

Wizard 2291

Chapter 2291: Mythical! Qilin Breathing Technique!

The Children of the Elements also number three: one of Earth, one of Storm, and one of Lightning.

Levi devised a small trial to select the best among the good, and chose some to take with him.

The rest would remain in Rune Land for development.

Of course, not being taken by Levi doesn't mean lacking in talent.

Levi also needed to leave some good seeds for Rune Land.

Moreover, some people might lack talent but have great fortune.

Such people, Levi couldn't take with him either.

After all, tests can only measure talent, not fortune.

...

The Ice Realm, one of the Three Realms.

"Have you heard? The Ultimate Saint has appeared again?"

"What? It's a good thing we didn't send out our troops. This Ultimate Saint is so cunning, pretending to disappear to lure us into a trap."

"Sigh, from now on, we can only keep a low profile. Our White Bear Tribe has never been this humiliated before."

A group of brawny White Bear Tribesmen draped in Frost Armor were discussing in the council hall.

The White Bear Tribe, with strong bodies, could also command the power of Frost and Snow.

They had bear heads and human bodies, with fierce appearances that were not to be trifled with.

This was a fierce people, with not so good relations with the Feathered People.

"What are we afraid of? No matter how strong the Ultimate Saint is, he's only one person. Our White Bear Tribe has roamed the Saint Roland Continent for so long. There were once stronger races than us, and in the end, weren't we the ones who laughed last?"

"At most, we could isolate ourselves for three thousand years. After three thousand years, that Ultimate Saint might not even be around unless he advances to the Ninth Level Realm!"

"That makes sense."

These White Bear Tribe powerhouses debated fiercely.

"Big... big trouble, the Ultimate Saint is here!"

"What?!"

A White Bear Tribe member, exuding an eighth-level aura and towering a hundred meters tall, widened his eyes.

His name was Aud, nicknamed the White King.

"Where has he reached?"

As soon as he finished speaking, there was a loud boom, and the grand doors of the council hall collapsed with a crash.

A black-armored swordsman arrived with sword in hand, countless shadows like evil spirits trailing behind him.

The menacing aura seemed to warp the void itself.

"Seems you all were discussing me."

Levi said with a smile.

In the council hall, the White Bears were silent as the grave.

"No... no."

"The Ultimate Saint has come from afar; please, take a seat."

Even the White King put on a smile.

"What brings the Ultimate Saint to our barren land?"

Levi replied:

"I'm here to demand compensation."

The White King asked:

"Why does the Saint say so?"

Levi stabbed Excalibur into the ground.

"Previously, what did you Ice Realm folks do in our Rune Land? Haven't you forgotten? Don't play dumb."

He tossed a contract and said:

"Check the contents above, and if there's no issue, swear on my sword."

The White King forcefully held back his anger and picked up the contents of the contract.

After reading it, he felt his vitality surge, almost losing his temper on the spot.

Suddenly, a hand pulled him back.

It was a mother White Bear, with a child still in her arms.

She said:

"Fine, I'll sign this treaty."

...

Not long after.

The Ice Realm also issued a statement.

Its content was not much different from that of the Lightning Pool earlier.

Both required offering sufficient resources and allowing Humans to venture into the Ice Realm once every hundred years for exploration and training.

Besides that, in the event of a major crisis in Rune Land, they were obligated to offer aid.

The fourth major power also declared submission.

With the previously subdued Giant Beast Restricted Area, five of the Seven Clans had been pacified.

In the face of absolute power, everything is empty.

Under the threat of death, nothing can't be compromised.

...

In the heart of the Ice Realm, there is a Cold Cave.

An unending chill wind emanated from here.

Legend has it, there is a monster here.

Named "Red King Tifon."

He was once the top genius of the White Bear Tribe and also the White King's younger brother.

The White Bear Tribe always had white fur since ancient times.

Only he was born with ominous red fur, red as blood.

The tribe's Elders all said this was a bad omen that would bring misfortune to the clan, suggesting execution.

But the Red King had extraordinary talent, and the White King didn't want to kill his own brother.

Two thousand years later, the Red King ascended rapidly to the Eighth Level Realm.

This was among the White Bear Tribe an unparalleled genius of monstrous talent.

Equivalent in status to today's Levi.

The White Bear Tribe was delighted, and the White King was pleased.

The seer's prophecy of misfortune had not come to pass. The Red King grew up healthy and caused no calamity to the White Bear Tribe.

They even dreamed of the Red King leading the White Bear Tribe to greatness again.

But unexpectedly, not long after reaching the eighth level, one night.

The Red King lost his mind and frantically attacked everything around.

That day, the Ice Realm flowed with rivers of blood.

The entire tribe struggled greatly, and the White King's father, an eighth-level powerhouse, sacrificed his life to suppress and imprison the Red King in this Cold Cave, sealed with extreme cold power.

They initially wanted to kill the Red King.

But the seer said it was too late to kill him now. It's better to spare the Red King's life.

If in the future the White Bear Tribe faces a Great Tribulation, he might be of use.

Soon after, the seer passed away.

This is the story Levi heard from the White King.

After signing the treaty, he searched for opportunities in the Ice Realm.

Jin led him to this place.

This indicated that there should be a treasure inside.

But he sensed a certain danger below and inquired with the White King.

The White King initially wanted to conceal this, luring the Ultimate Saint inside.

Maybe he could use the sealed Red King to kill him.

Chapter 2292: Mythical! Qilin Breathing Technique!

But he was also afraid that the Ultimate Saint might escape and retaliate against the White Bear Clan.

After much struggle, he decided to tell the truth.

Feeling the cold becoming more intense, Levi saw the source of the danger.

On the empty Extreme Cold Square, a giant beast lay dormant.

It was massive, not inferior to Lopez, and completely different from the rest of the White Bear Clan.

Its face resembled both a bear and an ape, somewhat strange, with long arms and sharp claws.

Ice pillars pierced its limbs, nailing it in place.

A ferocious aura emanated from it, clearly not an ordinary creature.

"Is this... a white bear?"

Levi couldn't imagine how the White King's parents gave birth to such a genetically mutated monster.

The White King said:

"When it was young, it looked similar to us White Bears, except for the fur color, but as it grew, it became weirder..."

Levi pondered for a moment, then swung his sword, shattering the pillars pinning the Red King.

The giant beast, dormant for a millennium, was suddenly awakened.

It opened its violent red eyes.

The White King's expression changed.

"My brother is incredibly strong, ordinary level 8 is no match... Sir, be careful. If you get hurt, don't say I didn't warn you."

Levi replied:

"Of course, I won't blame you."

The last seal was lifted.

Rumble.

The Red King stood upright, roaring at Levi, a foul stench spreading.

At the same time, the temperature inside the Cold Cave suddenly rose significantly.

The Red King raised its palm, swatting at the tiny human.

Blazing flames swept in.

Levi stood still, his right arm muscles bulging, golden light shining brightly.

Boom!

With a punch, the fiery giant palm shattered.

The Red King's form was unstable, thrown sideways by the mighty force's residual waves.

Behind Levi, the Nine-colored Emperor appeared, wielding a sword to attack the Red King. .

Innate spells and primordial soul spells bombarded in succession.

Half a day later, the Red King lay on the ground, panting, unable to fight any longer.

Having been sealed for a thousand years, its essence was greatly depleted, unable to replenish itself. How could it be Levi's match?

