

Wizard 2301

Chapter 2301: Level 8 Knight, Bloodline Secret Word!

Between heaven and earth.

The shadow of the Crimson Emperor Dragon dissipated into smoke.

Levi breathed a slight sigh of relief.

"Thus, I finally passed the complete Blood Tribulation. The path of evolution is becoming increasingly difficult..."

No time for Levi to catch his breath, the world underwent another change.

A fog rose from the sea...

Out of nowhere, grey mist began to spread around.

Vaguely, a ghostly image of a desolate and ruined monastery stood tall, with strange chanting emerging from within.

Seeing this scene, he quickly said:

"Everyone, retreat now! It's a mirage!" .

The Fire Dragon Knight's expression changed drastically.

A mirage, one of the three disasters of the Endless Sea, mysterious and unfathomable, is an unsolved mystery of the Wizard World.

With the return of the sub-dimensional portal, has this thing come back too?

Knowing that staying here wouldn't help the commander, he hurriedly led the retreat.

"Levi, what's going on? Is this your Dark Tribulation?"

Elena looked anxious.

If it was a Level 8 Mid Stage Demon, she could accept it and believe Levi could overcome it.

But this just happened to be a mirage... damn Land of Darkness.

Levi said:

"Yes, return to the Ancient Dragon Continent. Trust me."

Vaguely, he felt that this tribulation might be compounded with the calamity of breaking a small world earlier.

He stored away the Thunder Crocodile and Black Phoenix and vanished into the mist.

In the golden prince's memory, he had witnessed a mirage before.

Though different from this, with his strength, there shouldn't be any safety issues.

However, he didn't know where he'd end up once he exited the mirage...

But with the ability of Traveling the Void, as long as it's not too outrageous, he could quickly return.

This is also his confidence for daring to step in.

The mist vanished, as if it had never appeared.

Elena gazed at the sea.

"Come back."

Triss, holding Elena's arm, said:

"Don't worry, believe in him."

...

Mirage.

The dark and damp interior of the monastery.

Countless statues lined both sides, their appearances strange, unlike Gods of Star Realm.

Levi gripped his longsword, as whispers seemed to surround him.

After reaching level 8, a casual sword strike could shred those monsters.

Levi frowned slightly, the monastery hadn't dissipated, and he hadn't left the mirage.

He continued wandering inside, opening one door after another, killing group after group of monsters.

The rooms inside seemed endless.

The monsters were extremely abstract, terrifying human-faced creatures, shrieking shadow beasts.

Some rooms themselves were monsters, entering them only led to being devoured.

Fortunately, these things weren't indestructible and could be killed.

But continuing this way endlessly, even a superhuman couldn't withstand it.

He also attempted to discover the pattern of the mirage, hoping to find a way to break it.

But eventually found it all in vain, the only pattern to this ghostly thing is "no pattern."

Apparently, the golden prince survived thanks to exceptionally good luck.

In here, he lost all concept of time, unable to open the Ancient Banyan Fairyland.

He was trapped in what seemed like a Space-Time Cocoon.

This kind of Dark Tribulation was something he never expected.

It made him think of Sauron, if the "exile theory" was true.

Could Sauron have been exiled to a place similar to a mirage in the Land of Darkness?

If that's the case, then it's truly lonely...

Levi could endure isolation for a hundred years, even a thousand, ten thousand years.

Because he still had connections with the world and hopes for the future.

But in a ghostly place where the concept of space-time was lost.

No one could endure it.

He calmed himself, maintaining tranquility in the face of changes.

Unable to perceive any temporal changes, he followed his heart, closed his eyes, and meditated.

Darkness surged forth, coldness crept in...

The monastery's doors swung open one by one, shadows of monsters emerged, rushing toward Levi.

"Red Emperor Domain!"

They evaporated in the flames, moths drawn to the fire.

He didn't know how much time had passed.

Levi opened his eyes, faced with a little boy carrying a backpack and holding a stack of books in his arms.

The boy's appearance was familiar yet strange... because it was his childhood image from his past life.

"Directly evoking my deepest subconscious memories?"

The boy's appearance flickered like a slideshow, changing.

Levi watched "it" grow up, scenes of memories he'd almost forgotten emerged.

"Come home for dinner."

It seemed like a voice was calling.

Levi followed it, unsure of how long he walked, until he reached a closed room in the monastery.

Squeak~

He opened the door.

A warm scene unveiled before him.

His father's temples were gradually showing white hair as he spoke:

"Come eat, it's not good once it gets cold."

From the kitchen, his mother was still making soup, steam wafted, and the fragrance filled the air.

"What's wrong? Don't you love stir-fried garlic scapes with meat?"

His father looked up and curiously asked.

Chapter 2302: Level 8 Knight, Bloodline Secret Word!

Levi's face was calm, but he wasn't sure what he was thinking inside.

"Why don't you visit Grandma in a few days? Going home isn't easy for you."

In the kitchen, his mother's voice sounded.

Across the warm room, there was another door.

Levi hesitated for a moment and then pushed it open.

Creak~

Warm sunlight shone on his face.

The scene before him moved him somewhat.

Blue sky and white clouds, airplanes flying past, bustling traffic, neon city...

This is Earth!

At some point, two shadowy monster illusions stood behind Levi.

They extended their sharp ghost claws, revealing their ferocious true forms, pushing Levi forward.

They wanted to push Levi out of the room!

"It's all just a mirage..."

Resolutely, Levi closed the door, shutting the world in his memory outside the room.

His right hand clenched into a fist, the Doomsday Fist buzzed and trembled, seemingly unable to withstand his immense power, about to crack.

Every inch of his flesh was roaring with innumerable Crimson Emperor Divine Palaces.

Within the divine palace, countless majestic crimson imperial robe figures stood up from the throne and flew out.

They formed a mighty crimson torrent, transforming into 27 flashing Red Emperor Divine Patterns around Levi!

Each divine pattern represented the power of ten thousand pounds! .

These divine patterns drifted like tadpoles, swaying.

Buzz, buzz, buzz!

Levi punched forward.

The invisible concept of [Strength], at this moment, seemed to transform into a tangible image.

When this concept materialized, it appeared as a thousand different forms in a thousand people's eyes:

A cataclysmic punch, mountains crumbling and earth shattering, the wrath of giants, a whale turning over, stars exploding...

In the mundane world, any words describing strength could become their visible presence.

But for Levi, this concept manifested as a character only he recognized.

It was composed of billions of [Crimson Emperor Divine Palaces] forming the [Red Emperor Divine Patterns].

It was as if an invisible brush was sketching an ideographic character in the void.

Every stroke flew with dragon and phoenix vitality, majestic and powerful!

It was a traditional Chinese character.

"Dou!"

Dou!

...

Bang!

The [Dou] character exploded in front of the two monsters.

In their sight, a red giant dragon with wings spread out, covering heavenly stars, spewed endless dragon breath at them.

Rumble!

An unimaginable explosion shockwave obliterated the room.

Crack!

It was as if some mechanism's core had shattered.

