Lord Roman gave me...”

On the other side, Holy Infant relied on the Extreme Fire Wheel and was chased to Fire Dragon Island by the exasperated Yolanda.

His expression was calm as he flew over Fire Dragon Island.

“You can’t run!”

Her innate spells kept sweeping toward Holy Infant.

They were all blocked by the ancient umbrella above Holy Infant’s head.

However, it was obvious that the ancient umbrella had reached its limit.

Holy Infant’s spell power was also about to be exhausted.

A perfected fifth-circle wizard was still too powerful for Holy Infant, who had relatively simple methods.

However, just as Yolanda flew over Fire Dragon Island, something unexpected happened!

Streaks of purple light descended from the sky and quickly surrounded Fire Dragon Island.

A magnificent purple lightning palace descended.

Yolanda was suppressed, and her expression changed drastically.

“You ambushed me?”

“You were the one who wanted to come to my house. Who’s to blame?” said Holy Infant with a smile.

“You can’t stop me.”

Although Yolanda didn’t understand arrays, she relied on her realm to suppress them. Her terrifying spell made the array tremble continuously and was about to shatter.

Holy Infant waved his hand, and countless streaks of fiery light appeared in the array.

200 Fire Dragon Calamity Talismans, super double!

“I’ll give you a big gift!”

The explosion of the first divine talisman sounded like firecrackers.

In an instant, countless fire dragons condensed into a 300-meter-long giant fire dragon that hovered above Fire Dragon Island.

The space around the fire dragon was distorted by the heat.

The surface of the island instantly turned into lava.

“Destroy!”

Rumble!

An unprecedented shocking explosion swept out!

Before this, the Holy Infant had only thrown out 100 talismans at once.

This was because he had tested that after more than a hundred talismans, compared to the consumption, the little increase in power was not worth it.

However, when facing a powerful enemy who was in the perfected fifth-circle realm, he naturally had to deal with a saturated blow.

Holy Infant only had over a thousand level 4 fire dragon divine talismans in total.

He had given half of it to his original body. That attack just now had lost half of Holy Infant's stock.

Of course, the power of this attack did not disappoint him.

The terrifying explosion that surpassed the Nine Dragon Tribulation razed the entire Fire Dragon Island to the ground.

After the flames dissipated, Yolanda also disappeared.

"Sigh, Fire Dragon Island is gone."

Phoenix appeared in the lake.

It was hidden deep underground on the island, so it was naturally unharmed. However, Phoenix was also scared half to death.

At this moment, Phoenix was hiding behind the Holy Infant, feeling aggrieved.

Holy Infant's spiritual force scanned the battlefield, but he didn't find Yolanda's ring.

His expression changed.

“Did it explode?”

He searched around.

In the end, he found a spatial ring that was full of cracks and could collapse at any time.

On the surface of the ring, there were sharp spatial turbulences that shot out like sparks.

“Scared me to death!”

Holy Infant endured the pain and quickly put away the ring. He changed the place of the things stored in the spatial ring and then threw the ring into the lava.

Not long after, Blue Dragon Lady rushed over, panting. She looked at the disappearing Fire Dragon Island.

“Master... The witch is dead?” Her voice trembled and her eyes widened.

“Yes, she’s dead.”

Chapter 1343: All Living Things Yield to the Dragon

Sea of Stars.

Above the disappearing Fire Dragon Island.

Blue Dragon Lady was silent for a moment before she asked, “Master, are you alright now?”

“I’m alright,” replied Holy Infant.

“Then I’ll rush back to the battlefield first. It’s good that you’re fine.”

Blue Dragon Lady left in a hurry.

She was unable to hide the shock on her face as she pondered the method Master used to wipe out the perfected fifth-circle wizard and fire dragon Island.

Could it be that it was because of that top-grade Wizard Tool again?

Even if it was Alexandra, she would have to use the consumable trump card her father had given her if she wanted to kill a perfected fifth-circle wizard.

Elsie knew that Master was not as simple as he looked.

His true strength was unfathomable.

After returning to the battlefield.

Blue Dragon Lady's Ice Secret Sword transformed into a huge mountain and fell toward Simon.

Simon wasn't surprised. Instead, he smiled and said, "That's great. Both of you are here. I don't have to hide anymore."

As for the Fire Dragon Wizard, Simon had long forgotten about him.

It didn't matter if he killed that small fry or not.

Alexandra and Elsie were his targets.

"Arrogant fellow!"

Elsie's expression turned cold and murderous.

She and Alexandra combined their swords and unleashed a terrifying killer move.

"Good!"

Simon laughed.

Behind him, the Fire God's phantom expanded again, and the world-extinguishing greatsword slashed down!

At the same time, with a wave of his hand, the Dragon Annihilation array surrounded the battlefield.

"I'll show you the great gift I've prepared for the Dragon Clan!"

Simon's eyes were cold.

A tattoo of a giant golden bird suddenly appeared on his bare upper body.

The giant bird was extraordinarily handsome and exuded a destructive aura. Its golden wings blotted out the sky.

A circle of golden light covered a radius of several miles with Simon at the center.

Within the range of the golden light, both the blue dragon and the red dragon could feel the dragon blood in their bodies boiling and trembling...

“Domain spell, All Living Things Yield to the Dragon!”

The tattooed bird on Simon’s back came alive and shuttled through the golden light domain.

“This... This is the End Dragon Bird, the enemy of the Dragon Clan.”

The Red Dragon Queen’s expression changed when she saw the bird.

The End Dragon Bird.

A mythical creature that was extremely powerful. It was said that it feeds on giant dragons and is the public enemy of the Dragon Clan.

Just like the Dragon Abomination Venerable, everyone hated it!

“You’re really abnormal. In order to deal with the Dragon Clans, you wasted your innate talent spell slot to learn such a spell,” the Red Dragon Queen cursed.

“Hmph, you don’t understand.”

Simon was too lazy to explain.

Along the way, he had shouldered too much, but these could not shake his determination.

The domain was activated.

For a moment, Red Dragon Queen and Blue Dragon Lady were actually in a passive position.

If they worked together with Master Fire Dragon, they could kill a peak level 5 Amethyst Race member.

“Hahaha.”

Seeing this, Simon's attacks became even more frantic.

All Living Things Yield to the Dragon.

It was an innate spell that Simon had comprehended not long ago.

Simon was extremely lucky to find a divine bird statue in an ancient ruin on the Holy Fire Plateau.

This divine bird was the legendary [The End Dragon Bird].

The nemesis of the Dragon Clan!