The White King, seeing the Red King being easily dealt with, let out a sigh of relief.

"Thankfully, I didn't act impulsively; otherwise, acting in bravado could have doomed the entire White Bear Clan, harming everyone."

Levi had the Emperor break the Red King's limbs and had Leon inject venom.

He also used spell restrictions to completely seal the Red King's powers.

The Black Soul Demon Tower flew out, capturing the Red King inside.

Inside the tower was a terrifying grand array composed of countless Undead powers.

Under heavy restraints, this Red King wouldn't escape for a long time.

Even with Levi's knowledge, he couldn't identify what kind of monster this was.

But what was certain was that the current Red King was definitely not of the White Bear Clan.

Regardless, Levi planned to take it back for thorough research.

Seeing his brother being taken away, the White King asked:

"Sir, what do you plan to do with it?"

Levi replied:

"Rest assured, I don't intend to take its life, I'm here to redeem it."

The White King hesitated for a moment, then said:

"Alright, if my brother can still be saved, I hope, sir, you save his life."

After interacting for some time, he felt that this Ultimate Saint wasn't as vicious as the outside world rumored.

At the very least, he was indeed someone who kept his promises.

Those alien races who signed contracts, as long as they didn't violate the terms, he truly didn't cause any more trouble later on.

On the principle of equality, Levi also took some treasures from the White Bear Clan.

Then he hurried to the Golden Ruins Realm.

He still had places to be.

This Red King was just an unexpected gain.

...

Golden Ruins Realm.

Living here were the Golden Emperor Clan.

This was a powerful humanoid alien race naturally adept at manipulating metals.

The Clan Leader was actually a woman, slim and curvaceous.

Her body was covered with luxurious golden scales, shining with metallic texture.

That day, she and numerous clansmen were already waiting at the entrance of the Golden Ruins Realm.

According to information, the White Bear Clan had recently submitted too, forming an unequal treaty.

One subdued, four captured.

It highlighted the Ultimate Saint's formidable power.

She was mentally prepared, having prepared gifts.

Soon after.

The black-armored swordsman calmly descended.

"It seems everyone has been waiting for some time."

The Golden Ruins Clan Leader respectfully said:

"I'm Tifana, the current master of the Golden Ruins Realm. We are willing to forge an eternal alliance with Rune Land, to look after each other from now on, for generations to come!"

Levi smiled and said:

"Thank you, Clan Leader."

Indeed, with strength, everything is easier. Not having to resort to force is naturally best.

After finishing business matters, Tifana smiled lightly and said:

"The Ultimate Saint has been traveling a lot, you must be tired... Why not come inside for a moment, let us give you a warm welcome. The beauties of our Golden Emperor Clan, in your human eyes, should also be of exceptional beauty."

Levi replied:

"That won't be necessary, I still have things to attend to, I won't impose."

He glanced at the gift Tifana prepared, which was very sincere and mainly what he needed.

It seemed this woman had done her homework in advance; she was indeed meticulous.

...

Heart Sea.

Merfolk Palace.

"Aside from us, the other five have surrendered?"

"Yes, Your Majesty."

"This group has no backbone, they usually act so proud, but when they encounter danger, they all surrender..."

"Exactly."

"Report! The Ultimate Saint has arrived!"

"What?"

On the throne, the Merfolk King jumped up.

He adjusted his crown, casually grabbing the double trident beside him embedded in the floor.

In the square, a figure gazed at the towering blue pillar, it was Levi.

Behind him, a giant ape as tall as a mountain stood, it was Lopez.

Chapter 2293: Mythical! Qilin Breathing Technique!

The Merfolk King's heart skipped a beat.

"Isn't that the Fierce Ape?"

It had spent a lot of effort but hadn't captured it.

Unexpectedly, it was already subdued by the Ultimate Saint.

"Ultimate Saint, what brings you to our Merfolk Palace?"

Levi asked:

"This pillar looks nice, what if I pull it out?"

The Merfolk King was initially stunned, then laughed:

"If you feel confident, go ahead and pull."

After speaking, it felt a bit nervous inside.

Could this guy really pull it out?

This pillar was left by the God of Creation.

If it's pulled out, the Merfolk Palace might have to relocate...

"I'm just kidding, come on, sign the treaty, and I'll leave immediately."

Levi laughed.

He probably couldn't pull it out right now; better to wait until the Crimson Emperor Dragon reaches level 8 before trying again.

Otherwise, it would be quite embarrassing in front of this group of alien races.

The Merfolk King said:

"Alright, I'll sign..."

The members of the Merfolk Palace were dumbfounded.

No... King, didn't you just say the other five were humiliating?

How did you just flip and surrender yourself?

Watching the figure of the black-armored swordsman fade into the distance.

The Merfolk King felt helpless.

"The Three Realms and Four Lands, the great fate has ended..."

These old beings standing at the peak of the Saint Roland Continent, prided themselves as the "pinnacle of the era."

But this human, with his longsword, ruthlessly shattered their illusion.

This era is called...

"Hey, by the way, does anyone know what the Ultimate Saint is called?"

"No idea, it's not in the information."

Only then did the Merfolk King realize that from beginning to end, no one knew the name of the Ultimate Saint.

He seemed to appear out of thin air, like a mechanical divine descent.

No buildup, no prelude.

As soon as he appeared, he swept everything away.

...

One month later.

Golden Ruins and Merfolk Palace successively released announcements.

Declaring an alliance with Rune Land.

In the hundredth year of Tianqi, Rune Land fully turned the tables.

From now, the Three Realms and Four Lands have become a thing of the past.

An era belonging to the Humans has already arrived.

And the man who overturned it all disappeared once more from people's sight.

Countless years later, whether they're the alien races or humans.

Those born in the new era might find it hard to believe.

The nameless and faceless Ultimate Saint profoundly changed this page of the Age History Book.

After resolving the Three Realms and Four Lands, there was still half a year to spare.

Levi and Jin embarked on a lonely treasure hunt.

He rode a White Tiger, galloping across the heaven and earth of the Saint Roland Continent.

...

Half a year later.

Ancient Dragon Continent.

At the back mountain of the Dusk Holy Temple.

The violent wind elemental power surged, covering dozens of miles around.

Layer upon layer of dark clouds pressed in, seemingly hiding a gigantic entity within.

In the distance, Fire Dragon Knight, Black Knight, and other level 6 knights rushed over to protect the Blood Knight during his tribulation.

Even the Flower Knight, while hunting demons on the God-forsaken Continent, started a projection live stream for everyone to remotely watch the battle.

She wasn't far from the late stage of level 6, better to experience it in advance, just in case.

Today was destined to be a day of significant importance.

Besides the commander, who couldn't be judged by common sense.

The second level 7 expert from the Dusk Holy Temple might be born.

"It must succeed."

"Don't worry, the Blood Knight is always steady and doesn't take on unsure tasks, we have to trust him."

"Is everything being recorded?"

Previously watching the commander ascend, they were in a haze.

Because of the commander's hexagonal attributes, he prevailed with sheer force over all.

It seemed instructive, yet not very applicable...

Watching the Blood Knight, they got a clearer understanding.

This is how a normal person's tribulation is supposed to be.

Soon, within the dark clouds, a golden Hast Eagle's phantom began to appear.

The Blood Knight wielded a cyan-colored shark-tooth-shaped sword, his blood qi surged wildly.

His form resembled a Hast Eagle, fighting the Maiya Giant Eagle in the sky.

