Chapter 179: Ashen Shadow? (3)

However, this family, which was not welcomed by the Southern nobles, was one of the few families in the South who dared to confront the Duke of Montenegro in recent years. Not only that, but the Scorpion Family's Saint Scorpion Army had also caused a lot of trouble for the Montenegro Mountain Army.

The leader of the Scorpion Family was an ugly old man. He looked old, but no one dared to question his authority in the family.

The name of the poisonous Scorpion Knight can be used to stop children from crying at night.

In a luxurious public bathhouse, prostitutes were playing in the bath.

Some of them were young and tender, budding. Some were plump, mature, and gorgeously dressed. Others of them were old and still had their charm.

The Scorpion Knight, whose vitality had declined, did not care that women had drained his last energy.

He hugged them left and right, drinking fine wine.

This was the everyday life of a noble.

What kind of aristocrats were those who cultivated every day like ascetics to become stronger?

For example, White Horse Knight, who had been cultivating to become stronger daily, died in the end. It was all for nothing. He was already strong but still could not protect himself well.

This was fate!

The Scorpion Knight had established his priorities.

In the thick fog of the bathhouse, there were traces of white gas that were barely noticeable.

The Scorpion Knight felt the prostitute's body sink.

He was a grand knight, so he might not have felt much about the poisonous fog.

However, these ordinary people quickly fainted.

Soon, they stopped breathing.

A figure wearing the face Bird of Death Mask appeared on the beam at the top of the bathtub.

Then, he gently jumped down.

The Scorpion Knight picked up his weapon, a thin sword, and then stood in the bath naked.

He looked at the incoming enemy.

The Scorpion Knight sneered, "You're from the Bird of Death's Voice.

Interesting. Is this the work of the Duke of Montenegro?"

The Bird of Death Mask did not change at all. He stretched out his right hand and pointed. A black-light left his body and turned into a small black sword!

Whoosh!

The small sword was swift.

Although the Scorpion Knight was old, he still had the foundation of a grand knight.

He roared and split the black concealed weapon with his thin sword.

The Scorpion Knight sneered, "Come out, babies!"

He whistled as he attacked.

Unknowingly, the area around the bath was already packed with poisonous black scorpions surrounding the Bird of Death's Voice assassin.

These scorpions were Saint Scorpions, one of the most deadly poisons in the world. Like the Ring-tailed Sea Snake, they were also one of the raw materials Levi used to concoct the Man-Faced Spider's Tears.

The most terrifying thing about the Scorpion Family was that they could control scorpions.

The figure under the Bird of Death Mask laughed coldly, "As expected, you're cautious. You even brought so many poisonous insects to visit the brothel."

Saint Scorpions were not scorpions. Their shells were extraordinary, extremely tough, and tenacious. In addition, they were highly poisonous, and their toxic needles could pierce through the gaps in armor and pierce the enemy. Even a grand knight's black gas protection could not last long.

Thus, even as a grand knight, he dared not slack off. There were probably thousands of Saint Scorpions in front of him.

In addition, although that old man was weak, he was once a grand knight. He could not underestimate his opponent.

He turned into an afterimage. He had to finish this old man off quickly! The black dagger stabbed toward the Scorpion Knight's chest.

The Scorpion Knight tried his best to defend while controlling more and more Saint Scorpions to attack.

Levi placed his palm on the wall outside the public bathroom building, feeling the battle inside.

"It has already started."

"Magic Shark, Demon Mountain, Demon Hai, you guys seal off a direction each."

Levi asked the three brothers to stand guard in their respective positions.

After all, the speed of the Pale Shadow was the fastest among all the enemies he had seen. Therefore, even with Levi's strength, he had to be careful that this guy would escape.

After he was ready, he snuck in.

He looked at the two people who were having a heated fight.

He could not help but sigh in his heart.

"How can they kill people like this?"

After Levi finished speaking, he shot into the battlefield like a cannonball. He descended from the sky, and his two-meter-tall body landed on the ground, sending a bunch of poisonous scorpions flying.

This made Pale Shadow and the Scorpion Knight's expressions change drastically simultaneously.

The Scorpion Knight thought that Pale Shadow had a new companion.

At first, the Pale Shadow thought it was reinforcements the Scorpion Knight invited.

When he saw the familiar White Wolf Mask, he seemed to have recalled some bad memories.

"It's you? Little thief!"

Pale Shadow was shocked and furious.

He did not expect the little thief he had looked down on back then to possess such terrifying strength.

Scorpion Knight judged the situation and immediately said, "Sir, help me kill

Pale Shadow. I..."

Before the Scorpion Knight could finish, Levi's sword unexpectedly chopped off its head. Its head rolled on the ground as if it did not expect the person in front of it to be so crazy as to kill it.

"Noisy."

Levi kicked away the head Knight.

In the next moment, he saw countless scorpions gathering and lying on the head of the Scorpion Knight as if they were sucking something in the air.

Levi released Tuten and asked him to retrieve his soul.

Unexpectedly, Tuten shook his head and said, "The soul is gone. I guess these scorpions have devoured it."

The scorpion was strange, and Levi did not have time to think about it. He could only let Tuten return.

He looked at Pale Shadow.

"Next up is our time."

Levi moved his muscles and bones, and his bones creaked. The black scales formed by the black gas made a metallic sound.

A series of hidden weapons formed from black gas shot toward Levi.

Levi did not dodge. The black gas daggers that had once scared him to death could not break through the layer of black scales on Levi's body.

Boom! Levi suddenly accelerated!

In a flash, he appeared in front of Pale Shadow, who was terrified.

Was the speed of the person in front of him not weaker than his?

This was the capital that he was proud of. It was his most substantial reliance as an assassin for so many years!

Levi's longsword slashed out, but Pale Shadow barely dodged.

In the next moment, there was a loud bang.

The four walls of the public bathroom suddenly collapsed.

Three burly men in heavy armor kicked the wall and raised their swords, charging at Pale Shadow.

His expression changed drastically. He realized that so many knights had surrounded him without him knowing!

He knew that he had to do everything he could to escape. Otherwise, he would die without a burial ground!

His body burst out, and his Life Seed trembled at high speed as if it was about to explode. He was overdrawing the potential of the Life Seed! "I will take revenge for today in the future!" Pale Shadow said coldly.

However, a dragon's roar was heard.

Under the level 2 Dragon's Might, Pale Shadow felt like a heavy hammer hit him.

His figure paused. In a battle between experts, every breath was crucial. The three brothers all pounced forward and pressed him down.

"Another one, let's go!"

Levi knew that this was not a place to stay for long.

His black aura forced the Saint Armor Scorpions away, and he brought his three brothers away from the battlefield.

"It's a pity I didn't find a method to control the poisonous insects.."