It was said that this divine bird's diet had only consisted of dragons since it was young.

Regardless of whether it was a hybrid or a sub-dragon, The End Dragon Bird would not reject any of them.

After it was completely formed, it was a true mythical creature that was enough to kill many pure-blooded dragons.

Most people with a dragon bloodline would be suppressed by this bloodline instinct.

The spells that Simon had studied in the past which targeted the Dragon Clans were not worth mentioning compared to this.

In order to cultivate this spell, Simon had already connected to the consciousness of a great existence in the Land of Darkness through the statue.

Under the guidance of that existence, he had comprehended such a heaven-defying domain spell.

If he were to encounter the Sky Dragon Wizard again, Simon would definitely be able to defeat him easily.

“If you don’t submit, then die!” Simon sneered.

“You’re crazy!”

Red Dragon Queen and Blue Dragon Lady had never faced such a spell before. In an instant, they were under the spell, and their bodies instinctively felt fear.

This bloodline suppression made them extremely uncomfortable.

At this moment, the dragon bloodline that they should have relied on had actually become a burden.

“Hahaha, incompetent and only know how to get angry, what giant dragon? They’re just bugs!” Simon laughed.

The phantoms of The End Dragon Bird charged toward the two women.

Seeing the two proud dragon descendant witches lose their composure in front of him, Simon felt extremely fulfilled.

Dealing with the Dragon Clan had become Simon’s obsession, completely changing his personality and life.

On the other side, the expressions of Beske and Gomez, who were fighting the Rust Dragon Wizard, changed drastically.

“Yolanda is dead!”

“Didn’t she go after a fifth-circle senior wizard?”

“I’m not sure, but her soul token is indeed broken.”

Not long after the battle began, one of the perfected fifth-circle wizards had already died.

This caused Beske and the others to panic.

A perfected fifth-circle wizard was the ceiling of combat strength other than that of a primordial soul wizard.

It was the reason why they could dominate the Holy Fire Plateau.

In the sky.

Rust Dragon Wizard's powerful ninth innate talent turned the surrounding land upside down.

At this moment, the members of the White Robe Wizard Association realized that this low-key wizard who had lived for thousands of years was truly terrifying.

Seeing this, Beske asked sternly, "Rust, I'm asking you one last time. Don't force me to start a massacre."

What welcomed Beske was a sky full of high-temperature rusty swords that came crashing down on him.

“Alright!”

Beske hardened his heart and threw out a spell scroll.

On the scroll, there was a picture of a giant flaming snake. It was exactly the same as Roman’s primordial soul wizard form.

Chapter 1344: Sea of Stars' Primordial Soul

Just as Beske was about to chant the spell to trigger it.

Suddenly, a cold snort came from the void.

In the next moment, the void turbulence appeared in front of him. The spell scroll disappeared without a trace.

Seeing this happen in front of him, Beske’s expression changed drastically, and he shouted, “Which primordial soul senior attacked? Is it Senior Silverbeard?”

Beske’s voice spread throughout the battlefield. Everyone stopped fighting at the same time.

“What? A primordial soul is here? Where are they?”

“Run! There’s a primordial soul wizard here!”

In an instant, under the might of the primordial soul wizard’s presence, the wizards of the Nine Cities Alliance retreated far away.

Beads of sweat covered Beske’s forehead. He was very certain that the person who had just attacked was a primordial soul expert.

In the current Sea of Stars, the only possible primordial soul wizard was Silverbeard, who had been rumored to have gone into seclusion a few years ago!

Rust Dragon Wizard also had a solemn expression.

“Silverbeard... has attained primordial soul?”

No matter what the situation was, now was the best time to counterattack.

Beske only had a sixth-circle spell scroll in his hands, which was refined by Roman using a large amount of his spiritual force.

Now that the scroll was gone, the one Beske relied on the most was gone.

At this moment, Beske felt like retreating.

Beske was absent-minded as he fought Rust Dragon Wizard.

The mysterious primordial soul expert did not attack again.

However, Beske and the other fifth-circle wizards no longer had the will to fight. They only felt as if their backs were pricked by thorns and wanted to escape.

Rust Dragon Wizard became more and more courageous as he fought. With his own strength, he forced Beske and Gomez to retreat.

“Retreat!”

Beske knew that he was no match for Rust Dragon Wizard. Rust Dragon Wizard had nine talents, which was too abnormal.

Gomez had already planned to retreat. Although Gomez couldn't live for long, he knew that he wasn't a match for them, so it wasn't a good idea to continue wasting his time like this.

Originally, with Yolanda, the three of them could still suppress the Rust Dragon Wizard if they worked together.

Now that Yolanda had been killed and Silverbeard had broken through to the primordial soul, the scales were already tilting in the opposite direction.

On the battlefield.

Relying on the Great Wall of the Monarch Territory, coupled with the advantage in numbers of the White Robe Wizard Association, the army of the Nine Cities Alliance retreated.

Simon seemed to have gone mad, and the All Living Things Yield to the Dragon domain consumed a lot of spell power.

However, Red Dragon Queen had a trump card as well.

A crimson dragon's scales surrounded her body and blocked the projection of The End Dragon Bird.

Not only that, but this had also put Simon in danger many times.

"D*mn it!"

Seeing that the situation was hopeless, the others retreated.

Simon's face was ferocious, and the Fire God's phantom behind him exploded.

Boom!

The flames sent the Red Dragon Queen and the others flying.

His streamer danced and spun through the void, flying into the distance to meet up with Beske and the others.

"Why did you retreat? We have the advantage!"

Simon narrowed his eyes, exuding a dangerous aura.

Beske replied with a frown, "They have a primordial soul wizard on their side. My sixth-circle spell scroll was swept away by the void turbulence. This is obviously a sixth-circle technique!"

"So what if they have a sixth-circle wizard? Since the sixth-circle wizard is hiding and doesn't dare to show himself, we can just continue fighting. With the ancient tower's rules, would he dare to go on a killing spree?" Simon retorted.

Beske said fiercely, "Are you crazy? You can't even see through such an obvious warning? If he wants to, he can kill you and accept the punishment of the ancient tower!"

"A bunch of useless trash," Simon muttered softly.

"I advise you not to be so arrogant. If it wasn't for Roman protecting you, you would have died countless times already."

Farrah, who was a perfected fifth-circle wizard, was immediately filled with killing intent after being called 'useless trash' by a junior.

Simon smiled and didn't say anything.