The "Eagle Divine Scripture" and other combat techniques, he had cultivated to perfection, reaching the Transformation Realm.

And this Bloodline Divine Weapon was crafted with level 7 elemental metal.

Nurtured for hundreds of years, it had achieved Man and Sword as One, easily maneuvered, each move and form was perfect.

The Fire Dragon Knight commented:

"The Blood Knight didn't show off intentionally, but his true strength is indeed formidable. If he goes all out, breaking into the top thirty of the Seventh-level Demon Slaying List isn't an issue."

The Divine Light Knight said:

"Indeed, but his sense of responsibility is too strong, he gives too much to our organization, often overshadowing his own brilliance... Even though he and I are of the same realm, the feeling facing the Blood Knight is just like when I first joined the Knights, meeting this elder for the first time."

The Black Knight reminisced:

"Before I became famous, the Blood Knight was already a Quasi-Knight Ranger admired by thousands in the Mortal World, legends of him are everywhere. It's hard to imagine, how he, as a mere mortal rookie, managed to hold onto his true heart under the erosion of Blood Clan power..."

As the second eldest of the Dusk Holy Temple, he knew the Blood Knight the longest, and they had a great relationship.

It didn't take long before the Blood Knight defeated Maiya.

When he advanced to level 6, he had already fought Maiya, so he was experienced.

Thus, the first stage didn't take much effort.

Next, he would face beings with great endurance, beings that tested stamina, resilience, and will.

Sky Messenger Swallow, Heavenly Horse, Sky Patrol Hound.

The phantom of the three legendary giant beasts appeared one after another.

The Blood Knight, with a resolute expression, gasped for breath, then charged again.

The watching knights couldn't help but break into a sweat.

Their emotions rose and fell with the Blood Knight's battle situation.

They could feel that the Heavenly Horse seemed to be the strongest.

Chapter 2294: Mythical! Qilin Breathing Technique!

The Heavenly Horse is a proud creature, adorned with a silver horn on its forehead, and covered with pure white scales all over its body.

It is said that the Gods of the astral world love to capture Heavenly Horses as their mounts, to travel across the realms, symbolizing their unrivaled valor.

At the beginning, the Heavenly Horse completely dominated the Blood Knight in battle.

Its iron hooves struck down, sending the Blood Knight flying repeatedly, spitting blood, already significantly injured.

The Blood Knight's eyes were blurred, his whole body covered in blood, and his momentum uncertain.

"Victory is near, hold on, Blood Knight."

"Go for it."

Whoosh!

With the final sword swing, the Sky Patrol Hound howled, and finally shattered.

The Blood Tribulation, completely passed!

Everyone was thrilled!

As long as the Dark Tribulation is passed, it will be enough!

The Blood Knight gently stroked the slightly cracked divine weapon.

He drank a potion that rapidly healed severe wounds and restored a large amount of stamina in a short time.

This was jointly developed by the Dusk Holy Temple and the Tower of Dawn and was quite expensive.

Even for him, a nearly Level 7 expert, it allowed a quick recovery. .

Normally, it is only taken during a tribulation or life-and-death crisis.

Suddenly, the Thousand Illusion Knight and the Fire Dragon Knight, both slashed a sword into the void!

"Who is sneaking around, hiding there!"

Crack.

The Sword Qi swept across, tearing open the void.

A slightly embarrassed figure appeared.

"There's actually a Secondary Blood Clan aura in this place..."

A noble man, wearing a tailcoat, with his hands clasped behind his back, and a pale face appeared.

The Blood River Will had massively infiltrated Nora, awakening many slumbering Blood Clan powerhouses.

It was called Dracula, having descended upon Nora ages ago, once a Level 7 Blood Clan powerhouse.

As the leader of the Nora Blood Clan at that time, it was defeated by a saint of the Church of the Seven Nations.

After the Blood Clan's defeat, it went into a deep slumber in the abyss of the Outer Sea, sealing its life force, and entered hibernation.

Who knows how long it slept, in any case, when it woke up, the sea and field had changed dramatically.

Passing by this place, it sensed a trace of Blood Clan aura, and with ghostly manipulation, came over to check.

Unexpectedly, it saw a Secondary Blood Clan member, surprisingly having Level 7 strength...

It even thought it had suddenly gotten strong, or seeing things.

It remembered that even a Level 1 wasn't considered for a Secondary Blood Clan.

And what was up with all these people dressed as knights, several with Level 6 strength.

What year is it today?

Dracula, upon being discovered, wasn't panicked either.

With its strength, if it wanted to leave, they couldn't keep it.

It extended a hand, politely saying:

"Sir, the Blood God has returned, and the Blood River Will is about to sweep this land, join us."

The Fire Dragon Knight said coldly:

"Should we kill this Blood Clan?"

He wasn't afraid of Level 7 Blood Clan, but worried it would affect the Blood Knight's tribulation.

From the current situation, it seemed the Blood Knight's Dark Tribulation, coincidentally, was this passing Blood Clan.

The Black Knight shook his head, he sighed and said:

"All things have their trajectory... This is the Blood Knight's own tribulation, believe in him, he also needs to completely sever the last ties from now on!"

The Blood Knight laughed and said:

"Sir, you've mistaken... I'm human."

He wasn't in a hurry to act, but planned to take this opportunity to recover some strength.

Dracula sneered.

It drew a blood-red longsword, transforming into a blood light, and suddenly attacked the Blood Knight.

The Blood Knight took a deep breath, his unyielding fighting spirit burning, undeterred.

After a fierce battle, Dracula sensed something was wrong.

This person is so strong!

It seemed he had just advanced, his realm not yet stabilized, yet was steadily suppressing its attacks.

Especially as this person actually had powerful Level 7 Treasures protecting him.

Dracula's speed advantage was entirely negated.

It wasn't foolish, planning to escape.

Yet found the Blood Knight took out another Level 7 Treasure, a golden rope like the Binding Immortal Rope.

This was a treasure collected by Levi across the Three Realms and Four Lands, left for the knights during tribulation.

During the previous Blood Tribulation, for a perfect pass, the Blood Knight had not even used it.

The Dark Tribulation, he didn't care about.

Ultimately, Dracula, who came to watch, inexplicably became a stepping stone for the Blood Knight's tribulation, meeting his end.

In its death, it couldn't understand why it would "ghostly manipulate" itself into joining this chaos?

...

The Blood Knight opened his eyes, feeling the changes within his body.

"Is this the power of the Mythical level Breathing Method? I can understand the commander's bit by bit now... No wonder there are two supernovas in this era, one is the commander, and the other is others, for he has several Mythical Breathing Skills as well as wizard cultivation."

The Blood Knight transformed, becoming a giant beast with an eagle's head, a swan's neck, a horse's body, and the feet of a hound.

The golden wings with a wingspan of a thousand meters spread out, majestic and dignified, scales shimmering with luster, white as jade.

Even the Thousand Illusion Knight was stunned...

"Such a handsome Mythical Creature."

The Fire Dragon Knight said:

"I wonder what name the Blood Knight will give it."

The Black Knight excitedly asked:

"Have you finished your tribulation? I want to go over to hug you! You're so strong!"

The Blood Knight laughed heartily.

"I have successfully ascended to Level 7, this Breathing Method, let's name it [Jade Qilin Breathing Method]..."

