Chapter 253: Red Lotus Form and Nine Swords Form vs an Official Wizard! (5)

"Little Levi, are you confident in helping Oliver?"

Ms. Marlene looked at Levi.

Levi could see the expectation in his teacher's eyes. He took a deep breath and smiled. "Teacher, leave it to me. Just refine in peace."

After Levi finished speaking, he went to Oliver's room.

Oliver was anxious, his face red, and sweating profusely.

He was worried that Marlene would fail the certification because of him.

Then he would be in trouble.

Although Ms. Marlene was a good person, she probably wouldn't punish him severely.

But Oliver would feel extremely guilty.

"Senior Brother Oliver, which step are you on? Let me do it," Levi asked calmly.

When he saw Levi, it was as if he had seen a life-saving straw.

"Junior Brother, I've reached the fourth step. I'm too stupid. I clearly trained well before. Sigh, I dropped the ball at the crucial moment." Oliver blamed himself.

"Senior Brother, move aside. Let me try. There should be no problem. There are only two steps left."

Oliver immediately stepped aside. He was so nervous that he was about to suffocate.

Wizard Angus looked at the calm Levi, stroking his beard with a calm expression.

"Not bad, you have the potential to become an excellent pharmacist."

"Indeed, his technique is very skilled and very calm. He is like an alchemical creature that accurately implements every step of the plan." Another First-Circle Pharmacist said.

"It seems that the inheritance of the future pharmacists of the Gray Tower won't be broken," Angus said with a smile.

On the other side, after Levi took over Oliver's work, he immediately analyzed the current situation and continued with the refining work.

After a while, Witch Marlene's refinement job had finally reached the last step.

"Supplementary potion, hurry up."

Marlene urged. Her emotions even fluctuated a little. It could be seen how important this matter was to her.

"It's done." Levi didn't bother wiping the sweat off his forehead. He took the two bottles of supplementary potions and walked out of the lab.

Finally, at the last step.

Four bottles of freshly brewed supplementary potions were poured into Marlene's crucible at the same time.

The final step of the assembly process was not something Levi and the others could meddle in.

Whether he could succeed or not would depend on her luck.

"You have to succeed." Levi thought to himself.

As time passed, Ms. Marlene threw the eyeball of a certain creature into the crucible. The pot of potion boiled completely, and white mist filled the air. Levi noticed that countless potions began to pour into the eyeball.

Finally, at the bottom of the crucible, a black bead lay quietly at the bottom.

An entire crucible of medicine was absorbed by this bead.

The bead emitted a demonic black light, and its surface was densely covered with blood vessels, like an eyeball.

This was the second circle potion, Eye Devil's Gaze.

Although it was strange, the refinement was indeed successful.

The sound of clapping rang out.

"Congratulations, Ms. Marlene. The Eye Devil's Gaze has been successfully refined. Our branch has another Second-Circle Pharmacist." President Angus congratulated her.

The other pharmacists also congratulated her.

Witch Marlene was sweating profusely and panting heavily as if she had just been in an intense battle.

She finally smiled, her wrinkled face filled with relief.

"Thank you, everyone. The potion has been successfully refined, so I won't disturb you any longer. I'll take a short rest and leave with my apprentices," Witch Marlene said.

"Alright. The certification badge will be sent to you later," President Angus said.

Witch Marlene kept the Eye Devil's Gaze and walked towards the port with Levi and Oliver.

On the way, Levi saw Jagri. The young man was wearing a wizard robe and greeted Levi.

It seemed that he still remembered Levi.

Levi smiled in response.

After leaving Whale Song Island, Levi, and the others boarded the return ship.

"Thank you, Little Levi. If it weren't for you, this refinement might have failed." Ms. Marlene's eyes were filled with sincere gratitude. This was really important to her.

Oliver lowered his head, not daring to look at Marlene.

Marlene sighed. "It's fine, Oliver. Don't worry too much. At least the result is good. You should pay more attention in the future and learn more from Junior Brother Levi."

As if he had been pardoned, Oliver hid in the cabin and reflected on himself.

A notification came from his bracelet, and Levi looked at it.

[Points: 108]

Previously, Levi only had 8 points left.

Obviously, it was Ms. Marlene who had transferred him 100 points!

According to the requirements of the mission, Levi would only get 5 points in a month. Even if he completed it for a year, he would only get 60 points.

Obviously, this time, Ms. Marlene was delighted that she transferred 100 points.

"Teacher, this is too much..." Levi said. He was quite embarrassed. He felt that he had not done much work. Moreover, he had also obtained a lot of formulas from his teacher for free in the past six months. Now that he had so many points, he felt guilty.

"You're welcome. You deserve it. The value of Eye Devil's Gaze is far beyond your imagination." Ms. Marlene patted Levi's shoulder.

"Then I'll accept it. Thank you, Teacher." Levi said.

"Alright, I'll go back to the cabin to meditate and rest. You should rest early too." Ms. Marlene was very tired. She returned to the cabin, set up a protective spell, and began to rest.

Levi also returned to the cabin.

"With 100 points, I can buy a wand and also exchange two spell models. I'll go to White Sail Alley to get them. I've been here for half a year, but my path as a wizard did not start taking off like now." Levi pondered..