"Stop arguing. Let's retreat from the Sea of Stars first. Tell Lord Roman about the situation here before we make our next move," said Beske.

Beske was also very unhappy with Simon.

Simon's personality was twisted and dark, but he was extremely talented and lucky. Simon had walked step by step to where he was today, and his strength was indeed extraordinary.

Simon was recuperating by himself, and no one dared to approach him.

“How could the Red Dragon Queen have such a trump card? Has she always been in contact with her father like what the rumors say and not a dragon descendant that her father left behind to wander outside?”

Simon was very depressed. The ‘All Living Things Yield to the Dragon’ that he had carefully prepared could not take down two dragon descendant witches who were not even perfected fifth-circle witches.

“Looks like I’ll have to borrow the power of the Black Lotus Beast.”

Holy Fire Plateau.

Sky Fire Fortress.

In a secret chamber.

Roman’s expression changed when he saw the message.

“The Sea of Stars has a primordial soul protecting it? There is actually an existence who could advance to the primordial soul realm among that group of nomadic wizards... Could it really be Silverbeard?”

After thinking for a while, he ordered Beske to temporarily retreat.

“If it wasn’t for the fact that I’m guarding the Sky Fire Fortress, I would have gone to meet this newly advanced primordial soul and let him know the consequences of meddling in other people’s business.”

In the current situation, Roman did not dare to let Beske and the others attack rashly.

In a situation where there was no primordial soul to hold the fort, provoking a primordial soul would not end well even with the protection of the ancient tower’s laws.

Roman would not risk the lives of so many wizards.

“There’s no hurry. I’ll play with you guys slowly.”

Roman closed his eyes and continued cultivating.

...

Sea of Stars.

Boundless Void.

A short and strong figure with a beard and exquisite silver armor looked at the army of the Nine Cities Alliance below with a cold expression.

Sam Silverbeard.

The dwarf expert was also a powerful weapon craftsman.

Silverbeard was standing there, but no one noticed his existence.

This was the terrifying strength of a primordial soul.

In his hand, there was a broken spell scroll.

“Roman, you’re really shameless. Using something like a scroll to bully the weak... In order to deal with these nomadic wizards, you’ve really put in a lot of effort and expended a lot of resources.”

Chapter 1345: Yolanda's Items

The higher the level of the spell scroll, the higher the price.

This was why spell scroll did not become the fourth art of Wizardry.

“Now that I’m a primordial soul, let’s go to the sixth floor before the ancient tower closes.”

As a nomadic wizard, Silver Beard had to consider his own interests first.

He couldn’t be like Roman, who was appointed by the organization to guard the Sky Fire Fortress for decades.

Silverbeard wanted to head to the sixth level to find more opportunities.

Silverbeard had already done his best to help the White Robe Wizard Association scare off their enemies.

He was also a nomadic wizard, so Silverbeard naturally knew that it was not easy for everyone.

In fact, it had been more than a year since he had advanced to the primordial soul realm.

Silverbeard had been hiding in the Sea of Stars to stabilize his realm.

Now that his realm had stabilized, it was time for him to leave.

He looked into the distance and quietly left.

From the beginning to the end, he did not show his face, nor did he greet the wizards of the Five Elders Palace.

They had met by chance, and now it was time for them to go their separate ways.

Unless Roman came personally, the Nine Cities Alliance would be intimidated by Silverbeard's power. For a long period of time, the White Robe Wizard Association should be safe and sound.

"Rust, I hope that you can attain the primordial soul as soon as possible."

...

On the surface of the lake.

Rust, Red Bone, and the others looked at the surrounding sky, but they could not see anyone.

“Let’s go back,” said Rust Dragon Wizard.

The White Robe Wizard Guild did not suffer much loss in this battle when compared to the Nine Cities Alliance army. All of their fifth-circle wizards were still alive.

On the other hand, the Nine Cities Alliance had lost a perfected fifth-circle wizard. It could be said that the Nine Cities Alliance attempted to take advantage of the White Robe Wizard Association but ended up suffering greater losses.

Red Dragon Queen’s face was pale and bloodless. She was supported by the Blue Dragon Lady and returned to the island.

Somewhere on the lake.

A new Fire Dragon Island.

Holy Infant meditated to regulate his breathing.

His spell power was depleted, so he did not participate in the subsequent battles.

“Thank you for your help, Master Fire Dragon. You really have hidden your abilities,” Rust Dragon Wizard’s voice sounded.

“There was no other way, the situation forced me,” replied Holy Infant calmly. Then, Holy Infant casually asked, “It seems that the Nine Cities Alliance has retreated?”

Rust Dragon Wizard replied, “Yes, it was probably Silverbeard who stepped up.”

Holy Infant nodded.

It seemed that Silverbeard had already successfully advanced to the primordial soul realm, but he had yet to show himself.

Now that the White Robe Wizard Association was in danger, this senior decided to act.

Of course, there was also a small chance that it was another primordial soul wizard.

No matter who it was, it was a good thing that the White Robe Wizard Association would be able to temporarily avoid a calamity.

After sending off Rust Dragon Wizard, Holy Infant continued his seclusion.

The next task was to refine the Meshus Winged Dragon.

But before that, Holy Infant had to see if there was anything good in Yolanda's storage ring.

Holy Infant had paid a great price to obtain it.

Holy Infant poured out the items in the ring.

The Aether Stones fell like rain, and the total amount was 1.2 million Aether Stones.

To be honest, compared to Yolanda's perfected fifth-circle strength, this amount of Aether Stones was too little.

However, considering that she was just a tool of a top wizard organization, it was understandable.

Other than the Aether Stones, knowledge, and materials that were not worth mentioning, there were a few items that were not bad.

The first was a top-grade Wizard Tool called the [Gold Dividing Secret Sword].

The so-called secret sword was actually a longsword-like Wizard Tool, similar to the light sword in space battles. It could release all kinds of ray attacks... Of course, physical attacks were also possible.

The workmanship of this secret sword was not bad, and the material was very good. It was a high-grade level 5 metal, [Gold Dividing Stone].

It could release a high-temperature flame beam at the peak of level 5, which could cut through metal and jade. It was very impressive.

“It’s not bad to use it to hunt black beasts. Otherwise, if I were to use my Fire Dragon Tribulation, even its fur would be destroyed,” Holy Infant murmured.

Holy Infant had planned to refine a secret sword himself.

From the looks of it, Holy Infant only needed to use the amethyst he had obtained previously to level up this secret sword.

The second item was a large piece of level 5 fire element metal called [Blazing Fire Gold].