The Golden Lion Knight thoughtfully said:

"Qilin... Is it the auspicious beast the commander dreamed of before and introduced to us? It doesn't look much like it, but its temperament and character do suit you. Jade Qilin Anderson, haha, that's what we'll call you from now on."

Emperor Mu shouted:

"Whether Jade Qilin or Iron Qilin... if it can fight, that's all that matters, let's go, such a great event, deserves a celebration."

...

Soon after.

Levi returned from the ancient tower, laden with rewards.

He had already learned of this great event through the round table.

"Good, good, keep up the effort... Jade Qilin, huh? The name is okay too."

The name gave him a strong sense of dj vu, always making him dream back to the song "Hero's Song" from his past life.

As the first one to ascend to Level 7, there were naturally rewards.

Levi produced a piece of silver armor, a Level 7 Treasure from the Dragon King's treasury, the [Silver Wind Armor].

Moreover, after the Green Winged Sky Eagle among others were purified, they would be tamed as mounts for the Blood Knight.

The Blood Knight expressed gratitude:

"Thank you, commander, for the gift!"

Levi said:

"You've also reached Level 7, I think you can consider finding a companion."

The Blood Knight smiled and said:

"I will consider it. I have finally carved out a path of Mythical Bloodline, I must leave something behind for future generations, so that my descendants can start at a higher point in their cultivation years later."

Since the moment he created this Bloodline, "Jade Qilin" existed in the world.

The descendants of the Blood Knight wouldn't have to endure the grueling path he had, or undergo countless Dark Tribulations.

He was the guide and pioneer of this path of the Bloodline.

Levi said:

"I think so too, our generation has endured so much hardship, it would be a pity if we can't pass it on. Only having the old with no newcomers, the Dusk Holy Temple wouldn't last long either."

Chapter 2295: Calamity Fire Demon Ape, Eightfold Blood Source!

Ancient Banyan Fairyland.

Levi released the Black Soul Demon Tower.

The Red King was sleeping inside, Leon's venom was potent.

During this period, he extracted some of the Red King's bloodline.

After a series of comparative analysis experiments, he found the bloodline relation between the Red King and the White Bear Clan to be very distant.

One could say they are two different species.

"How strange, currently it seems that the Red King is indeed born of White Bear Clan parents, no signs of infidelity, really unexpected..."

Returning from training in the Nightmare World, Lopez woke up to find the master still researching the Red King.

"Master, I don't know if it's my imagination, but I feel a sense of closeness to this creature."

Levi nodded.

"Indeed, it possesses a certain legendary giant ape bloodline factor in its body with a considerable concentration... but it doesn't match any discovered legendary giant apes in the Wizard World, and it's an offspring of two White Bear Clan members, it shouldn't have giant ape bloodline."

Lopez whispered:

"I recall hearing of a type of giant ape that is also of the fire element, but I'm not sure if it's the Red King?"

Levi looked at Lopez.

"Tell me about it."

Lopez then recounted a legend he heard in his childhood.

Within the giant apes, there exists an extremely mysterious being known as the [Calamity Fire Demon Ape].

This demon ape is extremely powerful even among legendary creatures.

It controls the ominous [Fire of Calamity], and those who come into contact with this flame become unfortunate.

The Calamity Fire Demon Ape grows extremely fast, possessing abilities beyond comprehension.

But it seems cursed, living at most for ten thousand years.

After ten thousand years, it will die.

It should be noted that legendary creatures, being extremely rare, are mostly longevity species.

The lifespan of the Giant Ape clan certainly cannot compare to the Dragon Clan, let alone the Turtle Clan or the Shell Clan.

But living for ten thousand years is extremely short-lived.

After all, even Level 9 experts of the short-lived human race can live approximately six thousand years.

Some Grand Wizards, if they master life-extension methods, can live even longer.

Thus, the demon ape appears quite anomalous.

It lives for at most ten thousand years, and upon reaching the time limit, it inevitably dies.

However, the demon ape doesn't truly die; it is reborn in another form.

In a certain sense, it possesses immortality capabilities, similar to the Ash Dragon.

However, it is born from within another living being.

"Based on your description, it seems possible... Brings calamity? I'll have to test whether my fortune is stronger or its calamity."

Such vague legends cannot be fully trusted.

Before knowing Lopez, many also claimed that the Water Disaster Giant Ape would bring calamity.

The result? Levi was completely unaffected.

On the contrary, he felt his fortune has grown stronger over the years.

"This demon ape's rebirth appearing in the body of another species..."

The White King once said that the Red King in its youth appeared as a normal White Bear Clan.

As time progressed, it grew more peculiar, eventually resembling something between a bear and an ape.

Levi estimated that once it grows to Level 9, it will again change to the form of a demon ape.

"In the Multidimensional Plane, truly anything exists, such peculiar means of reproduction also exist."

This Red King, unlike Lopez, cannot communicate normally.

Levi plans to suppress it for now and use the Scarlet Dragon Breathing Technique to enslave it once he reaches Level 8.

"A pleasant surprise, I've abducted another legendary creature."

"Water Disaster Giant Ape, Calamity Fire Demon Ape, and Emperor Mu's Holy Giant Ape... Among the four major factions of Earth, Fire, Wind, and Water, I've collected three types of legendary giant apes? It seems the Land of Darkness, which nurtures life, also prefers neatness. There's likely to be wind apes, thunder apes, ice apes, golden apes, but they are unfortunately rare and hard to come by."

Not long after.

Levi completed the inventory of this ancient tower expedition's gains.

The basic ores, herbs, and materials, essential for cultivation, need not be mentioned; they are quite abundant.

For the high-level items, he kept them for his own use.

The relatively ordinary ones were stored in the various organizations' treasuries for members to exchange.

For his current realm, there weren't many treasures worth mentioning.

From the White Bear Clan, he obtained a considerable number of Frost Element Ores.

Level 6 [Frost Iron], Level 7 [Frost Iron], and Level 8 [Extreme Cold Holy Gold].

Everything was available.

They conveniently saved a lot of costs as the Holy Infant was collecting Frost Heavenly Materials and Earthly Treasures for refining the wizard tower.

Once the Holy Infant's Ice and Fire Tower is renovated.

Its combat power will not be inferior to that of Lord Victor, who possesses the Heavenly Star Sword Formation.

The alluring woman from the Golden Emperor Clan gifted Levi with a Level 8 Exotic Treasure. .

It was named [Night Cloak] and had three functions:

First, the ability to travel through the Void over long distances, capable of instant teleportation twenty thousand miles away.

Second, the ability to conceal the user's aura and form.

Even Level 8 Peak's perception wouldn't notice it without a careful search.

Third, when used at night, it slightly enhances the user's physical attributes in all aspects.

Overall, this is an excellent treasure for escape and ambush.

Levi already mastered various terrain escape methods and owned a silver carriage, Hermit Runes, and other means.

This cloak wasn't very useful to him.

With the previous example of Soraya, Levi had some concerns about Hundred Flowers.

He planned to give this treasure to Hundred Flowers.

This way, Hundred Flowers' life-preserving ability in demon-hunting on the God-forsaken Continent would be significantly enhanced.

There were many good things at the Merfolk Palace, just like at the Dragon Palace of the Eastern Sea.

Besides sending a Level 7 Exotic Treasure for the Blood Knight, there were more than ten Level 6 Exotic Treasures.

Chapter 2296: Calamity Fire Demon Ape, Eightfold Blood Source!