Layers upon layers of infinite space-time started crumbling at that moment.

All rooms in the monastery vanished.

The dilapidated monastery began to collapse and disintegrate into nothingness.

The mirage finally departed.

...

Endless Sea.

Yellow Earth Continent.

What was once Mirror Lake had now turned into a Demon Lake.

Demonic aura lingered, with no signs of life.

Here, a level 7 Bottom-dwelling Fish Demon Lord lurked.

Two graceful figures, one red and one blue, wielding secret swords, used their innate spells to assault the level 7 demon.

They seemed at ease and were none other than Alexandra and Elsie.

After an extended period of seclusion, although they hadn't reached the seven-circle level, their strength had taken a further leap.

Their spiritual force was nearly at the maximum, though their Witch Marks weren't perfected.

Ultimately, based on their actual situation, they opted to brand 12 Witch Marks before advancing.

Although Master Fire Dragon suggested that 15 Witch Marks would aid in subsequent advancement to the ninth-circle level.

However, given their talent, reaching eighth-circle was already impressive; the ninth-circle was a luxury they couldn't expect.

This was a well-considered decision, with no regrets.

During the final spell branding phase, they chose to hone their spells through actual combat instead of secluded practice.

It was also an opportunity to accumulate some war merit in preparation for exchanging for the Bright Moon Artifact.

The two of them engaged in a back-and-forth battle with the level 7 demon.

They coordinated seamlessly, understanding each other instinctively.

They employed sixth-circle top-grade Soul Artifacts they had personally refined, extremely handy.

The Bottom-dwelling Fish Demon, realizing it was no match, dove into the depths of Mirror Lake.

This was worth over a million war merit, and naturally, the two women didn't want to let it go.

They urged their secret swords, forming two towering beams of light that pierced into the lake's bottom!

Rumble!

Ripples spread forth, demon blood dyeing the surface red.

"You seek your own doom!"

Accompanied by an even more overwhelming aura.

A thousand-meter-tall Black Water Demon, its entire body like a fluid of tar, emerged, exuding a mid-level 7 aura.

"Not good, an even stronger demonic creature!"

Seeing the situation turn dire, the two women decisively fled, without hesitation.

Whoosh!

A streak of crimson light flashed.

The entire Mirror Lake resounded with explosions, mountain-sized waves reaching the sky.

A massive crater emerged at the lake's bottom.

Gurgle, gurgle.

The high temperature quickly evaporated the lake water.

In that instant, it seemed countless demons' wails echoed forth.

Including those of the two level 7 demons just now.

The two women, not having fled far, looked back to find the lake boiling and parched...

From the giant pit emerged countless magma and underground fire, numerous Fish Demons perishing within.

A burly figure, clutching his forehead and wielding a greatsword, emerged from the pit.

It was Levi, his head dizzy.

He had just experienced an adventure in a mirage beyond ordinary imagination.

After escaping the monastery, tremendous power had shot him outward, sending him plummeting uncontrollably.

"Dusk Palace Master?"

Elsie's beautiful eyes flickered, exclaiming in surprise.

Alexandra's expression was peculiar.

"How did he fall from the sky? That's not supposed to happen..."

Never heard of a primordial soul wizard crashing.

Levi looked around, recognizing the familiar environment, joy appearing on his face.

"Hahaha, wonderful, didn't expect to still be on Nora, saves me a lot of trouble, divine assistance!"

Chapter 2303: Level 8 Knight, Bloodline Secret Word!

He looked at the demon corpses floating around him.

The impact of his fall was too great, directly crushing a large area of cannon fodder.

The bottom-dwelling fish demon and the water giant troll, the two surviving Level 7 demons, were also covered in scars.

They had witnessed with their own eyes the human swordsmen plummeting at an unimaginable speed.

Without any protective measures, they directly blasted a lake into the air.

Under such an energy impact, the body was completely unharmed.

What kind of monster is this? Even demons wouldn't dare to play like this.

The two demons were preparing to slink away, only to see Levi casually raise his hand.

"Battle!"

A character covering an area of a hundred miles emerged, like a mountain, descending to suppress!

Crunch.

Accompanied by the sound of bursting flesh, the two Level 7 demons were instantly turned into meat paste...

Although it wasn't his first time using such power, Levi still felt a bit incredulous.

"Preliminarily concretizing the abstract six-dimensional concept, is this the power of a Level 8 knight?"

The demons were taken care of.

Looking at what Mirror Lake had become, this hellish scene in the human realm.

Levi sighed, time passed never to return.

"Sir Levi, are you alright?"

Alexandra, with Elsie, flew over, hurriedly asking.

Levi laughed and said:

"I'm fine, just a little accident, don't laugh at me."

Alexandra laughed and said:

"Not at all... we also want to fall and crush a swarm of demons."

Levi said:

"You guys go on with your work, I'll head back first. Oh, Alexandra, I met your father recently; he's a good father."

"Hahaha, my father, a dragon like him, is indeed rare."

Alexandra felt a bit proud.

Elsie remembered her father she had never met and deeply agreed.

They watched the departing Dusk Palace Master.

"He's gotten stronger, likely stepped into the Level 8 realm."

"Yes, hard to imagine what his full strength would be."

The ground was left with a giant pit from Levi's bodily impact.

Cracks extended for hundreds of miles, with magma flowing inside.

Truly a human nuclear bomb.

...

Ancient Dragon Continent.

Outer Sea, where Levi was in seclusion, Elena stood there all alone.

"How long have I been away?"

Levi appeared silently, suddenly asking, startling Elena.

Elena, both surprised and delighted, confirmed it wasn't an illusion and hugged Levi.

"Three days... but it felt like thirty years; this mirage thing, many who entered didn't come out."

Levi breathed a sigh of relief.

Luckily, he didn't encounter a "like a dream" situation where everyone he knew grew old and died while he was gone.

This [mirage], indeed bizarre, how is it formed? .

Having experienced it personally, Levi felt its complexity even more.

The other two disasters among the three were not on the same level as the mirage.

Returning to the Ancient Dragon Continent.

Triss was relieved to hear Levi successfully returned.

"Luckily you came back, otherwise I would have gone to find the teacher."

Faced with the strange and eerie mirage, perhaps only a Legendary Wizard could forcefully bring someone back.

Levi felt warmth in his heart and said:

"Thank you for your concern, ma'am, I'm fine, the mirage was rather interesting."

He shared part of his experiences with the two women.

Of course, he didn't talk about the crossing.

Hearing that there might be a place like [Space-Time Cocoon] inside the mirage.

The two women marveled at Levi's great fortune.

Even a Grand Wizard might not be able to come out.

Considering Levi just advanced to Level 8 and needed to consolidate his realm.

They didn't disturb him much.

Hundred Flowers returned to the God-forsaken Continent to hunt demons and cultivate, while Triss continued her research.

A year later.

Nora Calendar year 631, Blood Battle year 417.

Levi had thoroughly solidified his realm, establishing a firm foundation.

Spell cultivation also advanced further.

In recent years, he focused on researching and developing the methods of a Level 8 knight.

