Chapter 139: Transcendent Endurance, Vast as the Great Lake! (3)

This time, Levi would not be robbed by enemies like last time.

The current defense of the Black Water Valley was not inferior to some Earl's territories. Some Earls did not even have the strength of a grand knight.

Moreover, his enemy, the Duke of Montenegro, was busy caring for himself. He was preparing to fight against the royal family and the Southern Coalition Army in the Northern Expedition. He would not waste his troops to deal with him.

In the end, he was just a tiny character.

Baron Levi was nothing in front of the grand ambitions of the Duke of Montenegro.

Levi was relatively at ease on this trip.

However, Levi still hid all the valuable items in the Montenegro Mountain Mountain Range shelter to be safe.

If the territory was gone, so be it. After all, the region was such a big thing Levi could not hide it.

He could not let the territory drag him down. He guarded the environment every day and could not go anywhere.

However, there were still quite a few gold coins in the shelter that Levi had meticulously earned.

Levi feared the enemy would find shelter and take away his vast wealth. If that happened, he would have to start from scratch.

The following day, before the sun had risen, the Icewind City had already appeared before Levi.

With Levi's current walking speed and endurance, he quickly brought Magic Shark to the Icewind City.

He had already found a guide for this trip to the Evernight Kingdom some time ago.

The language of the Evernight Kingdom belonged to a different language family.

In short, their language combined the characteristics of the wording of the Emerald Kingdom and the Tuva Empire to form their unique language.

Initially, the nobles and people of the Emerald Kingdom and Tuva Empire moved much of their population to the northernmost land to develop new territories.

Ultimately, because the mountains were high and the emperor was far away, the climate was cold, and no one went there. In addition, they continued to seek independence, which slowly formed the current Evernight Kingdom.

Other than the early immigrants, very few locals lived there.

The Icicle Islands that Levi was going to this time had a group of true natives who had lived in that area since ancient times.

For this long journey, the guide Levi had found was also a wandering knight Levi had recruited from the Shining Tavern.

The Evernight Kingdom had been rather dangerous recently, with constant wars and Snow Demons. In addition, it was already quite cold, and it was always winter there. If he went there, he would suffer. Therefore, Levi spent 100 gold coins this time to find someone willing to lead the way and act as a translator.

In the Shining Tavern, Levi ordered a cup of Snowflake.

Entering the private room that he had booked in advance, Levi finally met his agent.

He could not help but laugh in his heart. This entrusted person was an old acquaintance of his.

He looked at the knight with a sad face and a smile. "Wild Dog, we meet again. I didn't expect you to be such a language genius. Do you know the language there?"

This guide was none other than the Wild Dog Knight.

The Wild Dog knight also saw the familiar White Wolf Mask. He didn't know whether to laugh or cry.

"Sir, you travel the world. You go wherever you want, right? Don't worry, I, Wild Dog, have been in this line of work for decades and am proficient in many languages. I won't lie to you!"

"Alright, then, get ready to set off," Levi shrugged and said with a smile.

The Wild Dog knight sighed in disappointment, "I originally wanted to stop after finishing that last job, but who knew that God's plan would fail...Sigh, let's not talk about it. It's all disappointment."

Levi was not in the mood to gossip about Wild Dog's private affairs. He brought Wild Dog out of the city and called Magic Shark, who had been waiting in the wilderness for a long time.

Wild Dog looked at the burly man, who was more than two meters tall and was like a wall. His entire body was covered in armor, and only two holes were in his eyes, revealing his dark blue eyes.

Wild Dog Knight gulped, "Sir, what's going on?"

Levi patted Wild Dog's shoulder. "Don't worry; this is one of my seniors. You can call him 'Magic Shark.' He's coming with us this time. Because he was injured, he couldn't speak. We should try not to disturb him. He doesn't have a good temper."

Wild Dog Knight was shocked. With such an expert accompanying him, he was indeed a figure from a large family.

However, with such a powerful being following behind him, Wild Dog Knight felt at ease, but at the same time, he also felt a little afraid.

This powerhouse gave him a feeling that he was too strong. In Icewind City, there were not many people who could give him this feeling. The Earl of Silver Mountain was one of them.

"D*mn it; he can't be a grand knight, right?"

He was shocked but did not dare ask the man.

He was getting more and more curious about the man's identity. There was a senior who seemed to be a grand knight. Although old, Wild Dog Knight could see that Magic Shark was a guard or servant. Otherwise, why would Magic Shark carry such heavy luggage for him?

The wild dog knight made a wild guess, "A grand knight as a servant. This is at least the treatment of the eldest son of a grand duke."

Most importantly, from the looks of it, the man's strength was also extraordinary. He felt it was not much different from his senior, Magic Shark.

During the last trip to the Holy City, Wild Dog had also seen the White Wolf fight.

Although intense then, it felt like he was only a high-level knight. This time, just from his aura, he must be at least a peak knight!