These were all collected by the Merfolk Palace from the Heart Sea or the Saint Roland Continent.

The rare treasures were all used to enrich the treasure vaults of various major organizations.

Additionally, Levi acquired a special piece of metal.

What appeared was a fist-sized irregular blue meteorite floating in the air.

It was surrounded by anomalies, with space vaguely distorted, suggesting its extraordinary nature.

Like Rest Soil, this was also a ninth-level material.

It is called [Heiger's Gold].

It was discovered by a Grand Wizard named Heiger.

Despite its small size, it weighs ten thousand tons.

It is an excellent material for refining a Divine Soul Artifact.

However, its level is too high, and Levi, with his current methods, cannot handle it yet.

In the sea near the Ancient Dragon Continent, he also hid a ninth-level Blood Angel Feather.

On him, there are also 2 pieces of ninth-level Demon Dragon Scales, obtained from the key to the Dragon Ruins Mysterious Realm, all ninth-level materials.

Finally, from the three major alien races, he collectively acquired 126 Truth Oddities, encompassing most sects.

Among which, 112 are Earth and Sky-Grade Oddities.

Additionally, 13 are Morning Star-level oddities, with only 1 Bright Moon Artifact.

These two hauls by Levi also caused the Three Realms and Four Lands to bleed extensively.

Earth oddities need not be mentioned, as they are not of much use to Levi or his Three Avatars.

He only had everyone pick a few that might birth a promising special spiritual creature, hoping for luck.

All others were stored in the treasury.

Moving forward for quite a period, the organization doesn't need to worry about not having good items for exchange for its members.

An organization with no background cannot attract individuals.

Among the Sky-Grade Oddities, there are some relatively special oddities.

They are [Cold King's Beard], [Cold King's Breath], [Flame King's Eyes], [Wind King's Call].

All are part of the king-level sequence artifacts that the Holy Infant and Gandaph have already refined.

According to the "Illustrated Guide of Strange Items," both the Cold King and Flame King series consist of five parts.

Once refined, the Holy Infant's Flame King and Cold King sequences would each be complete with just one more sequence oddity.

The Cold King series still lacks [Heart of Cold King], a Morning Star-level oddity.

The Flame King series still lacks [Flame King's Ring], a Sky-Grade Oddity.

Similarly, Gandaph's Wind King series is also missing one.

For sequence oddities, once the main higher-level items are exchanged for, their function is nearly complete.

However, for those with obsessive tendencies, they can deliberately collect them all.

Anyway, regarding their realm, these aren't very advanced or expensive oddities.

There's not much to say about the Morning Star-level oddities.

Levi chose [Water God's Song] and gifted it to Hundred Flowers.

This is a sapphire Truth Oddity in the shape of earrings, obtained from the Merfolk Palace.

Previously, [Water God's Ode] was a ring, and [Water God's Lament] was a brooch.

Upon refining, it can also enhance Hundred Flowers' Water God Body.

The Bright Moon Artifact is a jet-black bead.

It exudes a thick aura of negative energy, dark and sinister...

The truth runes on its surface form clusters of twinkling eyes, densely packed.

Similar to the previous [Immortal Dream Butterfly], this too is an oddity beyond the Illustrated Guide of Strange Items' scope.

Levi searched through all the documents in the Wizard World but couldn't identify what it was.

He could only ascertain it as an extremely rare Dark Faction oddity.

Levi previously refined negative energy oddities from the Shadow or Death factions.

Oddities like Darkness, Blood, or Nightmare, he had never encountered before.

In the Wizard Council's war merit store, such faction oddities were not available at all.

He thinks that on one hand, these kinds of oddities are very rarely produced.

On the other hand, the congress probably perceives these factions to have more or less inherent issues.

Especially the Dark Faction, which was once a big faction producing Legendary Wizards.

Like the Bright Faction, it gradually declined with historical developments. .

The most crucial reason traces back to the [Asta Rebellion] event a long time ago.

Asta, the so-called "Dark Wizard Emperor," who claimed himself "Son of Chaos," "Chaos City Lord."

He was a Legendary Wizard of the Dark Faction, who betrayed the Wizard Council to pursue eternal life.

He joined the [Lord of Chaos] camp, ignited the divine fire, reshaped his body, becoming one of the evil gods under its banner.

He was part of the previous Five Sector Expedition.

Not only did he defect himself, but he led a large group of Dark Faction wizards to switch allegiance together.

Many wizards abandoned their pursuit of truth, which they had strived for hundreds of years, in a moment.

They chose to believe in the Lord of Chaos and entered the Divine Realm.

That incident had a significant impact, bringing many direct and indirect influences.

Therefore, when Levi arrived in this world,

he discovered that the Bright and Dark factions, which he thought to be very powerful, were actually just third-rate.

By the way, the currently prominent Black Sun Adam is also dual cultivating in Burning and Dark factions.

So whether or not to refine this oddity, Levi hesitated a bit.

He himself practiced Dark Faction spells and didn't find any problems.

"Forget it, consider it after the eighth-circle, refining it now seems wasteful..."

The Bright Moon Artifact can also greatly enhance spiritual force, but Levi has reached his upper limit.

In the final blind box session, Levi gained several six-circle spells and combat techniques.

Plus a seventh-level combat skill named "Dawn Battle Manual."

This skill is a legacy combat skill from the [Golden Pheasant Clan].

Levi felt it suitable for the Pheasant Knight, so he had him go study it.

The fact proved that his luck was as dependable as ever, performing consistently.

Chapter 2297: Calamity Fire Demon Ape, Eightfold Blood Source!

Wizard: Starting With the Knights Breathing Method

Even with [Calamity Fire Demon Ape], it had no impact.

...

Time flew by.

Three years later.

Nora 620, Blood Battle 406.

The talents Levi brought from the Dark Ancient Tower have gradually acclimated to the new world.

Kidman also joined the Tower of Dawn, becoming a professor.

Though he follows the Supreme Archmage path, he shares the same origin as the wizard.

High above, guiding that group of children is not an issue.

Recently, the Tower of Dawn has birthed a primordial soul wizard named [Heart Moon Spirit Witch Natasha].

Levi is somewhat unfamiliar with her, as she wasn't one of the talents from the Children of the Elements he nurtured, nor did she possess any special talent.

Natasha is merely ordinary with double affinity, relatively unremarkable.

She is one of the original elder members of the Tower of Dawn still living today.

At the age of eight hundred, she finally broke through to primordial soul.

To Levi's surprise, Natasha cultivates the School of Dreams.

Due to owning Nightmare World and part of the Dreamland Steeple's inheritance.

He has always supported the development of the School of Dreams.

But no primordial soul wizard had been born from it.

In fact, not just the Ancient Dragon Continent.

The entire Wizard World lacks many primordial soul wizards from the School of Dreams.

Many high-level members know of the tragic plight of Dreamland Steeple.

Regarding Nightmare World, they have always maintained a respectful distance.

Even the legendary wizards are particularly cautious.

There's nothing to be done; Nightmare World is too overpowering.

It's a terrifying place that rivals the Abyss.

Consider the Blood Battle; the Abyss sent only part of its forces, yet it made Nora suffer considerably.

Imagine if Nightmare World accidentally emerged; wouldn't that be bringing disaster upon oneself?

Levi himself, due to the proficiency panel, by chance acquired the formidable abilities of the Nightmare Lord.

Otherwise, he wouldn't dare to mingle in Nightmare World.

