Chapter 140: Transcendent Endurance, Vast as the Great Lake! (4)

"Who is he?"

"I can confirm that he is a genius who cultivates the knight's breathing techniques, and his breathing techniques require ambergris. As far as I know, the Royal Family's breathing technique requires ambergris... Wait, I know; he must be the illegitimate son of the old Emerald King!

"White Horse Edward, White Wolf Geralt...

"It all made sense!

"In addition to the grand knight-level guard, everything made sense!"

At the thought of this, Wild Dog Knight felt enlightened. He had found the truth, and he gradually understood everything...

Even though he was a thousand miles away from the truth!

With a taciturn expert like Magic Shark by his side, Wild Dog was no longer as chatty and laughing as he was during the Holy City trip. He was inevitably a little reserved in front of an expert.

The team headed north. Wild Dog Knight was indeed mighty.

Along the way, Levi did not encounter any bandits or ferocious beasts. The journey was very smooth.

Occasionally, some ignorant fellows would attack Levi, but they would all be crushed to death by Magic Shark.

When Magic Shark attacked, his strength stunned the Wild Dog. This kind of terrifying pressure was a grand knight!

Evernight Kingdom was not too far away. Levi and Wild Dog only took about 10 days to reach it. If not for the fact that they had to slow down for Wild Dog, Levi and Magic Shark would have arrived in seven days at most.

As they went further north, the temperature dropped.

It was the Month of Flowers when fresh flowers bloomed.

However, they saw endless snowy mountains and highlands along the way.

Then, there was the even more desolate frozen land.

The temperature was getting lower. Fortunately, Levi and his two companions were knights, so the cold was not a problem.

Half a month later, they arrived at the capital of the Evernight Kingdom, Snow City.

This city was not the largest and most magnificent but the most extraordinary and shocking city Levi had ever seen.

The entire city, be it the city walls, the buildings inside, the towering cathedral, or the magnificent royal castle, were all piled up or carved from thick ice.

"Your Excellency must be shocked as well. It was the same when I first saw it. Even during the warmest time of the year, it is comparable to the cold winter month of Icewind City."

"Do you see that colossus that is tens of meters tall?"

Wild Dog Knight pointed toward the square in front of the capital.

"That's the Snow Goddess statue!"

Levi looked at the tall, slender, and ice-blue female giant statue. She stood expressionlessly in front of the palace, welcoming travelers from all directions.

Although it was just a giant statue, Levi felt that it had a charm to it. This made him think of the portraits of the gods in the Holy Brilliance Church or the Storm Church.

Whether it was the merciful Heavenly Father, the dignified and domineering Lord of Storms, or the cold and solemn Snow Goddess, perhaps the gods trapped in the astral world were watching the human world through these statues.

"I still have to keep a low profile. I must find the Realm of the Unbelievers as soon as possible," Levi sighed and followed Wild Dog Knight into the city.

Compared to the Sacred City of Lantis, the Snow City was lonely.

Occasionally, there would be some wandering knights coming in and out.

These Wandering knights were either bounty hunters or mercenaries recruited by the Evernight Kingdom to fight against Snow Demons.

Levi and Wild Dog Knight entered as bounty hunters. On the streets, the doors of the houses along the way were tightly shut, and many shops were closed.

When they entered, a team of fully armed cavalrymen came in from outside the city gate.

They looked exhausted and riddled with wounds. Their weapons were shining with a silver luster. It was the glow of mithril.

The leader of the group was a middle-ranked knight. He looked like he had lost his spirit as if he was numb.

"This should be the army that the Evernight Kingdom has built to hunt Snow Demons over the years. It seems that they have lost this battle."

"Although ordinary Snow Demons have average strength, they are immortal and have many of them. Even an elite army might be wiped out if they are not careful. Do you want to join the Hunting Team?"

Wild Dog Knight looked at the retreating figures of those people and asked helplessly.

He was shocked when he learned White Wolf had come to the Evernight Kingdom to hunt Snow Demons.

Wasn't this seeking suicide?

Snow Demons knew no fatigue. Unless their Frost Hearts were removed, they would never die.

Even if one were a grand knight, he might die if he were careless in dealing with Snow Demons.

There was no lack of powerful existences among Snow Demons.

Over the years, Snow Demons that could be compared to knights or grand knights had been discovered over the years.

One would have no way out if he encountered such a Snow Demon while underprepared.

"Yes, I know what to do. After you arrange for me to join the Hunting Team, you can wait for me at the Snow City. After I'm done here, you can bring me to Icicle Islands," Levi said.

He had understood all of these situations, but with his Transcendent Endurance, defense, and many trump cards, it would not be a problem for him to protect himself.

To others, this place was filled with Undead and was hell on earth. To him, this place was a paradise for cultivating the Seal of Hell..
