Chapter 146: Book of Kungu, Level 5 Hell! (1)

"Let's go and take a look inside the village."

Levi waved at Knight Kader and Bray.

Knight Kader was stunned for a moment before he hurriedly nodded.

Then, he realized that something was wrong. He was the team leader.

Why did he listen to an outsider like White Wolf?

However, he recalled how the man had torn the snow leopard apart with his hands just now.

He had yet to calm down.

"So Snow Demons can be killed like this."

Bray rubbed his chin and said what Knight Kader wanted to express.

Levi walked on his own. He had only shown off a little earlier, but it seemed like he had scared the two people in front of him silly.

"Sir, you're not here to earn rewards. You're here to hone yourself, right?" Knight Kader smiled bitterly.

Levi did not answer, which was a silent agreement.

Knight Kader silently followed behind Levi.

The person in front of him was not a real wandering knight.

A wandering knight would not be such a strong expert.

It was even more impossible for a wandering knight to have so much money to use mithril to forge a longsword.

He should be a grand knight because of what he had just done. No wonder he felt that he was not simple at first glance.

The iron-armored burly man beside him should also be a grand knight, and he must be a guard of the White Wolf!

It must be so! Knight Kader could not think of any possibility besides the disciples of the great nobles going out for training.

Levi led the Knight Kader and Bray to search the village, but they did not find any other Snow Demons. They only saw the corpses of a few people.

"This is the outcome of disobeying orders. Without Your Excellency White Wolf's powerful strength, even we would have been implicated in danger," Knight Kader sighed, quietly flattering Levi.

Finally, they returned to the team.

Knight Kader told the others that the few people who went to the Snow Demon next to hunt Snow Demons had all died.

This made the others' restless hearts immediately calm down.

The following operation went much smoother.

The group finally arrived at Snow Valley City the following evening.

Corpses could be seen everywhere outside Snow Valley City.

These seemed to be the leftovers of the Snow Demons.

Knight Kader's expression was solemn as he quietly led the group into the city.

Levi followed them.

Bones covered in frost could be seen everywhere in the city. It was a scene of hell on earth.

"Is there anyone alive here?" Levi's heart skipped a beat.

Although they were all people who had nothing to do with him, looking at so many corpses frozen by the roadside, he felt indescribable.

Before the return of the Dark Wave, the ordinary people of this world could barely survive under the exploitation of the nobles.

After the return of the Dark Wave, it became a problem for ordinary people to survive.

Levi sensed the movements around him. He did not care about the large group and left silently with the Magic Shark.

He planned to hunt Snow Demons near Snow Valley City in the following period. After achieving his goal, he would return to the Snow Capital City and bring the Wild Dog Knight to Icicle Islands.

Kader looked at the leaving White Wolf. He wanted to say something, but he did not dare.

With White Wolf in this city, he felt an inexplicable sense of security.

A wandering knight looked at Levi with dissatisfaction and muttered, "Team leader, that person acted without permission!"

Bray and Knight Kader looked at him like he was a fool.

"If you have a mithril weapon almost made of pure mithril like him, and you can tear Snow Demons apart with your bare hands, step on snow leopards, and kill more than ten Snow Demons by yourself, you may also act alone. I don't mind. I can't wait for you to kill more Snow Demons to save the people of our kingdom," Knight Kader sneered.

After hearing this, the person did not dare to say anything else.

Someone said unhappily, "Just a pure mithril weapon? If you give me a pure mithril weapon, I can also kill Snow Demons."

Knight Kader ignored these people.

There were too many self-righteous people in this world.

The White Wolf and the burly man beside him were most likely grand knights.

With a high-purity mithril sword, they should be safe as long as hundreds of Snow Demons did not surround Levi simultaneously.

Of course, it couldn't be so absolute.

After all, Snow Valley City had been one of the top ten cities in the kingdom before the Snow Demon calamity. The permanent population had reached 100,000.

This was once the city of Duke Bluefeather, a noble of the Evernight Kingdom.

In the first year after the Snow Demon calamity, Snow Valley City became one of the origins of the Snow Demons.

A preliminary estimate was that one-tenth of the city's residents, which was ten thousand people, had become Snow Demons.

These tens of thousands of Snow Demons spread out from Snow Valley City and swept across the surrounding cities and territories.

In just a few years, less than ten percent of the residents in Snow Valley City were still alive.

Relying on the kingdom's support, the surviving soldiers and civilians could barely fight against the Snow Demons entrenched in the city.

Most of the deaths were not caused by Snow Demons but by starvation, disease, or chaos.

Even though the military had hunted down many Snow Demons over the years, a conservative estimate was that there were still thousands of Snow Demons in Snow Valley City.

Once the number of Snow Demons exceeded a hundred, even for a grand knight, his life would be in danger!

After all, Snow Demons were not ordinary people.. They were undying, fearless, and terrifying Undead that only knew how to kill!