Now, the Heart Moon Spirit Witch's promotion to primordial soul is indeed good news.

Levi called her alone for a conversation.

Heart Moon Spirit Witch is a mature, charismatic middle-aged beauty.

She felt somewhat nervous inside, placing her hands on her slender beautiful legs, and her floral long skirt gently cascaded to the ground.

Being so close to a legendary figure in the Wizard World for the first time made her heart race.

"Lord, I believe that now the research in the School of Dreams mostly focuses on illusions, memory, and less on practical combat... since the Shadow School of Thought can summon shadow creatures, the School of Death can summon hell creatures, perhaps our School of Dreams can also pursue summoning, call forth those Nightmare Creatures to fight for us."

Levi gestured for her to drink tea.

Heart Moon Spirit Witch was flattered and took a sip of Heart-Cleansing Tea.

"Thank you, Lord... Wow, what is this tea?"

After drinking, she felt refreshed, her thoughts efficiently processed, and couldn't resist contemplating a meditation.

The whole person was translucent... incredible.

Levi replied calmly:

"What you said, I've also considered; it is indeed a direction, but Nightmare World is different from the Shadow World and Hell; it's deeper and filled with the unknown. This aspect of research worries me a bit, like Dreamland Steeple inadvertently opening a magic box, bringing danger to the Wizard World."

Heart Moon Spirit Witch said:

"Indeed... I am also hesitating about this."

Levi replied:

"Of course, if you can find a way to make the summoning range more precise, for example, summoning our own Nightmare Creatures from the Black Dragon Territory... then this issue wouldn't exist."

Levi himself can bring some Nightmare Creatures into reality, but he can't do this all day.

Therefore, if it's possible for ordinary wizards of the School of Dreams to summon creatures from Black Dragon Territory.

For the Ancient Dragon Continent, it would indeed be worthwhile.

Currently, Black Dragon Territory is a dominant power in the Blood Rain Realm.

So far, there hasn't been any warfare.

Those Nightmare Creatures are idle, too. .

Moreover, with the production of Nightmare Mother Trees, there's no fear of these wizards exterminating Nightmare Creatures.

Natasha's eyes shone with delight and excitement:

"Yes, I understand... I now have a direction for my research."

Natasha stood up, finished the tea, bid farewell to Levi, and hurriedly left.

"She's quite a talent; I can focus on and invest in her next... Hmm, it's best to find a way to set her up with one of the bachelors among the Eighteen Riders. Maybe it could result in more excellent offspring. That Blood Knight cannot be alone forever. In the future, when conditions allow, hold some networking gatherings."

After finishing the tea, Levi opened the proficiency panel.

The Crimson Emperor Dragon Breathing Technique is coming closer to the maximum.

Those witch marks which have not reached perfection are continually being polished.

The last spells he learned, especially the [Unreachable], are extremely difficult.

To achieve complete perfection of 27 witch marks, he estimated it would require another sixty years.

Thus, in recent years, he started focusing on the Crimson Emperor Dragon.

First, advance this most important breathing technique to level 8.

Of course, he must also start preparing the breakthrough potion.

This time, he can't rely on Triss.

The Black Abyss Walker is a legendary wizard, bothering such a significant figure for a small fry like Kara isn't right.

After much consideration, he could only go to Ms. Lucy.

Ancient Banyan Fairyland.

A valley entirely surrounded by arrays.

Below lay three level 6 Demon Dragon skeletons and a plethora of bizarre materials.

The Demon Dragon Grass cultivation method provided by the Lava Dragon to Levi earlier, he also started attempting.

Chapter 2298: Calamity Fire Demon Ape, Eightfold Blood Source!

For this, he auctioned off some Demon Dragon Skeletons at a high price on the black market.

These bones were already stripped of flesh, likely having had their bloodline crystals extracted.

However, for cultivating Demon Dragon Grass, having the Demon Dragon bones is sufficient.

Although these bones are also decent material for weapons refinement, compared to the value of Demon Dragon Grass, they are negligible.

"According to the Lava Dragon's statement, such items as Demon Dragon Grass can be relatively easily found in the Abyss... To avoid being choked by the scarcity of Demon Dragon Grass, I will independently cultivate some, while also having the succubus help me find it in the Abyss."

Over the years, under Levi's relentless nurturing, the growth of the Mind Flayers and succubus has been rapid.

They have both reached Level 6 Peak power, not far from Level 7.

Actually, he could directly enslave more advanced demons, but those two have been with him for so long, there's a bit of nostalgia.

Anyway, they don't need to execute any arduous tasks, and their cultivation requirements are not high. Nurturing them himself is also a kind of joy.

Next, he wandered through other Cave Heaven Blessed Lands.

With ADie and Long, both flourishing remarkably well.

Even the slowest growing Iron Tree has unknowingly reached forty zhang high.

Under normal circumstances, Iron Tree grows a zhang every hundred years, which takes four thousand years of growth.

And it has been less than a thousand years following Levi.

"When the Iron Tree blooms and bears fruit, the Body Refining Sect of the Tower of Dawn will usher in a take-off."

Rumble!

Before leaving the fairyland, there suddenly came a fluctuation of elemental power in the direction of the Quicksand Sea.

"Bo Gang?"

Levi's heart lifted with joy, and he flashed over.

There he saw an earth-toned giant several hundred meters tall, holding a greatsword rare treasure, fighting against a nameless god's shadow hidden behind the calamity clouds, indeed Bo Gang.

He had been following Levi for nearly a thousand years, finally reaching Level 6.

As a genuine Mountain Giant, his journey was smooth, only the timeline was a bit long.

Still, it's much faster than something like the Dragon Turtle...

Purebred giants, although unlike purebred dragons that surely reach level 9 in maturity, the average standard is above level 6.

Giants are gregarious creatures, they are more numerous than dragons.

Some dragons never meet their kind in a lifetime.

Bo Gang himself is also a rare giant wizard, with a pretty good elemental affinity talent.

However, this time he's going through the giant's tribulation.

In such a Cave Heaven Blessed Land, his growth speed is already much better than his wild kin.

Bo Gang easily crossed the tribulation and advanced to a Level 6 Giant.

Accompanied by the dense elemental power reshaping his body, his body swelled visibly, reaching a kilometer in height.

Under the giant true form, it possessed the power of ten thousand jun, moving mountains and shifting peaks, all easily.

"Congratulations, Bo Gang!"

Levi laughed.

Bo Gang responded clumsily:

"Thank you, master, finally living up to expectations, reaching Level 6."

Levi said:

"Not bad, after getting through the Soul Calamity, it'll be much easier. Go to Mana Supervisor to get some Immortal Flowing Liquid."

...

Levi first nervously sent a message to Lucy, asking if Ms. Lucy could help him refine potions.

"Certainly, come to the God-forsaken Continent to find me~"

"So easy?"

Levi found it hard to believe.

Being able to meet these benefactors truly was an extreme fortune.

The God-forsaken Continent, wizard tower.

Lucy put away the crystal ball for meditation, laughing:

"Looks like you're about to advance to ninth-circle, huh, congratulations in advance."

Levi said:

"Then I also congratulate the lady in advance for advancing to ninth-circle."

Lucy said:

"Thank you, but I don't have any plans to advance to ninth-circle for now... Take out all your materials, just wait here for a few days, I've refined this potion many times, it shouldn't be a problem."

Levi mused.

