Chapter 186: Ripple Divine Montenegro Mountain! (1)

Of course, the Duke of Montenegro still remembered Levi.

"Levi, you're still alive. I didn't expect you to be a member of the four great families."

The Duke of Montenegro said in a low voice as he continued to attack. "I've been searching for the four great families for so long, hoping to obtain their extraordinary powers. But I never expected that your Black Snake family is a member of the four great families! Schneider is a false surname, right?"

Your true surname should be one of Constantine, Winchester, Duncan, or Van

Helsing, right?"

"Only those with the bloodline of the four great families can master sorcery! Grasp true extraordinary power!"

It was evident that the Duke of Montenegro had some understanding of the four great families.

Levi neither confirmed nor denied it.

He had obtained the Spirit Exorcism Manual from one of the Duke of Montenegro's subordinates, so it was normal for the Duke of Montenegro to know some secrets of the four great families.

After Levi destroyed the evil spirits, he took advantage of the Duke of Montenegro's momentary distraction.

He attacked the Duke of Montenegro with the Seal of Flame.

A four-meter-long azure-blue flame spurted out, engulfing the Duke of Montenegro.

The Duke of Montenegro no longer had any trump cards.

He could only use his black gas to resist.

Sizzle.

The azure-blue flames burned the Duke of Montenegro.

Among them, there were also hidden weapons condensed from Levi's black gas.

The black gas cones were blocked by the Duke of Montenegro's protective black gas.

Bathed in flames, he laughed maniacally.

"Hahahaha!"

"Spitting fire out of thin air, this is witchcraft. Hahaha, you truly are a member of the four great families!"

"I've searched high and low, but obtained it without any effort!"

"Your father was defeated by me, and you won't be any different!"

"I will kill you, and your bloodline will be mine!"

The Duke of Montenegro seemed to have been searching for individuals from the four great families.

He might have mastered some sort of secret blood-altering technique, allowing him to possess the extraordinary bloodline of the four great families and cultivate the "witchcraft" in his heart.

Now, he mistakenly believed that Levi, who had mastered witchcraft, was a member of the four great families.

It was as if he had finally caught a glimmer of hope.

The Duke of Montenegro, forced into a corner by the flames, was not afraid. Instead, he smiled happily. He thirsted for power and strength!

A true extraordinary power!

In his view, even though he had cultivated the ancestral breathing technique to its utmost limit, he still couldn't be considered extraordinary.

Only those who could command the wind and rain and control the supernatural forces of thunder and fire could truly be extraordinary!

It was evident that Levi had mastered such power!

This was exactly what the Duke of Montenegro had been longing for!

The Duke of Montenegro laughed maniacally.

Boom! The black gas surrounding him exploded.

It was akin to a small black mushroom cloud erupting.

The Montenegro Mountain, surging with black gas, roared angrily.

"Black Whale Roar!"

He bellowed, and a terrifying sound wave swept out.

This attack, which was similar to the sound wave technique, swept across the entire arena. It was not a spiritual attack, but more like a spiritual attack.

Levi had a splitting headache and blocked his ears with black gas.

As the Duke of Montenegro charged forward, Levi used his Advanced Vibrosensing to dodge the Duke of Montenegro's lethal strike, while Frostmourne continued to assail the Duke of Montenegro.

The Duke of Montenegro seemed to be aware of Levi's formidable sorcery, and he was attacking Levi relentlessly, not giving him any opportunity to cast spells.

'IWvo brawny men were locked in combat in the wilderness.

The Duke of Montenegro's mind appeared to have been corrupted by the black gas. He no longer cared about the battle's surroundings and simply attacked Levi with sheer madness.

Just relying on the pinnacle of his black whale's black gas made Levi feel extremely challenged.

Fortunately, Levi's attributes were more comprehensive, allowing him to resist being suppressed by the Duke of Montenegro.

"Black Whale Crashing Mountain!" The Duke of Montenegro swung his sword again and again.

Levi kept dodging. Even though he was wearing the Frost Giant Armor and had the black scale's defense, he did not dare to take the Duke of Montenegro's attacks head-on.

Boom! Levi was caught off guard and was sent flying by the Duke of Montenegro. He crashed into a large tree, causing it to collapse, and dust filled the air as Levi coughed.

The Duke of Montenegro leaped forward, swinging his greatsword.

Instead of Levi's Frostmourne, a giant hammer suddenly appeared before the Duke of Montenegro.

The legendary weapon, Lion King's Pride!

Boom!

Lion King's Pride combined with Golden Cross Slash!

The terrifying force shattered the Duke of Montenegro's mithril greatsword!

Crack! The greatsword shattered and flew out.

The Duke of Montenegro stared at his empty palm. Levi charged towards him with the heavy hammer.

"This is... the lionheart knight's hammer!"

"It would be a waste to give you such an excellent weapon."

"No wonder you're so strong. You must have inherited the legacy of the lionheart knight. Haha, it's all mine, the legacy of the legendary knight is also mine!"

"Levi, you've surprised me so much!"

The Duke of Montenegro decided not to use his weapon.

Relying on his advantage in black gas, he utilized his fists, elbows, legs, feet, and even head, turning any part of his body into a weapon.

He was proficient in powerful physical techniques, unlike ordinary knights. He remained composed in the face of danger and attacked once more.

The attack was still swift and fierce, capable of splitting mountains and rocks!

"Black Whale Wags Its Tail!"

With a whip kick, he swept towards Levi.

Levi's hammer came crashing down!

Boom!

The Duke of Montenegro evaded the fatal blow.

Bang, bang, bang!

"Too cumbersome."

Levi discarded the Lion King's Pride.

While the hammer was formidable, it wouldn't hit anyone without a surprise attack. The tactic he used just now could only be employed once..