Take the Crimson Emperor Dragon as an example.

Starting at Level 7, condense the Power Divine Palace, Fire True Rune, every move mobilizing the power of billions of divine palaces.

This was the initial stage of starting to condense abstract power into the body, ultimately at Level 7 Peak, condensing 27 Divine Runes.

Each Divine Rune, composed of countless divine palaces and true runes, is "Strength" itself!

After Level 8, he could further utilize the Divine Runes, materializing them.

Gaining an effect similar to "Saying and Following."

For him, the "words" were represented by Chinese characters, hence he called them "Secret Characters."

But with other knights, it might be anything expressed according to their mind, similar to the principles of wizard forms.

[Secret Character of Battle], is the materialization of the Crimson Emperor Dragon's power.

Its use is also extremely simple, at will.

It can be a movement or a syllable.

[Secret Character of Battle] is from the strength dimension, igniting the Crimson Emperor Dragon's power.

The Red Emperor Divine Pattern can form another similar method, just from the domain of flame.

Levi named it [Flame True Word].

Then Levi uttered a syllable.

"Flame!"

A crimson character radiating high temperature sprang forth.

This character shot up to the sky and exploded with a bang.

The terrifying fiery shockwave swept across the heavens and earth, like a solar eruption turning everything to scorched earth.

"Secret Character of Battle, Flame True Word, after Knight Level 8, one can initially master this powerful ability of Saying and Following, and even combine [Secret Characters] and [True Words] to form even more powerful [Secret Words]. To trigger the power of [Secret Words], special incantation syllables are needed, similar to spellcasting."

Chapter 2304: Level 8 Knight, Bloodline Secret Word!

This incantation is the key to unlocking the Red Emperor Dragon Vault.

In the depths of existence, it objectively lies there, already mastered by Levi.

His expression was calm, his eyes flashing with divine light, and he spoke with authority:

"Should you gaze upon me, you shall witness destruction!"

Buzz buzz!

From the blazing golden eyes, two characters flew out.

One is "Battle," the other is "Flame!"

The two characters intertwined, shaking the void within a hundred miles into shattered glass.

Like special characters symbolizing destruction from comics, "boom!" and "boom!" descended upon the world.

Blindingly magnificent!

"Destroy! Wreck!"

Destruction!

A cataclysmic explosion swept across, everything within two hundred miles was being obliterated!

The sea, islands, air, hidden little demons, passing Scorpion-tailed Turtle...

This was a dimensional attack, like the very concept of "destruction" itself descending.

Levi believed that even an early-stage Level 8 demon would probably be... instantly killed!

As the flames subsided and the void restored.

Levi exhaled and quickly adjusted his breathing.

The power of the Secret Word fusion was strong, but it also consumed considerable amounts of the Crimson Emperor Dragon power.

This was his trump card.

Once it hit, a mid-stage Level 8 demon would likely lose its life.

He opened the proficiency panel.

Levi —————

Crimson Emperor Dragon Breathing Technique: Twenty-stage (120,000/20,000,000), Special Effect: Red Emperor Dragon Body??? (Level 8 Early Stage); Bloodline Dharma Idol: Heaven Burning Crimson Emperor; Blood Source Armor: Crimson Emperor Dragon Armor; Exclusive Weapon: Crimson Dragon Slash (Level 8); Bloodline Divine Patterns: 27/81. Bloodline Secret Word: Destruction (Should you gaze upon me, you shall witness destruction).

...

Overall.

After advancing as a Level 8 Crimson Emperor Dragon.

The most significant change is the initial use of abstract conceptual powers, saying and following.

This is an absolute mastery of power.

At the same realm, Levi is the dominator in terms of power.

He doesn't need to use his hands; just a single word can blow away enemies weaker in power, even obliterate them.

This is "mastering concepts."

It's like playing tabletop games and rolling dice.

Whoever has the highest number is mighty.

This is very abstract. But as they say, one power overwhelms ten will, indeed.

Of course, combat itself has uncertainties.

The path of Physical Divine Palace is still distant, and Levi is only a third of the way there.

The remaining two-thirds are increasingly difficult.

The conceptual powers he mastered are still very shallow, at most, just scratching the surface.

Not enough to deliver full-dimensional attacks to realm-matched powerhouses.

The methods of the Secret Word are more of a supplement to his existing combat capabilities.

The "Red Emperor Dragon Body" after reaching Level 8.

The panel's description of the power remains "Maximum," which hasn't changed.

But the fire element affinity is now "Superior" from "Excellent."

Levi estimates that the panel's definition of superiority counts as a "Child of the Fire Element."

However, element affinity is just icing on the cake for him, helping his cultivation speed up.

For Levi at this stage, spiritual force isn't an issue.

The imprinting of the Witch Mark is relatively difficult; it requires not only talent but also acquired comprehension and accumulation.

Other upgrades such as "Sun's Wind" spell-like abilities need no further mention.

With wizard methods, Levi is not short of offensive spell-like abilities, and they are mostly unused.

Rather, the auxiliary spell-like abilities from the Sky King Dragon and the Crimson Dragon are used more.

The most important "Red Emperor Domain," its range diameter has reached 100 kilometers.

The boost to power and various attributes has also improved significantly.

Levi closed the panel.

"Now, I should have the strength to effortlessly kill mid-stage Level 8 demons... and can even fight late-stage Level 8 demons."

This is the confidence of the Crimson Emperor Dragon.

"However, to be prudent, let's first elevate the Brilliant Golden Dragon to Level 8 as well."

The Brilliant Golden Dragon has long reached its maximum, and the materials are ready.

With the experience of the Crimson Emperor Dragon, the Brilliant Golden Dragon's advancement to Level 8 should be even smoother.

Again it's four Blood Tribulation Masters, one by one, then finally facing the Golden Dragon's phantom.

The darkest tribulation Levi feared was a gigantic fire meteor descending from the sky with a diameter of several tens of kilometers.

It was successfully shattered by Levi's Level 8 "Serious Punch," and passed through successfully.

As long as it's not the mirage such ghostly things, it wouldn't be too problematic.

And, the fire meteor also delivered Levi a ready-made "Flame Sulfur Mine."

This is a level-five elemental metal.

He hurriedly arranged subordinates to find and retrieve the broken meteor fragments from the seabed.

Although the ore's grade isn't high, the quantity is abundant, enough to forge hundreds of fifth-circle wizard tools or mechanical creations.

It absolutely must not be wasted.

Once the realm of the Brilliant Golden Dragon was consolidated, Levi eagerly headed to the Forsaken Land of the God.

Intending to find a lucky Level 8 demon, to test his abilities, and earn some war merits.

...

"Ms., is there any task that needs my execution recently?"

Wearing single-frame glasses and searching around, he couldn't find a suitable target.

Either too strong or too weak.

Not possible to test his strength.

To save time, Levi came to the barracks.

Since the last time after alchemy, he no longer behaved cowardly in front of Ms. Lucy.

Ms. Lucy wouldn't eat people anyway.

Moreover, he is also a Level 8 powerhouse now, in the same major realm as Ms. Lucy.