The size of the metal was enough for Holy Infant to refine two alchemical creatures.

In this way, with the [Scarlet Heart Flame Metal] that he had obtained previously, [Fire Phoenix], [Fire Golden Turtle], [Fire Forest Deer], the refinement of these alchemical creatures on Fire God could also be included in his future plans.

Of course, before that, Holy Infant had to refine the Winged Dragon of the Wind God model.

...

Time flew.

In the blink of an eye, a year had passed.

Year 1211 of the Holy Brilliance Calendar, Month of the Northern Wind.

Year 46 of the Dark Ancient Tower Calendar.

The news of the Nine Cities Alliance waging war against the White Robe Wizard Association was spread by people who had ulterior motives, and it spread throughout the wizard community in the Io Continent.

There was also a video that was spread along with the news.

It recorded many scenes of the Nine Cities Alliance's unjust invasion of the White Robe Wizard Association.

There were even images of the secret discussions of the Nine Cities Alliance that had been leaked by someone.

Nine Cities Alliance's intentions were completely exposed.

This made the majority of the nomadic wizards condemn the Nine Cities Alliance.

Even the other top wizard organizations fell silent.

Although they also wanted to annex the resources of the nomadic wizards, at least they wouldn't do it so blatantly.

Nine Cities Alliance was too arrogant.

...

Holy Fire Plateau.

Sky Fire Fortress.

Roman looked at the news and photos that were flying everywhere.

“Have you found the mole?” Roman asked in a gloomy voice.

Beske was terrified as he replied, “It should be Farrah... He disappeared not long ago. Sir, should we send someone to chase after him?”

Roman said icily, “Chase what?! He’s a perfected fifth-circle wizard and he’s all by himself. How could we possibly discover him if he hides in a random place in the Million Mountains? Now that things have already come to this, why should we care about the public opinion of the outside world? Let’s continue with our own matters... The exploration of the Holy Fire Plateau is about to be completed. Next, prepare our forces and attack the Tomb Clan first!”

Chapter 1346: Holy Infant's Promotion

“Alright, then what do we do about the White Robe Wizard Association?” Beske wiped the cold sweat off his forehead and asked.

“Let’s put it aside for now. The Kane Empire has suffered a loss from us. They will definitely find the weaknesses in the remaining large organizations to take advantage of. Perhaps we don’t need to do anything. The White Robe Wizard Association will collapse on its own. At that time, we’ll wait for an opportunity to make a move,” said Roman.

“Alright.”

...

Dragon Valley.

Simon descended from the sky.

After experiencing countless battles, the Black Lotus Beast's mountain-like body was covered in wounds and scars, but it became even more ferocious.

The Black Lotus Beast looked at Simon angrily and remained silent.

Without the strength to break through all of this, no matter how loudly the Black Lotus Beast shouted, it would only be in vain.

A choker-shaped Wizard Tool flew out of Simon's hand and spun around the Black Lotus Beast's neck, piercing deep into its flesh.

"You must be tired of staying in this valley. Follow me to take a walk outside... I specially prepared this Wizard Tool for you. Don't try to go against my will, or you'll be in great pain," Simon said with a smile.

Simon stood on the Black Lotus Beast's head and drove the giant beast away from the Dragon Valley. They were heading towards the east of the Io Continent.

“In this world, less than ten percent of the Dragon Abominations are alive. This Dragon Valley no longer has any meaning to exist. From now on, I’ll take the initiative to attack. I’ll start with the Sky Dragon Wizard first, then those two women...”

A few years ago, in the eastern region, there was a Dragon Abomination that was famous for a time. It was said that he colluded with Queen Banyan and obtained the Holy Grail treasure.

At that time, the mages of the empire had besieged the Nine Cities Alliance. The battle was intense, causing Simon to miss the feast.

Apart from killing the Sky Dragon Wizard, Simon wanted to try his luck and search for some clues to see if he could find that Dragon Abomination.

This way, Simon could satisfy his desire to kill and also obtain the Holy Grail treasure at the same time. It was killing two birds with one stone.

Simon had mastered the [All Living Things Yield to the Dragon] domain and had the support of the Black Lotus Beast, which was comparable to a perfected fifth-circle beast.

Simon was confident that below the primordial soul realm, he was...

Unrivaled!

...

Sea of Stars.

The new Fire Dragon Island.

An awe-inspiring metal Winged Dragon about ten feet in size spread its wings in the weapon refinement room.

“Meshus Winged Dragon.”

Holy Infant finished loading the Aether Stones.

The Winged Dragon’s eyes emitted a green light.

In the next moment, two sharp rays of wind tore apart the array set up by Holy Infant and cut the wall in front of him. It was as fragile as tofu.

After a year, the last alchemical creature of the Wind God was finally refined.

The Hast Eagle and the Kulcan Feathered Serpent were both with the main body.

It just so happens that the Holy Infant has recently accumulated a bunch of resources and needed to give them to Levi.

These resources included the potion materials for the advancement of the Crimson Emperor Dragon Breathing Technique.

Thinking of this, Holy Infant left the island and flew toward Dragon Palace Island.

Several days later.

At the Star Bazaar.

Mia was holding a spell crystal ball and studying the spells inside. She wanted to use it as her protective force field.

Other than a few wizards who were more ambitious and talented, many ordinary wizards like her who had accepted their fate chose the spells of their predecessors instead of creating their own.

After all, a self-created spell might not be more powerful than an existing spell.

Of course, if one had enough talent and time, it would be great to create a spell that was most suitable for themselves.

Mia raised her head, stood up, and walked to the door.

A witch who was wearing a fiery red robe and was about the same size as Mia stood there.

“Miss Mia, is Master Fire Dragon not at home?” asked Red Dragon Queen.

“My Lord isn’t here. Is there anything you need?” asked Mia.

“It’s like this. After some research, we’ve decided to let Master Fire Dragon join the Five Elders Palace. We want to ask his wishes in person,” said Red Dragon Queen.

“That’s too unfortunate. My Lord has just left.”

“Alright then.”

Red Dragon Queen left.

After learning that the Master had killed a perfected fifth-circle wizard by himself, the current members of the Five Elders Palace unanimously decided to invite the Master to join the Five Elders Palace.

“Master Fire Dragon has just entered the fifth-circle senior realm, but he can already kill a perfected fifth-circle wizard. This kind of strength is too terrifying.”

Red Dragon Queen realized that there seemed to be a layer of fog around Master, making it hard to fathom.

After a year of recuperation, Red Dragon Queen had recovered and her strength had improved.

