

Wizard 238

Chapter 238: Demigod and Legendary! (3)

After Winnie finished speaking, she muttered something. Then, her body floated down from the ship lightly like a feather and landed on White Tower No. 7.

It looked like some cantrip.

"Come down, junior. It shouldn't be a problem for a grand knight, right?" Winnie said.

Levi nodded and jumped down from the tall boat. With a bang, he landed on White Tower No. 7's head.

White Tower No. 7 swayed and was almost smashed to the bottom of the sea.

The seawater flooded over and soaked the defenseless Winnie.

"Uh... I'm sorry, Senior, I'm too heavy," Levi was a little embarrassed. He did not expect this alchemical creature to be so fragile.

He was close to becoming a legendary grand knight and simultaneously cultivated strength, physique, and defense breathing techniques. This caused his physical density to be much higher than ordinary people's.

He was tall, to begin with, and he was wearing the Frost Giant Armor, which made him weigh more than a thousand pounds.

The impact of falling from the tall ship was undoubtedly too significant.

"Pfft."

Winnie smiled and said, "It's okay. Just don't break the Tower Master's White Tower No. 7. You won't be able to afford it."

Winnie stroked the seawater on her long hair. Her soaked wizard robe clung tightly to her body, highlighting her perfect figure.

On the other hand, Levi was staring at the island in front of him. The island was even more significant than the territories of some barons in the human world. Its diameter should be close to 100 miles. The island was surrounded by fog, and there were mountains and primitive forests everywhere. There was no end to it, and the low roars of wild beasts could be heard.

White Tower No. 7 slowly advanced and finally arrived at the island's coast. After landing on the island, White Tower No. 7 stopped and lay on the side, not moving.

Winnie jumped down and led the way. Levi followed silently.

The Gray Tower looked very close but was still far from the coast. To take care of Winnie's speed, Levi strolled.

Winnie had a cantrip that could speed up the journey but did not think it was necessary. It had been a long time since a newcomer had come to the Gray Tower. It was not easy for her to get a chance to chat with the newcomer, so she would not miss it.

Along the way, the taciturn Levi was forced to chat with his talkative senior.

Fortunately, he was a wily old fox in his previous life, so it was not a problem for him to deal with a wizard like his senior sister, who had few interpersonal relationships.

Not long after, they arrived at the bottom of the Grey Tower.

"I'll take you to see the Tower Master first. Every new wizard has to see him," Winnie said.

Levi nodded and followed.

The Tower Master lived in the White Tower all year round. The White Tower was the residence of an official wizard. There were seven floors, and the Tower Master lived on the highest floor.

The other three First-Circle Wizards stayed on the lower level. Some empty floors in the White Tower were still prepared for future official wizards, while the first level was not occupied.

The hundred-meter-tall White Tower was as tall as the office buildings in his previous life.

Levi entered the first floor of the White Tower. Inside was a vast circular square. There were some uniquely shaped wooden planks on the court. Levi looked at them and saw that they were all the schedules of wizard courses; some were the mission boards and other public function areas.

A stone pillar ran through the entire White Tower at the center of the square. Levi saw a giant frosty white snake on the post as thick as a water tank coiling around it.

The giant snake was huge, and each scale was the size of a palm. It was emitting a metallic luster. It coiled around the pillar, raised its head, and stuck out its tongue. It cast a cold aura as it stared at Levi.

The aura of the giant snake made Levi feel a massive sense of oppression.

Even the First-generation Blood Clan member, the legendary knight Anderson, did not give Levi such a massive sense of oppression.

"A transcendent creature! A true transcendent creature! Moreover, it was at least comparable to an official wizard," Levi exclaimed in his heart.

"Let's go. Let Jorman Gund take us to the seventh floor," Winnie said. She gently approached the white snake's side and reached out. The white snake lowered its head and let her stroke it.

"Junior, come here. Don't be afraid. Jorman Gund is the pet of the first Tower Master when he was young. He is a [Frost Ice Python] raised by the first Tower Master. His age is the same as the Gray Tower, and he has witnessed the changes in our organization for 400 years."

Winnie looked smug. This was something to be proud of.

As Levi walked over, the white snake stuck its tongue beside him. Levi could feel that the Black Snake Seed in his body seemed provoked, and an invisible pressure was emitted from his pupils.

Then, the white snake quietly turned its head back.

It no longer dared to sniff around Levi.

Levi could feel the Black Snake Seed's strange movements.

If the Black Snake with a Candle existed, even if the white snake was a transcendent creature, it was still a little brother in front of the mighty Black Snake.

Then, the white snake's tail wrapped around Levi and Winnie, and its body coiled around the giant pillar, spiraling into the sky.

Soon, they reached the seventh floor.

After putting Levi and the others down, the white snake stared at Levi and silently descended.

The seventh floor was very spacious. Levi saw all kinds of rooms, all of which were decorated with skull symbols that represented danger. One wrote, "Tower Master Forbidden Area.. Trespassing will be severely punished!"