Once the strength comes up, the barrier and filter disappear.

"Congratulations, Extreme KnightLevi, you successfully reached Level 8."

"Indeed, I wanted to find a suitable enemy to practice, but this group of demons seems to be avoiding me..."

Chapter 2305: Level 8 Knight, Bloodline Secret Word!

"If you can't win, of course you have to hide... But be careful, when cornered, the demon might decide to send the ninth-level sacrificial soldier to kill you when seeing you advance to level eight."

"Makes sense. I won't go demon-hunting again until I become an eighth-circle wizard."

Levi secretly sneaked over with a coordinate of a suspected stronghold with a level eight demon from Lucy.

...

Demon Cave.

A demon, thousands of meters tall and resembling a mountain of flesh, lay on the ground snoring.

This was a level eight early stage Mountain Demon.

Suddenly, it seemed as if the sky and earth were collapsing outside, creating a huge commotion.

Screams of demons could be heard everywhere.

"Great Commander! It's bad! The Dusk Palace Master is here!"

"What?"

The Mountain Demon sprang up reflexively.

Its figure flashed and appeared outside.

A figure could be seen sitting cross-legged in the void.

The Demon Camp was already in chaos.

The Shadow Wind was blowing, and the Black Shadow Army was slaughtering.

"Die!"

The Mountain Demon moved nimbly, grabbing two thousand-foot peaks and hurling them as fiery meteors towards Levi.

Given Levi's movement techniques, he naturally had ways to dodge.

But he intended to test his combat ability against demons, so he didn't dodge.

A mysterious, complex yet elegantly simple Secret Word was uttered:

"Mountains and seas may move, but I will not!"

Within him, countless Golden Divine Palaces buzzed and trembled, with billions of golden imperial robe phantoms soaring up.

Finally, they converged into 22 golden Divine Runes, radiating golden light, like the Great Sun!

The Palace of Control transformed into the tangible Secret Word of Steel.

The Water True Talisman and Earth True Talisman transformed into tangible Water True Word and Earth True Word.

When the "one Secret, two Words" were combined.

Like a chain reaction, a myriad of splendid golden auras descended, enveloping Levi like a canopy.

The surface of the canopy bore two giant characters, each about a mile in diameter.

For the wizards, these two characters were mysterious and unfathomable.

For Levi, these two characters were:

"King! Kong!"

King Kong!

Boom!

The meteor-like peaks thrown by the Mountain Demon, famous for its strength among demons, could shake an eighth-circle wizard's protective force field.

Such an attack would be something that most eighth-circle ordinary wizards and even eighth-circle senior wizards would not choose to withstand.

But Levi didn't move an inch.

This was confidence in the Golden Dragon's defense.

Mountains may move, and the heavens and earth may collapse, but if I take a step back, I lose! .

The fiery meteors collided with the "King Kong" characters, exploding into a shower of sparks, spreading over a hundred miles.

The shockwave ripped a massive hole in the sky.

The Mountain Demon's expression changed.

"How... how is this possible?"

It refused to believe, using its spell-like abilities.

Behind it appeared one, ten, a hundred mountain peak phantoms!

"Hundred Mountains Shockwave!"

Boom rumble!

The mountain peak phantoms relentlessly exploded around Levi, with a terrifying momentum that left people speechless.

Levi didn't even lift a finger, allowing it to release its full strength freely.

"Is there more?"

Seeing the Mountain Demon seemed to be panting, he asked.

The Mountain Demon was stunned.

"Damn it!"

You must be the demon!

It clenched its fists, causing all its fat to start burning.

Devil's muscles, gnarled like dragons, emerged, with its aura vaguely rising.

"Mountain collapse and earth destruction!"

The Mountain Demon's figure shot forward, with fist winds cutting through with overwhelming force, tearing open a path in the void!

Boom!

With all its life's power, with its innate divine strength, it punched with the most explosive force, burning its demonic aura and life.

"Die, you reckless fool!"

The Mountain Demon's fist struck the "King Kong Secret Word," finally shaking the golden light.

Cracks began to spread on the surface of the golden light, indicating it was nearing its limit.

Levi revealed his form.

"Not bad!"

Before the "King Kong Secret Word" completely shattered, the man spoke again.

*"Gaze upon me and see destruction!"*

Boom rumble!

The Golden Divine Palace began to dim, replaced by the Crimson Emperor Divine Palace.

Crimson Emperor Divine Patterns emerged out of nowhere, and God's brushstroke depicted two characters.

"Destruction!"

From the Mountain Demon's perspective, it was a gigantic dragon claw crashing down from the skies.

This dragon claw spanned hundreds of miles, its surface covered in magma and volcanoes!

This was an overwhelming force of despair for it!

Like Buddha suppressing Sun Wukong!

Boom!

Boom!

When the first "Destruction" character landed on the Mountain Demon, it began to shatter.

When the second "Destruction" character descended, it spontaneously combusted, turning to charcoal, then into ashes...

Except for one level eight core of the Abyss, everything else was turned to nothing.

"Damn! What a huge loss, this level eight demon's whole body is a treasure."

Levi picked up the core of the Abyss, feeling a pang of pain.

"In the future, when dealing with enemies I can completely handle, I'll just use ordinary attacks. Using big moves like this is too wasteful..."

Anyway, the goal of actual combat against a demon had been achieved.

Looking at it now, he could basically crush a level eight early stage demon.

An level eight mid stage demon probably could also be slain, though with some effort.

A level eight late stage... It would be safer to carry out a test in the Nightmare World after becoming an eighth-circle wizard. Better to be cautious.

If this continues, Levi fears he might get inflated enough to even try against a ninth-level demon.

This feeling of saying and following, annihilating a level eight demon without lifting a finger, was exhilarating.

After the 50 million war merits were credited, Levi left.

...

Emperor's Palace.

Levi opened the proficiency panel.

Levi-----

Golden Brilliance Dragon Breath Technique: Twenty-stage (40,000/20,000,000), Special Effect: Golden Brilliance Dragon Body Mythical (Level 8 Early Stage). Bloodline Dharma Idol: Golden Dragon Frenzy. Blood Source Armor: Brilliant Golden Dragon Armor. Exclusive Weapon: Golden Dragon Heavenly Shield (Level 8). Bloodline Divine Patterns: 22/66. Bloodline Secret Word: King Kong (Mountains and seas may move, but I will not)

Chapter 2306: Level 8 Knight, Bloodline Secret Word!

After the advancement of Golden Brilliance Dragon, Levi's defensive dimension also reached level 8 standard.

Attack and defense are the two major attributes that most directly affect combat power.

Combined, Levi's strength has qualitatively transformed.

An ordinary early stage level 8 demon is not even a match before him.

Using the "Vajra Secret Word" for defense, and the "Secret Word of Destruction" for attack!

The enemy can be annihilated with a flick of the finger!

Other spell-like abilities, including "Golden Gravity," have all been enhanced.

The diameter of the "Primordial Magnetic Field" reached 80 kilometers.