However, she was still a little short of attaining Perfection in the fifth-circle realm.

During that one year, Simon’s silhouette would always appear in her mind.

Then, her body would feel a chill.

Simon himself was not scary.

Why would someone have such pure and terrifying malice towards the Dragon Clans?

What had Simon experienced for him to be so twisted?

It was as if he was born to disgust the Dragon Clans, like a young The End Dragon Bird.

“The End Dragon Bird... I originally thought that this terrifying race had long been destroyed by the Dragon Clan. Now, it seems that it might not be that simple. It’s very likely that Simon used some forbidden method to obtain The End Dragon Bird. Otherwise, no matter how talented Simon is, it’s impossible for him to develop such a domain spell.”

...

A month later.

Dragon Palace Island.

Levi came out of seclusion in advance and took the resources and the Winged Dragon from Holy Infant.

Holy Infant hurried back to the Sea of Stars.

Holy Infant naturally had to take up the position of the Five Elder Palace.

The higher the power, the more convenient it was for Holy Infant to act.

“Now, let’s try the combined might of the three Wind Gods.”

As Levi muttered, he arranged the Feathered Serpent, the Hast Eagle, and the Winged Dragon.

Levi had already loaded them with Aether Stones.

Then, Levi began to chant an incantation.

“Breath of the Wind God!”

The three alchemical creatures flapped their wings at the same time, stirring up three tornadoes that were hundreds of meters tall.

Then, these tornadoes gathered together as if they had gravity.

Chapter 1347: Testing the Wind God Model

In the end, a dragon tornado was formed.

The bodies of the Winged Dragon, Giant Eagle, and Feathered Serpent suddenly turned into countless parts.

Under the strength of the incantation, these parts were instantly reassembled.

A three-meter-tall humanoid alchemical creature appeared from the Storm's Birth. Its figure was dignified and its aura was extraordinary.

It had the head of the Giant Eagle, the tail of a Feathered Serpent, and the claws of a Winged Dragon.

It had two pairs of wings on its back and one pair of fleshy wings.

In its hand was a staff formed from the body of a Feathered Serpent.

"Is this the Wind God? It looks very awe-inspiring, and it really has the beauty of divinity... I wonder how strong it is?"

Levi called Thunder Roc over and let it enter.

"Try and see if you can control this alchemical creature."

Thunder Roc nodded and obediently turned into a bolt of lightning and entered.

The next moment, purple electric currents began to run amok on the surface of the Wind God.

The Wind God's eagle-like sharp eyes suddenly opened, and the lightning disappeared.

As for sparring with the Wind God model, it was naturally the three brothers – Ganster, Wenster, and Trist.

There was nothing Levi could do. The Earthquake Dragons had thick skin and were the most resistant to beatings.

Furthermore, the three brothers were the strongest among Levi's transcendent creatures.

The Wind God model's Wind Thunder Power burst forth, turning into an illusion as it waved its staff.

Three dragon tornadoes shot toward the three brothers.

The three brothers used the earthquake waves to block the dragon tornado and tear it apart.

The dragon's breath blocked the Wind God model's movement from three directions.

The Wind God model's three pairs of wings flapped, and a huge wind shield protected it.

Rumble!

The terrifying attack shattered the wind shield.

The Wind God model had long escaped.

The Wind God model's speed was extremely fast, and its eyes shot out rays of wind that were extremely sharp, cutting through everything.

The scales of the Earthquake Dragon were instantly penetrated.

At the same time, wind blades that filled the sky descended from the sky like rain. There was nowhere to hide.

Hurricanes surrounded the three brothers and compressed them.

In the end, after a fierce battle.

The three brothers left the battle with wounds all over their bodies.

The facts proved that they were still defeated by the Wind God model even when they joined forces.

This was the strength that was enough to suppress a fifth-circle senior existence.

Such a powerful alchemical creature was rare even in the Wizard World!

“Now, we only need Fire God, Water God, and Earth God models. At that time, I could easily suppress others like Yolanda just by relying on the alchemical creatures!”

Soon, the Wind God model disintegrated and Thunder Roc flew out.

Thunder Roc found it hard to believe that she could actually defeat three sub-dragons.

Master’s methods were truly ingenious and difficult to fathom.

“Not bad. I’ll leave this Wind God to you to pilot. Train it well in the future,” said Levi.

Thunder Roc nodded her head like a chick pecking at rice, extremely delighted.

Now that Phoenix had become the Holy Infant's long-term fireman, she was duty-bound to be the driver.

Levi arrived at the Ancient Banyan Fairyland.

This time, Holy Infant had sent back quite a number of transcendent creatures and black beast flesh.

Transcendent creatures were meant to feed the carnivorous mixed-blood dragons like the three brothers.

Unlike Long, most transcendent creatures could go without food for a long time after a full meal.

Long couldn't. It was a straightforward person. It pooped as it ate, and its metabolism was too fast. That was why it could grow to more than 100 meters in half a year.

Long was the ruthless eating and dung-making machine.

Under the ancient banyan tree.

After more than a year of growth, more and more green sprouts appeared.

“I wonder when Senior Mana will wake up. At that time, I’ll be able to do whatever I want on the fifth level... Forget it. Senior doesn’t like to kill, so I won’t cause trouble for her.”

During this period of time, apart from cultivating, Levi had already toured all 118 springs.

He categorized the plants according to the ecology of the different springs. This way, it would be much more convenient to transplant plants in the future.

In the Dreamy Cloud Swamp, the Saint Fruit was growing well, and Levi could see changes to the plant every month.

The growth cycle of this plant was not very long.

As for the Iron Tree in the Flaming Mountain, the change was very small.

It was still a long way to go before Levi could witness the blooming of the Iron Tree. The tree would need thousands of years.

The Thunderstorm Wolf Dragon had recovered from its injuries and was currently temporarily residing in the Elemental-Rich Land Number 004, Thunder Dragon Mountain.

This place was covered in thunderclouds all year round, and lightning would descend every day.

Moreover, there was a land of underground fire in the mountain.

The combination of thunder and fire had made the mountain rich in a type of level 4 thunder element metal – Thunder Lava Stone.

There were a few other mines like this in the Ancient Banyan Fairyland, but not many. After all, the Fairyland had only been around for a short period of time.

Levi left the Fairyland and continued to cultivate.

Levi's top priority now was to cultivate the Crimson Emperor Dragon Breathing Technique to become a grade 5 knight.

Relying on Holy Infant's status and connections, the advancement potion had long been prepared. Everything was ready, just waiting for Levi to advance.