Judging by Ms. Lucy's tone, advancing to ninth-circle, must be easily manageable.

Such confidence.

Very well, probably another legendary reincarnation.

Who is it? Deep Blue Sage?

Probably not, Deep Blue Sage is male, reincarnating as female?

Levi felt a little strange.

Anyway, in his thinking, reincarnation should also be as a male.

"Madam, what price do I need to pay?"

"Hmm~ let me think, I don't seem to lack anything, so let's waive it... Oh yes, in the northwest of the continent, the 9th battle zone has a demon army, the great commander there is a Level 8 Early Stage Steel Bone Demon. If you have time, you can go support that battle group, consider it helping me out."

"Alright."

Getting something for nothing felt unsettling for Levi, hearing this, he felt more at ease and promptly rushed over.

Steel Bone Demon is a type of demon newly added to the battlefield these years.

The body, especially the bones, is extremely tough.

When he arrived on the battlefield, a battle group was engaged in a fierce fight.

Levi said nothing, directly ordered the commander to form a siege outside.

He transformed into a ferocious beast, activated the Red Emperor Domain, and started fighting with the Steel Bone Demon.

Now with the Crimson Emperor Dragon approaching its limit, Levi also wanted to test his own strength.

Red flames, golden light, storm, thunder, and other anomalies surrounded Levi.

Without deploying the Nine-colored Emperor and spells, simply relying on his body and combat techniques, he suppressed the arrogant Steel Bone Demon.

Seeing it was no match, the Steel Bone Demon tried to retreat with its troops.

Levi went all out, quickly finishing the battle.

"The essence of the Steel Bone Demon is all in its bones, top-grade material for weapon refinement."

After collecting the spoils, he left on his own accord.

Leaving the wizard group members in stunned silence, unsure of what to say.

Chapter 2299: Calamity Fire Demon Ape, Eightfold Blood Source!

"So effortlessly traversing through thousands of troops, taking the enemy's head, this is the true strength of the Dusk Palace Master."

"Seeing once is better than hearing a hundred times, I've truly gained insight today."

...

"Your potion."

In Lucy's hand was a colorless and odorless potion, like pure water.

Levi knew that this was the top-grade breakthrough potion he had refined at great cost.

He smiled.

"Thank you, madam. The Steel Bone Demon has been dealt with, and the remnants are being cleaned up by the battle group over there."

Lucy said:

"Very efficient, go back now, don't delay your cultivation. I also have matters to handle here."

After thanking repeatedly, Levi left contentedly.

"Ms. Lucy is quite easy to deal with."

Along the way, he met all sorts of people.

Levi found that the higher the realm the wizard, the less they put on airs.

In contrast, those wizards with mediocre cultivation liked to consider themselves highly.

Perhaps this is the difference between the big shots and rookies.

Returning to the Ancient Dragon Continent, he continued his seclusion.

Now all preparations are complete, only the advancement remains.

...

In the blink of an eye, ten years have passed.

The year 630 of Nora, the 416th year of the Blood Battle.

After Black Abyss Sovereign Allen became the 13th seat of the Supreme Council, chain reactions gradually commenced.

The Ocean School of Thought had been lacking in morale due to the fall of the Deep Blue Sage, suffering from low confidence.

Now, the Ocean has regained its spirit.

At the same time, the Blood Clan also began more frequent activities in the Wizard World.

And this time, they were all Blood Clan elites.

After the Blood Moon descended, it never faded away.

Some aberrant creatures began to emerge in regions of Nora.

Fortunately, after countless disaster version updates, even mortals have become used to it.

Many people embraced the mindset of "let it destroy, I'm tired."

The Black Abyss Sovereign had just ascended to legendary status and was entrusted with heavy responsibilities.

To confront an ancient monster like Blood River that's been alive for unknown ages.

Of course, he didn't have to battle Blood River's true form.

The current Blood River Will didn't dare to manifest its true form in Nora.

It only incited panic and chaos by awakening hidden Blood Clan members and descending incarnations of evil gods.

It can be said that the Abyss Blood Battle gave it an opportunity.

This made the already chaotic situation in Nora even more turbulent.

There was also good news: the Undead Army wreaking havoc in the human realm was entirely annihilated.

They were either recruited as summoned creatures by the School of Death or transformed into resources for cultivation.

Hell's invasion of the Wizard World didn't even spark a flicker.

As the Underworld merchant said, Hell didn't genuinely seek invasion; they merely needed to balance their overpopulation.

Now, the attitude of the four super worlds towards the Wizard World is also intriguing.

Astral World.

Lofty and disdainful of wizards, once attempted to restrict wizard development, repelled by Sauron. They are currently troubled by the insect disaster and have entered the Dusk of the Gods version...

Abyss.

No need to say more, indiscriminately hostile to all worlds, considering everyone inferior. Based on the information Levi currently possesses, the Abyss even invaded Astral World, Nightmare, and the Underworld, causing considerable chaos.

Nightmare.

Another version of the Astral World, with little interaction with the Wizard World presently, also enjoys invading other worlds, though less frenzied than the Abyss. It's very deep, but the outside world knows very little about it.

Underworld.

The true master of Hell, the controllers of life and death reincarnation, relatively neutral, has a decent attitude towards the Wizard World, possibly due to Sauron's past journey in the Underworld, providing resources as support for the wizard civilization. Maybe hoping to weaken the madman Abyss through wizards.

Surviving among these four giants, the Wizard World's path is long.

God-forsaken Continent.

After the Gondor Three Heroes re-emerged, they began crazily farming points by clinging to Victor's strong support.

In ten years, their ranking skyrocketed, now already in the top thirty, with points nearing a billion.

Next, the plan for the Three Avatars is the same as Elena's.

First, exchange for the designated Bright Moon Artifact restricted by seven circles.

Once the attempts are used up, save up points to exchange for the 5 billion random Sun Refining Artifact.

Random artifacts offer only one chance for everyone; any realm can exchange, so there's no hurry.

As for the designated Sun Refining Artifact restricted by seven circles, they basically have no chance.

Those in the top ten of the rankings are quite monstrous, only overshadowed by the brilliance of the main body that surpasses the ages.

If not for the bug-level existence of the main body.

Anyone from the top ten would dominate any era.

Figures like Simon aren't even worthy to carry their shoes.

Though the Gondor Three Heroes are strong, they started late, and surpassing them in a short time isn't realistic.

After obtaining the Night Cloak, Elena thrived in the God-forsaken Continent.

Her ranking has risen to 15th, beyond which are old monsters either at seven-circle perfection or maximum.

Her current primary goal is to complete the Water God Series Artifact to obtain the complete Water God Body.

Based on the Illustrated Guide of Strange Items.

She still needs 1 Bright Moon, 1 Radiant Sun, and several Morning Star-levels to achieve her goal.

Through countless battle trials, her knight and Qi Sect cultivation has been steadily improving.

She has also gained many insights from using the combination of three extraordinary paths.

Similarly dazzling is the supernova Link.

Not long ago, with Sixth Ring Senior Cultivation, he broke into the top ten of the Seventh-level Demon Slaying List.

Creating a moderate myth.

Dawn Divine Sword Victor commented this way:

Chapter 2300: Calamity Fire Demon Ape, Eightfold Blood Source!

"Give Link enough time, and the Wizard World will have another Grand Wizard, even a Legendary Wizard!"

The competition among sixth-circle wizards on the Demon Slaying List is unimaginably fierce.