Generally speaking.

The elemental power range maneuvered by an early stage eight-ring wizard has a diameter of 50 kilometers, equivalent to a radius of 100 miles.

If calculated as an area, the gap is even larger.

Of course, creatures like the Crimson Emperor Dragon with a diameter of 100 kilometers are truly unparalleled.

"As I advance to level 8, the power of the Mythical Breathing Method gradually becomes more prominent, and the gap with primordial soul wizards at the same realm continues to widen..."

Other level 8 members take half a day to fight because the gap between each other is very small, and those who reach here are all geniuses.

However, Levi can face the same realm and end it in a flash with mere words, illustrating the disparity.

When he initially advanced to the fifth-circle, he couldn't eliminate enemies so easily.

Whether it is the path of the wizard or the path of the knight.

As he continuously snowballed early on, accumulating thick and unleashing power thinly, overtaking others on turns.

He is getting closer to an ultimate lifeform that others cannot comprehend.

...

Time flies, and six years pass by.

In the year 640 of Nora, the 426th year of the Blood Battle.

Levi remained in the Emperor's Palace to quietly study spells and occasionally visited Lady Rowling next door.

Wishing to further deepen relations with this Legendary Wizard to ensure the safety of the Ancient Dragon Continent.

A good neighbor at level 10 is not something everyone can have.

On the Demon Slaying List, gods have been emerging in recent years, with a new generation steadily replacing the old.

Especially during the four hundred years of the Blood Battle, this group of wizards was born.

Born in an era of war, they were all honed through blood and fire.

Their combat skills, research abilities, and overall qualities are particularly formidable.

After advancing to level 8, Levi organized the exotic treasures he owned.

The "Doomsday Fist," which had accompanied him for hundreds of years and vanquished countless powerful foes, was given to Gandaph.

Though strong, the Doomsday Fist is ultimately just a level 7 exotic treasure.

Even the Profound Meaning of "Destroying Heaven and Earth" is not as powerful as Levi's "Secret Word of Destruction."

Levi's full-force punch has become a bit much for even this treasure to withstand.

Gandaph, now with senior seventh-circuit cultivation, needs this treasure.

Coupled with his "Radiant King Martial Way," it is indeed suitable.

Previously obtained the "Golden Scepter" from the golden prince, but for special reasons, couldn't use it publicly.

He plans to grant it to the saints inside the ancient tower next time as a trump card against the black beasts.

It's worth mentioning that the Shadow Army is the same.

Levi always uses only shadows of demons, black beasts, and other monsters.

The wizard shadows themselves have a small proportion, and most have been eliminated over time.

So they are basically unused; otherwise, it would be troublesome if discovered.

After advancing to the primordial soul, Levi reflected and found that the number of wizards he killed was few.

As his realm elevated and the Blood Battle broke out, the main contradictions at the current stage changed.

Levi himself didn't want to pursue a path of sorcery.

The remaining "Dragon Scale Shield," an eighth-level exotic treasure, is used by Danis.

This dragon descendant giant was later sent to guard the Black Dragon Territory in the Nightmare World.

This demon treasure can only unleash its maximum power in its hands.

Levi himself possesses the level 8 divine weapon "Golden Dragon Heavenly Shield," more suited to him.

The "Golden Wind Jade Armor" and "Chaotic Sky Demon Mirror," these two level 8 exotic treasures, are now his main exotic treasures for personal use.

"Wind Destruction Realm" currently has no use, but it is quite important, so he keeps it himself.

And those seventh-circle top-grade, top-quality wizard tools that he often uses are kept for when they advance to the next level.

With his current level of extravagance, he can still support them.

But later on, when advancing to the ninth-circle, he may need to discard some and keep the most useful ones.

Legendary materials are a huge hurdle, difficult to obtain like ascending to heaven.

Unless you're very lucky, or you go to hunt Legendary Creatures and demons.

There are no other ways.

Not only a thorough cleaning of his exotic treasures.

Levi also advises the Three Avatars and high-level wizards within the organization.

They regularly clear out their unused wizard tools, treasures, materials, and such.

These items are encouraged to be donated to the organization's treasury.

Of course, these donation records will be visible on those treasures.

Every young successor, or future wizard, can see which predecessor donated the item.

The organization has also established a donation list.

Individuals will be listed according to the donor's wishes.

Those at the front of the donation list can gain the favor of low-level wizards.

On the other hand, they can also get the attention of the Dusk Palace Master.

The Dusk Palace Master frequently summons them to the Emperor's Palace for cordial "fireside chats."

Allegedly, everyone who experienced these chats gained immensely.

Some received Truth Oddities.

Some received the Dusk Palace Master's personal guidance in combat techniques, breathing methods, and magical knowledge.

This motivates all members and boosts collective honor.

Levi aims to build an organization with warmth that can be passed down through eternity.

Allowing more people, not just him, to leave a lasting legacy, creating a superorganization.

Even if these people fall, they will live on in everyone's memories, shining like stars.

Following this action, the organization's treasury became much more bountiful.

Evidence shows these folks do have some stockpiles.

But Levi understands well that everyone has selfishness, including himself.

So he merely suggests and encourages without enforcing.

Contributions within one's capacity to the organization are sufficient.

Not being on the list means no punishment.

Regardless, Levi will always top the contribution list...

Exotic treasures like Gandaph's "Flash Greatsword" and Lord Victor's "Golden Apple Armor," which were phased out.

Ended their old missions this way and found new life.

With ample resources, a vibrant atmosphere, and excellent talent.

During the four hundred years of the Blood Battle, the Ancient Dragon Continent grew at rocket speed, forming a virtuous cycle.

Fire Dragon Knight, Shadow Queen, Demon Tears Divine Sword...

Knight, wizard, Energy Sect...

Every great path had new-generation supernovas leading the scene for centuries.

Traditionally, a top organization evaluation system has subtly formed among the wizard community in the Wizard World.

Although the official has not acknowledged this, it wields high prestige in every wizard's mind.

People suddenly found that from now on, another could join the ranks of top organizations.

Chapter 2307: Above the Dome, the Star Gate Project, and the Thirteen Legendary Cities!

Top-tier organization.

It is the highest praise for a transcendent organization in the Wizard World.

The Central Realm and Wizard Council are not included; they remain aloof.

Basically, various School of Frost sub-dimensional portals manage local affairs.

All are composed of top-tier organizations forming the enforcer team, then governed by the Wizard Council.

The "Six Star Towers" of the Endless Sea, the "Nine Cities Alliance" of the Realm of Crimson...

These organizations constitute the highest local authority beneath the central power.

And now, Ancient Dragon Continent, this human realm silently nurturing organization.

In many people's opinion, it has the qualifications to challenge top wizard organizations.

Yet, Ancient Dragon Continent is somewhat peculiar.

It is not limited to wizard organizations; it is a place of the grand integration of different transcendent systems and alien races.

Dusk Holy Temple, Tower of Dawn, Ancient Dragon Empire, Giant Beast Paradise, with clear division of labor and mutual cooperation.