...

Sea of Stars.

Holy Infant had officially joined the Five Elders Palace.

In just a few short years, he had already risen to the top of the White Robe Wizard Association.

In the past year, the Nine Cities Alliance did not send any more troops.

However, no one dared to relax.

Under Rust Dragon Wizard's organization, the last level 5 Amethyst Race member hiding in the Sea of Stars was also killed.

Peace was temporarily restored here.

Time flew.

In the blink of an eye, another half a year had passed.

On a certain day, Holy Infant looked at the information sent by his subordinates.

“Wizard Beckman is also a fifth-circle wizard. The Gray Robe Palace has another fifth-circle wizard. Not bad.”

Beckman was the perfected fourth-circle portly wizard that Holy Infant met when he first came to the fifth floor. Beckman was also a teacher at Garcia Wizard Academy.

It was a good thing for the academy that Beckman was a fifth-circle wizard now.

As the saying goes, a person’s success depends on their morality. Those with morality will gain the support of others while those without morality will gain little support.

As the reputation of the Nine Cities Alliance spread, the news of a primordial soul wizard in the Sea of Stars started to spread as well.

Chapter 1348: Crimson Emperor Dragon Level 5!

Many wizards who had been hesitating before also joined the association.

Previously, the White Robe Wizard Association didn’t have a primordial soul wizard to hold the fort, so everyone didn’t have the confidence.

Now, the association had a primordial soul wizard and even repelled the fierce attack of the Nine Cities Alliance. Naturally, things were very different now.

Now, the White Robe Wizard Association had an unprecedented number of 40 fifth-circle wizards, and the association's reputation was growing stronger.

At first, many wizards were quite dissatisfied with the fact that a fifth-circle senior like the Fire Dragon Wizard had joined the Five Elders Palace.

Everyone fell silent when the Rust Dragon Wizard announced Fire Dragon Wizard's battle results to the public.

The Fire Dragon and the Red Dragon Queen teamed up and killed two level 5 Amethyst Race members, and one of the Amethyst Race members was a peak level 5!

Fire Dragon Wizard also single-handedly defeated the Nine Cities Alliance's perfected fifth-circle wizard, Yolanda.

With such combat data, who cares if he was only a fifth-circle senior wizard?

How many perfected fifth-circle wizards could match his strength?

Moreover, with Fire Dragon Wizard's reputation for making weapons, he was no longer inferior to the former Silverbeard.

Therefore...

There was an endless stream of people fawning over the rich and powerful, and there were even some who gave gifts.

Fire Dragon Wizard did not refuse them. He let Mia handle this matter and expressed his goodwill to these people.

To survive in the Wizard World, one needed connections.

And this was a great opportunity.

With Mia handling these matters, he was not worried.

Holy Infant himself was on Fire Dragon Island, refining Wizard Tools in peace.

This time, what he was going to refine was not an ordinary Wizard Tool, but a 'flying sword' that was compatible with his seventh talent.

The main material was the scales that he had obtained from Venerable Blood Scales.

However, after a month of Phoenix breathing fire for it...

Holy Infant stopped Phoenix.

That was because the scale had not changed at all during this month!

This shocked Holy Infant.

“Even a level 6 Man-Faced Spider’s shell should have some changes. There is only one explanation for this situation... This Venerable Blood Scales is a level 7 or even a level 8 material. Let alone Phoenix, even a primordial soul wizard would need a long time to refine it.”

After Levi, Holy Infant’s original body, found out about this, he was extremely happy. This was the first time Levi had seen a material of this level. It was priceless and immeasurable!

Levi immediately asked Holy Infant to give up on refining the blood scale for the time being. Instead, he used the peak of level 5 Amethyst as the main material and the female fire ore to refine the flying sword.

This blood scale could only be used after Levi advanced to the primordial soul realm.

If he could master it, the power would be unimaginable.

...

Year 1212 of the Holy Brilliance Calendar, the Month of Beginning.

Year 47 of the Dark Ancient Tower Calendar.

The 111th round table meeting.

Among the new generation of knights, the Fire Dragon Knight had advanced to level two.

He was born with amazing bone structure and natural strength.

Looking at it now, it was indeed extraordinary. His comprehension of combat techniques was also far beyond that of ordinary knights.

This left a deep impression on Levi.

In recent years, the knights had yet to produce a new level 4 knight. However, with Black Knight's progress, they should not be far off.

The current situation in the human world is not optimistic.

Many small transcendent organizations were destroyed.

The Black Dragon Mountain Empire had been sending troops to harass the Seven Kingdoms Continent, and the Church was struggling to deal with them.

The Ancient Saint plane had already suffered many attacks from external enemies over the years.

Fortunately, they were all safe and sound. The effect of the array was once again revealed.

There were now 36 Ancient Saints in the Ancient Dragon's Empire Senior State Assembly.

Among the three kings, the Golden Feathers King had broken through the ceiling of level 4 and entered level 5.

This should be the realm of the Initial Ancient Saint Realm in the past.

The method Golden Feathers King used to break through the shackles was based on the method of advancing to a knight, and he had magically modified it.

Levi was even more convinced that the Ancient Saints were experimental subjects created by Sauron according to the path of knights.

These two paths were essentially interlinked, which was why they could reach the same destination.

Now that the theoretical system of knights had basically taken shape, the resources had also begun to be abundant.

Levi ordered his subordinates to secretly buy fur clan slaves in the Wizard World and began to train fur clan knights according to the method he left behind.

This group of people would be trained and led by Algerta, Tiga, and the other first-generation fur clan knights.

In the future, the fur clan knights would also be a trump card of the Ancient Saint plane.

It could be seen that even without Levi, the Ancient Saint plane could still operate in an orderly manner.

A complete set of knowledge research, practice, and application systems has been established.

Next, they would rise in this grand era and step onto the stage of history!

After the meeting ended, Levi looked at the panel on Dragon Palace Island.

Levi –

[Crimson Emperor Dragon Breathing Technique: Level 16 (Maximum, Evolvable/Advanceable)]

After decades of cultivation, the Crimson Emperor Dragon had finally reached its limit.

One step further and Levi would become a 5th rank knight.

Levi sent the advancement potion into his body through the blood refinement method.

“After the Crimson Emperor Dragon reaches level five, my strength should be able to easily suppress a perfected fifth-circle existence... Then there is no need to hide on Dragon Palace Island anymore. I’ll send the grand array and transcendent creatures into the Ancient Banyan Fairyland and begin my exploration of the fifth level.”