Link has perfectly combined the Energy Sect's [Shattered Invisible Sword Qi] and [Secret Sword Formation] in real combat, just like Lord Victor, unstoppable against any obstacle.

Currently, he has already broken into the top ten rankings, neck and neck with the Fire Dragon Knight, this monster.

And he himself is not far from Sixth Circle Perfection.

Not to mention, his charming aura and heroic appearance are only slightly inferior to Lord Victor.

The admirers of the Demon Tears Divine Sword are as numerous as carp crossing the river.

However, Link is enamored with the sword, adhering to the supreme realm of "with no women in his heart, the sword draws naturally divine."

For the time being, he has no interest in the gentle allure.

He takes Lord Victor as his goal, chasing after the shadow of this "First of the Secret Sword."

Like the relentless Kua Fu chasing the sun, never resting!

In the waves of the Blood Battle, everyone is struggling desperately to survive.

Because of its strong security capacity.

To many mortals and low-level wizards, the Ancient Dragon Continent has already become a symbol of the "Safe Zone."

If a family's child with high talent goes to the Ancient Dragon Continent, it's a matter of great pride and honor.

Some even attempt to smuggle into the Ancient Dragon Continent.

With more and more new continents, the Ancient Dragon Continent has smoothly acquired some surrounding areas.

On one hand, building specialized military bases and arsenals for the Mechanical School.

On the other hand, expanding the scale of the Giant Beast Paradise and the mortal gathering area.

For those mortal refugees who lost their shelter due to the downfall of wizard organizations, the Ancient Dragon Continent also accepts them.

Although this increases some costs, during war, population is the most important resource.

Not enough food? Then increase production through wizard knowledge, it's no issue for wizards.

It's just about whether they are willing to promote the transformation of mortal productivity.

Now it's no longer the era of the Seven Gods Church's rule, traditional things are destined to be eliminated!

The Ancient Dragon Continent even has a specialized [Civilian School], led by the Mechanical School, combined with other schools.

Dedicated to enhancing mortal productivity from all aspects.

And then letting mortals repay wizards.

The Blood Battle is endless, fresh blood must always be injected.

Among these people, in the future, a child with the potential to be one of the Children of the Elements could be born, which is immensely valuable.

This act of charity has elevated the reputation and influence of the Ancient Dragon Continent in Nora to a higher level.

Especially among mortals and regular nomadic wizards.

Public opinion is an immense invisible force, seemingly weak.

When gathered, it becomes an unstoppable torrent of steel!

...

On this day.

Off the coast of the Ancient Dragon Continent.

On a small island.

Red clouds converged, and under the extreme heat, the earth instantly became scorched.

The seawater turned into white mist, rising and covering a radius of hundreds of miles, like a volcanic eruption.

Such apocalyptic scenery frightened countless marine creatures to flee.

Upon sensing the commotion,

a fully armed battle group swiftly arrived.

They had already turned this area into a forbidden zone.

The Fire Dragon Knight said:

"Keep an eye out, watch for demons trying to create chaos."

Under normal circumstances, in the Wizard World, nobody would interfere with someone else's tribulation. .

That might bring trouble upon themselves, paying with their life on the spot.

However, demons don't care about this; they are madmen.

During the Blood Battle, incidents of wizards being ambushed by demons during their tribulations happen from time to time.

This time, Levi is advancing in his level 8 tribulation, and the momentum is bound to be huge.

So he didn't dare to conduct it within the Ancient Banyan Fairyland, fearing it would impact its ecological environment.

The four corners of the world have five powerful auras hidden.

Namely, the Eight-legged Sea Demon, Black Phoenix, Thunder Crocodile, Elena, and Triss.

This luxurious lineup is there to protect Levi during his advancement.

Rumble!

In the sky, the Blood Tribulation reappears.

Those powerful legendary and mythical creature shadows appear once again, awesomely.

Bang!

A swordsman's figure appears, precisely Levi.

He's bare-chested, holding the Crimson Dragon Slash, with his broad back interwoven with dragon-like muscles.

A perfect body full of strength yet not exaggerated, like an epic hero statue dreamt by mortals.

The overwhelming Red Flame Sword Energy swept out, mercilessly shredding these giants into pieces, turning them to nothing.

With the disappearance of the strongest Red Lotus Dragon phantom, the last Blood Tribulation Master is extinguished.

Yet Levi's expression did not relax.

"Roar!"

A domineering dragon roar echoed through the universe.

The previously disappeared Blood Tribulation Masters reappeared once more.

They converged into colorful lights coming together.

A red giant dragon with a wingspan of over six thousand meters, emitting endless majesty, emerged into the air.

Even just the emitted might made Elena feel her breathing heavy.

She was internally shaken:

"The true level 8 early-stage demon couldn't match half of this dragon phantom. Levi, upon entering level 8, has to face such a formidable opponent. Is this the price of his repeated evolutions?"

Triss was filled with emotions.

It was her first time watching Levi undergo a tribulation, and it's a level 8 tribulation that others won't experience.

She also understood why Levi is such a monster.

To confront these terrifying existences, how could one not be a monster?

The Eight-legged Sea Demon and Black Phoenix were even more dumbfounded.

In the face of such Super Mythical Creature phantoms, although they aren't Dragon Clan, they also felt a compelling majesty they couldn't resist.

This is a supreme power above all living things!

A sense of insignificance arose spontaneously; such thoughts unconsciously emerged in their minds.

"Abandon resistance..."

Levi felt an intense fighting spirit rising.

The enemy before him was enough to demand his full attention.

His path of knights having such strength, the super mythical Crimson Emperor Dragon played a significant role.

The Crimson Emperor Dragon's wings stirred, gathering fire elemental power from two hundred miles around like rivers returning to the sea.

Flames! Endless flames formed a tide, sweeping over the sea!

Where they passed, even a thousand-foot-deep sea was completely dried, forming a scorched path without water.

Boom!

Levi fearlessly rushed into the tide, his longsword slicing toward the Crimson Emperor Dragon!

Even a steel-hearted man like the Fire Dragon Knight couldn't help but be internally shaken.

"When I advanced to the legendary level breathing technique, compared to this, it was nothing more than an insignificant infant... Mythical level, I must become a mythical level existence!"

His resolve strengthened, having seen the vastness of the sky, he no longer cared for the still beauty within a well.

One man and one dragon battled amidst the vast heavens and earth.

The island where Levi secluded himself had long turned to nothingness.

Every time he advanced, he destroyed an island.

The strength of the Crimson Emperor Dragon phantom was such that Levi found it harder to fight than facing a true level 8 demon.

One of his greatest supports, the opponent also had.

But he was absolutely confident that he could defeat the opponent.

Because what the opponent lacked, he still possessed!

This is the meaning of being a six-dimensional warrior!

Any difficulty in the knight's tribulation, he would crush with his absolute attributes.

Failure was not an option!

After hundreds of rounds, the Crimson Emperor Dragon phantom was riddled with wounds, sword Qi leaving countless ghastly scars upon it.

In contrast, Levi remained relatively unscathed.

"Sorry, I admit you're strong... but I am stronger!"

He took a deep breath, activating the Dragon Whale Path, unleashing his strongest sword strike!

The sword Qi split the Crimson Emperor Dragon in two, continued its momentum, flattening islands, parting seas, extending thousands of miles beyond.

The Crimson Emperor Dragon, defeated!