But it is undeniable that the Dusk Palace Master has absolute leadership over all organizations.

It's not wrong to call it a single organization.

Thus, externally it's referred to as "Ancient Dragon Continent".

And within this giant organization, the Dusk Palace Master has absolute level 8 strength.

Even before advancing to level 8, he had already slain numerous level 8 demons.

In recent years, there's been news, uncertain in truth.

The Dusk Palace Master has officially stepped into the level 8 realm.

To what extent must his power be strong now?

It might rival those leading the top wizard organizations.

In the realm of level 8 strength.

Ancient Dragon Continent also has two level 8 guardians, totaling three level 8, not inferior to top-tier organizations.

In the realm of level 7 strength.

Blood Knight, Gray-white Mechanic, Flower Witch, these core leaders are all level 7 experts.

Blood Knight previously was silent, not as famous as the Supernova Fire Dragon Knight.

After reaching level 7, he made a name for himself in a demon-slaying battle.

Recently, a level 7 mid-stage demon and its led demon army went to harass a Wizard Council's New World under construction, committing arson, robbery, and harming alien races.

Then a Blood Knight passing by intervened.

Single-handedly, he held off this army for half a day.

Then reinforcements arrived.

All demons, entirely exterminated!

Such a heroic deed, praised heavily by the Wizard Council, featured in "Sorren Daily" . .

Blood Knight also earned considerable war merit.

Thus, Blood Knight's reputation entirely ignited.

Moreover, some wizards, based on mortal historical records.

Discovered Blood Knight long ago, in the Seven Gods Church era, was renowned as a Quasi-Knight Ranger.

He punished evil, acted heroically, known among mortal groups too.

Just in the old era, most wizards in sub-dimensional portals considered themselves superior.

Always disinterested in knight circles, uninformed.

Even if hearing about so-called "legendary knight", dismissed as mundane title-playing.

Unaware of the arduous journey it required.

What they didn't know was, Blood Knight is also a Secondary Blood Clan member.

A fierce figure resisting bloodthirsty erosion with mortal willpower.

If they knew this, they'd be even more shocked.

After all, many official wizards couldn't achieve this.

So, these years, Blood Knight's name began spreading in wizard circles mouth-to-mouth.

He might not rank highly on the Demon Slaying List, yet he shines brightly.

If otherwise, such a grand figure like the Dusk Palace Master wouldn't appoint him Vice Hall Master.

Flower Witch, needless to elaborate, always very famous.

Before the Dusk Palace Master became famous, others knew Levi through her.

Of course, as Levi rose, this reversed.

Elena ranked in the teens on the Level 8 Demon Slaughter List.

Though her cultivation hasn't reached Seven Rings Perfection, she has records of slaying level 7 peak demons multiple times.

And numerous escapes from level 8 demons' hands, her future advancement unimaginable.

Like Blood Knight, she was once famously "Flower Knight" among commoners.

Recently, promoted to the Late Stage Realm of level 6.

More remarkably, she seems also a sixth-level Qi Sect Practitioner, Six-Ring Perfect Alchemist.

A person juggling so many paths and professions, all above level 6, truly a divine figure.

Gray-white Mechanic's contribution to Ancient Dragon Continent and the Wizard World, unparalleled.

He mostly remains behind the scenes, hence lacks that "supernova" empty fame.

Yet countless top wizard organizations desire such talent.

Supernovas mostly enhance their own strength; he possesses transformative power influencing organizations' metamorphosis.

His self-developed "Sky Dome Defense System" and "Demon Extermination Divine Shuttle System" display firepower envied by many.

This is mechanical power, a force capable of triggering large-scale reform in the Wizard World.

In the realm of level 6 strength, Ancient Dragon Continent outmatches top-tier organizations.

Even surpassing declining groups like the Witch's Family.

Other low-level, middle-level strengths, also not lacking.

If talking about the sole shortcoming, it might be Ancient Dragon Continent still hasn't produced strong figures above Grand Wizard yet.

But seeing the Dusk Palace Master's momentum, barring untimely demise, he can certainly become Grand Wizard, likely legendary too.

With such radiant achievements, Ancient Dragon Continent has become a top-tier organization in the hearts of grassroots wizards.

The emerging power, inevitably impacts traditional force structures somewhat.

However, Ancient Dragon Continent resides alone in the human realm, quietly developing, without power contention.

Core members, seldom hold positions in Wizard Council.

Chapter 2308: Above the Dome, the Star Gate Project, and the Thirteen Legendary Cities!

Nor act as some world police, interfering with other organizations.

Focus on quietly cultivating, if people don't provoke me, I won't provoke them.

Members seldom have arrogance, although they take pride in being part of the Dusk Palace Master, rarely use their status to bully others.

Because once such actions are discovered by the organization, they are subject to severe punishment.

Even knowing the Ancient Dragon Continent is constantly expanding, it abides by rules and regulations.

Even those who can't stand it have no choice but to comply.

Moreover, offending the Dusk Palace Master, who is like the sun at midday, is quite unwise.

With the return of the sub-dimensional portal, especially the Endless Sea.

The area of the human realm's outer sea is expanding at a speed visible to the naked eye.

On this day, not far next to the Ancient Dragon Continent, about twenty thousand miles away.
Space folded, layer by layer.

Like a crumpled paper smoothed and spread out by Nora with supreme power.

Boom!

The waves parted, and an island appeared not more than twenty thousand miles from the Ancient Dragon Continent coastline.

The island was not large, yet at its very center stood a towering giant tree, lush, its canopy covering the sky.

Triss flew over, her expression both surprised and elated, looking ahead.

"This... how has the Witch's Family's island appeared here?"

According to the wizards' calculations, the return of the sub-dimensional portal follows a general pattern.

But no one dares to set in stone how exactly the distribution occurs.

Triss didn't expect the Witch's Family's island to appear next to the Ancient Dragon Continent.

Over at the Witch's Family.

The Cat Witch, Snake Witch, Leopard Witch... and other enchanting primordial soul witches were somewhat stunned.

"Triss?"

The Old Witch's form emerged from the Magic Tree.

"Long time no see, Triss."

Triss said:

"Hahaha, this is rather convenient; it'll be much easier for me to return to the organization from now on."

A seemingly boundless white giant dragon also opened its eyes, revealing a surprised look.

"Did we land next to the Ancient Dragon Continent?"

A youthful and bright female voice rang out, belonging to Immortal Banyan Dragonlzhuo Sela.

The Old Witch gave a wry smile.

"I think we did; I'll go greet our future neighbors first. You all check our subordinate islands and secret realms to see if any have landed far from headquarters."

Triss laughed:

"Lady Witch, let's go; I'll take you to meet the Dusk Palace Master."

As she watched everyone walk away, Immortal Banyan Dragon Lady was secretly delighted.

"Great!"

Only three hundred years remain before the agreement with the Dusk Palace Master.

It anticipates the arrival of this day constantly.

Seeing the Witch's Family decline bit by bit.

Its heart races with anticipation.

Yet it is a dragon bound by the spirit of contract.

Other dragons might have already switched alliances.