In the past few decades, the Flying Scythe Beasts had already marked many potential resource points on the Io Continent and the outer sea region for Levi.

However, those resource points were often guarded by powerful transcendent creatures. Out of safety considerations, Levi had never explored them.

Levi had been waiting for the Crimson Emperor Dragon to level up. He would only dare to go out and have fun after reaching the fifth level of the strongest breathing technique.

With the experience from the previous advancement, he was now more familiar with this breakthrough.

Half a year later, Levi's body had completely digested the Crimson Emperor Dragon's secret medicine.

There was a hot current flowing in his body like lava, causing his limbs and bones to feel intense pain.

However, with his strong willpower and endurance, he was able to deal with the pain that could make ordinary people go crazy.

Blood seeped out of his body, and some impurities could be seen.

The powerful bloodline of the Crimson Emperor Dragon was transforming his body.

Within the Crimson Emperor Divine Palace that was located in Levi's heart, the Crimson Emperor Dragon Seed that was sitting on the throne was also undergoing a transformation.

Rebirth, Disillusionment, Rebirth... The cycle repeated.

After an unknown period of time, Levi had completely turned into a bloody man.

The blood scab solidified into a crystal and remained motionless.

This state lasted for a month.

On this day, cracks began to appear on the blood-red crystal.

A powerful and overbearing aura drilled out from within.

The crystal broke.

A well-proportioned and muscular man with the same height as an ordinary person slowly walked out.

“I seem to have been asleep for a while.”

Levi looked into his own body.

In the divine palace, the Crimson Emperor Dragon also woke up from its slumber and opened its indifferent dragon eyes that could destroy the world.

Levi looked at Dragon Palace Island, where he had lived for decades.

“From now on, the world is vast and meant for wandering... lo, I’m coming!”

Chapter 1349: The Inferno of the Red Lotus (1)

Before embarking on his journey, he needed to properly equip his sword.

After reaching the fifth level of the Crimson Emperor Dragon, Levi could clearly feel his fundamental strength had grown significantly stronger.

The essence of the Crimson Emperor Dragon was like a miniature nuclear reactor, capable of unleashing terrifying power with just a spark.

Within him, the immense power of the Crimson Emperor Dragon surged.

In an instant, a majestic red divine palace projected into the sky, reaching heights of ten thousand meters.

The divine palace radiated endless light and heat, blinding and akin to the sun!

The intense heat twisted the sky, turning the clouds a deep red.

The temperature of the land visibly increased.

Hot!

So hot!

In this sea area, all sea beasts and fish were turned belly-up by the searing heat.

Even though they were miles away from the divine palace.

As the divine palace descended, the seawater began to evaporate rapidly.

When it descended to a thousand meters above, the sea below was already boiling.

Boom!

The divine palace landed on the sea surface.

Hundreds of meters of seawater instantly evaporated, revealing the charred riverbed beneath.

For miles around, the ocean turned to scorched earth!

This was the power of the Crimson Emperor Divine Palace's projection.

Even more formidable than the Golden Snake Divine Palace.

Levi retracted the Crimson Emperor Divine Palace, no longer wishing to damage the local environment.

He soared into the sky.

Countless flames erupted around him, shooting upwards.

When the firelight vanished, a sleek, red armor appeared on him.

The armor was composed of magma-like flesh and scales, radiating intense heat.

The flesh of the armor was closely connected with every divine thread within Levi.

On the chest of the armor was a lotus-like pattern, with thirty-two petals.

Among them, thirty-one petals glowed red, while one had already extinguished.

“This seems to be an energy indicator of the Crimson Emperor Dragon. When all thirty-two petals extinguish, the armor will dissipate... Truly worthy of the Crimson Emperor Dragon, it has such features.”

The Blood Source Armor was immensely powerful, but like the divine palace, it consumed energy greatly.

Levi freely soared in the sky, wearing the Crimson Emperor Dragon armor, leaping above the clouds.

He gathered power in his right arm and struck out with a punch.

No flashy techniques, no dazzling spells—just pure strength.

The raging crimson flame punch tore through the clouds ahead, creating a massive void, with faint traces of firelight remaining on the walls of the void, vanishing.

He grasped the Crimson Dragon Slash and invoked the Heavenly Dragon Sword Codex.

Using the Crimson Emperor Dragon armor, he unleashed a crimson dragon sword qi.

The sword qi cut through the air like a red beam, dividing heaven and earth!

The clouds roiled and reluctantly parted.

Leaving behind a high-temperature air distortion channel that took a long time to dissipate.

“The lingering power of the sword qi lasts so long. With this strike, all the sufferings, sorrows, fears, and troubles in this world will vanish into thin air!”

He sheathed his longsword.

The right arm of the Crimson Emperor Dragon armor suddenly expanded, becoming thicker and longer.

Then, the hand transformed into a fearsome, gigantic red dragon’s head.

Boom!

Like a volcanic eruption, the breath of the Crimson Emperor Dragon surged forth!

The breath extended for five miles, creating a river of flames high in the sky.

“This attack’s power is even greater than the Fire Dragon Tribulation, reaching half the level of the Nine Dragon Tribulation. Unexpectedly, it’s enough to annihilate a fifth-circle senior wizard in an instant!”

At this moment, Levi noticed that four petals of the lotus on his chest had already extinguished.

“Next, let’s try the real ultimate move.”

The ultimate move of the Brilliant Golden Dragon Armor was the golden light of the unicorn, obliterating everything.

Levi later named it, “Golden Ray.”

The Golden Ray was a single-target focused attack, adept at breaking through defenses.

The ultimate move of the Crimson Emperor Dragon armor, on the other hand, was entirely different.

Levi concentrated, extinguishing twenty-four petals of the lotus in an instant.

Twenty-four crimson rays shot into the sky.

Under the red sky, countless flames and air currents shredded the white clouds.

A gigantic red lotus, about a hundred meters in diameter, descended from above.

With twenty-four petals, it illuminated all directions!

Under the terrifying heat, the surrounding void seemed to twist and melt.

In this distortion of power, volcanoes, magma, blazing suns, fire dragons, and fire gods... all sorts of fiery phenomena filled the world.

And reigning over these phenomena was the awe-inspiring, world-suppressing Crimson Emperor Dragon!

As the red lotus descended, a five-mile radius turned into a fiery hell.

Even the energy at the edges was more powerful than most fifth-circle spells.

The deeper one went, the more terrifying the energy became.

