

Wizard 243

Chapter 243: Blood Beast Limit Breaker, Deep Sea Level 2!

(1)

The hall on the first floor of the White Tower.

Jorman Gund the White Snake had been dozing off.

Until he saw the tall young man walking in with two swords on his back.

It silently watched the young man.

This person was naturally Levi.

Levi looked at the white snake.

"If I use the blood of this white snake to make the Black Snake Secret Medicine, the effect should be very good."

The effect of the Black Snake Secret Medicine was mainly related to the snake blood.

Previously, when Levi was in the human world, and because they were all mortal snakes, he had casually made them.

However, there were some snakes in the wizard world that were at the level of Transcendents, and Levi started to think about it.

Of course, he didn't dare to fight Jorman.

He just felt that he could pay attention to some extraordinary creature materials in the future.

Levi was the only one in the hall.

The other apprentices were either in class or training.

Levi looked at his quest bar.

All members of the Gray Tower had the right to issue missions.

After the other party completed the mission, he only needed to pay the points.

It was similar to the Bounty Pane of the Shining Tavern.

These missions usually gave very few points, usually only 1 point.

The missions that gave more points were issued by official wizards, also known as the “White Tower Mission”.

Of course, the difficulty of the white tower mission would also increase.

Moreover, the white tower missions that were easy to complete were in high demand. Usually, once they appeared, they would be snatched away by the apprentice wizards.

The rest were usually missions with high requirements, low points, and even a little dangerous.

[White Tower Mission: Recruiting an apprentice to assist the teacher in completing the pharmaceutical mission. The requirement is to have basic pharmaceutical knowledge, be proficient in pharmaceutical techniques, and have patience. Reward: 5 points (per month) Poster, Wizard Marlene]

[White Tower Mission: Take care of the herbs in the small garden, be responsible for daily watering, fertilizing, pest control, and preventing the intrusion of wild beasts. Reward: 30 points (per year) Poster, Wizard Marlene]

[White Tower Mission: Head to the Blacksail Wizard Market and maintain order. Requirements: Possesses the strength of a mid-level apprentice wizard or above. Reward: 100 points (per year) Poster, White Robe wizard Herman]

After walking around, Levi realized that there were only a few White Tower Missions that had not been accepted. They were all daily quests. These quests took a long time and were not cost-effective, so they were not very popular among the apprentice.

Levi was helpless. Other than these missions, he had no other choice.

Wizard Marlene was one of the three official wizards. She was the teacher who taught the wizards' general education course and was also the pharmacist of the Gray Tower. Most of the potions in the potion shop in White Sail Alley were made by Wizard Marlene, including the [Green Elf's Tears] that Levi needed.

Among these three missions, the third mission was issued by the Tower Master. It was also the one with the highest reward, but it was also the most difficult. This was a long-term mission.

The Blacksail Wizard Market was not on this island. It was located on a nearby Blacksail Island.

Blacksail Island did not belong to any organization in the vicinity. It was more like a trading center. Wizard organizations such as the Gray Tower, Whale Song Island, Sighing Sea Breeze, and other wizard forces in the sea area traded with each other. It was on this island that, over time, formed a market.

In the Blacksail Wizard Market, there were a large number of unorganized wizards or apprentice wizards who also set up stalls there.

As for the Gray Tower, they naturally had their own businesses in that market. They sold potions and wizard tools to earn Aether Stones from the hands of those wizards who did not belong to any organization.

The market was a mix of good and bad, and there were also a few unscrupulous outlaws who liked to cause trouble in the market. In the end, these large wizard organizations had a discussion. Each organization sent some people out to form a law enforcement team in the Blacksail Wizard Market, which was responsible for maintaining the daily order of the market.

Levi thought that with his current strength, it was better for him not to join the law enforcement team. When he reached a certain level, he could consider earning points. After all, the points for this mission were quite a lot. Levi accepted the quest and went to Witch Marlene's room on the third floor of the White Tower.

Witch Marlene was an old lady with white hair, wrinkled skin, and a bloated body. She was fiddling with her flowers and plants at the moment.

"Madam Marlene, I am Levi who applied for the pharmaceutical apprentice mission." Levi coughed and said.

Madam Marlene turned around. Her eyes were very big and looked a little strange. She looked like Yubaba from Hayao Miyazaki's anime. She laughed in a hoarse and sharp voice, "You must be the new one."

"Yes." Levi nodded.

"Do you know anything about pharmaceuticals?" Marlene asked, obviously not believing Levi.

"Teacher, I worked as a pharmacist in the human world for a period of time, so

I know a little," Levi answered.

He was a man who possessed level 4 in pharmaceuticals.

In the human world, he was already known as a pharmaceutical master.

However, he didn't know what level he was at when it came to pharmaceuticals.

"Oh, I have a relatively simple potion formula here. Take it. If you can concoct the potion within seven days, you will pass the preliminary assessment," Witch Marlene said.

Levi nodded and took the formula. Witch Marlene even gave Levi some herbs, so that he would not have to buy them since he had no money.

"Thank you, Ms. Marlene."

Levi took the formula and hurried back to the ninth floor of the Gray Tower.

Although Witch Marlene looked a little scary, she was probably the kindest wizard in the Gray Tower..