...

Emperor's Palace.

"I never thought the Witch's Family would actually end up beside the Ancient Dragon Continent, welcome, welcome..."

Levi also smiled helplessly.

The Old Witch said:

"Yes, so I'm giving you advance notice. Judging by your appearance, you must have been, as the rumors say, promoted to level 8, right? Congratulations, congratulations."

Internally, Triss was thrilled, but outwardly, she maintained a calm smile.

"From now on, our two organizations can support each other. I'll volunteer to be the go-between here."

The conversation between the three was extremely pleasant.

Looking at the slightly aged silhouette of the Old Witch, Triss felt a sense of poignancy.

"One vibrant and ascending organization, and one continually declining, with only the remnants of sunset glory... time truly can change everything."

She had an intuition that this return of the sub-dimensional portal.

Would transform the structure of the major organizations within the Wizard World entirely.

Some organizations reliant on the legacy of their predecessors, yet lacking self-progress, might be eliminated.

During the Blood Battle, unknown how many will rise like the Ancient Dragon Continent's forces, rapidly growing amid the flames of war.

The Wizard Council opened a large-scale channel for exchanging resources for war merit, giving more people a chance.

An unspoken revolution and major restructuring are underway!

Return from the sub-dimensional portal is still ongoing.

Soon, a complete Great Nora will present itself to the world.

All participants on the Nora stage will debut together.

Even including, the Central Realm!

The celestial-human barrier is being broken.

...

The river of time continues to flow forward.

Nora, year 650. .

Over the past ten years, the sub-dimensional portals of various schools have successively returned.

Finally, with the heavy return of the Midland Continent, Nora's area expanded yet again.

Adjacent to the former Molten Kingdom is the **Burning Domain**, where the Burning School of Thought's dojo lies.

Managed by major powers from the "Nine Cities, Ten Caves, and Twenty-Four Mountain" of the Burning School.

Bordering the former Evernight Kingdom is the Cold Ice Domain.

Adjoining the former Tuva Empire is the Wind and Thunder Domain, where the territories of the Storm and Lightning Schools meet.

The vast Midland Continent borders the former Gaia Kingdom, known as the Land Domain.

And the Bronze Domain of the Metal School took shape at last.

The continents of the sub-dimensional portal, like a jigsaw puzzle, perfectly piecing together with the original Mortal Continent.

An extremely vast supercontinent was born, one that not just mortals, even ordinary transcendent individuals may never traverse all areas within their lifetime!

Its name is: Nora Continent!

Meanwhile, as the Endless Sea continues to return, the border of the outer sea is continually expanding.

Nora's crystal wall, akin to an inflating balloon, rapidly expands.

This directly leads to the engulfing of some nearby yet-unaffected, previously lucky small and medium sized planes, transforming them into a part of Nora.

Chapter 2309: Above the Dome, the Star Gate Project, and the Thirteen Legendary Cities!

It also includes parts of the former Federation Plane.

The outer sea region around the Nora Continent is endless.

Low-level wizards find it difficult to traverse this vast sea in their lifetime.

The sea is dotted with countless islands and hundreds of outer sea continents.

On these islands and continents, reside races, civilizations, and resources beyond the imagination of mortals.

Various fresh and interesting or strange and bizarre stories take place.

This sea is divided into the Four Seas of the east, west, south, and north!

The Ancient Dragon Continent is located in the Eastern Sea.

Of course, for the primordial soul wizards at the top of the pyramid, as vast as Nora is, it is not impossible to traverse in a lifetime like it is for ordinary people or low-level wizards.

It's just that the grand convergence of planes is only the prelude.

Nora is still within the realm of large planes.

In terms of size, it is far behind the nine layers of hell, let alone the Shadow World.

As for wanting to compare it with the Four Great Giants, the chasm between them far exceeds the chasm between transcendent levels five and six.

In a vast place like the Nightmare World, even a Nightmare Lord has never traversed it.

Now, looking at Great Nora, only the Central Realm has yet to return.

Mages from various returned schools look at the brand new world with curiosity, excitement, and thrill.

This familiar yet strange feeling has rekindled the long-lost sense of adventure in them.

At the same time, the return of the sub-dimensional portal also means that the blood battle battlefields in various schools have returned as well.

The most perilous Endless Sea Battlefield is being fiercely fought in the Land of the Four Seas.

Fourteen years have passed in a flash.

Year 664 of the Nora Calendar.

Year 450 of the Blood Battle.

Ancient Dragon Continent.

Main gathering place for mortals, Maiya City.

The naming of most cities in the Ancient Dragon Continent draws from legends and Mythical Creatures.

Shining Tavern headquarters.

An elderly white-haired knight orders the Blood Wine special of the day.

His ancestors were from a great noble family during the era of the Seven Kingdoms, one of the first families to follow the Dusk Palace Master.

After settling in the Ancient Dragon Continent, their descendants continued to thrive.

Eventually giving birth to geniuses like the Snapping Turtle Knight, now considered a "noble family."

After all, the elderly Snapping Turtle Knight is still alive, maintaining considerable prestige.

Even though he rarely involves himself in family affairs, as a descendant, he certainly shares in the glory.

Many years ago, he retired due to injury and found it difficult to advance in cultivation.

So he retired to his hometown, became a combat skills instructor, opened a martial arts school, and taught mortals how to maintain their health.

The world is shrouded by the shadow of the Blood Battle.

The old knight read the newspaper recently.

Over the years of the Blood Battle, according to incomplete statistics, more than six hundred wizard organizations large and small have disbanded.

This includes some high-level wizard organizations.

The cruelty of war is evident.

In comparison, life on the Ancient Dragon Continent can be considered incredibly blessed.

Rumble!

There seemed to be a muffled thunder in the sky.

"Look, what's that up in the sky?"

"Oh my, is that a floating continent in the sky?"

The old knight ran out and looked up at the sky.

He saw a continent floating high above the sea, thousands of miles away from the Ancient Dragon Continent.

It was bathed in a soft glow.

Around the continent were thirteen different colossal cities like stars.

"Is that...Sky City?"

"It seems like it. From the records, Sky City appeared in the Five Sector Expedition a thousand years ago."

"Isn't this the symbol of Legendary Wizards?"

"Indeed, have Legendary Wizards also descended to the human realm?"

"How astonishing!"

At this very moment.

Countless eyes in Nora are fixated on the floating continent and Sky City.

In the Ancient Banyan Fairyland, Levi, while taking a break from seclusion to have tea, also saw messages from Hundred Flowers.

[Come out and see~]

Levi wondered what it was that got everyone so excited.

He came outside and looked at Sky City, his eyes flickering.

"The return of the Central Realm, and it seems not too far from the Ancient Dragon Continent, that's certainly good news... hmm, at least in the early stages of the Blood Battle, later stages might be uncertain."

The thirteen Sky Cities represent thirteen Legendary Wizards.

They may not necessarily be inside, but they are symbolic.

The Black Abyss Walker's Sky City is a pitch-black giant city exuding a solemn aura.