At the center, a destructive aura pervaded, as if a single glance could cause one to explode and sink into death!

Levi named the ultimate move of the Crimson Emperor Dragon armor.

“Red Lotus Purgatory!”

In theory, the strongest form of the Red Lotus Hell at this level should be thirty-two petals.

However, this level could not achieve it.

Because after the Crimson Emperor Dragon armor was created, one petal of the lotus would automatically extinguish.

This was likely due to the fixed energy consumption required by the mech itself.

“Perhaps after reaching level six, the number of Red Lotus petals can increase,” Levi murmured.

After the experiment, he summarized several uses of the Crimson Emperor Dragon armor.

1. Amplifies strength.

2. Enhances defense.

3. Crimson Emperor Dragon breath.

4. Red Lotus Purgatory.

He couldn't help but marvel at how the Crimson Emperor Dragon armor was considerably stronger than the Brilliant Golden Dragon Armor.

For this experiment with the Crimson Emperor Dragon armor,

He did not seek a sparring partner this time, mainly to avoid harming any transcendent creatures.

The Crimson Emperor Dragon was an absolute dragon of destruction, every action capable of devastating the world. So, it was enough to just strike the air and enjoy the power.

Chapter 1350: The Inferno of the Red Lotus (2)

He opened the proficiency panel.

Levi, Crimson Emperor Dragon Breathing Technique: Level 17 (1/2,000,000), Special Effect: Flame Dragon's True Form (Level 5); Bloodline Dharma Idol: Heaven Burning Crimson Emperor; Blood Source Armor: Crimson Emperor Dragon Armor. Exclusive Weapon: Crimson Dragon Slash (Level 4)

...

"Two million proficiency points required... If I rely on level 4 Crimson-Horned Fire Pythons for training, who knows how many years it'll take to reach level 6... I need to start searching for level 5 sub-dragons next."

For Levi, none were more suitable than the Black Lotus Beast among all the fire-type sub-dragons,.

"The strongest sub-dragon derived from the Red Lotus Dragon... I can't wait."

Originally, Levi had planned to venture into Dragon Valley quietly after his retreat.

But recently, through the Holy Infant, he learned that someone had spotted the Black Lotus Beast in the eastern region of Io, where it had killed numerous wizards, and even some ordinary people.

The Black Lotus Beast seemed to have gone mad, attacking recklessly. It had broken through the encirclement and blockade of several fifth-circle perfected wizards multiple times.

Levi speculated that the sudden appearance of the crazed Black Lotus Beast in the eastern region might not be a coincidence.

It could be that the Nine Cities Alliance was redirecting trouble to the east, just like how the Amethyst Race appeared in the Sea of Stars—an arranged plan.

But regardless, from now on, the Black Lotus Beast was his, and not even Jesus could stop him.

Of course, he wouldn't just rush in blindly; he needed to investigate the eastern region first and plan his actions accordingly.

After all, he was invincible beneath the primordial soul level, but not truly invincible.

Levi entered the Ancient Banyan Fairyland and arrived at the Small Stone Pond.

After a vigorous and intense workout, Levi enjoyed soaking in the Spring Water of Immortality to bathe.

After bathing, he felt refreshed and invigorated.

He began to prepare for moving.

This time, he was leaving Dragon Palace Island, and it was likely he wouldn't be coming back.

He then went to the Eight Heavenly Dragon Prison.

"Gan, Wen, Cui, Sawkins, Pixar, Thunder Roc... all of you, come here."

He called out.

The transcendent creatures swarmed towards him.

"Lord Dragon King, are we leaving?" Ganster asked.

"Yes, the real journey begins now. I will take you all to the true Dragon Palace Fairyland," Levi replied.

"I knew it! Our Dragon Palace must have a secret base!" Trist excitedly exclaimed.

It made sense to him that such a prestigious organization like the Dragon Palace couldn't possibly have its base on a desolate island. He figured the Lord Dragon King had been testing them all along, and now that they had passed, they were finally going to enter the secret base.

"Alright, line up. You'll be going in one by one. Once inside, don't wander off. If you damage any of the rare plants or flowers, there will be consequences," Levi instructed.

He opened the entrance to the Ancient Banyan Fairyland.

The three brothers, with their massive bodies, entered one after the other.

Upon entering, they were greeted by a vast expanse of blue skies, white clouds, and an endless prairie.

"This place is incredible! The earth elemental power here is so dense!" Winst exclaimed.

"I feel like I could reach level five within forty years!" Ratti lay down on the grass, enjoying the gentle breeze, feeling a surge of motivation.

More and more transcendent creatures entered the Fairyland, and the prairie quickly became lively.

“Those at level five, stay here. Level fours, find a suitable place to live, but don’t enter any marked locations without permission,” Levi ordered.

Given the strength of the enemies he would face in the future, having anyone below level five guarding the array would be meaningless and could even be a liability.

In the following daLevi looked at the now-desolate Dragon Palace Island, erasing all traces of his life there.

Finally, assuming the appearance of a kind-looking wizard, he headed to the valley.

Aya had grown a bit, blossoming into a more beautiful and lively young girl with sparkling eyes.

She was now a mid-level apprentice wizard, advancing quickly in her studies.

Aya had never seen Levi before, only the Holy Infant, so she was a bit nervous.

“Are you a friend of the big brother?” she asked.

Levi thought for a moment and then smiled. “You could say that. We’re very good friends.”

“Okay, are we leaving?” Aya was quick to catch on.

“Yes, I’m ending my reclusive life. You’re coming with me. I’ll take you to a safe place. From now on, you can call me Island Master,” he said.

“Alright, Island Master Brother, please tell the big brother when you see him.”

Aya was lively and sweet, and she quickly became comfortable chatting with Levi.

Levi mused to himself.

In my previous life, I wasn’t even thirty, and kids were already calling me ‘uncle.’ Now, in this life, I’m over two hundred years old, and someone’s still calling me ‘brother’...

He brought Aya to the Ancient Banyan Fairyland and had her settle in the tree hollow at Mana’s roots.

From the information the little girl had previously revealed, it was clear that Mana knew her.

The voice of the Holy Grail echoed in his mind: “This little girl is quite special.”

Levi replied, "Yes, her talent as a wizard is impressive. With proper guidance, she could have a bright future."

The Holy Grail continued, "Aya doesn't know that her mother wasn't a mortal but the Supreme Mage of Light. Her mother was hunted down for betraying the Supreme Archmage, and, gravely wounded, she entrusted Aya to Mana before she died. Aya's talent may be tied to this event."
