

Wizard 149

Chapter 149: Level 7 Seal, Hell Apostle! (1)

In Snow Valley City, Knight Kader led a team on the street to kill the Snow

Demons. Vice team leader Bray cooperated perfectly and successfully destroyed a Snow Demon that had mutated from a low-level knight.

"Bray, do you feel that the number of Snow Demons in Snow Valley City has decreased?" Knight Kader said.

Hearing this, Bray nodded and said, "Indeed. Initially, we thought we could encounter Snow Demons with just a few steps and didn't need to take the initiative to search. But now, we must explore to find Snow Demons. This doesn't make sense. Did all the Snow Demons in this city gather in Bluefeather

Castle?"

Kader frowned, "That's possible."

However, the figure of the White Wolf flashed across his mind.

In these ten days, they did not meet him again.

He felt that the decrease in Snow Demons in the border city area might also be related to the White Wolf.

Two fully armed grand knights, paired with a mithril sword of extremely high purity, might not be any less efficient than their Hunting Team.

After ten days of cleaning, they cleared the Snow Demons in the border areas and saved many survivors.

This rescue work was much smoother than what he had imagined.

This was because the number of Snow Demons in the entire border city area was far lower than he had expected.

This was a good thing for Knight Kader.

However, it was a bad thing for many wandering knights.

Many wandering knights had yet to kill Snow Demons since their departure. On the one hand, they were too weak. On the other hand, they had not encountered any Snow Demons along the way.

They encountered a few scattered ones, but they were also killed by the experts on the team, such as Bray.

They had no chance of obtaining Frost Heart.

Someone complained, "Team leader, why don't we walk into the city?"

"If you want to die, you can go in by yourself. The danger in the depths of the city is far beyond your imagination. Even a grand knight might die," Kader scolded the wandering knight angrily, and the latter shut his mouth.

Kader laughed coldly in his heart. If it weren't for the two grand knights who had helped them clear out a large portion of the Snow Demons at the edge of the city area, this 200-man team would not have lost 20 people in these 10 days.

His main goal was to bring as many survivors back as possible, so he did not want to complicate things and go deep into the city area.

The probability of survivors in the city's depths was minimal, so there was no need to take the risk.

"Such an expert appeared in Evernight Kingdom. I must report to the Queen when I return," Knight Kader thought.

The Queen of the Evernight Kingdom was a rare female grand knight. She liked to recruit strong people under her command and befriend heroes from all walks of life.

Kader felt the Queen would be very interested in White Wolf and the grand knight beside him.

He hoped the two would not die in Snow Valley City.

Magic Shark, clad in iron armor, was like a war machine. In the city's depths, he charged toward Snow Demons.

Although the Magic Shark's sword was not as good as Levi's Frostmourne, it still contained one-tenth of mithril content, far surpassing the blades of the Hunting Team.

Therefore, the efficiency of Magic Shark in hunting Snow Demons was very high.

To conserve his energy, Levi had not done anything these days.

Although he had three months' worth of food energy stored in his whale sac, he consumed ten days' worth due to a previous battle. Now, there was only one and a half months left.

That could not last more than a month. Not even half a month if a big battle occurred.

He had long since run out of food, so after reaching level 5 of the Seal of Hell, he no longer fought alone. Instead, he used the Magic Shark to farm Snow

Demons. He only cared about picking up Cores of the Undead after the fight.

[Seal of Hell Proficiency +1]

[Seal of Hell Proficiency +1]

[Seal Of Hell: 5

Up until now, Levi had killed more than 400 Snow Demons.

According to the information he had received, he had reduced the number of Snow Demons in the city by about one-tenth in ten days.

This efficiency was simply terrifying. They were genuinely an army by themselves. "This feels so good."

"This feeling is unparalleled; it's extremely cool!" However, something was different from Levi's plan.

Level 5 Hell's Seal was not the limit.

Initially, he had planned to kill some Snow Demons after reaching level 5

Before returning.

Now, he could only continue to gain experience here.

Fortunately, he had a grand knight like Magic Shark, so his efficiency was pretty good.

"When we get to the city's depths, I can continue fighting if we can find food to replenish."

"It feels good to be a mage and control the living dead, even though I'm not great," Levi was delighted.

He played games, and his favorite genre was the Stacked Armor Style.

The second was the Summoning Style. Players who played darker games preferred classes like Necromancers.

One word to describe the Summoning Style: cool.

"Unfortunately, I don't have the grand knight's corpse, even though I have three summoning slots," Levi felt a little regretful.

"After I kill the Duke of Montenegro, I'll turn him into my living corpse and make him do the dirtiest and most tiring work every day."

"There's also Pale Shadow. He would not be able to escape. One day, I'll turn him into a walking dead too."

Levi wanted his enemies to be enslaved forever and let them experience the feeling of living awfully like animals!