

Wizard 160

Chapter 160: Demigod, Blue Frost Lord! (2)

Levi had Magic Shark put its hand into the Bag of Gluttony and fumbled around, causing it to squirm. It looked like it was very uncomfortable. "Be gentle, Magic Shark. Don't be too violent," Levi frowned. Finally, everything in the Bag of Gluttony was taken out.

Levi looked at everything with anticipation.

"A large pile of gold bars and a breathing technique inheritance diagram."

"That's all?"

"Just this?"

Levi looked at the empty Bag of Gluttony.

He did not have the spell he wanted to cast on Lion King's Pride.

Suppressing his disappointment, Levi picked up the gold bars and weighed them in his hand. He estimated that the gold bars were worth more than 100,000 gold coins.

"Forget it; I'm still not satisfied with money."

Levi told himself in his heart. He fed some of the food he brought to the Bag of Gluttony and brought it to the kitchen of Bluefeather Castle.

A large amount of aged jerky was inside, which should be considered blooded food.

The Bag of Gluttony was stuffed with food. He wondered how such a small bag could swallow so much food.

Finally, it burped in satisfaction.

"How long does it take to feed him again after he's full?" Levi asked.

"This is different according to the stage of the Bag of Gluttony. Generally speaking, if it is hungry, it will constantly squirm, tremble, and make a rumbling sound, just like a hungry person," Tuten said with a bitter smile.

Levi did not say anything. He picked up the breathing technique inheritance diagram and looked at it. On the ancient goatskin paper was a giant bird resembling an ostrich walking on the old land. There were 70 small people around it.

There seemed to be an island on the back of the giant bird. Clouds and mist lingered on it, making it look like a fairyland.

"It's another excellent Bloodline Breathing Technique. It's a strength-type."

The name of this breathing technique was called the "Ostrich Mountain

Breathing Technique."

The ostrich was a legendary land bird that carried mountains on its back. It could not fly and always had the mountains on its back as it moved toward the sun. It did not know fatigue and would grow bigger and bigger with the accumulation of time and wind from birth to death. When its lifespan was exhausted, and it died of exhaustion, it would completely transform into a mountain peak.

"Strength-type breathing technique account for half of all breathing techniques. There are many of them," Levi could not help but complain.

There were very few defensive breathing techniques. As for the Perception-type breathing technique, Levi had not encountered any other besides the Man-Faced Spider Breathing Technique.

"This isn't a place for cultivation. Let's go back to the Snow Capital City and cultivate. It's time to explore the last place."

Levi put away the breathing technique and did not put it in the Bag of Gluttony.

"The workmanship of that hammer is very familiar. It should be the work of the Earth School of Thought." At this moment, Teuton suddenly said.

"What do you know?" Levi asked calmly.

"This should be the most classic First-Ring Spell of the Earth School of Thought, [Mountain Giant's Wrath]!

"I only know about this spell but don't remember the exact magic. This kind of Quasi-Wizard tool that wizards give to a few crucial people among mortals is usually custom-made. It requires a specific bloodline or breathing technique to use.

"I remember that you used a spell from the School of Ice. You should have a similar Quasi-Wizard Tool on you, right?" Tuten said.

Levi's doubts were resolved.

"Duke Bluefeather and the Lionheart Knight don't belong to the same family.

This so-called Quasi-Wizard weapon is different from the Frost Giant Armor. It doesn't require the bloodline or breathing technique of the Lionheart Knight."

"Forget it; I'll find the magic eventually. If I can't solve it for now, I'll think about it in the future. This hammer alone has greatly increased my strength without this spell," Levi could not help but comfort himself.

He was very envious of the power of that spell. It was much more potent than the Frost Giant's Sigh. If he was caught off guard, he could use a smash.

It could directly turn a grand knight into ashes.

Thinking of this, Levi suddenly shook his head.

"No, I can't turn it into ashes. If so, how will I create the living dead?"

"From the looks of it, it doesn't seem like it's a big deal that you don't know spells."

After figuring this out, Levi placed Tuten into the Pot of Equal Value and the mithril treasure chest before leaving the basement with Magic Shark.

Levi only brought some small and valuable ones out of the antiques and artwork outside. He did not get any large ornaments or sculptures.

The space in this bag was still too small. It could not hold that much. He would come back for it when he had the chance in the future.

In any case, ordinary people could not find this place.

"Bluefeather did not carry the Bag of Gluttony with him but sealed it in the treasure chest after preparing a large amount of food. He must have discovered something and knew he had little time left. That's why he did that."

"This sudden disaster has directly destroyed a duke's family. This is the terror of the Dark Wave..."

Levi sighed in his heart.

He slowly came outside the central tower, looked at the building that was faintly emitting blue light, and then called Tuten out.

When Tuten appeared and saw the blue light, his expression changed as if he

Had recalled some bad memories.

"What is this?" Levi asked..