The Frost Witch's city, constructed from ice sculptures, resembles a world of ice and snow.

Lady Rowling's city is dreamy and magnificent, like Disney Castle.

"From now on, the Ancient Dragon Continent will reside in the shadow of the Imperial City. Developing out at sea back then was indeed the right choice."

On the floating continent, there is also a steeple that has pierced through the Nora Crystal Wall, extending into the Land of Darkness.

That's the Tower of Heaven, built by Sauron in the past, the location of the Supreme Council.

It's the core of the Wizard Council, where Legendary Wizards decide major matters of Nora.

At the tower's top is the Eye of Sauron, a Legendary Wizard Tool that can observe the star patterns of the Sauron Plane.

"Now I can retreat with more peace of mind."

Back in the Ancient Banyan Fairyland.

Levi opened the proficiency panel.

After achieving level 8 in the Crimson Emperor Dragon and Brilliant Golden Dragon breathing techniques, his other techniques were still some distance from level 8.

Most of his energy was focused on studying the primordial soul spells.

Now, the vast majority of these spells have reached Perfection.

Only "Unreachable" remains at level 16, but it's close to Perfection as well.

Levi is now 1080 years old. He estimated that by the time he reached 1100, he would be close to reaching the eighth circle.

Regarding the Rune Language, his Strength Rune recently advanced to level 17.

The strength boost leaped from 200% to 250%, an increase of 50%.

Chapter 2310: Above the Dome, the Star Gate Project, and the Thirteen Legendary Cities!

It seems that starting from level 17, with each level up, the enhancement is greater.

Of course, the difficulty also increases exponentially.

The [Fool Rune] has been upgraded to level 8, increasing the powers of deception and foreknowledge by 70%.

The [Magic Rune] is at level 7, increasing casting speed by 60%.

There's also a [Moon Rune] that has been raised to level 11, officially doubling lifespan.

Levi's lifespan has doubled...

Not only that, he also gave birth to a new star soul.

With this thought, he summoned the star soul.

A red-eyed white rabbit, as huge as a mountain, leaped out and landed on the ground, nibbling on grass by itself.

It also appeared to have no aggressiveness.

[Star SoulJade Rabbit]

[Star Name: Hera Stia]

[Star Nature: Gentle and Kind]

[Star Language: Longevity]

[Level: 7]

[Ability: Spiritual Eye, White Jade Union]

[Spiritual Eye: Consuming spiritual force, you can see the lifespan, under ideal conditions without illnesses or disasters, of life forms whose levels do not exceed yours.]

[White Jade Union: Possessing the Aries Star Soul at the same time allows a lover to receive half of Jade Rabbit's percentage lifespan increase; this ability can only be used once and is currently active, with the current benefactor being Flower Witch Elena, with an increase effect of 50%]

...

"Two abilities?"

Levi was a bit surprised.

Moreover, both abilities were somewhat extraordinary.

The [Spiritual Eye] could actually see other people's lifespan.

Levi was unsure if a Legendary Wizard could see it, but certainly, a Grand Wizard could not see another's lifespan.

This seemed like the authority of the Underworld. Could this rabbit belong to the Underworld?

Of course, this lifespan referred to the ideal situation without calamities.

The [White Jade Union] was even more heaven-defying.

It could share his lifespan increase with Elena.

Currently at 100%, the Hundred Flowers could receive an additional 50% on top of theirs! .

This should allow the Hundred Flowers' lifespan to reach around five thousand.

An average eighth-circle wizard has a lifespan of only four thousand years.

"The Hundred Flowers becoming a Grand Wizard should not be a problem. At the very least, she no longer needs to worry about lifespan issues, just the success rate of tribulation. As long as there is enough time, it won't be a problem for me."

Levi's heart knot was instantly untied.

"So that's how the [Lovers] aspect of the Lovers Rune manifests."

Levi was in a great mood and casually picked up an ordinary ant.

[Remaining lifespan: 13 days]

"Viewing such a life form consumes almost no spiritual force."

Just in time, Dragon Turtle Ratti came to report work, and Levi activated the Spiritual Eye.

It was evident that the spiritual force consumption increased significantly, yet it was still trivial for him.

[Remaining lifespan: 12,632 years.]

"Damn, Ratti has already lived over three thousand years, meaning its lifespan is up to sixteen thousand years... No wonder its growth is so slow, it's too tough! Even the Legendary Wizards can't compare to its tenacity."

Levi knew that the Single-Horned Dragon Turtle lived long, but he hadn't expected it to be this extraordinary.

If he didn't have the Lovers Rune and high confidence in advancing to Legend himself, he wondered if he'd be outlasted by this old turtle...

But judging from its lifespan, although Ratti grows slowly, it should have hope to advance to level 8 in the future.

After finishing Ratti's report, Levi asked:

"Ratti, when will you advance to level 6?"

Ratti wiped away sweat.

"Soon, Master."

Levi, feeling enthusiastic, started inspecting everyone's remaining lifespan in the Ancient Banyan Fairyland.

"Black Lotus Beast, 6,500 years remaining; this is normal, with a total lifespan of less than ten thousand."

"Ash Dragon, 46,666 years remaining... Enough to outlast four generations of Legendary Wizards; truly a Legend-level Dragon Race."

"Lopez, 17,233 years remaining; total lifespan is less than half of the Ash Dragon's. The Ape Clan grows fast but isn't as long-lived as the Dragon Clan."

"Red King, 7,011 years remaining. From this, it indeed seems to be, as Lopez said, the Calamity Fire Demon Ape, matching the birth time given by the White King — not too much and not too little, just perfectly ten thousand years."

In half a day.

Levi checked some things he was concerned about until his spiritual force felt a bit fatigued.

Under the ancient banyan tree.

Mana, Black Phoenix, and Martha were playing cards.

Mana observed Levi staring at the banyan tree, behaving strangely.

"What's wrong? What are you looking at?"

She drew a card and asked.

Levi sighed.

"Nothing..."

Mana's remaining lifespan frightened him...

If measured by Legendary Wizard units, she could survive longer than all the Legendary Wizards since the congress's inception.

"Is this the divine tree? No wonder Mana doesn't grow up; with such a long lifespan, she really doesn't need to hurry."

"If I can't attain Eternal Life, one day this vast Ancient Banyan Fairyland will be left with just Mana alone... I must find a way to live longer."

During the rest period while Hundred Flowers returned to the Ancient Dragon Continent to reunite with him, Levi measured her lifespan.

He found the Hundred Flowers had just under four thousand years remaining.

"Whew... That's great."

Levi internally marveled, revealing a satisfied expression.

Hundred Flowers, seeing his grin, asked:

"What's up?"

Levi smiled and said:

"You don't need to push yourself too much from now on. I just used a secret technique on you; your remaining lifespan should be around four thousand years."

Hundred Flowers' expression changed, evidently doubting.

"Really? You're not joking, are you?"

She estimated that if she didn't become an eighth-circle, she'd have just over two thousand left.

Levi spoke earnestly:

"Really, I'm not lying to you. It's a long story, but just trust me."
