

Wizard 185

Chapter 185: Final Battle! (3)

The Duke of Montenegro was determined to kill Levi and left the main army.

Levi continued to pretend that he was no match for the Duke of Montenegro.

He used the Magic Shark and Demon Mountain to try and hold off the Duke of Montenegro, but the gap in their strength was too great.

In just a few moves, the Duke of Montenegro sent them flying, leaving them crippled with missing limbs.

This deeply pained Levi. Although they were inexperienced, they were still his valuable allies.

To see them on the verge of being defeated by the Duke of Montenegro so quickly was truly heart-wrenching.

It could only be said that these living dead, created by ordinary grand knights, were indeed no match for a top-notch expert like the Duke of Montenegro, comparable to the Fist of the Empire.

"You only know how to run?" The Duke of Montenegro sneered.

Levi ignored the taunt and continued to use the living dead to distract Montenegro Mountain. Occasionally, he used the black gas condensed blades to sneak attack Montenegro Mountain, trying to provoke his anger.

As they continued the chase, the two of them had already distanced themselves from the main army, reaching an uninhabited wilderness.

At this moment, Levi stopped. He was panting heavily as he gazed at the pursuing Duke of Montenegro.

The armors of Demon Mountain and Demon Hai were torn apart by the Duke of Montenegro. Each time they were sent flying by his attacks, they would fall to the ground and then rise again to continue fighting.

Of course, the Duke of Montenegro was also covered in wounds, but his demonic-like body still stood tall and imposing.

"Black Sea Stacking Mountains!"

The Duke of Montenegro swung his greatsword down, and a vast amount of Black Gas Entwined around the blade, making it seem like the greatsword was carrying the weight of a mountain and the sea.

Faintly, the sound of waves crashing against the shore could be heard.

Levi's Transcendent Speed was fully unleashed, turning him into a blur. Only now did he truly reveal the incredible power of his Transcendent Speed!

Although the Duke of Montenegro lacked Transcendent Speed, his keen combat instincts allowed him to adapt to any changes!

Boom!

Levi's attempted sneak attack was blocked by the Duke of Montenegro. At the same time, a tremendous force sent Levi flying.

It was as if he had been hit by a mountain.

Boom! Levi crashed into the cliff behind him, creating a massive crater.

He stretched his muscles and bones, feeling the soreness spreading throughout his entire body.

"Phew, it seems like it's going to be very difficult to deal with an expert like the Duke of Montenegro without using seals," Levi analyzed in his heart.

The Duke of Montenegro seemed to have mastered a strength-based breathing

Technique that reached the Maximum of the tenth level. It was far from being comparable to his Giant Rhinoceros breathing technique, which was at the Maximum of the eighth level.

Levi's extraordinary power was no match for the Duke of Montenegro's.

That sword strike just now was the best proof.

Even if he possessed an advanced combat technique like the Golden Cross Slash, it was futile against the overwhelming power of the Duke of Montenegro.

With a thunderous roar, the Duke of Montenegro's sword slashed towards Levi.

Levi decided not to waste any more time.

Earlier, he refrained from using spells while amidst the main army due to concerns about attracting too much attention.

But now that he had drawn the Duke of Montenegro out, he could drop the pretense.

Swiftly dodging Montenegro Mountain's Mount Hua Splitting Force, Levi snapped his fingers. "I am a mage, and I won't hold back any longer." Frost Giant's Sigh!

The Frost Giant materialized behind Levi.

Upon seeing this, the Duke of Montenegro did not hesitate and retreated while simultaneously throwing out a piece of parchment with mysterious patterns drawn on it.

Boom!

A fire bird screeched as it soared into the sky, circling the Duke of Montenegro to protect him.

Crack, crack.

The cold wind swept through, freezing everything.

However, the Frost Giant's Sigh, which had always been effective, failed this time.

It was evident that the Duke of Montenegro possessed a wizard's tool.

"There was indeed a spell solidified on that parchment!"

"You truly know the secrets of wizards! Those grand knights were also corpses controlled by you, right? I couldn't sense any vitality from them. They're all dead..."

The Duke of Montenegro said coldly.

He looked at the ice and snow with lingering fear.

If he hadn't decisively used his trump card.

It was a mysterious item obtained from an ancient tomb.

Then, it was very likely that he would have been frozen in there as well.

Once he fell into it, his fate could be imagined.

In a battle between experts, the slightest mistake could bring disastrous consequences!

The mysterious item he obtained could only be used once.

He had originally prepared to face a more important enemy.

Now, he was forced out by this d*mn assassin.

"You forced me. Next, I'll show you what true hell is like!"

The Duke of Montenegro grinned hideously and charged at Levi again.

At the same time, he muttered something and took out two small golden boxes from his pocket.

Then, he tore the boxes with brute force.

The two evil spirit phantoms howled and rushed toward Levi.

This was the Duke of Montenegro's last batch of gold products obtained from the ancient tomb. The ones he obtained previously were used to create chaos in various places.

After realizing that the assassin was very formidable, the Duke of Montenegro had no choice but to use his final and most powerful trump card.

These two evil spirits were both dangerous-level evil spirits!

As they appeared, they completely ignored the Duke of Montenegro and charged straight at Levi.

It seemed that the legends about the Duke of Montenegro controlling evil spirits were indeed true.

Levi remained calm and composed.

The black gas around his body began to solidify and transform into black scales, layer upon layer, protecting him like armor!

He charged forward and then unleashed the Seal of Dragon Might that he had prepared long ago!

As the golden flames surged, the dragon's eyes slowly opened, and the sound of a dragon's roar echoed!

An invisible spiritual shockwave swept out!

The level 2 Seal of Dragon Might was even more powerful than before!

With just one strike, the two danger-grade evil spirits trembled, seemingly terrified.

Even the Duke of Montenegro felt his consciousness being shaken.

At the same time, upon seeing Levi's black scales, memories rushed back to the Duke of Montenegro's mind.

"This black scale... You are a Black Snake Knight?!"

"No, it's not possible. Black Snake is dead. I killed him with my own hands! Are you Levi?" The Duke of Montenegro's expression changed drastically for the first time.

"And this sorcery, are you from one of the four great families?"

In that short moment, he was shocked twice by Levi.

Firstly, Levi's identity as a member of the Black Snake family, and secondly, the sorcery power that Levi possessed was comparable to the power of the four great families that the Duke of Montenegro knew!

The Duke of Montenegro had some understanding of the four great families, so when he found out about the Spirit Exorcism Manual, he immediately sent his men to retrieve it.

He had never expected that the Black Snake family was a descendant of the four great families!

Levi dodged the Duke of Montenegro's attacks.

While avoiding the attacks, Levi used his Seal of Dragon Might to directly obliterate the two evil spirits. The power of the level 2 Dragon's Might was extraordinary. Under Levi's relentless assault, the two evil spirits quickly turned into dust.

At this moment, Levi removed his White Wolf Mask, revealing his youthful face. The corners of his mouth curled up, revealing a bright smile with his big white teeth.

"Lord Duke, so you still remember me.."
